triggered or trapped?

Thank you for responding to my request Dave! That WAS rapid indeed.

I grew up on dutch tv in the 60s, abandoned it till the late nineties .. tried to make sense of notes on scraps of paper in the 80, hit the net in the noughties ... and did one last boottube blow out splurge then also ... i watched the HBO series Carnivale.

And it sure helped me appreciate all these bloodline / temple and bad goal post moving company screeds i see getting in 'the way' (to block 'my way'). You have to get into the migratory aspects of distance (hostage / saviour / prodigal / merchant [stranger king] 'magic') to pin head or tail on rites of empire mulling over and plotting ways to validate, justify, consolidate, legitimate, update and prolong past sins in nearby caves and/or carefully surveyed monumentalities.

... you know, it's just a fatefulness that easily turns fatal when a word like fable shares first letter with fact ... you can't win, you can't know, you can't 'gro[up] up' enough to escape fantasy land* and between a prayer, spell and order the lines blur and consequences can be lasting and unperceived rather than imperceptible.

* = in which Lavoy sees and believes in the ideal public servant into which he can shame even very naughty boys (just before a fatal flash), and in which the agent can't see value in a 'perfect[ly killed]' villain due to their respectively biased professionalism, the dutch, a thoroughly segregist society, call it blindness [beroepsblindheid] leading to petrification [verzuildeheid which literally means pillarized but not pillorized cause division of labour is sacrosanct] .. it's the mild form of tox enhanced nerdifying 'autistication'.

due to sovereignty vs prankster bankster aspects and baggage of the location (templar mason / soldier sailor tinker tailor) the protesters attempting to occupy the occupiers (disown the disowners!), i mean our hapless wizquesters ... traptripwired far deeper and more vicious layers of the federal commandtower -- 'piste de marbre' / knikkerbaan / marble track, .. liar's lair and [sekular {no mercy, just ice} kabalkabad] layerkache -- than they bargained and were prepared for, nevermind knew how to brace against ... which made them run right into a rain of bullets ... as the fbi's good judges of character were told to look the other way or else (perhaps temporarily relieved of commands, if any had 'm high enough, to prevent the sending of no questions asking attackdogs, fanatic enough to even jump in front of prey threatening to escape).

about that (capital) venture mention:

dutch news item minutes ago:

'TBSer' (prisoner with leave privileges, surveilled [per electronic ankle signal] semi-incarcerate) sues police officer who shot him in the arm while fleeing in the vehicle, after police team extracted his 3 passengers, for 'undue violence'.

another item: english wildlife protection pilot dies shortly after landing from poacher gun shot wound, somewhere in africa.

in holland, this has been empire, the venture capital is turned (inside) out as 'rot-op premie' (get lost bonus), often applied 'interfamilially' (or should i say [spl] interfamilially) to remain true to my poetpietistic neologistics).

It's a talk with Trevor Eugene of vibinhigher.com about the Jesus NOVELS - yes, the novellas that give us the mythic story of a Hebrew wizard, Ishu, Yeshua - or Jesus. Why do we believe some myths and not others? It's not that they're true - it's that we're never told that they're myths when we're young and impressionable...And then, onto LISTENER MAILBAG; I'll read through a couple bits of bile received in the electronic mail system and see if I can figure out why the people who worship religion and science with blinders on are so incredibly dense - and mean. well, that certainly puts an end – for all time – to the diffusion versus independent origination debate doesn't it!

As if anything or anyone moving from one zone to another immediately loses their 'authenticity' of identity!

Due to the incredible work of Edith Stewart we now know that the 'native Indians[Indian! another howler!]of North America were indeed mix of Tibeto-Turkic elements of Central Asia's Uighur Empire (with a touch of our own Tocharian cousins!) who fled the destruction of the Mongols via the Alaskan islands route – after taking wives from among the Tunguts whom they passed through on the way. Hardly more than six centuries past! A mixed Asian population successfully "naturalized" to a new continent. Just like horse would be a couple of centuries late....

when the "Red Indians" came across them, they were extremely quick to acquire and domesticate those animals – why? Because their genetic memory of that favored means of transportation from their Asian forbears was still fresh!

+Rocks-to-Earth-SPIinner - They had no license. They just have lie-sense. Nobody has a right to profit off of the video made by a private individual anyhow, except for that individual who used his recorder to record it. The only reason it would be necessary is if they were a company and they'd all gone in on it for profit. That's when it becomes a legal issue that there has to be agreement who holds the rights to the recording. But that would have to have been established at the outset of the venture. They wouldn't all work on a production and then later 1 of them go seek from the others sole profit rights. So, your hackard legal mumbo jumbo offers them no cover from their blatant treachery against who ever it was out there that wasn't party to the hoax, but was instead a target of the tyranny.

my rant tried to point out what i think jesus was on a mission for (not sanctioning occupation of other people's continent that's for damn sure) .. but you see "hackard legal mumbo jumbo" .. 'offering cover to treacherous tyranny'. Wow dude. I do note though that in this case 5 threads will be inextricable: the extractors and their contractees, the occupied and occupiers, a semblance (covering for a sham) of justice ... held together by a micro-mission man (as i 'precisais' deja) amputated from and lifted out of his element/habitat to be transposed / projected and abused as a mascotte. I just listened to Victoria's mom# and to me at least, she proves this knottiness of the nuttiness (legalese eh) in which, who knows, the restive ghosts of giants and the genocidaires of their genocidaires claim their parts.

Now, the CIA and other Pindo Pindo-Jewish intelligence agencies are targeting parties across the political spectrum: rightist nationalists, leftist anti-globalists and anti-militarists, and secessionists. They are Pindo Pindo-Jewish targets merely because they are opposed to Pindo Pindo-Jewish crypto-imperialism and globalized dominance by international bankers and investment houses (the Global ZOG, in other words - RB).

Radio Free South Africa Tribute to LaVoy Finicum - 1st February, 2016

thank you for bringing on very informed guests ... except for one crucial aspect (missing everywhere i looked so far), to wit: the long term effects of patrist herding. denudation, aridification, erosion, 'machismofofication' are effects of men banding together to please the naturally expansive (pop. explosive) tendencies of matrism (with a much deeper pedigree, waaaay back into unrecorded history).

I'd like to give feddies the benefit of the doubt and a tip on how to go about agenda 21 dictated / recommended env. restoration (if that is what they are after rather than use as a front for profit motivated deals).

An unrelated (commisioned by the Chinese gvt) documentation of Loess Plateau restoration by John Liu shows clearly that FENCING CATTLE OUT of areas to be worked rather intensely until strategic treerows are robust enough to withstand cattle passage IS CRUCIAL TO THE SUCCESS OF SUCH INCREDIBLY FRUITFUL UNDERTAKINGS KNOWN AS THE 'SWALING' OF AREAS ARIDIFIED FROM HUMAN IMPACT.

Colin Liddell joins the show to discuss his article "The National Rearview: Obituary of a Cuckservative Rag." We talk about William F. Buckley Jr. and his magazine The National Review and the role conservatism played during the Cold War. We also discuss Buckley's purging of Old Rightists from the conservative movement for their apostasy of not supporting the Cold War agenda. Later we talk about neoconservative infiltration and various cultural and economic issues.

Prophet of the Great War

In 1912, a German teacher anticipated the horrors of World War I in a novel. His name was Willhelm Lamszus. With his bestseller "The Human Slaughterhouse – Pictures of the Coming War" he wrote a disturbing prophecy about things to come in what we now call the Great War or World War I.

Willhelm Lamszus was captivated by that question and continued writing against war. His collection of poetry "The Mound of Corpses" published in 1921 and his co-editorship of "A Curse on Weapons" revealed his consistent and continued commitment to pacifism in their titles.

After the Great War, there was an international "No More War" movement able to mobilize hundreds of thousands in England, Holland, Germany and the Scandinavian states. But how much of a force for pacifism was it really? In Germany about 70,000 people belonged to pacifist organizations. That was a lot compared to the 10,000 members before 1914, but negligible compared to the millions of members of nationalist associations (such as the Stahlhelm).

zogsports, the deniability / lightning rod factor unmasked and updated.
Essentially sports are a functional alibi to obscure / legitimate behind the scene shenanigans .. where right wing violence is regimented and provided top dollar killing and assassination toys. Now, take this game element which began gained popularity in tv family circles and indoors; it ha on the one hand metastatized in focus: charmcocoon, nerdify and ultimately abort ripening malehood via a pretty moving colour 'eye-jack' trick and on the other we have the spacial factor, adventure element in the quest / task / participation game added. Now to clean this up all and tweak this evolution into an 'embeddiment' sector good enough to eclipse the preceding fight / grow / serve ones and make it of as real a use, crossbordering and bordercrossing both, we need a scenario i have already advocated and spoken about in comments for a few years:
freedom of movement and mental diet (careerchoice) restriction (5 or 10 sq miles minimum w permie manuals as the sole 'intellojuice' 'flowstimulants'). The beauty is of course, that it can be tried anytime anywhere, and best of all, with some voluntary pioneers you'd not have to spend a lot of incentive / encouragement money on!!!
Now if that doesn't beat Lonnie's incendiary crap a goozilljewn times over i guess i'll just have to try harder next time.

Ps: Lobro, would you do me the honour of letting me chauffeur you to destinations of your choosing and time which are hard to

1 rancher renounces federal grazing contract at Bundy event - January 24, 2016 12:01AM
"What we're doing is making sure it's secured as a right. And (ranchers) will make the decision on how to maintain it, how to care for it, and how to manage," he said.
Sewell, the New Mexico rancher, said he had a 34,000-acre allotment and was restricted to having 85 cattle graze there. He said historically 600 cattle have grazed on the property.
For the BLM and Forest Service, grazing fees are based on something called an animal unit month, or AUM. That's defined as the amount of forage needed to sustain one cow and her calf, one horse, or five sheep or goats for a month.
That's set through a Congressionally mandated formula. Currently, the cost is $1.69 per AUM. Grazing contracts typically run 10 years. The BLM said that in fiscal year 2014, it spent $34.3 million on livestock grazing administration and collected $12.1 million in grazing fees.

I am conflicted and torn about, as well as concerned for you all. let me list the major pros and cons. the american homestead, as long as it was oriented towards the long lost noahide garden practice and heading straight for permacultural excellence, charmed me early on, even '2 pistols kid' comics had me drawing his main tool (with a pencil, ..my dad used a penguin but i went rogue dissident before reaching that stage in my butcher ed).

My dad began work in a butchershop at 13 and fridays was blood to the ankles day downstairs until we moved at 5 and he started to work the tele machines to augment the back of the matchbox calculations and expedite the distro of Arg. meats via Rotterdam; downstairs was off the small, center village raised hump that features bridge, city hall, church, 5 more shops and a smithy when i was young, the latter was more or less ground level. Higher ground is the scarcity around these here black soil parts.

i was born amidst small farmers strung out along polder roads (typically 20 adresses per kilometer, sprinkled either side of roads both sides of a drainage rivulet / canal; i grew up on the cusp of just such a watercourse near the largest wooded Delta / wetlands left of its kind on the Rhine, the Biesbosch and this junk-junction included already receding heavy duty cable and rope twisters, tugboats industries when i grew up .. now just about fully replaced by oligarch yacht industries).

I say: DE.LU.SION.AL. I do NOT say: where do i sign up?

Endangered Species Act, Agenda 21 and the Bolsheviks.

You seem to imply that a major chunk of the blame for Lavoy's murder may lies with animal liberators and maybe even forest defenders but .. consider this:
ecoDefender membership suddenly dropped somewhere in the late eighties - right as i began to think of not working on my resident alien status and settling in america for real, exactly bycause this type of extreme polarization between loggers and treehuggers, farmers and hippies drove me desperate - along the formula: prosecution triggers suppression of sympathies, just the kind of thinkg elites are always looking for, investing in, false hoaxing up, etscattera .. The sympathies reemerged via official employment along A21 lines but a larger factor is prolly that standard kneejerk attempt at crime reduction applied here also, reduce individual costs and double social costs (never mind the opening of double life career opps for now): offer half the perps to begin receiving regular pay for the betrayal, discouragement and prosecution of former rivals/colleagues.

In a predatory, secrecy based gvt w proprietary individuality worship, employment in the spook spooking spooks business forms the taboo unspoken for insatiable, capacious black hole to sacrifice what should be held sacred.

Sure i loved the ESA use by forest defenders ..

.. yet also and even more so .. right along WITH you this time .. i squarely blame 'Bolshfluence' migrating to Turtle Isle all throughout the last past century!!!!!! as Solzhenitsyn explained in the book NOT translated to English for this very reason!!!!!!!
Biggest lesson of the nineties for me.

And so ...

Lavoy? Let's hope he faked his death for real and not just in a book .. but i am afraid he's no more than a simpleton jewboy like Reagan and certainly a white semite haunted by Stockholmed, thus at this point very much self-inflicted monstrosities. Either way i will prolly not get to bounce my thoughts on Jesus off him, to wit: was he taught rockdust lozenges for sore threath recipes by Cernunnos which he tried to take home and import there, prolly the last great 'threat' (did you note the quote marks?) overgrazing / desertification memes / vector carriers have had to endure for a while now?

Rowan: some thoughts about trotskyism that suddenly occurred to me vis-a-vis nothing
There can be no doubt, surely, that in 1929 Leon Trotsky physically defected 'to the West,' ie to the Pindostanis. It would have been too obvious for him to go direct to Pindostan itself, so he went to Mexico, which was then ruled by the 'revolutionary' PRI party of Lazaro Cardenas. To judge by appearances, it seemed thenceforth that it was Trotsky who was carrying on the genuine Marxist doctrine, while Stalin back in Russia was 'falsifying' it, to use Trotsky's own term. Stalin's theory of coexistence with capitalism was completely anti-Marxist. Marx regarded it as axiomatic that capitalism and communism would fight tooth & nail until one destroyed the other, and that they could not possibly coexist. So the result was that the 'communists' began preaching an anti-marxist doctrine, while the true marxist doctrine was being preached by Trotsky's people, who were nevertheless in practical terms just as 'anti-communist' as the FBI and covertly, under this cloak of 'anti-Stalinism', had become pro-imperialist, pro-Pindostan, and pro-capitalism (cos Trotsky had really and truly defected, sold out and promised the Pindostanis that he would be good). This paradox could not have come about of its own accord. The explanation, surely, is that before they are 'marxists' or 'communists' they are Jews, and their only real desire is to take back Russia from Stalin. It is the manifestation of a policy based on higher principles: that of the international Jewish directorate, whatever it is, owned and controlled by the Lords of the Money Power, the Mighty Emitters of Currency, and so forth – RB

where jackass takes the lead, snafus are sure to follow
I find it enormously interesting that the so-called 'Freedom Hawks of Kurdistan' (TAK in Kurdish) have taken responsibility for the Ankara car bomb. Here is the money quote: Late Friday, the Turkey-based Kurdistan Freedom Falcons, an 'offshoot' of the PKK, claimed responsibility for the Ankara attack.

----- I am familiar with this sort of group from Gaza. Unpleasantly familiar. Such 'offshoots' are usually antagonists of their parent, or even sold-out pseudo-gangs, and will commit acts to sabotage the parent. The groups classed as 'more militant than Hamas' are provocateur groups; when they fire a rocket, Hamas is punished for it. In one respect, matters seem similar here. But in another, not so. I argued a day or two ago that false flag attacks were less likely to aim at military targets, and more likely to aim at civilian ones. The purpose of the false flag attack is to stampede civilian opinion (usually referred to as 'public' opinion). To attack military targets seems to me to be more indicative of a real old-fashioned revolutionary Marxist-style guerrilla outfit, and this was such an extremely professional attack, the 'best' terrorist attack technically since god knows when, therefore, I reasoned, this was not so likely to be a false flag attack.

niquaq 20-02-16 17:07 well, I cannot completely clear either Luxemburg or Lenin in the dispute over the accumulation of capital, because I think neither of them grasped the essential point; indeed, I don't think Marx himself exactly had a firm grip on it. But I think it is summarized by Paul Mattick saying that the contradiction that leads to the profitability crisis does not lie in the sphere of circulation but in the sphere of production. Therefore they were both wrong (though Mattick defends Luxemburg very loyally). But the area in which I emphatically agree with Luxemburg against Lenin is that 'The Revolution' should not have taken place in Russia but in Germany, which it could & would have done, if Lenin had not been a traitor to the 'Movement' whose leadership he hijacked (as often happens, with money), taking the gold of the German General Staff (and others, I expect).

harbinger: Piet, Interestingly enough I watched that very video yesterday. I was interested in a particular part he made about why it was a disaster to give women the vote because unlike men, who choose freedom, women choose security and therefore in doing so, create the authoritarian state. thanx much lobro, and i'll try to consolidate and broaden my welcome (as always anywhere really) by recalling some stages and nodes in personal vs '[spl]internetworth' levels of awareness, a fractious undertaking in both cases. The mirror glyph in mayan iconography is the most symmetric of them all and it's deceptive simplicity hints at folds & steps / quadrants & bio-clocktime ... which when poorly connected causes all the rattle, roll and disconnect between genders, classes, races .. and .. ages of course, even those the same age are on hugely diff'ring tiers due to demografixtures / habits / strategies.
I recognize value / hype / buzz / pressing subjects that become subjected to propagandistic fi[b]repower about a decade ahead of time and so it was with the now viralizing rapproachment of (alas) a mere half the (timing) problem areas; Weininger was in the back of my mind a long time (his insistance jews apply a female strategy .. which folks like Ivry Dov [a man i found in the noughties by looking at net-authors i shared bd with, haah!] distort into claims Israel is the only true matriarchy by the way), finding no opps to bring him up ... until the MRA and such (socalled men's movements) kicked off, but to no avail. somewhere around the turn of the millenium i posted this colourful file (which, as i am disconcerted to find just now, has a pop-up [nuthin new there] with a veritable video ad - i don't like to be responsible for the seizures this can subject the slower boxes and 'kinexts' amongst us to)

by J D Unwin, written in the 20s or 30s straight anthropianism if you ask me, see Jane Schneider for modern and more sober research on the 'festival of the poor' (l'amplesso sessuale).

This here pretty much and partly justifiably forgotten author seems proof positive one cannot at the same time be lucky in love and outrageously rich. His overlooked insights in the former are undermined by the simplicity exhibited in the latter material. I offer some examples of both.

a quick glance tells me i made a poor editing choice back then cutting off a passage about monogamy in the middle i added a parenthesis to this passage:

The voyages of Captain Cook and of the strip Duff are examples of expansive energy, but their purpose was not aggressive. (I suppose they brought no guns so no-one could ever misunderstand them either eh?) In the past most expansive societies have had to fight for their new lands, but there are some examples of societies which have not been compelled to do so.

... and the close proximity of homophonic concepts like trust and just led me to try put them in perspective with thrust / lust / dust in the years that followed, not to mention the ones inspired by the money monogamy, monotheism 'relationality' specialist LWL himself - whose work never got onto the net any further than a few quotes, mine own can use better systematization before it's any use as ammo in debate but between all my chores and ambitions, like driving lobro around Germany as the best uber ever, filing my testament (not necessarily in that order), etcetera, i hardly know where to start.

quoting Kyle Hunt: "there is a happy medium between slutwalks and the nunnery".

One worrying thing in all discussions is the anthropomorphization (86.600x) of them; a deeper and more grounded version of the truth in this case is the grippy* medium soil between mountain and ocean floor.

* the dirty fucking grippies will be right

"desire to control women and view them as essentially worthless comes directly from jewish brains"

nope. The fearborn safety in numbers kneejerk -- to their own 'demographixation' = in[ter]continen[t]ce = success and expansiveness which they metastatize and hype into generalized, uniform, 'universal', in one word, pimped versions of duh fashio fasci phase visage fissioviSION - where labels and numbers are weaponized, discarding the 'qualipaths' for overwhelming quantigate-way-pay(-)verse' -- IS the extreme form of y'ol' female brain.

To understand this, it suffices NOT to know Otto Weininger (over Freud), Robert Graves and William Bond, Robert Wrangham, several 'gaiafems' (Derrick Jensen tends to have them on his radio show) .. valuable 'step ups' though they be to the inner sanctum, ... it is ESSENTIAL to understand Andrew Lehman neoteny.org (a man i was lucky/cursed to run into early enough to have the usual decade jump on yall when it comes to digesting his insights, .. what's new, right?).

Remix imperatives signify/scream absense and blockage of 'weemix'.

Remix imperatives, destructive and desperate though they be, are the perfectly logical outcome, the fevered symptoms of a deeply dug and pylonpinned skew, born under, enabled and brought about by nothing more complicated than re- and displacement, absense and blockage of 'weemix'* conditions and 'fecundation':

bottomline: numeration gone haywire, potemkination, the gon, a dense stand of temples to the making of which all trees were 'sacrificed' (best intention, worst results).

Mr. Kalergi was propagating "pacifism" again and again which was required for the peace of nations, but at the same time he permitted Jewish brutal force. He supported only the declaration about equality before the law until the actual Jewish system would be abrogated.

don't know the guy from Adam really .. a few quick visits delivered none of his own words about pacifism -- i imagine he will NOT have praised jews...

yeah, ethics is their weak and even sore point .. of pain - being in denial about vital urgency to actively see and push them (instead of enshrining them as the sacred autoscenarist behind the calendarization deniability curtain) - easily pointed out though, with a little practice, jesus could do it (temple compost-coin grounding# action anybody?), so they can too.

Unless you are a rock perfectly conservative and 'ussufficiently' hanging together up to great great frigid heights, a rigid cramp is what we designate 'pain'; considering rocks our kin is the best way to escape the slivery splinter portions of anthropocentritis which isolate and insulate that illusory /undead 'self' in order to 'notsee' (and NAtionally Zionize) the social weave of (and around) it all; rocks are easily concentrated on (if you're willing to be happy 'camper' .. and willingly confined by well watched monastic / thinktank / devout pilgrim's piles of them, put on a dwindling ration but given space and weather enough to turn 'm

The Ammon Bundy Patriots hurt no one ! But if you protest this criminal Government you will be chained, shackled and sent to a FEMA camp. But where are the Killers who murdered Lavoy Finicum ? The real Killers are being protected by a Criminal Government Cabal, while Real American Patriots are Chained, Shackled and Murdered. We are now watching a Historic event in motion, as this Kangaroo court tries to railroad the Ammon Bundy Patriots in Oregon, they will not even let a Camera in to show America the Truth. One Day 200 Million out of work Americans will put their Foot down, that day is getting Closer and Closer at hand ! end quote

dear zoetsters & braders, i turn eyes heavenwards when i hear your shock & outrage over SaintS[h]illy and all those who, whenever memories and/or spectres of real violence prompts them, match that shit with promises, threats and .. oh so illusorily deterrent versions of their own. Reported full unlock road Khanasser-Aleppo that allows uninterrupted supply grupirovka the Syrian army and its mercenaries under Aleppo. In general, the goal of ISIS has been achieved, (despite the) release of the “pot” by the Syrians (???), but had to withdraw the upcoming orders from almost all combat-ready units, and before the armistice

they were not able to encircle Aleppo. Obviously this was a major task which was undertaken by the Islamists. ISIS operates In the same way in Iraq: distracting strikes. Today in Baghdad, a powerful attack with a double explosion was made in a Shi'ite part of the city. The number of victims has already reached 70 people. The Iraqi government has to enhance the protection of cities and roads, diverting forces from the front. Desert war with over-extended communications creates opportunities for defenders. ISIS has perfectly mastered the tactics of distracting blows, not allowing the enemy to concentrate his considerable force the fact that people consider him important, a Kim Kardashian of his day, his philosophy botoxed with silicone tits and cosmetics, a real crowdpleaser, SNL would give him a self parodying spot just like Kirk Douglas. Therefore, I am impressed that he managed to impress so many people. I guess because they are impressionable. If there are other planets harboring life, I am sure the Jew seed had migrated there as well by way of asteroid impact and invaded local organisms, thus there is no escaping the responsibility of dealing with the problem in situ.

Dietrich was in the Marines. Case closed. He's a shill. The Navy has been following the British Navy's NWO agenda since WW I.
The old generation of partial truth-tellers, such as Gordon Duff, Preston James, James Fetzer, Jordan Maxwell, Alex Jones, David Icke, are getting up in years; therefore, a new gaggle of propagandists must be cultivated. The new Gatekeepers are guys like Dietrich, Freeman Fly, John Friend, Michael Tsarion. Gatekeepers obscure the real enemy and the real problem.

Enemies: The owners of: ALL central banks, mainstream media....as well as their Shabez Goyim -- duped Judeomasons in the Federal agencies, courts, and military.
Real problem: New (Jew) World Order.

just cause he doesn't hammer on certain topics like he does others, does not make him a gatekeeper, cause when he does, he does it good. look up 11-17 last year ... and write me a nice digest will you? Or do it for your 'Lord', whoever that may be.

Multi-Layered Cover-Up in "Finicum Shooting" & Subsequent Investigation Boiling Frogs Post - 7K 554 views .. Mar 9, 2016 Peter B. Collins presents: Todd Macfarlane & Sibel Edmonds Hours after the news conference where Oregon investigators declared the January 26 roadblock killing of LaVoy Finicum "justified", Sibel Edmonds joined Peter B. Collins in a conversation with Todd Macfarlane, who had been representing the Finicum family. Unlike the hand-picked reporters at the briefing, we raise major questions about the justifications and review important details of the additional video and audio recordings released today, as well as the stunning revelation that 2 FBI agents lied to investigators (and 3 other agents backed them up) repeatedly in denying they had fired their weapons, leading to a fresh investigation of FBI wrongdoing by the FBI.

imagine my lack of shock that cultures are not reducible to a simplistic formula of genetic make up, that political and economic structure by far and away are the most crucial factors in a successful culture.

Dear Ryan, you focus on war and conflict, practice martial sports and try to be a man in every way.
i'm the guy who commented on many of you vids (almost all of which i share and list, have been for years now) about grounding / compost, the need (and methods) to 'convert' bullies / nip development of their characteristics in the bud, etcetera, (not just complaining, drawing suspicions of being a typical sissie, whim and even utterly spoiled softie upon me).

My dad was an odd mix of pugilist early on and a savant later; one of the reasons i claim the rights to understand where to get the energy and enthusiasm for my composting on a grand scale schemes.

mindsets and force applications (war/peace and violence/rockdust):

the sickly selfish, lack & injury caused greed and cruelty flavors thereof, even the insult/grudge based ones, .. those of CULTures 'rooted' therein have been focus as much as the 'states' of aggregation of minerals. Nothing static about either, both vary widely and in parrallel.

In the case of minerals 'density' depends on degree of moisture. In the flesh and blood world stubbornness degrees has prompted us to designate differences in ways that makes the properties appear way more distinct than they are .. an all round fully stocked shop would have a little of each, thus jews do indeed overlap and play three, i mean 4 piece monty with age, class, race, gender and religious, .. oops, 5

Deconstructing Semitization -- Messay Kebede

International Journal of Ethiopian Studies

Abstract --- A society cannot properly map out and accomplish its future if it mistakes its history for that of another society. Saddled with alien predicaments, such a society is bound to stumble constantly. A case in point is Ethiopia: among the various factors that contributed to the present plight of Ethiopia, a false or borrowed reading of its history figures prominently. Focusing on the alleged Semitic origin of Aksumite civilization, this paper uncovers the manner the allegation structured the disparity between the north and the south to the point of ushering in the colonial interpretation of the southern expansion in addition to misconstruing the causes of Ethiopia's socioeconomic retardation.

Sasha, You're just dreaming here. You may believe what you wish to believe. Talking about American Indians. They were enslaving and cutting each other's faces off and hearts out while alive and well. And that occurred long after they probably genocided the Solutrians. Real advanced and spiritual uplifted bunch that was. But hey, at least they were not technologically advanced, and that alone makes it alright, right?

1138, you 'cite' an extreme case (only the faux populist cliché / prejudice worshippers don't specify anything) AND smear the other 499 distinct ethnicities with it here: 921659? How 'american' of you.

Rowan: Thanks. I was much more explicit yesterday, about the same pair of words. I recognized that the original objection to the blanket use of the word 'Zionist' to describe what are now called 'pro-Israel activists' came from hardal kinda types who said "Don't call us Zionists! Zionism was an ungodly, anti-religious, anti-Semitic ideology aping goyish nationalism. We are religious Jews settling the land in obedience to an (imaginary) holy commandment!" Then I said there was no reason to pay any attention to them, since this was just misleading, self-serving rebranding of one and the same thing, as when the Toads said, "From now on all our young men will be not violent jihadis but peaceful salafis!"

i want to add a thought i had out of the blue but feel instantly sure about:

patrism is, in my mind at least, as of immediately, no longer associated with herding cultures, as i did up to now as well; henceforth i shall take it as a compromise between matrist and patrist predilections, inclinations, natural talents. That makes drawbacks all the more intractable (combative truce vs ruse dynamic add tiers, layers and stories), as the entrench vs tear it up commands vie for highest placement; ferreting them out must hence obviously be much deeper, better and more complicated teamwork than we managed so far. Let us thus redouble efforts to study korfbal, rock and pop musics, native cultures, bonobos decently enough .. to finally catch up to the screwballs with their millenia skipping [a]heads.

It goes seriously beyond the mere question of biology, John. You saw the quote from the linked article, when the jew goons hollered, "Us Jews are going to fuck you, you dirty race", and I would add that they truly meant it, they consider these invading SEMITES a "dirty race", no tongue in cheek there, just a sentiment expressed in all the sincerity a Jew is capable off, which is to say, hate. So, Jew does not consider himself member of the "dirty race", most of the dirt semitic. But you also undoubtedly saw headlines, especially by the Frankfurt School agents urging whites, especially the white males to kill themselves, that whites are a plague upon humanity, that they ought to be miscegenated into oblivion, from the Protocols and Coudenhove-Kalergi Plan onwards. Right? So, by their own claim, Jews are not a dirty (Semitic) race, nor are they white race, because you will never see a Jew urging Jews to commit a mass suicide, Masada bullshit aside. So, what are they - IN THEIR OWN MINDS? Creatures of Satan, that's what, they know it perfectly well and even acknowledge it openly, clear to anyone who reached the "2+2" intellectual nirvana. This is what I am constantly trying to bring to your (everyone's) attention but like the disciples in the garden of Gethsemane, everybody is sound asleep ... while the rough beast, its hour come round at last, slouches toward Bethlehem to be born. Horses have horse sense, if only mankind could scale those heights.

Comment on Multiculturalism in Europe: Who is behind it?

My point is the following: Jews don't consider themselves as a species in any way related to us, non-Jews, and we should accept this reality. It would greatly simplify the problem and the search for solution if we went along with it. Because Jews profess hate and contempt for non-whites (dirty races), and Jews profess (even greater) hate for whites, it follows that Jews consider themselves neither white nor non-white. But if you think of a set of ALL HUMANS, a human is either white or non-white, so, if some entity is neither white nor non-white, by definition this entity is not human - QED. Besides, the quotes by their Jew sages, holy men, rabbis, rebbes, witchdoctors about (eg, Menachem Schneerson, the most revered of all in the last 100 years, plus many, many others, all very prominent in Jewdom), whereby we are nothing but talking beasts made in Jew mold by G-d in order to make perfectly formed slaves, we got no soul anymore than insects, and so on and so on. Look it up, I can't be bothered, Talmud has dozens of such quotes. So, why fight it? If they are not the same species, why do we accord them intra-species moral considerations, while billions of INNOCENT animals are murdered by means most foul and cruel on weekly or even daily basis without any regard to moral code - simply because we don't consider them our relatives. I say, take them at their word, they are not us but compete aliens and i came to pretty much the same conclusion.

I have read many texts that try to explain why some Jews turn on their own people, from Sander Gillman's Jewish Self-Hatred to the endless current Jeremiads by assertive Jews about how self-accusing Jews are a bane, not only on their own people, but on those who trust their pseudo-prophetic utterances. Never have I read one with such moral clarity, subtlety of thought, and, above all, such calm but righteous anger. The enormity of the deeds Alexander chronicles does not make him shrill in his indignation, but rather drives him to repeatedly point out, with a certain black humor and as little ad hominem as one could expect any human to muster, the exquisite and corrosive ironies that riddle the world of Jews who publicly attack their own people.

In this episode we'll begin looking at reactions, events and actions that are taking place since the execution of this recent plot, and the ones that took place before that. We'll look at objectives that are being pursued and pushed, and who benefits from it all. We look at the chain of events following a synthetically created terror action. And with that we see the needed juice that expands our wars, and expands our police and surveillance practices. The existence and expansion of the Military and Intelligence industrial Complexes depend on terrorism. And what wouldn't they do to ensure that we have plenty of that? Show Notes click here:

The Empire Files: Native American Genocide with Roxanne Dunbar-Ortiz - teleSUR English - 22K - 16,396 .. Nov 21, 2015

Each November, Americans celebrate a mythical version of U.S. history. Thanksgiving Day's portrayal of the experience of Native Americans under the boot of settler-colonialism is one of the Empire's most cherished falsehoods.

To hear about the true story of native peoples' plight - from genocide to reeducation - Abby Martin interviews Roxanne Dunbar-Ortiz, renowned indigenous scholar and activist, about her most recent book "An Indigenous Peoples' History of the United States."

Ancient America - Harvard Prof. Barry Fell & "America

THIS IS KINDA SHOCKING though familiar with Fell since the mid nineties, i had no idea he condoned, applauded and sanctified the old sensationalist and spoilt dandy templar commands (invade, migrate, colonize), listen to Douglas Dietrich on the beginnings of the american airforce to get an idea of the type of heir to fortunes this criminal congregation are made up of and what they get up to ... apportionment of loot and the like, toting a bag of heritage stealing goal post moving tricks* precursor to fullblown mass events, real satantic spectacles. i had never heard or read him sermonizing like this before although i knew he associated with preachers and parsons a suspicion kindling lot.

* = like the 10 commandments Fell is reading off a rock up the Mississippi from AD500, they throw that on a stranger's wall and see if it sticks, iow, it's bait, a list of wishes, exemplary compliance and pliability, model slave behaviour that eases their 'workload' (*the type of stuff that left a trail of 109 documented removals; check Evalion's account - UCjdoes a show for an internet radio station in TA, his them know fuck about Left values, they are just game players with words (something of course that i could be too, if i wasn't more interested in finding true love among some small remaining sector of decent Jewish womanhood). They are all of them, there at the radio station and at +972 magazine,

regular commercial journalists who are cynically
train. There is no-one in the entire "shitty little at +972 who would want to know about it if there was one, because obviously it wouldn't pay european-standard civil service salaries. The whole Jewish Israeli press is entirely composed of slimy

"Palestine's Intifada: the Process of Liberation is Irresistible" with Dr. Vijay Prashad -- The Jerusalem Fund & Palestine Center - 535 -- 832 views .. Mar 7, 2016
Settlers yelling, "Death to the Arabs," knife attacks, shootings at checkpoints, Ramallah closed for twenty-four hours, and talk of a third intifada as Gaza festers in conditions of great suffering. This is the context of Palestine. The debate in the United States is narrow: it sees only the Israeli point of view, which has become increasingly cruel and less grounded in reality. But this is where things lie, even as more and more people in the United States no longer accept the current framework. What is the alternative framework? There are international law and politics that emerge out of the dead end of the Israeli project. Dr. Prashad will explore these issues in his talk, which will go from the Palestinian struggle itself to its new allies in the United States.

His political views were remarkably consistent and supported universal human rights. He was opposed to war and chauvinistic ethnic nationalism. Today Einstein is a revered as a political and scientific icon. However, many unfortunately forget his wise words on the issue of Palestine and its conflict with political Zionism.

Comment on Kevin MacDonald talks about Donald Trump on the Realist Report (Video, 27 mins) by lobro 11-05

The focus of the debate is how Judea insists that through his common sense policy statements, Trump is like Hitler. Trump is like Hitler, Trump is like Hitler, the echo chamber screeches day and night. Well, it may backfire on them and I sure hope it does. Because the decades long national hibernation may shake the cobwebs and ask, who is this Hitler really, maybe Hitler was like Trump! so what's wrong with Hitler since Trump seems to be ok. Trump is like Hitler, Hitler was like Trump, Putin is New Hitler, Trump is like Putin ... oops, the propaganda bus brakes may be failing at the crucial moment. Objecting to IDF butchery in Palestine is antisemitic, disliking wars, porn and transgender promotion is hate speech, asking questions about 9/11 is Holocaust denial, yeah, keep linking them all into a giant ball and chain strapped to Jew's ankle for when someday (soon, ¡Ojala!) he goes for a swim downriver.

Comment on The Spider's Dream by lobro - 11-05-16 14:40

I like them too, never been bothered by them, they can be quite entertaining. The best are jumping ones, like wolf spiders. Once in Thailand, I was sitting in a lawn chair and spotted one on the ground, big eyes and it was tilting its head this and that way to get a better look at me, just like a dog and in fact, kept its eyes trained directly on mine. Then, in a lightning fast motion, it landed on my elbow for a closer look before squirting away. I also like dragon flies and praying mantises, all of them beautiful hunting machines.

Comment on Pope Francis: How the Good Shepherd Betrayed his Flock by lobro - 16-05-16 10:16

Sal, I am convinced that sexuality is mandated by nature and cannot be altered by force. Therefore, it is not a crime, cannot be criminalized and to do so is a crime in itself, in fact, totally morally equivalent to Jews calling themselves Chosen simply by being born to Jewesses. Circumstances of birth are a giant lottery from the moment the swimmers start paddling upstream, some end up as queers, some as Jews, some left-handed. In Spanish, a la izquierda means left but also a homosexual. Now, an a55hole is made, not born and close to 100% Jews are a55holes, which should be but almost never is, punishable. A decent Jew is an oxymoron because a decent one renounces his background and blends into normalcy. Now, to your question, should queers be allowed to marry? What's it to me that I should care, so long as they keep to themselves and don't try to force their views and lifestyles on me and my family? Just like polygamy or any other choice of lifestyle foreign to MY native society. If I come to your house where the manners call for removing shoes, I will either do so or decline the visit. If you come to my house where padding around barefoot is considered outlandish, you would no more take your shoes off than your shirt. And that's the way it should be: you have your house, I have mine and we both reserve the right to shoot the burglars. And what are Jews but burglars and thieves in every country of the world?

What was the Nazi ideologues' particular interest in Buddhism? In their eyes Buddha was an "Aryan" and Buddhism an "Aryan doctrine". They emphasised the warlike and virile elements of Buddhism.

[really, virility among Aryans is a vice to be eliminated, cure is well on its way now]

Nazi ideologues hold Buddhism to be a doctrine pertaining solely to power.

[ridiculously false claim but acceptable to those living off smears, blurbs and jew-derived buzzwords who can't be bothered to read for themselves ... power is a strictly jew obsession, so this is just typical jew projection of own disease onto others]

Buddhist meditation and yoga insights may arise, difficult to control and suppress] Well, there you go, judaic critique should inspire people to read this stuff on their own. It's the "twisted compass" method that i find quite valuable

The Hussars were famous for their huge "wings", a wooden frame carrying eagle, ostrich, swan or goose feathers. In the 16th century, characteristic painted wings or winged claws began to appear on cavalry shields. The most common theory is that the hussars wore the wings because they made a loud, clattering noise which made it seem like the cavalry was much larger than in reality and frightened the enemy's horses. Other possibilities included the wings being made to defend the backs of the men against swords and lassos, or that they were worn to make their own horses deaf to the wooden noise-makers used by the Ottoman and the Crimean Tatars.

nice guy, really like him ... but he's naive about this:
nazism was infiltrated, subverted and betrayed by zionist elements, funded by them at critical points, and most devastating of all, planned and 'slaveminded' by the Rothschilds who's adage might as well be 'let a thousand jew[!]ers boom' .. as long as they betray, poison and abort real dewry.

The CIA's Nationalists in Ukraine & Russia
07-06-16 18:08

Adam –
http://tomatobubble.com/ukraine_nationalists.html
Reason... (understanding requires some rudimentary analytical and strategic thinking, without which, any hope of countering Jew's ploys can be written off)
Example (of rudimentary analytical and strategic thinking)

How odd that the Western Jewish liberal media didn't seem to mind the presence of so many "neo Nazis" in the ranks of their beloved "protesters". . These terrorists are now murdering innocent people in eastern Ukraine. Groups like these are also active in Russia, just waiting to pounce when the time is right.

[and of course, it is all in the Protocols script and Putin knows it very well, has access to the archived originals]

Quote:

Since the disintegration of the Soviet Union, well funded "Right Wing Nationalists" have become very active in Russia. As in Ukraine, these anti-Putin "Nationalists" have no problem protesting side-by-side with Communists, homosexuals, feminists and other pro Western wannabee libtards. Instead of attacking Putin, Shouldn't they be beating up their degenerate Left Wing Communist adversaries first? *Again, this is not to suggest that all of the Nationalist marchers are CIA agents. We believe that the majority are sincere dupes who remain ignorant of the higher forces and individuals that are pulling their (sic) strings.

Putin, a true anti-Communist and anti-Globalist, is nobody's fool. He understands that the CIA's phony "Right" arm (controlled Nationalists, fake "neo-Nazis"), poses just as much of a danger to the stability of Russia as the CIA's "Left" arm (Voina, Pussy Riot, "dissidents", Kaspárov etc) THAT is why he will not tolerate their dubious brand of "Nationalism"! ... Putin already has enough on his hands with feral Russian race-nationalists and nominal 'Orthodox' neo-facist criminal gangs sawing heads off of innocent non-white, non-Russian people, among other very unpleasant things that they do to minorities. /Quote [Need more reasons to explain Putin's strategic nous? Read on]

Quote: Thus comes the 'holocaust denial law' which will take the thunder from Right Sector sympathizers.

Any inkling of violating this law gives Putin a way to criminalize Right Sector sympathizers and sever their subversive activities and agitations. Something else is going on politically to prompt this 'holocaust denial law.' First there are the constant comparisons of Putin with Hitler by Hildebeast and the Jew West, and then the "Bandera/Nazi" propaganda of the Kremlin. I don't know why the Kremlin is doing this other than to keep feelings of Russian national-patriotism high against the Anglo-Zio-US axis of terror. And maybe they are trying to BREAK UP THE SYMBIOTIC RELATIONSHIP BETWEEN THE UKRAINIAN JEWISH COMMUNITY AND JEW OLIGARCH KOLOMOISKY -- Quote

Quote: Because a little bit of research reveals that Bandera or the UON-UPA fascists were not anti-Semites, and never had a problem with Jews. Poles and Russians were the enemies of the German-leaning UON, while Jews were considered only a secondary problem, and in fact several Jews served in the UON-UPA. Jews could join as long as they became "Karaites." Ukrainian Jews, ok... BUT Russian Jews, kill 'em like any other "Moskal" (slang for Muscovite.) The UON split into somewhat moderate UON-M and the radical UON-B when Germany came into the Ukraine, and it wasn't long before the Bandervitsy were fighting the Germans, not getting their promised independence right off the bat. And Putin must surely know that the Wermacht, the regular Germany army, is what ethnic SS auxiliaries were assigned to including the Gallician troops, and not the National Socialist "Hitler's private" army. Shortly after he started acting up, Bandera got thrown into a concentration camp by the Germans for the duration of the war. Putin decided to slam the gates on the CIA, MI6 , and the Mossad latching on tighter to the ultra-nationalist and national socialist Russian gangs who are Right Sector sympathizers. The CIA, MI6, Mossad all have a very long record of working with nationalist, ultra-nationalist/fascist groups, all the way back to Lawrence of Arabia and more for "regime changes." With Ukrainian Jew oligarch Kolomoisky working very close to Kiev, (if not giving orders from there), I would venture to say that Dnipropetrovsk, the Jew capital of Ukraine and mystical Lubavitcher center, with the Israeli Embassy located in the mega-million hi-rise "Menorah" Jewish Community Center, shaped like a "Menorah," and having a couple of posh hotels, is "Tel Aviv North." And, Yarosh has his headquarters there, along with his 10,000 or 15,000 or so Right Sector thugs in Kiev's newly-formed Jewmerica-inspired National Guard clothing. Yarosh has already assured the Israeli ambassador to Ukraine that Right Sector isn't anti-Semitic ---- /Quote

Quote: In a paradoxical nutshell, the true purpose of the "Holocaust Denial" Law is not to serve the Globo-Zion Jews, but to fight them. It is a powerful tool that Putin can and will use to crush the psychopathic kosher CIA "Nazi's" of Russia once and for all. The law also prevents the Master Jews from manipulating what The Protocols of Zion refers to as "our lesser brethren" into closing their mighty ranks against "Fascist" Putin and "anti-Semitic" Russia. ---- /Quote smoloko.com/illustratie

Others see the obvious too Just one additional question to those who hate Putin above all others:

Name just ONE person prosecuted for "Holocaust Denial" in Russia What? Cannot? Get ready for the next time someone repeats the same accusation, crank the organ grinder up to the start of the broken record, there are always those who must take steps one at a time, two means a guaranteed stumble.

Michael Skinner: The real Jews broke the covenant... that is why Moses abandoned them in the desert. They have been cursed, even by their own Prophets... see how they treated Job. Jesus of Nazareth was the Jewish Messiah and they rejected Him. They prefer the teachings of the Pharisees who have corrupted the religion. Palestine is a graveyard for the Jews.

+davie wonkie- Those Ashkenazi Jews, were needed by the Sephardic Jews to infiltrate Russian and European society... both types follow the Babylonian Talmud of the Pharisees... not The Torah, which has been corrupted anyway. See: The Sabbatean Frankists and their history.

12-06-16 10:59 -- "The only part of history that one is unable to debate is WW2 and the holocaust." --- In fact, the ONLY reason that one is unable to debate WW2 is the holocaust, ie, shutting down the debate on WW2 protects holocaust (for me the word holocaust denotes a linguistic perversion rather than any historical event). In example of just how ridiculous this is, consider that a widely assumed mythical occasion of the crucifixion and resurrection of Christ has at least two possibly supporting artifacts, namely the shroud of Turin and the facecloth of Manoppello, which after all, present some sort of physical evidence that can be subjected to scientific scrutiny and argues out in the open, pro and con (neither have been conclusively refuted or proven, hence the fun controversy rages on unabated even after centuries of egghead strife). I don't wish to argue one way or another, but simply indicate that I can freely do so, spout any wisdom or bullshit I wish, without fear of persecution by any authorities, ecclesiastical or political (the greatest danger lurks from bugeyed academics). The point being that the magical sounding death and subsequent rising from the dead of a single putative person 1,985 years ago have infinitely more valid forensic evidence (2+ pieces) than wide open killing of 6 million putative victims 70 years ago. In my life I'd never come across a more yawning chasm between the truth and the lie, thereby lending further credence that Jesus stands for the truth and jews for the lie and are the humanoid stand-in for the Antichrist at the opposite end of the spectrum.

The ashes or other remains of millions of victims have never been LOOKED FOR. Surely any thoughtful person must REJECT the entire construct out of hand. Even Kenneth Ellman must be skeptical, which is why he refuses to consider anything beyond the piteous whimperings of torture victims (German government): "Please, no more pain, yes, everything you say is true, my mother served Jew babies slow roasted alive in our Miele oven on Sunday before Mass, we played with marbles made of freeze dried Jewish eyeballs as kids, JA, JA, no more pain BITTE, pretty BITTE". <-- This is the very definition of "proof" as per Charter of Nuremberg Military Tribunal, Article 21 I think.

Fact "We entered the synagogue, which was packed with the greatest stinking bunch of humanity I have ever seen. When we got about halfway up, the head rabbi, who was dressed in a fur hat similar to that worn by Henry VIII of England and in a surplice heavily embroidered and very filthy, came down and met the General . . . The smell was so terrible that I almost fainted and actually about three hours later lost my lunch as the result of remembering it" -----

Quote: It is not, however, its importance which gives the history of the Marranos its appeal, but its INCREDIBLE ROMANCE. The submerged life which blossomed out at intervals into such exotic flowers; the unique devotion which could transmit the ancestral ideals unsullied, from generation to generation, despite the Inquisition and its horrors; the figures of rare heroism which every now and again emerged to burst upon the world; the extraordinary climax in our own days—all combine to make a story unparalleled in history for sheer dramatic appeal --- /Quote

What is lunch tossing stink to one is romantic blossoming of exotic flowers to another. We all know that Jews are above all, romantic. i leave you to ponder on the many layered set of comparisons one could make here.

Patton's education was too little, too late. If I'd been him or if I could have advised him, it would hinge on his being the most senior and trusted combat officer in the US army and as such he could have and should have pulled a move on the greatest enemy of the American people as was his sworn duty: the traitorous leadership, Truman and Eisenhower, then Morgenthau, Patterson and the rest. The army would have followed him without question and he could have finished what Hitler had started, hang the betrayer of Britain Churchill and come to terms with Stalin to get rid of the Jew menace for good, no need for war with Russia unless Stalin had balked. He had the entire superb German corps at his disposal too ... a terrible pity that he was in that "they are sons of bitches" groove, totally inadequate to the task. Jews are not mere sons of bitches but sons of Satan without hyperbole and Patton failed to see this. When Eisenhower forced him to attend some fecal Yom Kippur, it should have been obvious who is the boss. Most of the British elite would support him, back home, McCarthy, Joe Kennedy, Huey Long and many more true American Stonewall Jackson types besides, all ethnically cleansed from today's officer ranks. Couldawouldashoulda ... only Hitler had the true balls, well, one anyway.

Then he starts shooting and hits 103 people, mostly men, many of them prison latino queers who know a bit about fighting and guns - how come none fight back, they could have swarmed him during the first reload. He must have fired over 300 rounds in order to achieve that tally, no one trying to interrupt, bouncers outside having a smoke after making sure everyone except the shooter was unarmed. libera nos a Malo, Deliver us from the Evil One sounds right to me. I prefer the capital spelling, it shines onto the target. The one that belongs in this thread is the eastern Meditative chant known as Jesus Prayer. It has a lot of Eastern elements, especially Indian. I like youtube.com/watch?v=AHP4Z84a_WY -- this short Russian version (???????? - Iisusova Molitva in my transliteration from Cyrillic), just a simple repetition of one line, focus on breathing. Lots of stuff like that available online. --- youtu.be/C7vVPXz-Qes?t=157 - This one (Agni Parthene) is of current interest to me not because of chanting but because at 02:37, there is a shot of an icon. This is the close likeness of the Holy Face of Manoppello which makes me think that the so-called Veronica Veil for which the St peter's basilica was commissioned used to be the lost Image of Edessa, looted from Constantinople in 1204 (My bet is that it is the same facecloth that Jude Thaddeus took to King Abgar after Christ's death+resurrection, and after some 800 odd years in Edessa went to Constantinople, then to Rome, where it mysteriously disappeared around 1625 and even more mysteriously showed up in the high Abruzzis, recognized and worshiped only by local hillbillies for almost 4 centuries until the German Pope Benedict xvi caught onto its significance). The Easterners retained that lost image in all of their iconography from the 7th century onward, the first time Jesus was given a definite human face, beard, eyebrows and all. A great whodunit. It sure seems like these acheiropoiets have a mind of their own and choose their travels to survive all the disasters, wars, fires, earthquakes pretty much unscathed through the centuries of jeopardy, the iconoclasm of caliph Al-hakim, emperor Leo iii, the jacobin jews and so on, any of which would have been overjoyed to destroy them. Says wikipe:de:

(Iconoclasm has become a favorite topic of progressive and Marxist historians and social scientists, who consider it a form of medieval class struggle and have drawn inspiration from it) all jew terms, "progressive", "class struggle", etc., but going back to Judaic proscription against graphical representation of any kind. Aside, relating to jesus-jew question, look at Abgar's letter to jesus:

Moreover, I have heard that the JEWS ARE SPEAKING AGAINST YOU AND WISH TO HARM YOU. I have a city here for your safety. It is small but noble, and sufficient for both of us.

Would he have put it like that knowing that Jesus was a jew?

Gilad Atzmon spells out WHY Brexit was a reaction To Jewish Control Of British Society By It's Poorest,most powerless members:The "Working Class".

The Labour Party is: Dominated by Jewish cosmopolitan ideology; and funded by Jewish oligarchs.The Jewish Left is pro immigration, pro identitarian politics, pro LGBT and so on. Jews realize that when things turn sour, it is the working class that turns against the Jews. This causes them to feel threatened by a cohesive working class. They prefer the working class to be broken into an endless number of different sectarian and identity groups. Jews would prefer society to be seen as a manifold of tribes and synagogues. That way the Jews are just one tribe amongst many. It is the Jewish Left that taught us that 'the personal is political.' These are the same people that trained us to talk 'as a': 'as a black,' 'as a Muslim,' 'as a gay,' 'as a Jew' and so on. They have succeeded in dividing us.

Farage offered the Brits an opportunity to re-unite and think once again as Brits. At least 52% of the Brits bought into his call. His support included the vast majority of nonurban Brits who were apparently impervious to the Labour party's contradictory position.

the integration of the ballsy and the meeker ones (sanftmuertigeren) not so terrorized by their own testosterone levels is vital to the success of any culture .. the spook industry, meat farming, drafts, drugs, all means to conjure the illusion of having that leadership level of decisiveness, initiative .. but when cabals do their stagings in order to seem legit .. it goes badly wrong.

Ukrainians are split in churchy types and restless ones, just like most eurasian peoples with enough greenery to do some heavy lifting, .. with pay for skills to stay dry (sheltered), fed (satisfied) and entertained (stupid sports, as make believe and pragmatically inconsequential in the grand scheme of things outside the myopic feel good 'zone 1 (permie speak) base line of existence as music). I did a careful study of the vectors deciding between brashness, mischief and the derailment i tried to concisely characterize above, and conclude that the solution is deadsimple, a child can do it, i can make most people see the point, except those of ill will ... and we're choking on their tricks and toys big time.

the solution in 3 words is (you won't believe it until after you've allowed me to explain more):

16-07-16 09:56 - Archie, Despair Not! Military coup against Donmeh sultan Erdogan is Not Good For Jews. I can anticipate Imram Hosein's analysis here: definitely an anti-Jew coup, therefore very dangerous to already shaky NATO, rapidly disintegrating pyramid of intimidation and control from Washington thinktankland, frees up a lot of maneuvering room for Russia - in fact, I have no doubt that Russia was heavily involved with the military coup planners, this may well be a spectacular payback for the Ukrainian color revolution
And what about Assad, he too can start planning a bit of revenge. What about ISIS goons, where do they run now, EU gets a breather from Turkey's migrant factory, Merkel lost, dazed and confused, might have repercussions? What about KSA (Kosher Saudi Arabia). Let's face it, even if Putin never had a finger in this, does anyone think that it would have happened without Russian intervention in Syria, if Syria had gone the way of Libya? Game on :-D

In question that is surely one everyone's trembling lip: "Is it good for Jews"? I must sadly answer in negative or at best, "Not likely".
Jew coup algorithm works thru different pathways, either thru creeping takeover at the very top of the goy pyramid, by corruption (payola and blackmail) that gradually spreads tentacles downward into lower ranks of bureaucracy or through highly organized color NGO "revolutions", complete with not just professional, coordinated agitators but also turncoat elements of police, hidden snipers and MSM camera crews – this version works well against well-intentioned, weakly popular, disorganized, feeble-minded government that has lost its way and is easily intimidated into falling apart.
Neither was the case here.
Being at the fulcrum point between NATO, Russia, not to mention Isr Palestine, the future looks interesting indeed.
Assad will have a hard time hiding that glint in the eye.

HE clasps the crag with crooked hands; Close to the sun in lonely lands, Ring'd with the azure world, HE stands. The wrinkled sea beneath HIM crawls; He watches from HIS mountain walls, And like a two reasons for not displaying one's full name even though jew can easily discover our identity are the potential for legal prosecution as differentiated from illegal persecution and the outward spreading ripple of harm to family and friends through ostracism and career damage. At least in my case. If my name was fully posted, it could be used as court evidence, as it is, they like to keep the extent of their oppressive spying secret from wider public. However, an all out urging for widespread, indiscriminate violence may result in a court order for the ISP to reveal the full identities of posters and then the various "Hate Watch" jew brigades go on frontal offensive. We must accept the guerilla tactics and communication methods of saying the unsaid in public, just as Jews do and have been doing for over thousand years with their secret language, meetings, schools, networks and literature. if we are ready for war, let's treat it seriously - like war, not paintball. Jews have been waging all-out war on us like a bunch of hibernating wooly mammoths and either we wake up and act in a rational way or we go extinct through our own sloth and incompetence. And those of Homo Sapiens mentality will easily perceive that this is exactly what Putin does on a large scale.

Rowan: i say daesh is run by the toads

Israeli think tank: Don't destroy ISIS; it's a "useful tool" against Iran, Hezbollah, Syria - Ben Norton, Salon, Aug 23 2016
According to a think tank that does contract work for NATO and the Israeli government, the West should not destroy ISIS, because the so-called Islamic State "can be a useful tool in undermining" Iran, Hezbollah, Syria and Russia. Efraim Inbar, the think tank's director, wrote in a paper published on Aug 2:

The continuing existence of IS serves a strategic purpose. By cooperating with Russia to fight Daesh, Pindostan is committing a strategic folly that will enhance the power of the Moscow-Tehran-Damascus axis. The West should seek the further weakening of Islamic State, but not its destruction. Counter-intuitively, a weak IS preferable to a destroyed one.

Rantzerker 67: TL;DR = the ABCs of maligning Milo

july tweets by RedKahina (aka MrHermsprong, lecolonelchabert {nixed B!Sp}, alphonsevanworden {WP}etcetera); real name Molly Klein, feisty jewish imperialism critic who suspects zizek is an elaborate imperialist psyop down considerable lengths of breathless rants;

I will discuss the way he has influenced a generation to the point where now right wing and reactionary ideas as well as pure white house disinformation and propaganda are routinely packaged as hip "lefty" and "radical" thought.

waaaaay too radical for the likes of even Bolshkopf LProyekt (runs a marxmail list into it's 3rd decade by now i guess and with home i tangled over indiginous issues waaaaay back).

this year Crabapple, Penny and Milo are additional targets.

When she misses the ball she fails tragically and completely but she can be spot on to spectacular effect; there is one vid with her voice on it and my share comment contains further refs;

suffice it to say her work is of such an ultra / nitro lefty / bolsh / sjw sort of calibur, it will, relatively soon, have cult status for deep intellos [of the anglobalist kind] comparable to kraus / brecht / benjamin / freud / marx / rickels .. suspect.

it would be a real score if you got her to speak to yall; as a teaser for that i'll repost what she said about Shulie Firestone before citing her remarks on Milo:

Firestone's baby factory proposals recommend mass child torture and forced sterilization of women. Beware the bourgeois white thinker who discovers a "salvation" for humanity (read their class) in mutilation of other people's genitals and eliminations of spoiler others.

Firestone's Utopia as experienced in India:

http://www.huffingtonpost.com/mobileweb/2013/02/07/mass-sterilization-india_n_2638490.html ...

The Zizek network -- not cause he runs it but cause of his prominence- revived eugenic racism with Firestone (bio) and Feuerbach (cultural)

Their antisemitism (Pauline + Feuerbachian) wasnt just about hostility to concrete Jews but grounded an elitist, eugenicist worldview

It's mobius "irony" rests a profoundly anti-christian ruling class instrumentalism on the purported superiority of Christian theology

Semi-sequitur: natural law was a pretty good approximation...that our right derive from our needs and capacities. But the fascist split highlights the contradiction that is individualism. Masculist idealism does repress the fact of pregnancy and that we each I'm the course of our lives have been two individuals and possibly (if ever pregnant) more.

Atlanta Bill --- Jul 31, 2016+

Sanders is like Edward Bernstein of the Social Democratic Party of Germany (SPD) in the early twentieth century, who railed against the very idea of revolution. When in 1918-19 the German masses revolted against the imperial establishment and the war, and raised the banner of revolution, the SPD tried to corral them in. The SPD party rank and file, as well as many of its leaders, revolted and formed the Independent Social Democratic Party (USPD, Unabhängige Sozial-Demokratische Partei Deutschlands) in support of the growing revolution of the sailors, soldiers, and working people of Germany. The SPD leaders who remained to form the Weimar Government then called in the army and retired army officers (Freikorps) to put down the revolution with force of arms, with generous help from the Western Allied Powers. The political immaturity of the revolutionary leadership, their lack of preparedness, the bungling of the Communist International centered in Moscow who tried to help them, and the betrayal of the SPD spelled the doom of the German Revolution of 1918-23, laying Germany open to the fascist counter-revolution that followed. Had the German Revolution succeeded, there would have been no Chancellor Hitler, no Second World War, and no Stalinist counter-revolution in Russia. Social Democracy is the Trojan horse of fascism.

lucid comment Bill

Atlanta Bill Aug 1, 2016 - Thanks, bro'. I'm going to try to follow this up as the "revolution" unfolds. Some stodgy Marxists would say that this is trying to draw parallels between historical phenomena that have nothing in common. Grasping at straws, so to speak. Leon Trotsky once remarked that, "Denying connections between seemingly disparate historical phenomena has more in common with Idealism than Dialectical Materialism." Paraphrasing from memory, corrections invited.

"fight the rich, not their wars"

sloganeering is an exact science .. or at least as exact as science CAN be. Wars are fought between those who fight 'the other' rich, neither immediately reachable and the war starts over disagreement about which rich form the easier and most justified targets, between their 'charges' (those they charge and let charge, the near and 'dear' [=expendable] ones) going in opposed directions / under opposed directives at very very similar (if not damn near identical at heart and core) culprits. The ferrets among us who cater to the bias on/of one side in the conflict polarize and escalate, like +Brandon Martinez while remaining mum about how this psychologically illicit 'deracinative' transpositioning of black/white .. AWAY FROM the groundings and grinds that produce all colour, dissolve clutter crowding and blockage, remediate scarcity, thru and beyond grey and green (true median and modesty modicum / medium of sanitarily sane composition) ... AND ONTO good/bad, is the betrayal and orphaning of what's rite.

mother nature abhors / discourages / avoids .. and if necessary, brutally eliminates equality .. it takes matched strength / tactics to spark a fight .. by definition focusing on one side (often using a mirror to project from the 'other' side, curiously more familiar .. as Sam King does the case of that dreadfully diabolic Odessa stuff perped by the western backed side of 'Ukraine' ... you thing they have a river running thru the middle of it for no reason?) is and caters to the moronic

'jewish' in the sense of multi[tumultous] CULTish ... CULT your all Crowd CuntRoll ... you see, .. the effect of miscegenation (schizitalist buying into leading / machoist / ruler bloodlines particularly) is to forge forklinks; an awareness and 'contemporaninity' / mindset / outlook / sensibility appropriate to and for that much much earlier time/fork in the familyroadtree where the disparate 'verstandshuweljkspartners', specifically the participant's ancestors' ways / bloodline parted ... chances are, in an era / aeon, location where the mores of bonobo level matriarchies (not the later weaponized / patriarchalized / doped up, nerded out) were standard and widespread (the edenic phase of history if you will). These people will try to revive and bring back the most enjoyable aspects, ignore the problematic ones and the strides made since then on the back of which and at expense of which they hesitate not to agitate. THE breakthroughs for my awareness of all this came via Robert Wrangham and Andrew Lehman ... and plenny of others ... Robert Graves early one, James Demeo halfway in there somewhere etcetera.

Counterpunch article (called hostile by RB):

As the confusion has grown between the traditional Alt Right and what they are calling the "Alt Lite," which is outlets and individuals mainstreaming their message in a softer form such as Milo Yiannopoulos and Breitbart, many places like the Radix Journal, The Right Stuff, and The Daily Stormer have fought to make their more extreme ideological positions clear in the Alt Right brand.

Greg Johnson, the publisher behind the Alt Right book house and website Counter Currents, published an article recently called The Alt Right is White Nationalism ... Or It Is Nothing. This White Nationalist perspective, the idea that white people should live in a monoracial "ethnstate," is monolithic within the Alt Right. While they often state that they support racial nationalisms for other groups, they are clear that this is a White movement for White people. This focus on inequality and racial nationalism comes together in the common acceptance of Human Biological Diversity, a term coined by Steve Sailer to update a movement previously known as race realism.

Comment on The Coudenhove-Kalergi Plan: White Genocide by Design (Part 1) by lobro - 07-10-16 21:26
Mandela Effect ... 1st I hear of it, so i had to look it up. None of the snopes.com examples apply to me because i have been so clued out of mainstream for so long. So my first thought is that it is manufactured in kabbalah mass psychosis shop working overtime to at some point dictate every iota of what we perceive as reality ... this is perfectly doable because humans are a social bug, emotionally tethered to the hive which is now almost wholly jew controlled. i am also convinced that the theory of parallel universes is just plain jew bullshit invented in order to get them out of the karmic tight spot, namely, "I cannot be held liable for the crimes and atrocities i committed because in any number of parallel universes I am a model of moral propriety so it just befell me to act out the bad character in this one, it is the luck of the draw and i am merely fulfilling my manifest destiny as dictated by the LAW" (jew always falls back on the law he coined out of nothing) Because parallel universes cannot interact and remain separate, a logical impossibility that also grossly violates the immutable physical law of conservation of information, this is nothing but Jew's attempt to negate the Truth, Devil's greatest enemy. More on CERN and related issues. Maybe one in 10,000 people has a healthy understanding of even basic quantum mechanical algebraic underpinnings which require a fair bit of math tools. And this is just basic stuff, it zooms off from there into all kinds of esoteric spheres, most politically controlled by Jews like Ed Witten (string theorist) who can pretty much say whatever he wants and because of his political clout no one dares call bullshit on him, eg, the finest mathematical physicist today, Roger Penrose merely says sarcastically, "I don't understand it", so the Jew scifi writers take over and spout utter halachic hasbara that openmouthed masses absorb reverently. This is no longer science, none of it is empirically provable so it is as rabbinical spellcasting as holocaust, the original Mandela Effect. Lie is distinguished by retinue of legalistic boidyguards that prohibit examination of facts and evidence on the pain of temporal damnation, death of career, freedom and even the physical elimination. Truth is distinguished by eagerness and cheerful acceptance of testing and investigation at all levels, the more, the better. Jew shies away from even approaching these subjects because they expose his fraudulent method. A fine example is the Turin Shroud, the history's most investigated object that the science attacked mercilessly in rush to explain it as a forgery and this inquisition has been ongoing for over a century without even approaching the ability to recreate such an object. One might think of it as the numinous turning the tables on the science: "investigate this!", since science prides itself on having usurped all religions and replaced them with the empirical method and related theorizing. Yet this object keeps eluding their frantic swings at the amazing piñata. But returning to the Mandela Effect, it is nothing but the boiling of frogs, which is why Jew has been working so assiduously to fragment the contiguity of our thoughts and experiential processes until in the end we resemble bricked up hard drives with badly corrupted files missing headers and so on. Christianity used to be one reference point, a moral hitching post, now uprooted and trashed.

A priceless run down on the twisted sects of Judaism.

It sure makes gassing them plausible and desirable.

Similarly, build a few more miles and miles long guardwalls here and there to absorb what Michael Hoffman calls Talmud belters instead of bible belters.

jew demanded WW1 from US president Woodrow Wilson and got it bottom line (profit): 16 million deaths and 21 million wounded – all Gentiles, not enough to satisfy antiChrist's hunger, so jew demanded WW2 from US president FDR and got it bottom line (profit): The higher figure of 80 million includes deaths from war-related disease and famine. Gentiles killed totaled from 38 to 55 million ... still insufficient, Jew enraged by low yield, therefore jew demands WW3 from US president

Obama/didn't get it but Hillary Clinton will. regressing on the previous butcher's bills projects the future total to be in the conservative neighborhood of 300 million dead Gentiles (so even if every Russian is killed, still at least another 150 million to go).

Even then, Jew will cry bitterly about the measly total, hand outstretched pitifully for more, how can poor Jew make the ends meet with only 300 million dead goyim, "oh Lord why tryest thou me thusly that I must again lament and weep tears of Job, my slaves disrespecteth me"?

For the western white man, Africa has represented the geography to house the universe of his darkest myths. No continent has been so foreign to him. His relationship with it has been superficial and conflicting, rarely from the integration, equality and respect. Whether as tourists, aid workers, technicians or settlers, white in Africa, even today, inhabits islands that protect and separate him from a world that he does not understand.

Dear US Cowboy NEOCONS: It would be a really bad idea to fight Russians---like the man in this video. You could learn from two million families of dead German Wehrmacht what war against Russia would mean. And by the way, drill these facts into your thick skulls:

1. Crimea is Russia. Try to take it from Russia? Shake hands with WW3, guaranteed!
2. Donetsk & Lugansk will eventually be special-status de-facto Russia.
3. There is ZERO American national interest to get US service personnel killed and injured in the Donbas. Look at a globe. This conflict is 9,000 miles from the USA.
4. We have 100 impoverished, crime-infested, crumbling inner-city ghettos in the USA. Let's fix our own problems, and let Russians and Ukrainians fix theirs.

yes 1138, couple memory holes, hopefully temporary. of course, JC and AH. and Tsar Nicholas to somewhat lesser extent. You are quite right. the important thing is future generations, hopefully not mythical. The knowledge and the truth we uncovered must be kept fresh in the teaching of future history, lest the historical history repeat itself. Because as bleak as the times are, i also believe that never before in history were so many people jew-wise and so many more getting up to speed, coming aboard the bandwagon. The dawning of the Golden Age of Jew-Wisdom, it is no joke. internet was incredibly providential, almost the Hand Of God, to paraphrase diego maradonna. no way did The Protocols see that one coming, totally blindsided them.

Brandon Martinez - 2K - 196 views . Nov 16, 2016

Former Mossad chief Efraim Halevy basically admits that Israel is in a de facto alliance with Al-Qaeda (Nusra Front) in Syria, which is why the Israeli military is treating wounded al-Qaeda fighters in its hospitals. He then says that Israel would refuse to treat Hezbollah fighters in its hospitals because Hezbollah is genuinely an opponent of Israel whereas Al-Qaeda, he says, has never once attacked Israel.

45th minute, referring to palestinian culture your sense of id can't possibly have anything to do with all that makes your micro clime a blessing could it? like say ... olive trees? Sarcasm on (have you noticed?).

Nope, disqualified, after all olives didn't figure in the song of amergin either; no, you 'jews' feel the 'need'* to be up in the ranks of those who plug taboos with heaping helpings of bromides, cliches, blocks, vieze gezichten trekkerij, .. you worship those who arm the most fanatically against exposing them [traumas] and instead go to extraordinarily thanatopian lenghts to not just leave them inviolate and virulent (cushioned by your o so woolly language) but multiply and spread them. (you have european roots and now compound your karma contra native americans with more of the same against palestinians trying to sound o so reasonable about it).

You either mercy kill - which is none too fashionable though fascism has it's long and short term hotspots for those willing to travel and try survive them to be sure - OR you throw them behind well guarded walls into spaces where they can be fed [and restricted to] the basics of permaculture for [more than] a few generations [watched like a hawk, ... much like nukewaste has to be].

i remember telling you a very long time ago that zionism played no small part in stampeding jews out of their comfy arab land 'posishies' (naeim Giladi or Galedi?) but i see you stick to your biased guns on that point as well as that can't end well either.

i put it in my presently growing hhoie list not bycause these these people are edged into this situation but bycause of the disastrous colonial ancestors and the fact they are too stubborn to give up on that baddest of worse moves.

in over the top sjw news an hour ago, it was reported on national radio that dutch women turn to danish spermbanks cause they are immediately 'served' whereas waiting times for dutch 'lovejuice' (that's not a quote) can be up to 8 months.

also, as Geert Wilders, 'entourage' and engagers lose months of work prosecuting him for saying 'less marroccans is desirable', a new law goes into effect where catcalling in intimidating ways is punishable by up to 410 euro, a hobby especially maroccans delight and indulge in; in the report the word fuck falls a few times ... which are a changing indeed.

why moronically try separate the culture from the man instead of placing the latter in a new one (or old, as the case of white 'americans' moved to eurasia would be, technically)??-- nothing should be about race. racism is dying. Slowly but surely the people of generations past are dying out with their ideals. Do you know what breeds racism? Making a point of it. The social justice Warrior movement is just as much a part of the problem as the Ku Klux Klan and the Black Panthers and any other brand of people that believes race separates us. The past is over with. We have to move on. Making this a racial issue is ignorant. That's all I have to say about your point. Red race LOL. Black raised, white rice, yellow rice. I feel sorry if aliens ever do come to visit this planet. Then it will be white black red on green racism. what is it going to take for those of us who just want everyone to get along to have our Point made?

why am i not suprised you are ready and willing to reckless betray biology and prefer to fancifully fantasize 'bout 'green' visits??? Stalin and Lenin's Views on the Jewish Question and the Bund; Early History of the Bund - Posted on August 17, 2014 | Leave a comment

This article was published by Alliance (Marxist-Leninist) as part of the publication Alliance, issue #30, "Marx, Lenin and Stalin on Zionism." --- Background: The Position of Russian Jewry --- In 1791, Tsarina or Empress Catherine II created what was to become known as the Pale Of Settlement. This restricted Jewish residence to either territories annexed from Poland along the Russian Western border, or to territories seized from Turkey along the shores of the Black Sea. Later other annexed territories were added. (See Map below from web site Beyond the Pale). The same type of restrictions noted briefly above, on Jews in Germany, prevailed both here and Poland itself.

there should be TWATter.com for the likes of lisa goldman, look at this <blockquote>Encourage thinking feminists to boycott this @BrookingsInst all-male lineup of 10 speakers on US policy re Israel</blockquote> cool, but if i were to say that 8 (9 if you count kerry) out of 10 were jews, would she encourage thinking gentiles not to be "anti-semites" (a short form for anyone able to spot the plain truth)? Btw, tho the probability of random draw of 10 men out of 10 speakers in a population that is half women is quite small, 0.1% (1/2 to the 10th power), what about (just) 8 jews out of 10 speakers randomly drawn from population in which jews are just 2%? well, the answer is something like 0.000000001% (note "%" sign), something like one trillionth. does it bother lisa goldman, the oh-so-caring-and-concerned-and-existentially-anxious jew twat, fake eyelashes a-flutter? i don't think so ... all perfectly natch, white males should all suicide because of y'know, white privilege, white shiksas report to porn filming trailers.

Brother. I don't know what race you are but I'm guessing it's what you call the red race. I don't see you as anything better or worse than mine. I see you as an equal. Same as you should see me. anyone that uses race as an argument doesn't have anything better to say.

i have proposed much much more immediate solutions, literally revolutionary ones, i have littered my G+ with descr. and crude drawings ... mind, this a nontweeter

Part of the reason Jared Kushner has engendered such public interest, besides the power he suddenly wields and the curiosity generated by his near-invisible media presence, is the paradoxes that he represents. He brought the Silicon Valley ethos, which values openness and inclusiveness, to a campaign that promised closed borders, trade protection and religious exclusion.

So do you think that Croatia did not have a legitimate right to defend its territory. The ethnic Serbs occupied one quarter of the country and were armed by the JNA. Do you think that if Croatians came into Serbia don't you thing the Serbs would do he same thing. That film was hysterical propaganda and I could only watch 10 minutes and it has nothing to do with this film. The occupation was illegal and the plan was to create a greater Serbia for economic reasons, and not some mythical ethnic reason, as the Serbs like to shout about. The politics in Serbia in the 1990s were instrumental in creating the foundations for war. Even before that they were manipulated at a rally on Kosovo Polje in 1989 by Milosevic. And in answer to that fatuous journalist, John Bosnitch , the reason why Serbs celebrate their defeat on Kosovo Polje in 1398 was because, according to legend (!) (read the epic Serbian poems about Kosovo) the night before the battle by 'divine' intervention they were offered either a temporal victory on earth if they won the battle, or an eternal 'victory' in heaven if they lost, they chose to loose. This is why the Serbs identify with the Israelis, and thus feel they are a 'chosen' people and this was predictably illustrated in this terrible film.

A second point raised in this film which I saw was about the impaling of Serbs by 'Turks' this practice comes from Ivo Andric's novel, a work of fiction. That is not to say that this practice never happened but I doubt it was common practice. Do Christians these days still rant about burnings at the stake? Many Serbian families in the centuries under Ottoman rule willingly gave a son to convert to Islam and to join the Ottoman army because that child would be paid and given an education, not to mention a lower tax burden for his family.

Another point was the 'exodus' in August 1995 with the claim of 1000s killed. Curiously, the film shows many ethnic Serbs leaving, but leaving with all their possessions. Was this privilege afforded to the Croats when their villages in Croatia were burnt down in 1990 and 1991? Have you seen any films about Vukovar? Or Srebrenica? Or even Sarajevo?

Who were the bad guys there?

So, I don't know where you live but I guess you abide by the laws of your country, pity the ethnic Serbs didn't in this country. Incidentally, this film is a point of view from the people who experienced this horror not from those sitting comfortably in their armchairs making bland comments. Please educate yourself. Enough!

i hope you feel better ... and at least good enough .. warmed up enough to give us a review of "The Weight of Chains" ... i noticed it comes up on vidsites that feature a title by yourself that doesn't appear to be on youtube. A review is basically all i asked you (and that CAN be taken as asking you ALL, as you please).

We cannot hide behind local mores, pleasantries and 'schofferingen' (offenses) thereof when dealing with NATO now can we??? The closest thing we have to a NATO not completely subverted is what's happening at Standing Rock -- perhaps a voluntary basis is the only one that can make these things work and yes, that IS scalable down as well as up .. to writing with whited rock for example (does FINTE mean peace?) or with rockdust so thick and wide the message is a mile in length and can be read in the canopy from 10 miles up.
ps: thank you for replying Andrew!

the rest of movie is worthwhile, i hope you watch it. serbs as wannabe victim status wielders? interesting facet ... but what about actual judaics / bolsheviks 'covering' their tracks? that is to say demonizing methods they em- and deployed themselves projected on- and into meanwhile abandoned, forsaken prey in order to prey upon them again from a new vantage and leverage point? zoggled us vs former ussr comes to mind, fighting their own, meanwhile outrun and renamed shadows as it were (a perverse form of confession). Isn't wahabbism weaponized judaicism in the same way nazism was?

what i said applies to the occupy movement, to the protectors of Standing Rock on the Cannonball (a name that inspired me to offer my dynamicization of the med'cin wheel / calendar comparaplex) and to every voter who wishy wash hopey change takes an outside chance that their candidate is a outsider (against all evidence to the contrary in this latest case i might add). My work can be reached, taught, honoured, implemented, ridiculed ignored and attacked at all times .. but not stacked up against others in the returning pissing contest tally atrocities ... but i would dearly love to raise a working above my head and run up and down the frontlines that are not already and not just yet immediately lethal and perhaps i can turn an eye and heart from the brink of ptsd .. towards diffusion, snatched from all too collective versionf of stormeyes, towards stepped down and manageable 'utilitoiy' versions. Good luck collecting more baubles to stuff your house with ... did you bring home a few blockchips from those pyramids?

I don't quite know what you are saying but, no, I don't need to watch the rest of the film. I have had this argument enough times that it gets tedious. Try watching the BBCs Death of Yugoslavia, its a little less biased. As for 'FINTE', surely you mean 'ANTE' he was the Croatian general acquitted of all war crimes concerning 'Oluja', which is more than can be said about your apologists. Thanks for writing anyway.

Comment on EU could collapse any time now, leading to WWII — by lobro - 08-12-16 06:15
re. "jewish journalist named Pollard" i briefly looked at the link and saw this
By Monday Austria could have a fascist president (again, one is tempted to write, after its experience with Kurt Waldheim)
.. yes, what other phraseology to expect from a jewish journalist named Pollard. the greatest mistake is to be apologetic or conciliatory to them. State it directly, up front when a Jew accuses you of fascism or anti-semitism: "Yes, I am a fascist, i hate you and your kind and don't want you in my neighborhood - end of discussion". you will get way more respect from jew - guaranteed.

@1138, Flopot, first, let me tell you how much i enjoyed this exchange series, not only because of how cogently were the arguments and counterarguments framed but even more because of the unfailing civility - the old world manners, entirely devoid of ad hominem. Thank you for being European. I would suggest to Monty to publish the series for that alone, an example of Judenfrei debate. though my inclination is toward flopot's side and i will forward couple of points, mostly in that direction. Yes, in the misty past, the European tribelands were highly pastoral and land-rooted Celtic cultures with a shamanistic worship of natural elements, sacred groves and animals, local deities and suspicion of strangers. Clan warfare was the order of the day, cattle and women stealing, huge premium on man's honor above all. In fact, Romans inherited much of that too, a Roman's oath was binding above everything, because they practiced ancestor worship, like so many others, including the Grecian, Celtic and oriental ones, thus, to shame and displease one's ancestors whose company one expected to join someday was much worse than death. In that, 1138 is right, jew would have had absolutely no point of access or possibility of stealthy bloodsucking that is his singular life skill. But the bottom line is that these arrangements were no different from the North American Indians and therefore, the same fate would likely have befallen them sooner or later and in fact did, under the Roman conquistadors, Hispania, Lusitania, Gaul, germany, brittain, Belgae, Pannonia, dalmatia, Moesia, Thracia ... they all keeled under the onslaught of a precision machine that was Roman army. No point blaming Christianity for what happened before christ. Secondly, the notion that in the pre-Christian times, there was no persecution of other religions and beliefs. Quite true, 1138. But precisely here is the cluster mine under your argument. When the persecutions started, WHO WAS PERSECUTED? That's right, after the crucifixion, the martyrdom was heaped on Christians - solely - nobody else. So, is it pertinent to ask WHY? I think so. And my answer is because: a: Christ existed in order to warn the world about the devastating plague of Judaism as the spear carrier of Lucifer, the destroyer of souls and human community (Torah bears me out in completeness on that), b: jews have amassed enormous wealth and influence in the heart of Rome and corrupted the emperors from Claudius onward, especially Nero, young, greedy, dumb and vain, c: Suetonius and Tacitus both reported an ancient prophecy, viz, that quote: There had spread over all the Orient an old and established belief, that it was fated for men coming from Judaea to rule the world .. and this corroborates the writings of jew historian Flavius Josephus. Nowadays, jews prevaricate that it referred to Vespasian, the conqueror of Judea as punishment for non-phariseic transgressions but as I say, it is the usual jew bullshit, wink-and-hasbara for the 3-yr olds who dare peek

under their filthy bedsheets to investigate the hoofprints. If Suetonius says OLD and ESTABLISHED, he no doubt means it. 11348, understand or try to at least for the sake of hypothesis accept the notion that this is a very old, very elemental war, not a video game. Jesus came to educate us on that and if you don't know it like so many innocents whose souls Jesus came to help, JEWS KNOW IT. In all their actions and secret writings, it comes to light clearly when so exposed - HATRED OF CHRIST AND MARY. i won't enumerate examples, it has been done in this forum more than once by posters with much better grasp of dates and details, once I grab the meaning of something, i don't over-analyze, if it makes more sense than any other explanation, that's it for me, I move on. finally, 1138, look at that wonderful Europe of the recent, pre-Jew-imperial past, the unequalled triumph of culture and civilization. what is the binding notion, its circulatory system? Christianity, yes. In morals, art, communities and their mores, up and down and across the continent and definitely including Russia - Christianity, all 2,000 years of it. What is a non-Christian Europe? Don't wonder, just look around you, it is staring you in the face today. In the name of Conchita and Pussy Riot and Soros, amen.

The Iraqi state, before 1991 US assault began, was immensely rich: it could lend a regional gov $billion served; soil mineral imbalances and deficits for instance (to return and stick to the roots of all coinage thingies as close as possible is wisest, 'rite'?), to the point of unrecognizability, a remix and trade off complex that prompts the totally mixed ups and insecuritizables to cling to coins and/or locale coordinates just as undead but seemingly solid as their bookish/bookie 'eyedonetotey', IS a bit rich don't you think ?? In the outcome, however, Russian and international bankers believe the bond proceeds are the principal source of the privatization deal. A source close to the dealmakers explains:

Putin told Sechin to get more money out of Rosneft and into the budget to reduce the deficit. So the idea was to sell shares. But noone in the market wanted to buy something too small to represent even a blocking stake. The Russian oligarchs all refused because they don't have the money. If Sechin came back to Putin with state bank financing, then the deal would obviously look fake, and simply move cash from one state pocket to another. Rosneft's oil traders like Trafigura were asked for the cash as prefinancing for oil, but they said no. So in the end the Central Bank created the money through the bond financing, and then guaranteed the state banks' role in the privatization. That has been camouflaged by the appearance of Glencore and QIA. Putin and Sechin wanted to prove the money came from the outside, so Glencore and QIA were persuaded with hefty rewards to act as fronts. Anything you can; t make transparent, though, is a mistake. And Sechin has compounded the mistake by making such a victory celebration of something that isn; t what it seems.

A New York bank source said of the Rosneft leaks to the Russian press, and of the Russian propaganda organs in English. The Duran claimed:

There's been too much of a victory celebration. Another blow to Western sanctions and a vote of confidence in Russia's economy. Russia has pulled off another coup.

Sorry but I know what I've put on my videos and no, I never even put "completely" restored on any of them. Which is quite ironic how you seem to think that you're going to get any answers by insinuating your own foolishness. You ask, you got the answers right in front of you and yet you still ask because you're nothing more than an ass. That's all you can be unfortunately. It's really quite entertaining how you say that you were expecting me to be "human" when my people have been classified as "sub-human" for so long. This is how a real human tells you that you're a fool. By showing you proof and you STILL being unable to grasp it. Only a fool would think that there is more to the Truth besides what is shown. Especially when I have no reason to lie to anyone nor will I ever lie to anyone. You can accept that or not. But you're wasting your precious time by commenting because I'm not budging. Again, waste more of your precious life time by complaining. See what good that does for you

'good' aside, i am always interested to learn how people tick .. the bible is full of schizo seedings if only bycause the alphabet itself and the one in a billion excepted, uses of it drive that polarization wedge forwards and backwards ... so i don't know why you make such a big deal about now/later and/or fully/partially .. destroy/restore is one of them emopomposity thingies that squeeze the life out of middle ground between them, where folks like me, when left alone, or god forbid, understood helped enough to get and stay naturally busy relying on fresh dust from 'destroyed' rock - giving it a shine gets you dust enough though .. please remember and my plans for perfectly spherical 'cannonballs' to roll out the pipeline recycling jobop - to restore/feed soil.

ps: "must be nice to benefit" -- the 'benefit' is all yours (nasty, not 'nice', odd word to use considering you think i am) since judging me 'saves' you from the trouble of giving credit, which

You just love to troll. First you ask for credits on another video then you come to this one really fast. I find that really funny. It must be real nice to benefit off of telling someone to NOT "fall for / with it". When I've provided nothing but Truth in the videos. Also, I know what searching something out is and that's why I've given it. If you're too lazy to search for it yourself than by all means keep asking because you've been given things your entire life and it's only a learn trait to ask for what's normally given right? to never work on it yourself.

I never showed us indigenous peoples "completely restored". Which is a stupid thing to say on your part. Where have we been given the respect that we've earned by the endurance we've showed as well as the suffering we've gone through in the name of "christ"? How many times have I shown how destroyed we were and yet we've never been killed off because, frankly, we ARE the Israelites. God even says that in Scripture, the Israelites will be destroyed but never killed off. Only when the Israelites come to God do we become completely restored, that hasn't happened yet. So No, we haven't been completely restored. We don't run this continent nor the promised ands we were blessed with by God. Until that time, that's when we will be completely restored. As for completely destroyed, we have been. Not anymore. We're slowly gaining back what we lost because we're returning to God.

For anyone that reads this, this person here is merely a troll. Listen to how the wicked literally says to "not fall for / with it" when talking about the Bible. Only a wicked person will try to separate a soul from the Truth.

"I never showed us indigenous peoples "completely restored""

Opinions are a dime a dozen. Yet when proof shows something to be true, people like you just can't help but throw in their two cents. Even when more than enough proof has been given. Yet you say you like to learn about how people tick. You're not in it for the reseatch on the topic, you're researching me. Which I figured is a possibility and that's just fine. Keep on keeping on my social butterfly, you keep on complaining and see how far it gets you because you just put your intentions out there.

Anyone who's paying attention on this comment thread, this is a tactic used by social researchers to try to get a reaction off of the one they are having a "study" on. What this individual fails to learn is that I certainly care not for those that literally expose themselves then try to cover their own ass by spewing out more nonsense just to try to spark a debate. Here's how it's done. A researcher gone wrong, a malicious intent shown to be the reason, now more nonsense to spark a debate to see how the one being research reacts to further the study. Probably some form of U.S. Government agent, FBI CIA NSA hell even the KKK or Skull and Bones, might even be Morton County trying to uncover stuff. It's a form of "reaction" then solution, the solution being the "exposure" of the one being studied to the public as however they want to spin it. Obviously not that smart to again, expose oneself to the one you're studying. Oh, and going back to edit out your mistakes or to add more to what you just put won't really help you out. It's saved.

i give up, you win, you get to keep what you weren't putting at stake for me to win along with a modicum of respect in the first place.

the so-called "trade deficit with china" this tendentious buckpassing bullshit docu whines about from end to end is [In Actual Fact, besides opiumwar2.0] a euphemization of and for the fines, penalties, reparations clean ups money the US owes china for foisting its polluting rot on them, tempting them into committing cruelty on all forms of life .... and the us replaced the stuff they delegated and unburdened themselves from with what?
with worse, ... fracking 'seance'.

i truly despise the sneaky al jazeera tactic
when it comes to backwater battles they give ample time to the underdog, the harmed, the 'injustified', the run over or/and run off, almost gushing with sympathy and patience .. which all turns out deceptive and phoney in light of the fact that on the bigger battles, casus belli et al, their programming does a 180 to shill and give time to shills willing to mislabel all the cruel, greedy and viceful phenoms imposing the conditions the champion in former mentioned cases, as they cascade down the chain of command and supply. And if you pressed them on this, blowing the thin cover of them hoping you won't notice, they'll come with lame defenses like 'equal time to both sides. Both tactics distract from what absolutely must happen at the frontline for it to defuse and grow into something new recycling the best of both sides without all the PTSD and supremacy. See my G+ pinned post for an 'oootmpppp' = oil out of the market pricing plant principle.

tell me if they're NOT feeding the PTSD front from both sides.

.. by way of SS (Sylvana Simons), a coloured citizen who attempts to exteriorize rather than exorcise a cognitive dissonance (the compartmentalization and split of one's value holon into at least 2 contradictory ones). She wants to enter parliament and try heal the split between racism and it's denial and/or lack of effective cure (the former IS/is real, the latter absent) which would only turn the imbalance into a mirrored [FORT/DA] version of course .. and the same thing goes for all the other shite her type espouses. It mirrors what a white elite has gotten away with by miming it, acting it out, even as they pretend to attack it, thus the white elite can prolong it's undead crap by pointing at blacks who aren't any better, who don't engage in taking racism seriously and with enough respect and understanding to go for simple 'separative' solutions.

the immediate result would be to downgrade both my best friend's and my wife's status :-} - You Are Fired! aside: all of us wonder at some point who might be the best friend and it is a shifting dynamics, i suppose, mostly gradual but if i found all of my "best-friend" candidates banging my wife, there would be a massive purge to be sure. Acting like a clean & machine native american in a white skin is as phoney as a constitution written over the backs of displaced peoples. You'll never have justice in the middle east for all these reasons .. cause, as i wrote yesterday (about the tip of the intercontinental iceberg):

In the end of October (2016) we learned from the British Jewish media that Police were called to University College London (UCL) amid claims of "common assault and verbal intimidation by pro-Palestinian protestors at an event with an Israeli speaker."

We had to wait another three month for a single honest Jew (Jerry Lewis of Hampstead Synagogue) to admit in front of the notorious ultra Zionist BOD, that the event at UCL were actually provoked by Jewish groups that have nothing to do with students. At least one of those Jewish groups is funded by Israel according to Lewis. These groups invoke hatred against Jews because this is how they justify their existence and sustain their funding.

Even if the warming is true (I honestly don't know), deindustrializing the west is counterproductive, ie, has the opposite effect because it results in accelerated industrialization of east which has less stringent environmental protection controls.

UFOs are not credible to me ----- me neither. i read some study a while ago, don't press me on particulars because i don't remember, only the overall discussion, that said that in order for the cognitive intelligence to develop, not only must there be astrophysical arrangement of star-planet pairing satisfying very precise parameters in terms of sizes and distances but even under ideal circumstances, the odds of life appearing were exceptionally tiny, yet Earth beat them (life started at about 8 billion years big bang time), so if there is life elsewhere, it will happen much later in the evolution of universe, say, when it is 20+ billion years old. In other words, we are very early. Not to mention that if some other bunch managed to beat the odds, they would most likely be millions of light years away. So no ufos outside planet hollywood. and if there were any, why wouldn't they go for a nice holocaust, are they all deniers? To me, that's the solid proof there ain't any of either (absence of holocaust points to absence of ufos - what's the point of sending extraterrestrial libtards instead of galactic fumigators).

David Icke and the meaning of Jewish power
Gilad Atzmon, Jan 24 2017
Jewish power is the power to suppress discussion on Jewish power. Seemingly this power is waning these days. Jewish media outlets have reported today that campaigners are calling for a Manchester venue to be fined after it hosted 'notorious anti-Semite' David Icke in front of a sold-out crowd this weekend. But what is it that makes Icke into a 'notorious anti-Semite'? He reckons that Jews control the world and started WW1. He also believes that Jews dominated the Versailles Peace Conference and created the circumstances which made WW2 inevitable. It is rather obvious to every reasonable human being that in a free society, Icke is entitled to his thoughts and should be free to share them with the rest of us. Apparently, Stephen Silverman, the director of Campaign against Anti-Semitism (CAA), doesn't agree at all. Jewish history, he believes, can't be discussed freely. But can you think of any other people who attempt to block the rest of us from looking into their past? Can Muslims, for instance, stop us from looking into their history? As things stand, even the British ruling class doesn't attempt to prevent us from looking into the crimes of British imperialism. In Britain, some Jewish organisations attempt to stifle the discussion of the Jewish past. They probably know that they have a lot to hide. The truth of the matter is that Jews are often ashamed of their history. Early Zionism was, in fact, a promise to wipe out the Jewish past and introduce a new Jewish beginning on someone's else land. I learned today that Stephen Silverman isn't just concerned with Icke's take on Jewish history, he is also disturbed by the fact that some gentiles have managed to profit from Icke's popularity. He writes:

Not only did the O2 Apollo allow him to address their packed venue for twelve hours, they profited from it.

Silverman knows that looking at the current international blunders (inflicted on us by the likes of Soros, Goldman Sachs, Israel, neocons and others) in historical perspectives can't be ignored anymore. David Icke is on the road at the moment. Israel and its Sayanim are desperately trying to stop him for a reason. He is obviously a truth-teller.

Israeli forces uproot 500 Palestinian olive trees
PressTV News Videos - 85K - 438 views - Jan 26, 2017
Israeli forces have uprooted 500 olive trees belonging to Palestinians in the occupied West Bank. According to the mayor of Kharas village, Israeli troops escorted bulldozers as they uprooted the 14-year old trees. The people in the area say that Israeli authorities are attempting to expel them from their land. An olive tree is highly symbolic for Palestinians and a vital source of income. It is the third reported such incident this year.

Documentary on the history of Judaism, the Bible (Torah/Tanakh) and the Jewish people of Israel. Using the latest archaeological evidence from the stables of Ramses II to little-known ancient Egyptian texts, Egyptologist and Bible Archaeologist show that Israel did in fact exist and had a presence in ancient Egypt. "The Bible's Buried Secrets" is the title of a NOVA program that stirred controversy even before its first airing on PBS, on November 18, 2008. According to the program's official website: "The film presents the latest archeological scholarship from the Holy Land to explore the beginnings of modern religion and the origins of the Hebrew Bible, also known as the Old Testament. This archeological detective story tackles some of the biggest questions in biblical studies: Where did the ancient Israelites come from? Who wrote the Bible, when, and why? How did the worship of one Godâ€œthe foundation of modern Judaism, Christianity, and Islamâ€œemerge?"

It's hard to tell this story without exposing some Nazi atrocities. While this film cast nearly every German soldier in a poor light, it didn't focus on those atrocities. Moreover, it didn't give a pass to the Soviets who oppressed Orthodox Christians and who, all too often, treated their own war victims who tried only to survive as collaborators with the enemy. In fact, the theme of the film was the conflict between loyalty to one's soul, if you will, and one's country. I thought it handled that conflict extremely well.

I agree completely with you about the nature of war and the evil men on both sides who start them. I also agree that most people have been brainwashed or are numbed to the atrocities committed in their name by those evil men who control their governments. However, this film, which carries an anti-war message, is better than most in every respect.

This ironic-esoteric style of thinking is necessary for the conversation between Belden and the Chaps in the Crap House when Belden admits the envisioned result of his efforts is a Turkish/US occupied Northern Syria and they don't ask why then he is not volunteering with the communist opposition to this project fighting for Syria's integrity and the equal rights of all Syrians to live and work anywhere in Syria
The meanings of the essences in play drive his story, not the concrete reality of Syria in which he is working not to liberate "Kurds" but to trap a certain number of Syrians in a de-democratized and occupied statelet and cut them off from Syria (their pensions+welfare state)

Concrete Syrian Kurds will be dispossessed and denationalized by Belden's project but "Kurdishness" will somehow be validated in spectacle.

Wars which they had to redo and would have to redo again were they wantin n willin to end 'warz for izrealHELL' that baddens them and saddens their targets in greater isreal's crosshairs (completely unmoored from the healthy kernel of zionism; the graft placed and nurtered by Hitler ironically enough - check ed black on that 'poleace') ... warz radiatin allaround to the outcrowd (refusing tacit, implicit conversion ie, acceptance of the western value / tax / payment complex).

That said, there IS a wole nother dimension:
Trump means to be a good European and attempts to ventriloquiz / soufler / EUwhisper across the pond .. and yes it would be a good start .. but the eusians would have to add:

..in order to make room for the RECALL OF OUR OWN BAD PEOPLE ... the ones that betrayed abandoned their heritage (in the face of a liddul tyranny, psawh!), ridin bible vectors and whatnot (fevervisions of goldnuggets anyone?), crossing the pond to go 'bother' other people ... but there's worse ... and they conveniently hide their distributed much much more fatal (even) venom behind this contiguous collosus occupying turtle island. i am speaking of course of the strangely kameleonic phenom known as zionism, an ancient orthodoxy wearing layers and layers of shimmering drag and/or drapes of decency, depending on zoning laws (pope has finally seen the sign of the times and joins the tide of disgender euphoria without a struggle: who the heck could fight the genderbending, hormone disrupting plastic lobby, let alone worse?)

Sard, slow but steady does it, he must 1st protect his position and resources and gradually build up the offensive power. I do wonder why is he at every opportunity filling administrative positions with battle tested army veterans, none of whom were NATO deadasses: Mattis, Flynn, Kelly, McMaster and parking them as overseers of military branches. And against the fierce congressional opposition which each time insisted on putting civilians (Jews) into these slots. Can't have martial law without martial guys on your side.

Pence is assassin in the wings foisted on Trump as part of the republican deal that allowed him to proceed with party nomination. he simply had to get some party mass behind him or else run as independent. it may yet happen that we'll end up with Pence as president which should provide some relief and joy for Trump haters, business back to normal. Pence's CPAC speech was a mind numbing boilerplate, insincere glint in eyes - scary! CIA-Mossad has been busy killing Russian diplomats everywhere and Churkin was their latest wet job in order to ensure Trump does not get too friendly with Russia.

BD - I enjoyed the reply. I fell off a pumpkin truck in the 50s and landed in a pile of information compiled by Mullins, Dilling, Pound, Comparet, Emry, Winrod, ER Fields.... etc.... and the Thunderbolt in B'ham, Spotlight in DC and Sons of Liberty in Metairie, Louisiana. So, I read a lot. I tossed the Birchers after 20 years of BS. I also spent a lot of time at Library of Congress and National Archives in DC when in Virginia in Navy. It was all on those new-fangled micro-fiche machines.. I watched JFK closely. He was a failure. A complete failure. Even at life (drugs-n-babes). The CIA and FBI made sure of that. (I believe he had a death wish. He was always on drugs, big-time, for back pain. Dozens of hard-core Rx meds a day... and cocaine...etc.) It is fun to guess. Mine would be: He would not have had any more success in any military confrontation than his failure at the Bay of Pigs. His own government would not let him. They knew the election was rigged. To them, he was an interloper.... not to be trusted or obeyed. JFK, himself, knew he was a "bum"... Back in Washington the CIA and the Kennedy administration concluded that the invasion would fail. In a conversation with his brother, Robert Kennedy, the president said he wished he had permitted the use of U.S. ships to back up the Cuban exiles. - "i'd rather be an aggressor than a bum" he said, <http://blogs.britannica.com/2009/01/4-kennedys-failure-at-the-bay-of-pigs-top-10-mistakes-by-us-presidents/>

normally, i wouldn't give 2 shifts about sessions

also, each such elimination is another serious injury

what may happen to their culture of spirit cooking

if you really want to piss him off write him this "but atzmon just triggers some mildly allergic reaction in me, like consuming some genetically modified product." judaism is a peoplehood not a religion.
Atzmon just can't digest the facts. and in addition to this the concept of excommunication doesn't really exist in judaism so he will just have to bear his 'cross'.

niqnaq - 05-03-17 15:57

Gilad doesn't claim to have been excommunicated.
That would suggest some grievance against self-appointed Jewish takfiris who had told him: "You're not really Jewish at all!" But this is the opposite. He Palestinian."

lobro - 05-03-17 16:17

so what are you saying, harry, is that the ones like benjamin freedman or brother nathaniel kappner are still welcome into the judaic flock? furthermore, this

she is a lousy "esther" material but the "muds" like falashas, kochin indian converts or the china jews are

Comment on St. Valentine's Vendetta: My 10 Year Battle With Canada's Jewish Lobby by lobro -- March 9, 2017, 4:51 PM

Yes indeed, though I supported Arthur, i by no means feel that it was a wasted donation and effort because it exposes the JEW for what he is in each and every country he infested - enemy of the people. Canada has a surprising number of high quality dissidents, yes, Zundel, Topham, Monica Schaeffer, prof Denis Rancourt, Ian MacDonald, John Keegstra and others ... and the greatly missed Douglas Christie, the greatest legal defender of this basic human right - the right of speech.

well, i do agree with you on all points Pat. and i also like to draw distinction between the nature of Jesus and militant Christianity that kept Jews at arm's length, locking them up for the night and banning them from many state services and usury. The way of the whip sounds good. the first step to combating the menace is to clearly recognize its methods and not fall into the trap of artificial morality known as political correctness.

well yes, Sard, you see the abomination (let's assume that Holocaust is true, therefore Holocaust is a fact) - fact is one thing and assumption is quite something different and exclusive of fact, ie, the two have no overlap, except in Jew's linguistic rape of the language - this is what got my attention. a fact is something that results from and can be ascertained by probatory evidence. assumptions are hypothetical premises agreed on by all parties from which the rules of inference proceed to build a body of theory - but if the assumptions are doubted or challenged, there is no point continuing. Example, Euclidean postulate of parallel lines that though lying in the same plane, have no point in common. It doesn't work in a number of other geometries, eg, hyperbolic or Riemannian. thus, an example of factual assumption is a Chosen Gentile, ie, no such thing, but a jew would love to slide it past our noses.

I am seeing a common mistake being made here and around the internet in general that people think false flag=fake.

NO. False flag means an operation carried out by one group of people in secret and blamed/made to look like another. You really need to get that straight because saying false flag and then listing reasons why its "fake" makes you look really stupid and hurts the truth movement/counter culture.

[â€"]supercede 9 points 1 day ago

This story is really interesting because some sources are saying rebels placed a chemical weapons cache somewhere and that those were bombed by accident... I feel like that probably happened on its own, and is just a shitty outcome of a shitty bankfinanced war; but then again, anyone could have bombed the cache...

[â€"]rah311 17 points 23 hours ago

It makes me sense to me that they bombed a stock pile. Either way it is obvious Assad would not do this as it would not give him any strategic advantage and would only hurt him

Trump's political base wants to see the kind of spirited resistance to Jewish Communists that Muzychko displayed. Ukraine needs to find more men like him and make sure they adequately communicate their ideals to both Ukrainian and American audiences.

Comment on American Psycho Drops Mother Of All Bombs On Afghanistan ---by lobro --- April 17, 2017, 3:40 PM

Trump fires totally ineffective blanks at some Syrian landfill (i also suspect that the Assad govt made up the body count of 6, there were likely no victims). Trump drops MOAB on JEWSIS in Kandahar province, the CIA-Mossad built Jihad U from where the cockroach graduates disperse to deliver talmud greetings to russian subways and european cities as well as syrian and iraqi innocents (read about what MOAB does). Conclusion? Trump is crypto working for Jew, etcetera etcetera. My question: why wasn't it the other way around, lay MOAB on Assad and empty tomahawks on JEWISIS? Somebody tell me, i guess i am stupid.

Sard, it's ok, i can deal with isolation, being a loner by nature, it suits me fine. All that you said and linked is valid within the scope of diverse opinions, indicators, hints and weather-vanes, none of which comes close to a smoking gun or proof of a serious red line violation, yet everyone seems to treat as such. I asked a very simple question, mostly this is what i do, pose an unambiguous question that should give the stampeding herd a pause but they are oblivious to doubt, like a pack of bovines stoned on jew kool aid. You mentioned a whiff of praise for trump from the torah side and this is a valid observation, except that i already said that this is the ONLY reason Trump does these seemingly randomly evil things like badmouth russia, bomb empty parking lots in Syria, threaten Lil Kim ... to get some official jew praise, not because he craves it but to force it through their clenched teeth because it goes on RECORD and it is subsequently very hard for them to back down - this is a patented jew method, that any admission of weakness or uncertainty, instead of eliciting reciprocal show of chivalrous camaraderie, is instead a foothold for applying further pressure - never walk back from jew, never admit the slightest hesitation or mistake, make him pay for the tiniest backtracking, never forgive. Trump KNOWS this, he knows jew's shitty soul, something that precious few gentiles have a clue about. As for Pat and my question, What can i expect from the King of Nonsequiturs? i expected him to reply with something absolutely unrelated and am pleased to say he didn't disappoint. hopefully, someone else will give it a more focused go.

Trump's Kind of Jews - Chabad, same as Putin's <http://nationalvanguard.org/2017/04/chabad-putins-jews-and-their-man-trump/> Despite its small size, Chabad has grown to become the MOST SPRAWLING Jewish institution in the world, with a presence in over 1,000 far-flung cities, including locales like Kathmandu and Hanoi with few full-time Jewish residents. The movement is known for these outposts, called CHABAD HOUSES, (sayanim) which function as community centers and are open to all Jews. 'Take any forsaken city in the world, you have a McDonald's AND a Chabad house,' explained Ronn Torossian, a Jewish public relations executive in New York.

"Either Scahill is deliberately dumbing down the movie, or worse yet he genuinely doesn't know this history and the characters behind it. Either way, as the film's critics note, the CIA, the organization that has been the lynchpin of all such operations in the past and has a documented history of military assets for plausible deniability in denying involvement in such actions, gets off scot-free in this 90 minute 'expose' of the war on terror, only being mentioned once or twice, in passing, with excessive focus on JSOC."

Comment on The Rise of the Generals by lobro

April 30, 2017, 3:54 PM

Franklin, I read the semitic controversies opinion and it is a valid criticism of the document itself, though not of its content ... one of those situations, bad vehicle for a good content. It strikes me that the owners of the semitic controversies are jews, albeit rather honest ones, maybe ex-jews like yossi gurvitz types. I may comment in that regard in more depth but for now, just understand that my theory is in no way altered by this aspersion on the reported speech. Eustace Mullins has never been less than 100% honest and if he got taken for a ride, so was i in extension. Quite possibly, the "speech" was actually some hurriedly taken notes of the actual meeting by someone who interviewed an attendee and it certainly makes tons of sense. There is no doubt in my mind that post-WW2, Jews were pushing hard for a hat trick as they have clearly continued ever since, everything points that way, Korean war, shipping nuclear secrets to the Soviet union, Cold war and so forth, right up to today's maneuverings. My claim stands: there is absolutely no way we would be even conversing about it today had it not been for a very significant drag on jewish efforts by fake shabbos applying brakes in all sorts of ways - remember, it takes a goy to fight jew's wars. And if we can identify these fake shabbos and give them maximum help and support, the fight against this satanic menace would take a very positive turn and might remove the menace altogether. Otherwise all this feeble and moronic activity about home made bunkers, camping supplies as a way of fighting back is ridiculously puny, inefficient and defeatist.

Hamza H. Green - Slay Your Dragon
And contrary to the view propagated by some that anti-Zionism is 'anti-Semitism', Jewish speakers have at various points also spoken out openly against the Zionist agenda. Among them, Rabbi Elmer Berger published the book, The Jewish Dilemma, in which he argued that Jewish assimilation was still the best path for Jews in the modern world and not the segregation and siege mentality of the Zionist state. In Rabbi Berger analysis, Zionism itself was simply resigning to the prevailing racial beliefs about Jews and playing into them.

These pseudo lefts are not just stroking and promoting each other; when they say it's "brave" to say something like "black lives matter" they're deliberately re-opening closed issues and calling into question, controversializing, the most basic convictions that bind us. (This apart from the inspiring instance here, wherein the pseudo feminists are always praising the bravery of men who plagiarize + exploit) It is of course especially galling and offensive when these men help themselves to women's intellectual product only to poison it and misuse it against the women they're exploiting and those women's convictions+causes. BLUMENTHAL (like Kriss) is doing that to Beeley+Morningstar This is the logic of capital, where the product of laborer's labor is expropriated and turned against the laborer as a weapon. The men who do this typically (some women do it too) are operatives of big media capital, exploiting the labor of independent jornos + using what they have alienated from these jornos and monetized as weapons against their despoiled creators (as workers and as political militants).

In this case it's very obvious. (I will mention in passing I don't hold with Beeley's assessment of Soros' role as master of ruling class) But here is an obvious case: Beeley created a devastating critique of WH and Soros; it is widely disseminated and looks to be doing real damage as counterpropaganda. The son of Clinton advisor, an officer of the Soros organization, expropriates Beeley's work - not only (some of) its research but the effect its created, the buzz that its provoked, the attentrons and the credibility it has gained thru its probity and thoroughness...BLUMENTHAL the Soros employee steals all this, and then tinkers with these raw materials to transform them into a defense of the white helmets and of Soros, a monetary and status enrichment of the Soros enterprise Alternet, a feather in the cap of Alternet and its factotum BLUMENTHAL, a Clinton ad, and a weapon against Beeley as a militant anti-imperialist and against her collective use (countering the anti-Syrian gov, pro contra propaganda). Her counterpropaganda is stolen, monetized, refashioned into more US propaganda Against Beeley's will, her work is repurposed to provide material for Blumenthal's cunning Clinton pr+the apocalypse she visits on Syria

ZEMBLA - The dubious friends of Donald Trump: the Russians

ZEMBLA - Onderzoeksjournalistiek - 1.7K

236,830 views - May 11, 2017

Although still in its early days, Donald Trump's presidency is coming under fire. The Russians are alleged to be in possession of sensitive information about Trump. And that exposes Trump to blackmail. Fake news, tweets Trump: "I have nothing to do with Russia" no deals, no loans, no nothing!" Trump swears he has no ties with the Russians. But is that actually the case?

For months, the FBI have been investigating Russian interference in the American presidential elections. ZEMBLA is investigating another explosive dossier concerning Trump's involvement with the Russians: Trump's business and personal ties to oligarchs from the former Soviet Union. Powerful billionaires suspected of money laundering and fraud, and of having contacts in Moscow and with the mafia. What do these relationships say about Trump and why does he deny them? How compromising are these dubious business relationships for the 45th president of the United States? And are there connections with the Netherlands? ZEMBLA meets with one of Trump's controversial cronies and speaks with a former CIA agent, fraud investigators, attorneys, and an American senator among others.

what a pile of innuendo ... the stateside bolshegarch clinton cronies did NOT threaten .. sorry .. advertise massacres and wholesale slaughter????

3. Large "refugee camps" and "safe zones" to be prepared. These will not house Syrians. They will house Palestinians.

4. Israel preparing to wipe out Hezbollah and make southern Lebanon into a ruin. Hezbollah is about to get a taste of Israeli high tech. There $800,000 Sprial anti-tank missile systems will not help them as radar mapping of their tunnel system is finished and they are bombarded with specialist artillery.

5. Egypt Gaza Strip border going to get bombarded to pieces. Gaza "flushed" of Palestinians. Something they never quite pulled off in 2008-09.

They might spare the West Bank as they own it all anyway. They'll need some "slaves" to boss around. Chop wood and carry water.

You need to stop giving time, energy and money to people who lie to you.

Vladimir Vladimirich Putin controls the President of the United States Donald Trump. He does so through his intermediary Bi Bi Netanyahu. Trump is not in bed with "Russians". He is in bed with Russian "Jews". Mobsters, one and all.

Rysn Dawson defends Steve Bannon as an oasis of common sense because he once said to get out of Afghanistan. Of course he does. Those troops are needed to invade Syria to further the Yinon Plan.

Why do you people give money to this cretin? Bannon is best friends with Bi Bi. Brietbart was founded in Jerusalem and London. Fancy that.

I'm most likely heading to Ireland to apply for political asylum. See if I can salvage a life and let the miscreant idiots give you their fine "analysis".

when facing an interminable article like this, i briefly scan it for bullshit-per-paragraph density, if greater than 0.75, i move on. the following pulled the trigger for me: <blockquote>This is not to say that Donald Trump is a latter-day Mahatma Gandhi out to bring peace and brotherhood to the world. To the contrary, heâ€™s a loud-mouthed ignoramus who can barely find Russia on the map</blockquote> how many ingrown ameroids understand the underlying dynamics of trump running out jew's clock to give russia time to man up and eventually win the war? or make jew understand that his chances are slim-to-none. i believe it is true already but in 4 yrs it will be a certainty and that means no universal war, violating the protocol #7. bottom line: trump is chimping them, jumping up and down, creating huge confusion - while doing nothing. basically, rope-a-dope and he is doing it perfectly, a very sophisticated dude that everyone takes for a bufoon. i am convinced that jews see it clearly but there is nothing they can do overtly except send hate-beams at him.

Actually,given the ongoing war on white people and the government`s disastrous racial policies of the last 50 years,i would not have a problem with an all-white enclave as a refuge to those whites looking to get away from the multicultural sewer of so many major american cities.But Mr.Cobb is going about it the wrong way.He needs to eliminate the symbols,and the negative associations and just focus on making a pleasant living experience for white people and on providing empowerment for white people in understanding the future they face due to low birth-rates and a criminal government/media who continues to promote more non-white immigration and miscegenation.In the long term though,a violent revolution will be needed to clean up the racial mess in america,not more white flight or white enclaves;because those will only delay the encroachment,not stop it at the source.

BeWyatched October 9, 2013 Reply

Well why doesn't Mr. Cobb just purchase an island where he can then spew whatever hatred he wants? That way when it fails and there are no improvement in birth rate (many people choose to have one or less children these days regardless of culture) and the racist run government fails they have no one else to blame but themselves. I think that is fair. That way no one would have to worry about it and he would be happy. You know he ran away from Canada so he's not that brave. Kind of cowardly really. Thanks for your post. More details have emerged about the prior familiarity of British intelligence agencies with the Manchester suicide bomber, Salman Abedi, whose murderous assault Monday evening left 22 people dead. Given Abedi's connections and his travel movements leading up to the attack, the only explanation for him being able to remain at large for so long is that he was a protected asset, part of a broad network of operatives utilised by Britain and Pindostan to conduct their nefarious operations in the Middle East.

Comment on Opiates: Death on the Prescription Plan

--- by lobro --- June 8, 2017, 2:39 PM

yes, Franklin, Jews give philanthropy a bad name because they completely reverse its meaning, i.e.,
"philanthropy" to them means, "What is good for Jews", or in other words, "What destroys the goyim". But returning to the monstrously cynical hypocrisy of Ehrenburg, when in 1919 and 1921 he decries the status of jews in Russia, this is going on and recorded from the horse's (Zinoviev) mouth.
His pronouncement of 17 September 1918 sounds almost unbelievable in its monstrosity; Apfelbaum-Zinoviev formulated this holocaust sentence:

"From the population of a hundred million in Soviet Russia, we must win over ninety million to our side. We have nothing to say to the others. They have to be exterminated."

[Quoted in The Black Book of Communism, p. 76]

Of course, the ten million projected murders are a modest understatement, the reality multiplied this by 4 to 6 times according to subsequent estimates.
And yet, Ilya ("Kill a German, rape German women, break their racial pride") Ehrenburg chooses this very moment, when he and his Jew co-centipedes orgied in slaughter of the Christian innocents, to fictionalize some poor, misunderstood Odessa tailor in Palestine or describing the Jews of Europe being consumed by bonfires as European leaders watch from nearby bleachers enough to make Lucifer barf in revulsion. And yet ... and yet, there will always be some goy insisting that majority of jews are just fine, just following the loving nature of judaism to the letter. What is the difference between them and ziochristians hoping to crucify the Christ anew?

Zionist Puppet Theresa May To Crack Down On

Excellent, we are at the jew's secret subliminal sewers, seeding the mutations of future metastases. I consider spotting these diabolical pathways a sort of social oncology, if identified early, a weapon is knocked out of their hands preventively before they could cause irreparable damage. Had people started making major fun of the future "Holocaust" back in 1920, countless deaths and immeasurable misery would have been spared.

Rowan: if this surprises the stupid jew leftists, then they are just being useful idiots for their own mysterious masters, who want Pindostan to go fascist so they can take all their money with appropriate Jewish curses and depart, leaving these impecunious Jew leftist college kids (and gravy train journalists like Lisa Goldman) to dangle
in the slipstream of the Pindonazi superbeast - RB

Pindo intel assholes suspect Russian hackers

CNN, Jun 7 2017

FASCHINGSTEIN - Scumball Pindo investigators pretend that Russian hackers breached Qatar's state news agency and planted a fake news report that contributed to a crisis among Pindocrazy' closest Gulf allies, according to Pindo assholes pretending to know. The FBI recently sent a team of investigators to Doha to help the Qatari government investigate the alleged hacking incident, Qatari and Pindo boxtop

creeps say. 'Intelligence' concocted by the Pindo securicrazy agencies pretend to show that Russian hackers were behind the intrusion first invented by Qatari boxtops two weeks ago. The alleged involvement of Russian hackers intensifies the artificial shitstorm created by Pindo securicrazies already, obviously, ranting and raving anonymously and non-attributably that Russia continues to practice the same imaginary cyber-hacking measures on Pindo vassals that the crazies already pretended it used to meddle in their 2016 elections.

Comment on The Three Superpowers Shape Up For War by lobro -- June 12, 2017, 4:11 PM

Whoa, whoa, torah, torah! You don't get it, do you. Pat, true that our health(s) have seen better days. That said, i don't think that our sapiencia has suffered overmuch, apart from memory lapses, tricks and such. When i said "Don't dodge the judgment", your innocence or bark's guilt had nothing to do with it. I now proceed to demonstrate a basic talmudic technique, whereby tarring someone with a brush properly deserved by someone else is an element of judicial evidence. Fairness is no defence. Truth is no defence. Throwing yourself at the court's mercy and requesting compassion and forgiveness is no defence, not at all. In Arnold Leese's vho.org/aaargh/fran/livres7/LEESERitual.pdf = 'My Irrelevant defence', he describes it thus:

Under the law of libel, the truth of my statements with reference to Ritual Murder could not be used as an argument in my defence; it was deemed sufficient under the law that the statements had been written, and that they "rendered His Majesty's subjects of Jewish faith liable to suspicion, affront and boycott" and so amounted to a Public Mischief. ... [moving on] I came to Court very fully prepared, if the truth of my statements was challenged, to justify the statements I had made in The Fascist, and was even ready to demand that "Rex," the prosecutor, should produce from the Public Records Office certain Close and Patent Rolls of the State wherein Jewish Ritual Murder is recorded as an established fact in this country! But I was forbidden by the Judge to use this line of defence; it did not matter who else had charged the Jews with ritual murder, or how often, or what historic facts proved it, or how many convictions there had been under proper juridical authority; thus, when I asked Inspector Kitchener, the only witness who appeared against me, "When you brought this case, were you under the impression that Ritual Murder was a thing of the past?" and he replied "Yes," the Judge intervened with the remark "The truth of a libel is no defense", I must point out again." Again, the Attorney-General, who was acting as Prosecuting Counsel, interrupted another question of mine to the same witness, by the remark: "In my submission, it is CORRECTLY laid down that the defendant is in no case allowed to prove the truth of a seditious libel as a justification for having published." [Everybody stand up+applaud, for here we witness the birth of POLITICAL CORRECTNESS] The Judge then said, "That is the law as I understand it." He made it clear to me that 'to proceed further in such a line of defence would be CONTEMPT OF COURT', [pursuit of truth is proof of criminally subversive mind (truthopath? veropath?)] as the "truth" of the "libel" was "irrelevant" to the issue of the trial!

so you can see that Libel, as in "BLOOD LIBEL" is a purely talmudic vehicle that steamrolls over truth and justice as either nonexistent or in themselves criminal. here in a nutshell you have the bare bones struggle between Judaism and Jesus who saw it as his mission to combat it and its insane Yhwh's laws and replace them with a simple, clear law of his own, namely LOGOS: Truth, Justice, Compassion, Balance. this grand lesson has been entirely lost on American protestants and gradually bred out of the rest of the failing West and I am conducting this mock prosecution of you Pat to demonstrate its working (maybe I prearranged with barkingdeer to so frame you, feel free to blame my dyslexia, the truth of which is no defense). In Germany, if you are charged with Holo denial and you attempt to defend yourself, that in itself renders you even more criminally liable. So cease+desist Pat, throw yourself at the nonexistent mercy of the 33rd degree Scottish Rite Court because your groveling amuses the august panelists. (maybe if you and your lawyer show up in the judge's chambers with a suitcase loaded with cash, we can cross out Pat and substitute Kim Jong Ill, the Ill or Vlad Putin in your stead or just toss a bunch of :-} 's into the slammer, they don't mind, being of eternally optimistic attitude)

June 12, 2017, 5:59 PM
Truly pointless and toothless kabuki, nothing comes from nothing, just circus+games for the rabble, cheap thrills for the proles, jews know that they are not in a position to hurt trump without possibly inciting a military coup with unforeseen outcomes and they sure like to control all the outcomes, so they won't risk it, just like their fake Samson Option. No, the big game is the geopolitical one where a bipolar world is rapidly forming as the unipolar one, jew World Order dissolves before their eyes and they must regroup and revamp their long term strategy and for all the occult mumbo jumbo, they are very sober and realistic when it comes to the actual battlefield. What does one see happening right now, with Qatar implosion of the Yinon Plan? The thoroughly mindless saudis have to some extent slipped the israel leash with this latest debacle and pissed off Turkey, the military big honcho in that neighborhood, having lost them from the lineup. Mistake compounded by pakistan bolting the barn, siding with Qatar as well, so now there seems to be an axis forming: Pakistan, Iran, Turkey (Sunni-shia alliance, of all things, to Saudis' consternation) and this alliance is "sort of" friendly to Syria, not to mention Iraq and has land-based contiguity, thus hard to encircle with bases of terrorist infiltration and chop up. Mistake further compounded by vindictively, idiotically proclaiming sympathy with Kurds (who do seem to like Israel), just to get back at Turkey but in fact alienating it further, driving it into Putin's bear hug, imagine, a NATO member, maybe the most important one after UK and Germany, if not more so, aligning with Russia! Yinon, anyone? ;-) seems to me the exact opposite, a geopolitical nightmare for the Judean entity. What Trump did in Riyadh is so spectacularly stupid that i wonder whether it wasn't on purpose, a patented "stupidity" that demolishes Jew's game plan at every turn - oops, pardon my bull in your china shop, he is otherwise well behaved - the true reason for the giant apoplexy back (((home))). Pay attention to the 3-card Monty, the ball is not where they want you to think it is, in Comey comedy.

I just read that, thanks for the suggestion, but his view of the MBs as mere British tools seems absurdly out of date, like Larouche, thinking of the days of Lord Cromer and al-Afghani! When they were trying to kill Nasser, the MBs were paid by CIA as much as MI6 probably, because MI6 had no money compared to CIA. In the 1970s they were CIA-controlled, via Tariq Ramadan in Geneva. Have you read Said Aburish's wonderful biography of Nasser?

Comment on Stalin's Jews by lobro -- June 14, 2017 ----- From Douglas Reed, The Controversy of Zion (Durban, South Africa: Dolphin Press, 1978) ---- The records show that the Central Committee of the Bolshevik party, which wielded the supreme power, contained 3 Russians (including Lenin) and 9 Jews. [and Lenin was 1/4 Jew] The next body in importance, the Central Committee of the Executive Commission (or secret police) comprised 42 Jews and 19 Russians, Latvians, Georgians and others. The Council of People's Commissars consisted of 17 Jews and five others. Among the names of 556 high officials of the Bolshevik state officially published in 1918- 1919 were 458 Jews and 108 others. Among the central committees of small, supposedly "Socialist" or other non-Communist parties (during that early period the semblance of "opposition" was permitted, to beguile the masses, accustomed under the Tsar to opposition parties) were 55 Jews and 6 others.

historiography-project.com/books/19820000-exiles-from-history/04leon_trotsky.php == And their attitude to native Russians? --- Trotsky himself approved of the reign of terror that swept Russia. He wrote: Terror as the demonstration of the will and strength of the working class is historically justified, precisely because the proletariat was able to break the political will of the Intelligentsia, pacify the professional men of various categories and work, and gradually subordinate them to its own aims within the fields of their specialties." --- Izvestia 10 January 1919.

During a speech at the International Communist Congress in Moscow the following March he opined: "Blood and mercilessness must be our slogans." ----- Later, to try and explain away the bloody slaughter of the rebellious Kronstadt sailors he wrote: "Idealists and pacifists always accused the Revolution of excesses. But the main point is that 'excesses' flow from the very nature of revolution which in itself is but an 'excess' of history." ----- Lenin too demanded buckets of blood. In June 1918 he reprimanded the Leningrad (nee St. Petersburg) Soviet for being too genteel in their treatment of opponents: "This is unheard of! The energy and mass nature of the terror must be encouraged!" The following month he promulgated a new edict in Izvestia (27 July 1918) to the effect that all "anti-Semites" were to be shot. Lesser luminaries in the Jewish-Soviet heavens took up the refrain. Hirsch Apfelbaum (aka Zinoviev) penned a charming article in the Krasnaya Gazeta (1 September 1918) under the rubric "Blood for Blood": "We will make our hearts cruel, hard and immovable, so that no mercy will enter them, and so that they will not quiver at the sight of a sea of enemy blood. We will let loose the floodgates of that sea. Without mercy, without sparing, we will kill our enemies in scores of hundreds. Let them be thousands; let them drown themselves in their own blood! For the blood of Lenin and Uritsky, Zinoviev and Volodarsky, let there be floods of blood of the bourgeois -- more blood! As much as possible!" ----- One would have thought that all this blood-letting would have quickly terminated any sympathy for the Soviets from their kinfolk in the West. But such was not the case. "There is much in the fact of Bolshevism itself, in the fact that so many Jews are Bolsheviks, in the fact that the ideals of Bolshevism at many points are consonant with the finest ideals of Judaism." London Jewish Chronicle, 4 April 1919. [if those are the finest, one wonders about the rest] "What Jewish idealism and Jewish discontent have so powerfully contributed to produce in Russia, the same historic qualities of the Jewish mind are tending to promote in other countries." -- New York American Hebrew, 20 September 1920. "Jewish histories rarely mention the name of Karl Marx, though in his life and spirit he was far truer to the mission of Israel than most who are forever talking of it." -- Rabbi Lewis Brown: Stranger Than Fiction, NY, 1928. However, at the business end of this great contribution to progress, matters were not quite so explicitly dealt with. No Soviet citizen could be referred to as "Jewish" on pain of death ---- [Hmm, meanwhile there is this "Putin's passport" image claiming his mother was a Jewess, circulating on internet - beware of troll venom] And almost to a man, the Jewish leaders of the Bolshevik takeover changed their Jewish names to Gentile-sounding noms de guerre, usually Russian but sometimes, Polish. They invented Terror as a political tool, bragged endlessly about it and their eagerness to use it to the maximum effect and now, they accuse their enemies of it while insisting to be simon pure clean and innocent: "what me, a poor, kind, suffering Jew"?

Comment on US charged with de facto invasion of Syria and openly supporting Isis by lobro -- June 17, 2017, 6:32 PM ----- The problem is, in this era of universal deceit and manipulation, how can you distinguish his 'real' enemies from his 'fake' enemies? Does this help? dailycaller.com/2017/06/14/huffpo-pulls-article-calling-for-ultimate-punishment-of-trump/ = HuffPo Pulls Article Calling For 'Ultimate Punishment' Of Trump' The Huffington Post pulled a piece calling for the 'execution' of President Donald Trump published Saturday by contributor Jason Fuller. [piece pulled after the baseball shooting by a Sanders supporter who also only joked as evident in that CNN broadcast that ended up blaming Trump for the shooting spree - nobody killed, i guess the shooter was laughing too hard] Fuller's piece contained rhetoric and imagery that seems tasteless, particularly after Wednesday's events. Fuller boldly declares in the title that 'Trump must be prosecuted and - if convicted in a court of law - executed.' Fuller doesn't stop there, however, as he insists that 'impeachment isn't enough' to 'drain the swamp,' and to do so means doling out the 'ultimate punishment [execution]' in order to fully restore the moral compass of the U.S. Fuller's 'ultimate punishment' is not only reserved for the president, but also for 'everyone assisting in his agenda,' including Republican Reps. Mitch McConnell and Paul Ryan and White House strategist Steve Bannon. Fuller claims that 'all must face justice' by being tried, convicted and ultimately executed for treason.

Is this by itself not enough, coming from solidly liberal-mainstream HuffPo? Not to mention numerous calls for his murder coming from jews and sympathizers from outside the country. Or maybe I will hear the comments like "no big deal, it is just par for the course", with jew media being on record calling for killing of Obama, the Clintons, the Bushes ... yes, anyone got links? C'mon now, would you yourself feel funny if facing such good-natured jokes, harmless banter, see here: For America to be redeemed, Harold Smith must be prosecuted for treason - and if convicted in a court of law -executed Need a few of these :-D :-D :-D to perk up your sense of humor harold? Maybe not because you can instantly see that it is just uproarious tongue-in-cheek, oh, such knee slapping family mirth and joshing, chewing on a straw while perched on the cattle fence bordering a county lane. Plus you hear it all the time, every day on your way to the office, in the office, whenever you open the browser, read a paper, neverending jocularly, every day is April the 1st, sunday-monday-foolsday. caveat: i think that you don't need lessons in how to distinguish real from fake enemies, you just refuse to admit it ... I have come across many who claim that Khazars are fake enemies, that vatican jesuits and Hezbollah are real enemies - ask our esteemed Avatar, who is our true friend - everybody agree?

We can't censor their comments just because you don't like them or think they are stupid for failing to see the world as you see it. If we did, we'd have a mass exodus of posters and you would be the only heavyweight poster left, apart from one or two lightweights who shared your Trumpophilia. Reflect on the possibility that you are not necessarily right about Trump, and it is therefore wrong to suggest that your critics are intellectually obtuse for failing to agree with you. You've done that several times, without perhaps being aware of it ...

let's deal with the points you raised on individual basis - and observe that as a rule, I always do that, i always try to seriously answer each specific issue raised - and i ask you to confirm that the matters that i highlight get the same level of attention, therefore i have no excuse for sometimes being exasperated and at the end of my tether, that my interlocutors as a rule do not dodge the issue and resort to non-sequiturs. Do you confirm this? So: â€¢ name the single occasion in my entire history here at Darkmoon when i requested that someone's comments be censored ... i did welcome removal of vicious trolls like Gabreal Jones and Circassian although i wasn't the most vocal or the first to demand such action, â€¢ do i call posters "Jews"? as a rule i do not, Avatar being an exception and as a matter of fact, i don't care that a poster is a jew so long as he is not an obvious troll out to torpedo the discussion, i defended Polatnik and others right to comment as long as it made some kind of sense, didn't resort to ad hominem and contained a bit of useful information, â€¢ as for "lightweights sharing my Trumpophilia", this is doubly unfair: you now judge those who don't disagree with my position as intellectually deficient and moreover, that i am somehow blindly enamoured of Trump, a cultist - i don't think that either point merits a response, â€¢ i am perfectly aware of partial ad hominem i employ(ed) and every time it is based on the following dialectic: i raise a point of fact and logic, which goes unanswered and instead, there are total non-sequiturs, mentions of Burger King franchise in Tehran, pictures of Putin shaking hands with some jew, etc. - anything except dealing with the issue i raised, the "best" answers (best because direct) along the lines of "oh, the jew animosity is only kabuki, in actual fact they love him", without in any way elaborating on such a claim by supplying the breakdown of the humorous punchline or legacy of such occasions involving POTUSes and other public figures similarly maligned who in the end turned out to be Jew's faithful flunkys - yet, were i to call it "moronic", i would end up chastised, right? I don't get it Toby, i guess i am a lightweight.

you 'driving all over' shasta reminds me of the 3 meaning variants for the dutch translation: exaggerate, run over | run past, run away from (hit and run, parallels double crossing [change sides] via overlopen [=walk {all} over], convince = 'overreden' .. reden = reason and past tense of rijden = drive ... and i might as well throw in that schweigert means 'silent one', an expression: 'het zwijgen ertoe doen' points to probs which can only get worse with more words, code, crypt). And that is the self policing prob of all groups, lefties can't 'decentify' their black block bros, jews fail to reign in their Zeviites, Frankists, zionoids, etc, etc, bankers the banksters, hippies the hipsters, defense workers the sanatists and politicians the paedos and otherwise bribables amongst them. the moment you fight with the enemy's weapons and are lost in the extreme male paranoid spy vs spy stuff cause your infostreams are E-waste flows essentially and not sunbeams which you can ground, meet, match and make mate with ['opened source'] rockdust with good results anywhere the rain still rains. shem and shaun (starring roles in Finnegans Wake) are modeled on cain and abel and they in turn on gilgamesh and who was it, .. enki? ... then a bigger leap backwards (hattip to Robert Wrangham's Demonic Males, kind of an unfortunately chosen title) to bonobos (source of the marxist points and impulses) and chimps (all thing 'patrismish'), now we can add george and dave to unending line of polarizers ... although this vid has the first acknowledgement of more connectedness than you were ready to admit thus far. The positive IDman you are trying to be has history, best told by Ulrich von Beckerath but he was nothing compared to positive IDchain of beings man/men we have forgotten Cernunnos prolly stood for, minter of riversilt and/or straight rocksqueeze coin, spent indiscriminately on all soilbanks within reach; they ain't depicted w animals cause of hunting so much as bycause these creatures were grateful to these 'in the beginning' pragmaticians for feeding the tiny life feeding all they feed upon.

Thomas Henry Horan on the Zodiac Myth, the Seth Rich Murder and Pedogate -- thkelly67 - 5.4K - 3,784 views - Jun 11, 2017 ---- Thomas Henry Horan joins Our Interesting Times to discuss his research on the notorious "Zodiac Killer" murders. We talk about the evidence that Zodiac was a hoax perpetrated by corrupt police officials and sensationalist newspapers. Later we discuss why perhaps the serial killer meme was used to obstruct justice and cover up systemic political corruption that extends from the Napa Valley in California to the halls of imperial power in Washington DC. Horan draws a disturbing picture that connects the events in the Bay Area in late 1960's to the July 2016 murder of DNC staffer Seth Rich and the current Pedogate scandal.

AJ+ | RESPONSE: What's The Deal With Jerusalem, Anyway? | Crazy Hair - 3.6K - 426 views - Jun 16, 2017
This is not going to make me any friends. Here goes:
This is a response to an AJ+ video where I feel they have been disingenuous regarding the story of Jerusalem, and who has claim to it. I would like to touch on the Palestinian Authority (PA) in a future video. CrayZeeHair.com for all links don't be fooled when someone says "that's just the way war is" (with or without 2 hands held up and out to the sides). what they are really telling you is: 'that's what we want war to remain', iow, why don't we leave that stinky pile alone, it will reek more if we touch it. no clue about compost, let alone talent to calibrate ownership to treetending record, 100% reaction. This particular specimen takes this as low as it can go (immorally speaking), blaming the palestinians for what they themselves do in her final statement. The only thing missing for a 1 on 1 inversion is a story about how good the izzies are with olives and that their genetic memory of these orbs pulled them strait out of Bolshzogitory.

Race is the "fix" of incoherent liberal ideology which affirms the incompatible principles of private property+individual liberty
Race is not just an ancient superstition, it remains necessary to liberal imperialism's appearance of coherence to collabo clerks. Though It's becoming more and more flexible as coherence becomes less and less necessary for the collabo clerks Race did not originate as biological pseudoscience and isn't confined to it; phenotype remains useful but not inflexibly determining Digitality flexibilizes race differently from gender, only because of the power of constituencies to forbid certain public rhetoric And also because rave designated historical community and gender historical condition of another sort Lately recalling that Herder bit musing on the politics of Western Hemisphere nations: one tribe is "the Woman" for diplomatic negotiations And that bit that Hegel picked up about "Chinese judgements" which is then presented by Foucault via Borges as some kind of wise aperçu, In the preface to The Order of Things, which did more to relegitimize this kind of parochial racial thinking +brand it Left or Dissident Than any academic work I can think of, and paved the way for liberal establishment to accept the extreme racism of Bonfire of the Vanities

you legitimate occupation rackets if you treat the 'justice' system as legit or at least redeemable.

You are 'channeling' money into the legal professions based on misunderstanding of the roots of justice (AND strait out of the protocols besides) which in german and dutch is 'recht' doubling as straight and secondarily as perpendicular, therefore radial. Therefore all efforts to mobilize minerals into soil into trees are not only the right but just things to do. So why not you join me instead of i you?

added perk of studying this (me basically, on top of the comparatively conformist version via the likes of remineralize.org) is it makes time fly .. so your legal process will roll up and unwind before you know it; .. so to the professional health practitioner you are i say: nothing as 'patient' as rock, getting it going is most honourable.

Comment on The Protocols of the Elders of Zion: A

Tsarist Hoax or an Authentic Document? by lobro

July 16, 2017, 5:16 PM

no point me commenting on teh protocols because hitler said it best as far back as 1925

<blockquote>The best proof that they are authentic is the fact that what the majority of Jews do unconsciously is consciously exposed. And that is what matters. It is completely indifferent from what Jewish brain these disclosures originate; the important thing is that with positively terrifying certainty they reveal the nature and activity of the Jewish people and expose their inner contexts as well as their ultimate final aims. The best criticism applied to them, however, is reality. Anyone who examines the historical development of the last hundred years from the standpoint of this book will at once understand the screaming of the Jewish press. For once this book has become the common property of a people, the Jewish menace may be considered as broken</blockquote> and in the 100 yeras since he said that, the truth of it was borne out many times - in addition to 100 years that he'd commented on. but that alone is not sufficient reason for me to post. it is this: in order to fight the jew, one must anticipate which of the available options he will choose for his next move and my own study of the Protocols helped me get inside their heads a bit. he is in major trouble right now, the gentiles outside america are waking up are ready to fight back, the project is on shaky grounds due to the seemingly divine wrench thrown ito its wheels: dissemination of information via internet and although much is lies, people are awoken to the principle of waging war by deceit. my bet on his next move: employ the ziochristian hordes and subjugate vatican. This is accomplished by absorbing the Christ into judaism, claiming that he is their chief rabbi, always was until the evil romans crucified him despite jew opposition. Many prominent jews will proclaim their identity with Christ the Khazar and the Vatican will confirm and bless this resorption, ensuring that anyone who wishes to follow Christ can only do so through the synagogue doors. They will proclaim Christ to be the long anticipated Messiah of Zion, All-Is-One, kneel to the chosen. And then comes the End, whichever way.

thanks Leo for that link. here is something that buzzed me like a jolt of high voltage when i read it:
<blockquote>"The Rothschilds had to do it," said Ginsburg, "because it is so ordered in their family compact." I asked him what he meant by that, thinking of A. Conan Doyle's "The Musgrave Ritual". "Each heir to the Rothschild fortune must read the compact and agree to fulfil (sic) its provisions, to the best of his ability, during his lifetime," he said. "There is no argument with the terms of the compact, regardless of any perception of danger or undesirability on the part of the heir. The family compact has the force of law." "But," I said, "the state of Israel is very much a danger to the interests of world Jewry." "I agree with you," said Ginsburg. "The Rothschilds may also agree with you, but they must carry out the ORDERS WHICH HAVE BEEN IN EFFECT FOR MANY CENTURIES. They have no recourse."</blockquote> Ellie, now that you are here, what have you got to say about this family compact?

Whatever inter-personal stuff exists, I will not roll it out for public viewing, so keep me out of your gossip column. Pat, Ask Josef Ginsburg (when you get the chance). He got cred with me on account of integrity and backbone he showed at the Zundel trial, so i believe him on that, just like i believed Benjamin Freedman when he opened the doors to the vampire crypt in his day. Or, follow my example and ask Ellie, she is a Rothschild, right? Right? Or ask gombrich, maybe he is trying to deflect attention away from the Compact by starting some in-house row, for sure he cannot know less about Compact than i, who know nothing. I also heard that the rothschild dinner table has a chair numbered "13" where Devil sits whenever he shows up, which is every night, it is an electric chair that will give you a jolt, so wear rubber underwear.

weev is a worthy object of study to contrast to people like me, that is those capable of force application reconciled with and servicing pacifism, which weev has yet to deliver proof of, showing not even the sparest&barest inclination.

That study is 'backed up' completely ... who am i kidding besides myself ... for at least half of it's double [foldaway] meaning right? ... although ... people like Spinoza would never be so lastingly famous if they didn't stand in/up for a noticable segment of semi-siblings.

Same principle applies, on a much much vaster scale to 'disunderstood' Cernunnos ... hordes acting on his persona, generations acting it out ... with acts that sloooooowly ripen and fork the lores and mores crisscrossing ways of and between hunter / planter with/via a precessional splinter, a fine structure constant fracture remainder towards becoming those of a feeder [who breaks mineral bonds 'to return 'prechurnage' duh favor and flavors, not to construct walls, but to offer softest, subtlest feed for/to the most vulneralbe, most innumerable, sheer nonenumeratable lowest common denominator: soil life bro ... duuuuuh .. instead of pounding up fences and dykes into penplacplex per verse itty]

As far as i can tell, it's my lone contention Cernunnos was/is acknowledged as an archetype for hunter (and in the final stages as a statesman [famous relief / stelle in Rheims with him flanked by Mercury and Apollo], but nothing about 'him' survived the Roman empire any better than indigene sustainability does and won't as as long as that undead empire is allowed to keep 'providing' a very present political climate), but remains unrecognized for the latter, except by emissaries of some very distant galaxies indeed ...

Curiously Julius Hensel took a Roman poet's primal soup readied in creationist timeframe for predecessor rather than preceding me on our common quest for most telling.

Comment on Fear and Trepidation in Tel Aviv: Is Israel losing?
by lobro -- August 4, 2017, 10:01 AM from a syrian comedian Treka, miles and miles and miles better and sharper than anything homegrown, for those with access to facebook, i suspect he'll end up the way of mourned dieudonne, but his analysis of trump is bang on: he calls it The Biggest FUCK YOU Ever Recorded in Human History ! Treka the Syrian Comedian Exposes the American media and Politicians in his new video "The Donald Trumps Presidential victory" well, the syrians KNOW. and moreover (thanks, Ungenius for the "81% support"), ordinary Americans KNOW. i guess that the remaining 19% are jews, libtards and collegiate bovines. Alright, a few quick items. Circassian, although the history of post-jew Warsaw Pact is poorly researched, i don't see the relevance of your comment to the fact that it was JEWS, JEWS, JEWS responsible for the infernal depredations once Gorb opened the doors wide to the plague rats, "great Anglo-America" it was not, what exactly did a street American gain from any of these wars and disasters, Iraq, Afghanistan, Libya, Sudan, Syria, Yemen, rape of the former East Bloc, disintegration of the USSR, huh? Well, Israel sure did ... until just now, when it is collapsing onto their yarmulkes. Anyway, the topic is how Jews are losing the grip on the fantasy of word dominance, starting with the Middle East backyard and (additionally) that they blame squarely Trump and Putin and that the russia sanctions is an act of revenge (Egyptian 10 plagues) on both as well as an attempt to slow down the rapid decline of the Jew Century witnessed since Jan 21. Somebody demonstrate otherwise, how due to "Zionist puppet Trump", the last 8 months have been triumphal for Jews. Gilroy, Ung: directing the funding largess on the veterans is a very bright and decent move and it will be seen as such by the 81%. Vets, dumb though they be, are essentially innocent, "a soldier does what soldier is told" and what JEW did was to have tossed them into compost heap once the meat was spoiled by IED's, PTSD, DU+other poisonings, treated worse than garbage, like the cow "downers" on the way to slaughterhouse. Trump changed this, showed that he is a compassionate American and JEW can't say anything in public, though they hate him for diverting what they see as their money to something that is not Good For JEW.

as i keep saying, and the historical facts on the ground bear me out so far, trump picked up many kabbalah tricks, including the art of successfully (more or less, not easy) lying to jew in order to ensure day-to-day survival while pushing a long range agenda of collaboration with russians and liberation from ZOG. He and tillerson play good-cop-bad-cop game pretty well and even mattis seems to be catching on, i keep saying that trump will never, ever attack iran and all the seemingly hostile moves actually aid the "enemy", be it NK, iran, syria, russia or china. for example the senate directed russia sanctions, what's the end result so far? putin castrates us diplomatic staff and plugs the future color revolutionary activities at the wellhead, germany signals a major move away from jew usa (world sanctioning jewsa?), toward russia, with possible breakup of eu (the traditional central europe divorcing the seagoing global marauders), rejoining the industrious silk road project. 2017 is shaping up into an unmitigated disaster for jews and is only 1/2 way thru. i like it, i like it, gimme more.

They walked for 7 minutes down Main St. to the campus where the Antifa's and other assorted groups were permitted to have their counterprotest. No one tried to prevent them from leaving the park.

Charlottesville police had to use teargas to breakup a Klan protest in July, hence the State of Emergency in advance. Comment on END OF HATE: ANONYMOUS NOW IN CONTROL OF 'DAILY STORMER' by lobro BjÃrn, Jimbo, will sneak 2 answers to unrelated issues in one post, don't like to see that right hand comment sidebar cluttered with my name. I am no more fatalistic than the facts in front of me dictate, in fact (let's keep it between ourselves) i am enormously optimistic and a staunch believer in the inevitability of triumph of the truth and justice. The triumph of the will is neither an empty nor a dead phrase, it has an almost religious meaning for me - no parallel universes, this is the one that counts and we must make it so. But after an ever so long dumbing down of the masses, lazy, obesity prone brains hobbled by minimal literacy and job training pretending to be education, it is time for repurposing this mass brain, to secure the loose cannon on the deck and make it functional again. And it is an uphill battle, BjÄ, rn, i trust there is no need for big elaboration. So i get into entirely unwanted and unsought verbal duels ... Jimbo, on a somewhat related matter, that guy Nation is quite an interesting character. Definitely a jew, in some way as if i was reborn as jew, he even has some physical characteristics in common but more importantly, he struggles to escape the sticky strands of judaic cobwebs that restrain his freedom of perception ... not a bad dude, but like practically all unemancipated jews, he joins the discussion somewhere well past the origin and is inevitably misled into dead ends at some point, due to dodgy yet unquestioned premises (watched some of his #Charlottesville: Soros Antifa Thugs Defile History by Comparing 'Unite the Right' to Hitler b/c i wanted to see if he got the basic comparison right: who is defiling what? ... and he gets it wrong). But the thinking life is definitely a journey, the only one worth taking these days it seems, i wish him g-dspeed (what if IAM reborn into a jew, g-ddamit, i will have the same steep hill to climb, so i better be kind now)
August 15, 2017, 7:56 PM

Re her question around the 24m mark (which he answers only partially at best but plain wrong in fact): it is often said, 108morris108 comes to mind, that zionists (global trots, neocons, multicultural imperialists) work to 'diversify' former host countries -- ostensibly to level playing fields, etcetera, a contest sparking rule if ever there was one, perfect matches do that naturally, nature abhors uniformity ... but in reality out of spite .. for expulsions, perceived grudges of all kinds -- while keeping lz racially pure.

But this is far from what in fact happens, which is this: they go to extraordinary lengths to integrate 'fresh blood' culturally, cementing minds before hearts as it were (adding permanent scaffolding, harnessing, 'straycheckits', etc), and then the blood flow 'follows' in that wake and quite effortlessly so in fact, manifesting the 'side'effects they are looking for (first and foremost, zero sym- and zero.zero empathy for outgroups, even if they are the ones displaced, completely REplaced even: palestinians).

Not so much to distract FROM as to CONTRast WITH this, the open border, anything goes doctrine (the free market mayhem and attrition ideology) is imposed, foisted and finagled onto (former and future host) countries they exploit, cause only zero ethics makes everything acquire a price, become ex- and interchangeably monetizable and guarantees they, the worst, manager of masses, massive numbers and runaway code (from which betting chips are minted, cause they are nothing if not stuck in the abjectified morphmemory quadrant of play), rise to, come out on and stay at the top. Looking good by contrast still reaches nor teaches anything beyond an excercise in relative depravity, not me anyways. It must end, the sooner the better.

It's as if they go: see, we don't project our sins upon you to take potshots at them (this distancing themselves and veiled confessing at once, prolongs and promotes them at the same time, instead of composting them as ethical 'codes' command), we don't goat your scape any longer, we're all cured now, we want only the best for you as for ourselves, never adding but obviously thinking and acting upon: but we reserve the rite to help you do without multiculterizzum rites while we do um wrong ... which helps you not noticing so much.

... tons of reviews out there; .. here's a bit:

At a conference on great apes a few years ago, I spoke to a woman who had visited Camp Leakey, a rehabilitation center for captured orangutans in Borneo run by Birute Galdikas, sometimes referred to as "the Jane Goodall of orangutans" and the world's foremost authority on these great apes. At Camp Leakey, the orangutans are gradually acclimatised to the jungle, and as they get closer to complete independence, they are able to come and go as they please. While walking through the camp with Galdikas, my informant was suddenly seized by a large male orangutan, his intentions made obvious by his erect penis. Fighting off so powerful an animal was not an option, but Galdikas called to her companion not to be concerned, because the orangutan would not harm her,
and adding, as further reassurance, that "they have a very small penis." As it happened, the orangutan lost interest before penetration took place, but the aspect of the story that struck me most forcefully was that in the eyes of someone who has lived much of her life with orangutans, to be seen by one of them as an object of sexual interest is not a cause for shock or horror. The potential violence of the orangutan's come-on may have been disturbing, but the fact that it was an orangutan making the advances was not. That may be because Galdikas understands very well that we are animals, indeed more specifically, we are great apes. This does not make sex across the species barrier normal, or natural, whatever those much-misused words may mean, but it does imply that it ceases to be an offence to our status and dignity as human beings.

Ft. Detrick Biological Warfare Program 1950s
Maryland US Army -- markdcatlin - 3.8K - 38,153
views - Jun 17, 2009

In 1989, Ft Detrick biological diseases experts were called on by the Virginia Department of Health and Hygiene when a commercial laboratory animal holding facility in Reston, Virginia, experienced an outbreak of an Ebola virus in its primate population.
The potentially devastating outbreak was quickly handled, preventing what health officials feared could have had a terrible effect on humans. Author Richard Preston chronicled in The Hot Zone the rapid and effective response by Ft. Detrick scientists and soldiers. This in turn sparked at least one major movie (Outbreak), which based its story on the basic scenario of the Ebola outbreak The U.S. Army established its offensive Biological Warfare program at Fort Detrick in 1943. The purpose of the program was twofold:
develop defensive mechanisms against biological attack and develop weapons with which the United States could respond in kind if attacked by an enemy who used biological weapons. The offensive Biological Warfare program remained at Fort Detrick until November 1969, when the United States formally renounced the use of lethal biological agents and weapons, and all other methods of biological warfare and discontinued these offensive programs.
From 1943 through 1953, biological warfare research on humans was observational in that it was done after occupational exposure incidents or accidents among workers in the biowarfare facilities. These incidents provided the station hospital the unique opportunity to study the onset, clinical course and possible therapeutics for many rare diseases. In the early 1950s, due to a lack of firm data on human vulnerability to biological agents, the Army began to use human subjects in biological warfare research.
Project CD-22, the first of the human research projects, involved the study of Q fever in animals and humans in the laboratory and the field. Operation Whitecoat followed this effort. Operation Whitecoat volunteers largely consisted of Seventh-Day Adventist draftees, who were trained as medics but whose religious convictions forbade combat. Approximately 2300 individuals participated in the program. The Army completed about 150 studies during the Operation Whitecoat years. Experimenters exposed volunteers to disease-causing agents such as Q fever and tularemia under strict protocols to study immunity to disease and to conduct drug therapy.
Whitecoat volunteers also participated in safety studies of vaccines designed for protection against Venezuelan equine encephalitis, Eastern and Western equine encephalitis, plague, tularemia, Q fever, yellow fever, chikungunya virus and Rift Valley fever.
There were no fatalities or long-term injuries among Whitecoat volunteers. The program ended in 1973 upon termination of the military draft. During Operation Whitecoat several experimental vaccines were developed to protect workers engaged in research at Fort Detrick. Research at Fort Detrick also contributed to the development of equipment and procedures that established the standards for laboratory biosafety. Equipment developed during the program included biological safety cabinets, hot suites with differential air pressure to contain pathogens, and other specially fabricated laboratory equipment. For a concise history of the biological program at Fort Detrick see "Cutting Edge, A history of Fort Detrick Maryland 1943 - 1993"

(detrick.army.mil/cutting_e...) by Norman M. Covert, published by the Public Affairs Office Fort Detrick. This clip is from the 1950s episode, the Unseen Weapon, from the The Big Picture documentary television program which ran on the American Broadcasting Company from 1953 to 1959. The program consisted of documentary films produced by the United States Army Signal Corps Army Pictorial Service

i didn't know that's how one spells it Douglas Dietrich's to me most impressive story is the one about the spanish flue conceived and vectored by the diabolic personnel there. He calls it H1N1, not sure how correct that is ..

ps [2019]: if you sit there unbelieving with one or both eyebrows raised, i urge you to compare all this to the 'max feelgood' [or doctor feelgood] episode in american history. i believe his family name was jacobson. He focused on one person at a time but the biological warfare aspect is unmistakable.

i just wrote this under another fresh vid:
----- THE REST POSTED TO BOTH OF THE ABOVE (a few little tweaks in the second vid):
the 'get whtie' derailments often have innocent enough and in my opinion very laudable and timely beginnings:
the request to absent oneself ... is in fact the gift, the granting of permission and encouragement to take a few (baby) steps back in time as well as space (i've been advocating evacuation of whities from africa for 20 years exactly and look what not heeding that call is doing there now!!!!) ...

Much more than babying is needed once colonial a/o corporate 'occupations' have a multigenerational chain of bad habits and festerment that are metastatizing to a point where the blackest injun prophecies are actually becoming true. I thought i had fame and fortune in the bag with these kinds of intra-disciplinary coverage, brill and prophetic thoughts, .. but alas

Hence the deplatforming, the eviction, the block and urge to at least temporarily try a form of repatriation has a therapeutic purpose and good intentions behind them; execution must be faulted but so does focus on faulty execution .. to return to a pressing subject asap.

Marcara081 (gamert):

I've something for you Doctor. It's a riddle:
When my dad was still alive, I was convinced he'd always be with me. When he died, I first went through denial, then anger, bargaining, depression, and finally acceptance:
accepting the reality of my loss, the non-existence of my father.

When I was stil a Christian, I was convinced my heavenly Father would always be with me. When I began to doubt, I was first a Catholic, then a Gnostic, then an Agnostic Christian, then a Protestant, and finally I became an atheist: accepting the reality of my loss, the non-existence of my heavenly Father.

When I was still a gynocentrist, I was convinced that 'women' as I understood them would forever validate me.
When I began to doubt, I was first a traditionalist, then a feminist, then an egalitarian, then an individualist gynocentrist, and finally I became a MGTOW: accepting the reality of my loss, the non-existence of 'woman' as it had been understood.

When I was still political, I was convinced of the righteousness of my system of human interaction. When I began to doubt, I was first an Authoritarian Rightist, then an Authoritarin Leftist, a Libertarian Leftist, and finally a Libertarian Rightist, not knowing what comes next in sequence.

It is a sequence, you understand - a cycle even. The Kubler-Ross model of loss, the 5 Stages of Grief, is actually the political compass presented in sequence. A sequence that, in truth, represents the progressive loss of belief. From an infallible self-righteousness to a fallible unknowingness.
This is why the Protestant is to Faith and God what the Libertarian Rightist is to Free Market and truth. It's why the atheist is to God what the MGTOW is to 'woman' and why all these relationships are exactly the same within their respective paradigms.

This is either apophenia or divine revelation, and I'm not one to decide that either way. That's the riddle.

i rattle you this: what's a rock got to do with it?

WANDERBLOG (ROTKÄ, PPCHEN IM VATERLAND)
p49

In Walden; or Life in the Woods, one of the intertexts of Ernan Schaefer's "Wanderblog," Henry Thoreau writes:
"I have been anxious to improve the nick of time, and notch it on my stick too." The nicking and notching in wood that register time's meaningful passage sketch the notion of family tree or Stamm, primally inscribed in the flesh by the rite of circumcision.

As inoculative reduction of the threat of castration to the very mark of guarantee that annihilation will pass over the one standing at the front of the family line, circumcision was, according to Freud, the "fossil" rite that imbued the Jew with uncanniness. In turn the gentiles had to deny the castration and its control release as circumcision. This dread is reflected in European folklore from Robin Hood to Little Red Riding Hood.

In German where there are woods there is Wandern, which counts among the untranslatables. "Hiking" is probably too concerted and specific, although it picks up on the sportif aspect of Wandern, otherwise lost in the cognate and etymon "wandering." In prehistory we speak of the migration of peoples or groups, which in German is Wanderung. The root meaning of "wandering" and Wandern, which is "winding," is also like the turn in a phrase, underwent a change in attitude in the course of the nineteenth century. The flâneur in Paris is in some sense the counterpart of the Wanderer in the German woods; both move from point A to point B, which contradicts sheer wandering and winding, but at the leisurely pace of reading. The wandering near-miss approximations of Wandern can be set off by the thirteenth-century mythic figure of the Wandering Jew, in German der ewige Jude, in French le juif errant. For taunting Christ on his way to the Crucifixion, the Wandering Jew was cursed to walk the earth until the Second Coming. The ambivalence of his position applies not only to his status as witness but also to his inheritance of aspects of the Eternal Hunter derived from Wotan mythology. Farmers in the Germanic-languages world would arrange special rows in their fields for the Sunday rest of the Eternal/Internal Jew. In "The Hunter Gracchus" Kafka entered this allegorical intersection, which also has a more modern history. Wagner lifted the story of The Flying Dutchman from Heinrich Heine's retelling of the seventeenth-century ghost story. In Heine's version the Flying Dutchman can set foot on land and woo a wife every seven years. If this one turns out to be truly devoted, and not just another seven-year bitch, he will be redeemed from undeath. Heine transferred the curse from the ghost ship (christened The Flying Dutchman), which figured as portent of doom, to the figure of the eternal Dutchman, and the setting of the story from the Cape of Good Hope to the North Sea off Scotland.

Comment on Panic in Tel Aviv: Is Netanyahu losing it? (Part 1) by lobro --- September 9, 2017, 3:54 PM

thanks, jimbo ... why do my comments always spur these off-track/off-topic side trips? i never had anything magical happen to me but maybe toby is right that i raise a bunch of poltergeists going crazy in my wake.

<blockquote>â€œi noticed the name â€œAlusâ€œ, and it is the mayan word for forest sprites and leprechauns of mexicoâ€œ? I checked that out and found the name spelled a little differently, it said; â€œâ€œbut gremlin-like apparitions called aluxes (pronounced â€œalushesâ€œ).</blockquote>

yes, you are right, i spoke from memory of about 4-5 years ago. buddy barista's name is Victor Martinez (it came back to me), he taught me to appreciate slow-cooked pork called lechon, told me how aluxes sometimes toss pebbles at a walking person at night, you turn around and there is nothing, also some crazy story he heard of how his great-grandfather in the state of (i think) coahuila had, while hunting, shot a witch transformed into ... some kind of bird ... and mortally wounded her, how for days and nights her screams were heard all over the place, light show over the forest, plants and animals dying, until the elders of the village got a brujo to corner the wounded creature, properly kill it and incinerate it until the nonsense died down. Victor was a fun pal, martial artist from a noble family, was a cadet in some prestigious "DeFe" (Distrito Federal / Mex City) military academy but was kicked out for being a troublemaker ... birds of feather notabene: with 4 secs to go, i killed this comment in order to stick in this addendum, struck me as somewhat on-topic. that witch story: that's how one formally terminates some bad experience, put a stake thru it, bury it, forget it. until such time, it screams and screams and screams, interferes with your daily existence and creates bad vibes.

These hipsters with their nations, I wonder how they would feel if told by New Netherlands separatists they were to be deported to Dixie.

Comment on Is Osama bin Laden smiling in his grave? by lobro

September 11, 2017, 9:41 AM in the immediate aftermaths of nuclear hits, a perfectly preserved iranian passport was found at the ground zero in hiroshima and a syrian one in nagasaki. The catholic cathedral in hiroshima that was directly aimed at was packed with jews, whose survivors demand that the ownership of the toyota and sony corporations be turned over to them. question for whoever may have details: what happened to wtc-7 rubble that contained lots of masonry? was this masonry also carted off on a chinese junk? i have no doubt that Agent Orange knows a lot about the jews' centrality in 9/11 saga, the question is how much can he say without dynamiting his own position, e.g., his "allies" like rudy giuliani who signed off (probably with a barrel of uzi pressed against his head) on tampering with and destruction of material evidence from the G-0. The trick is to deftly beam the heat on jews while at least temporarily preserving the safety of shabbos who may have cooperated under duress and now occupy positions of power in the deep state and could be lethal to agent orange - i.e., pull their own shabbo samson option. I would offer them secret but ironclad promises of amnesty and presidential clemency, setup of "reconciliation commissions" in return for full monty on the known facts. subpoena silverstein's dentist's records to see when the appointment was made and for what exact reason, whether the dental work was actually done and billed for ... so many leads to follow, thousands of them, leads leading to leads ... gimme the job of overseeing the investigation, zero pay but the greatest fun of my life.

So the Supremes hung their hats on free speech. The Supremes Held: Since the statute, by its words and as applied, purports to punish mere advocacy and to forbid, on pain of criminal punishment, assembly with others merely to advocate the described type of action, it falls within the condemnation of the First and Fourteenth Amendments. FREEDOMS OF SPEECH AND PRESS DO NOT PERMIT A STATE TO FORBID ADVOCACY OF THE USE OF FORCE OR OF LAW VIOLATION EXCEPT WHERE SUCH ADVOCACY IS DIRECTED TO INCITING OR PRODUCING IMMINENT LAWLESS ACTION AND IS LIKELY TO INCITE OR PRODUCE SUCH ACTION.

I'd be curious to see how this indictment against Elitzur is "ruled" by the Sanhedrin. I mean, the Israeli judiciary. But, I think we may safely presume (see paragraph below) that Elitzur will serve no prison time.

any of you hear 'pride of man' .. fallen in the dust again ... i like tony rice's version best ...
pride at the cost of betraying both peoples behind and before you ?

Naah, that's worth a roll back effort any and every day.
descendants of original strays - globalism addlees / addledites?
are 'born here' ... sure ... but you can no more cut off the past than prevent fresh beginnings (ever observe fresh oxygen bubbles caught in the web of primal hydrocarbons at a quarry rainpuddle - that's greengrey contact as shown in my colour ethics).

The ones "born here" then have the former ("peoples behind" as i said, loved but abandoned ones [i'd go as far as call them betrayed as much as that of more remote ancestors], with or without 'oprotremie' - venture capital) over* and the latter (the "before" ones, .. of targeted regions) under them (a remnant always and steadily waiting, ready and willing to resprout .. no doubt .. bet you never let yourself notice)

voila the main reasons for the crazy 'pluricidal' efforts to remake the eu into something a little more resemblant of and in their own image, .. all as mixed [and fucked] up as themselves.

the question isn't who or what is to blame but how or whatwith
to cure them/it

Comment on Who Commits Murder in America?

by lobro --- September 26, 2017, 8:55 PM

by the way, regarding the term REDNECK. it applies to WHITE men who do HONEST LABOR out in the field - no one else qualifies. "Blacks" don't turn red, Jews don't work out of doors. As such, jew uses it with surgical malice, to denote white males too stupid (honest=stupid in jew parlance) to lounge around high rise offices, devising marketing scams, ponzi pyramid schemes, insider trading, lobbying, collusion, racketeering, corruption and all the fine arts stemming from judaic mentality. because it applies solely to white men, REDNECK cannot possibly qualify as a racist term, Jew says that it is a perfectly legit use of language, no blogsite will ever suffer censure because of it, so i encourage everyone to use it with abandon, it is pejorative but who cares so long as Jew allows us free rein, let's all have a bit of fun and if we cannot insult anyone else, let's insult ourselves, intellectual equivalent of body piercing and joyful self-mutilation to celebrate the Stockholm syndrome (did you know that tattoos are forbidden to jew, he is not allowed to be buried in a jew cemetery if tattooed?) How does it go, quod licet jovi, woe to you shabbos, hypocrites ...

"State of Terror: How Terrorism Created Modern Israel"

17 views - The Jerusalem Fund & Palestine Center - Sep 27, 2017

Suarez has uncovered documents in the British archives, many revealed here for the first time, which establish beyond doubt that far from being isolated incidents by rogue groups, the use of terror to acquire and keep Palestine for the Jews was deliberate, planned and sustained well into the early years of the Jewish state. His book casts new light on the continuing use of violence by Israel against the Palestinians.

why do they have to be constantly maligning heroic antiimperialists and communists everywhere? What's helpful about slandering Aristide? I mean what is their own explanation for why they think this is a good idea to be constantly slandering working class antiimp leaders? Do they even have a rationale for this? Or it's just they rely on the racism of their audience to supply the notion that no antiimperialist leader outside the white core could be anything but a mad, monstrous, risible, opportunist rouser of savage rabble? War Clouds Gathering Over Israel

by Max Bilney --- October 10, 2017, 3:57 AM
The 3 Abrahamic religions that dominate the POWER spectrum including all wars on our planet, emanated out of the great city of Ur in the Uprates valley. The original patriarch, Terah (read Genesis), his son Abraham, on to Moses, David, Solomon, etc, were typical of the wandering Semitic, or what we call "Arab" tribes. The Hebrew tribe, led by Moses became the "Israelites" and their historical legacy is big news today. The planet is imploding because of the warring between the 3 strains of Abrahamitus. On the one hand you have the evil, life-sapping, out of the 2nd Temple strain. This is represented by the Jews who practise every form of evil known to man. Then there are the Jesus believers, who have been brainwashed by false bibliography, money and sex, into supporting the evil Jews. Then you have the Johny-come-lately Islamics who think they have the final word of God and thus treat everyone else as infidels. So, in summary, the whole planet is at war over simple Arabian stories-come-mythology. Why has Arabia achieved such significance? Is it a sick act by a nasty creator who put most of the black gold under the Arabian lands? Did he know we would all fight over petrol and oil? Would we still be fighting over the desrt lands of Arabia if there was no black gold? Dr Alan Greenspan, head of the Fed, said it was "all about the oil." I can see why Arch Stanton thinks it is absurd that we give so much time and sacrifice to a simple, tribal deity. I think there is more truth in flying, Arabian carpets and the Aladdin's Lamp. We need to grow up and stop believing in Arabian mythology. Try the Norse gods, or try Confucianism!

Legalized. Putin may be what he is but crook is not the only language he speaks, something guys like DD like to ignore, suppress, censors and stubbornly refuse to face.

Zizekism triumphant. Ciccmaher is going to expire with joy over this one: What's happening is the US imperial ruling class wants to trash libdem apparatus and institute a global fascism, and they are marketing it Communism/ Stalinism/ Leninism. This is the scheme: So on the one hand, to persist in the anticommunist counterrevolution they say "USSR-what horrors!" on the other, whisper "Those horrors aren't so bad are they? After all, its better than what we are living now." They want to get to the "Left" (being led by Jacobin and Chapo etc) saying: "Yeah what's wrong with a thoughtful genocide? Stalin did it!" Like to accompany the torture and death squads in Iraq, Verso reissued Trotsky's Terror pamphlet with a Zizek intro clarifying that the Iraqi resistance are the counterrev kulaks of the day, and Bush regime were the daring BOLSHEVIKS exercising a salubrious terror. All the Nazi myths about Lenin and Stalin's barbarity will be revived and spread NOT ONLY to discredit them but to REDEEM the (fictional) atrocities with that growing part of the audience [being?] downwardly mobile clerks w minority of climbers, attracted to Socialist Flavored Products.

Somehow the first was much better because Malagurski translates into English. In this second, too much is left untranslated. The content of this documentary is the political economic and social History of the dismemberment of Yugoslavia ,instigated by the West in traditional æœdivide and conquerâ€? neo liberal economic makeover that does not help the masses but only a small elite.

if you click on 'cc' you get every non-english segment subtitled ... what's funny to me though is the section on the Sauds missing from the transcript (1h20m)

TROJ, interesting, thought provoking ... indeed, Catholics not only CAN but SHOULD look for clues everywhere, this is precisely what Jesus wants us to do as part of confirmation and affirmation of truth, of His Truth, because He is the Truth. Because the blind obedience is not His way, a Catholic is not someone merely born of Catholic parents and baptized unconscious, shitting his diapers. Lasha is a true, fearless Catholic, imbued with a spirit of discovery, thirst for truth, kindness and compassion for others and desire to understand them: are they good gentiles or do they gravitate towards the synagogue of Satan? Darkmoon blogsite is the objective proof of this search. why condemn those raised in a different culture, who are yet shown to be kind, compassionate, thinking people, as so many intelligent, philosophically minded Muslims, Hindus and Buddhists are? Is your dog a Catholic, has he been baptized, done first communion, regular confessions (forgive me father, for i have sinned and sniffed other mutts' anuses)? I guess not. Yet you love your non-catholic mutt just the same, because he is not an evil hound of hell. So why not extend the same policy of tolerance and benefit of doubt to your fellow man, until you can form a differentiated opinion based on his observed pluses and minuses? That is the way of a true catholic, the private ecumenism - how to interface with external world. Cutting off heads of infidels is easy, what's the difference between St Dominic and wahhabi liver eaters? Beats me ...

g 2. Chartal Means of Payment Debts expressed in units of value can be discharged by engraved pieces, either coins or notes, which have by law a certain validity in units of value. Such pieces are called Chartal means of payment, or money. The validity is independent of the contents of the pieces.

one dot can be named, "yanukovich's shit-eating scams in ukraine" and the next dot, "conspiracy between putin and trump to swing the outcome of the us presidential elections to benefit russia". long ways to join them ... as for putin's so-called ally, if the choice is between yanukovich and kolomoisky, yanuk wins integrity sweepstakes hands down, so what's putin to do. anyway, entertaining noise, is all ... it helps the jews deflect from weinstein scandal and rebuild the ft. hollywood that trump damaged to the point of paralysis, the war goes on.

deflecting the focus on one individual beyond salvage in order to screen the bigger game, viz, that all of hollywood is a branch of judean armed forces with the singular aim of enslaving the goyums and destroying those that cannot be domesticated into obedient noahide automata. this article is an exercise in damage control, flanking the discourse into a safe groove, how "retired" mossad agents become glorified security guards thanks to their high jew intelligence and the world's best training. yeah right, that's what caught weinstein's beady eye, mossad's high professionalism. bottom line: weinstein bad, the rest of jewry excellent, they despise weinstein just like madoff, they betrayed jewish values, stained the gloss on tikkun olam.

Indeed, this is a classic limited hangout. I said so at the time, to my resident telepathic "dweller on the threshold."

the jew reuter soros dictates and the rest obey lobro: given that the hostility is 2-sided, undiguised and has pulled out all stops on the one side, why continuing self-restraint on russian side, why not allow the truth to see the light of day? declare jews a foreign species and be done with it.

so they talked & that was embargoed until today the whole purpose of trump's foreign trips is a chance to speak frankly with other sane leaders (and maybe/probably plot some coordinated resistance) without jew's obnoxious, ever present eavesdropping like in the thoroughly wired and bugged jewnited states.

Reporting Underfire: New Ukraine War Escalation & Trench combat on the frontline - 804 views -- Patrick Lancaster - Nov 18 -- Back from two days on the frontline investigating the lustiest escalation of the the Ukraine war. In the last days Donetsk Peoples Republic has reported that Ukraine forces have shot 80 BM-21 Grad Rockets into the territory of DPR from Adeevka. There has also been an attack on a civilian area of Donetsk, hitting a bus stop and home. While on the frontline between Donetsk and Adeevka we came underfire from Ukraine positions with a SPG-9 or tripod-mounted rocket grenade, "it was close, very close". Gunfire, rockets and tracers were constant all night. This is the heaviest I have seen war when I have reported from the frontline since Christmas of last year.

thanks for that slice of american life. That said, formalities over, i'm coming in swinging as hard as i can: industries have a nasty habit of producing waste ultimately and unlike the early regional phases, the scale up leaves a kind of highly offensive and 'wrang' (dutch for hurtful) to all biology residue. My focus on pollution (erosion, etc) caused me to forgo a 'gespreid bedje' (legup) from a dad who put miljons of ks on mercs, first between cattle markets, then big freezer complexes, etcetera, not to mention the mutual rifts and disappointments. By hindsight i wish i'd simply pioneered the organic meat from mixed farms markets and i would have were it not for dad's disgust with what he saw as a pretend repair of what he couldn't for the life of him consider broken .. but meanwhile not even highest quality has a snowball's chance to stave off globalisthell's approach. Some dilute form of 'organic' has, oh suprise, become available even in this here bible belt; it managed to approach to within 4 miles without my direct help.

The Demagogs Used to Love Russian Oligarchs ---- Glen Ford, Black Agenda Review, Nov 16 2017
The massive leaking of the so-called Paradise Papers detailing the myriad ways corporations and individual billionaires hide their money in tax havens around the world, provided news organizations a chance to make the case for reining in global capital. Unlike the 2015 leak of the so-called Panama Papers, which detailed the offshore tax evasions of a sleazier class of capitalists, the Paradise disclosures reveal how the world's public sectors are starved for funding by billionaires and corporations from æœthe high end of town, - the Lords of Capital that make up the "international oligarchy" whose spreading influence is "the major issue of our time," in the words of Sen Bernie yeah right, Abdel Bari Atwan, and what's that specialty product of bull's rear end called again, i forget. israel and yahudi arabia, twins out of the same serpent's egg are mighty warrior nations both. i have no doubt that they will smite iran in the righteous wrath of lord g-d, sahudi-bin-yahweh, as soon as they win their current wars against ragtag amalek of hezbollah and yemen houthis or failing that, which is very likely, shoot a few kindergarten stone throwers of the philistine tribe. and how about this: Here's why Saudi Arabia, Israel and the US are not going to invade Iran \(theduran.com\). the formula goes as follows: America attacks iran: blame trump. America doesn't attack iran: do not credit trump. from the link <blockquote>Israel has not attacked Iran in the way it has so frivolously attacked parts of the Arab world. Israel has not done this because Tel Aviv knows Iran would strike back and so too would Iran's allies in southern Lebanon. ... As Hezbollah leader Sayyed Hassan Nasrallah recently stated, Israel prefers short blitzkrieg style conflicts that it can win rapidly at little material cost or bloodshed from its own side. History has shown such an analysis to be absolutely correct. Furthermore, as Israel's last attempt to conduct such a war against Lebanon in 2006 failed, Israel has reverted to measures which from its perspective are more realistically "productive" such as short, illegal airstrikes against Syria and military manoeuvres intended as provocations against Lebanon.</blockquote> and no one even mentions what Russia might do, considering that it considers Iran hundred times more vitally important than Syria. Franklin, <blockquote>The Jews don't think Trump will win a second term. With Trump they have only 3 years left. So they are in a hurry.</blockquote> Really? because with Trump gone, jews worry that some peacenik like Hillary or Romney will stop any wars that trump has started ... and he started so many already, I lost the count.

euromaidan touts saprykin, a putz slandering russia beautifully made, i appreciate the cartoons .. but what you're doing is present the inverse of the traitorous expat / socalled politically prosecuted refugee who 'flees' to the west and points back at where he came from accusatively, summing up humoresque analysis retooled into godawful threats which then, o mirabile dictu, actually come to pass .. in reverse direction, turned into a justification of defense that is in fact having the exact same results except suffered by the 'attacker' which is in fact a targetted prey all along.

so the twist is performed in order to justify, sanctify and cover for their host's/briber's 'perping' exactly the things accused of, as if it was a magic formula, a timely warning .. a predictive program, a mere mirror version of events to come. This is very old standard and de rigouer 'regime-change' methods in action, i'd say orthodoxy but the reli forms of that are at least NOT driven by base and debased emotions.

Freud and the Seduction Theory

Jeffrey M. Masson February 1984 Issue

RedKahina:

Repression and suppression What happens here is Freud and his friend Fleiss mutilate a woman's face and subject her to prolonged torture to get her to stop masturbating. All by mistake. No conjectures regarding un- or subconscious sexual motives are permitted in this case, Its actually the model of imperial propaganda: one can put "Libya" or "Zimbabwe" in the place of Emma Eckstein. These two bourgeois doctors mutilate and torture a young woman; their explanation for their acts is that her masturbating is dysmenorrhea and they are trying to cure her by cutting out bones in her nose. The surgeon leave gauze in her nose and she develops of horrific almost fatal infection. For months they continue to torture her, permanently mutilating her face, with repeated violent penetration and subsequent packing of his orifice (this is incredibly painful),all the while blaming her for her perversions. Then Freud concludes that her infection and hemorrhaging were not in fact caused by the violent assault on her nose with knives and foreign objects, but a result of her repressed sexual desire for himself, a kind of aggressive obsession on her part, which caused her to bleed and become septic on purposes; he and his friend Fleiss are the victims of the patient (a professional rival of Freud's, as well) who endures months of agony + is permanently disfigured. This is like Jacobinmag's conclusion re ISIS : Syria is perverse and torturing itself to torment its benevolent saviours+beg for more bombing.

Ry, .. sigh ... i rank you and Brendon on par sharpness of intellectwise, B scores higher on some aspects - wholizzumz* - and lower on others than you (all the socially grounding ones mentioned near the end).

Unbeknownst to you both, the real tragedy is .. me .. abandoned by you both in the middle .. between B being too forward- and you too backwardlooking, both betraying me in the median with [haul duh] innocent hobbelhorseriding stubbornness [you can muster and/or 'meat'], the mediant, the man who can trace a green streak right between the blacks and whites (see nineties work), trailing a red revival in his wake no less and a return of stray whites, a rites righting right thru all the greyage gone monumentally goriental tropes & types wrong.

i mean, i would have been willing to bleed my savings dry paying you to study me, execute my will, .. if .. but apart from talent, trust growing intuition may be wished for but can't be faked, limbered up for or bothered with in any but the right way at all, causing the true apartheid (laudable states of just right aggregatives .. where trees are a state of minerality as much as gravity is)

So, .. ergo sum ...close but no cigars, 3 geniuses alive simultaneously, yet too petty to co-operate and be a part of ... mea culpa i should have risked everything, make harmony between us a condition ... will it have a chance soon again?

the failure of the sexual liberation is the cause of presently raging jizwizhunt soaked in a complete plethora of ignorances surrounding differences of actual and notional spermacultural production levels which feeds a good old dutch virtue which morphed to a syndrome the more it wandered and spread (hey, where did we meet that prob before?) and/but 'ruled' (no piecemeal rooooooooooll implied here, no sir .. no stttttiiiiirrrr) GEHANDHAAFD waaaaay back: 'off with their heADS'# .. said of those who fail to heed the warnings and prohibitions against deviating from the monocultural / thanatopical / micromanaged sharpness collectives, norms and stackables lest sociographic spikery ends up mowing down people and beginning altar parades and the like .. besides .. back in the day .. only AND every muscle counted to keep the waters 'at bay' .. iow, a once upon a time quite servicable 'krachten bundeling' call notions; the fleshpot version of since then switched on to logistical forms of fascism.

The world British Empire is known in history as "The New israel "for a reason. Obsessively seeking to be unique. The island nation, long ago known as "Merry Old Engalnd", was such before its long journey into the hands of the international Jews. They hid behind the "Church Of England", and the Royals since the Cromwell experiment failed. That evil,sick Zio Christian Puritan in the Jews pay.who ignited it all. Britain carved up the globe,and the Jews financed it all. Many aristocrats from ancient families knew better, but sold out,or took part in the riches . the world was taken by them,yet "poor little Britain ", was the image fostered ,when it declared war ,after war . The British lost WW2 THEY DECLARED without attack or threat from Germany....with Hitler requesting a full alliance ! But no,the Jew had to obeyed, Chamberlain tearfully admitted this to the Jews hated enemy ,Ambassador Joe Kennedy. Europe was smashed to Yahwehs glee. The debt created to pay for Churchills drunken glory was the final nail . Rothschilds had it all. The USA inherited the world title,and now the eternal Jew cajoled,and threatened a fool ,who conned his way from inherited business ,and paid for celebrity to the White House. Trump knows were the power lies. The Jews give thumbs up,or down. You live or die. This desperate old carnival barker ,wants to survive. He will do this to stay in the job. Me,myself ,and I. The Jews have conspired eons to get this done ,and a bum like Trump. The Breitbart Kosher Nationalist will do it ,risking world conflagration. But ,"The Donald", and his core support ,which increasingly looks not "populist ", but Neoconservatives, Country Clubbers,and Fundamentalists who make up the REAL GOP since the 90's ,originally Bush 2 groupies,and Cruz creepies will cheer . But its a Faustian "Art Of The Deal". Because, when Trump gives the Anti Christs the capital promised to them, by that monster Diety of the Jews form the OT, they will say "mission accomplished ", and disguard him. This will not save him. Walking ship wreck Bannon, and his late drinking /drug partner ,the Orthodox Jew Andrew ,44,going on dead ,had a scheme . "They fell in love with Israel,"and Goldman Sachs gave the money to play "populist", and Trump ,the erstwhile Nationalist .ala revival of a once practical moderate GOP was the man ! Watch him get a pass for awhile in the media. His atrocious tax plan which says "screw you ", to everyone but the super rich,and desire to gut healthcare,and no I dont mean just "Obama Care ", but Medicare, Social Security Disability ,and then the poorest comes next. Dont think any of this wont effect you ...those deadbeats he rails about are YOU ,and me ! The spoiled man ,sees everybody that way. His new best best buds, Paul Ryan, Mitch Mc Connell,and John Mc Cane are now on board ! all roads go through the Jews ,and they lead out of the hell called Israel. Trump the "Nazi",and "anti Semite" , (I wish) , is showing his real face,and it has a big Star Of David /Saturn 666 Hexogram on it. President In Law Kushner of 666 5th Avenue sleeps well tonight....Jude Suss lives.

Bark - Chinese Jews have been in Chinese government and industry for hundreds of years. Jews and Judaism in China have had a long history. Jewish settlers are documented in China as early as the 7th or 8th century CE. Relatively isolated communities developed through the Tang and Song Dynasties (7th to 12th centuries CE) all the way through the Qing Dynasty (19th century), most notably in the Kaifeng Jews (the term "Chinese Jews" is often used in a restricted sense to refer to these communities). During the Ming Dynasty (1368â€"1644), a Ming emperor conferred seven surnames upon the Jews, by which they are identifiable today: Ai (è %¾), Shi (çŸ³), Gao (é«), Jin (é#'), Li (æ?Ž), Zhang (â¼µ), and Zhao (èŋ™). Interestingly, two of these, Jin and Shi, are the equivalent of common Jewish names in the west: Gold and Stone.
https://upload.wikimedia.org/wikipedia/commons/e/e3/Jews_of_Kai-Fung-Foo%2C_China.jpg China's Jewish communities have been ethnically diverse ranging from the Jews of Kaifeng and other places during the history of Imperial China, who, it is reported, came to be more or less totally assimilated into Chinese culture, to 19th- and 20th-century Ashkenazi Jews, to Baghdadis, to Indians.

2 basic ways to lose land and trigger mass migration:
war and calamity

1 way to cause a trickle migration:
steady degradation due to mostly patrist (fear, reprisal and fecundity throttling IDiocy) is there a right of return for all these? Yes. For even former abusers and/or people who were tempted and distracted into absurb loopiness to do regular nomad rounds?
Yes, but they'd have to be carefully cleansed of trauma and taught a few 'permie-tricks' (rehab. of margin. lands) under quarantine conditions. Cue the elton john tune 'take me to the pilot'.

Is it true the word wall occurs 55x in the Bible? -- Perhaps confirmation that i am the one to describe (& help retrieve / regrow) the taboos and/or overrun, hollowed out, trampled and abandoned middle ground .. disappeared and sunk out of sight between any and all polarizations, most notable and foremost of which is that between alphaBETA LAWLETTERwalls and the ways of drunken stupor or waves of violent rage that either ignore or wash the former away.

RedKahina: All of these sects advertise themselves with slogans that are maximally vague and evocative like ads:
their war on capitalism is like the war on terror. Their "antiimperialism" is empty as they refuse even to say whether they will attempt to thwart the establishment of Rojava or whether they are actively abetting it; they refuse to say whether they acknowledge that ISIS/AQ are US proxies; they refuse to state any position on the UN tribunals. They refuse to acknowledge the facts of US aggression in Venezuela, Haiti, Honduras, Zimbabwe; they refuse to tell the truth about empire. What do they mean they oppose imperialism? Something like "we don't like the image."

GhostPinballer Sgt. Ghostlike Pinballikov whom? which sect??

rk: All of the trot sects. This is also true of the DSA and Green Party. I defy anyone to find a single clear party statement from any of these outfits about what ISIS/AQ is,
or a forthright declaration of intention to thwart

YPG/SDF/US "Rojava" and Syria partition.

what's wrong with the ypg?

They're the paramilitary of the US, partnered with ISIS + AQ
+ MB, engaged in an illegal aggression and expropriation and other crimes against humanity.

this is sinister piffle, the ypg get US support and that is problematic but no way are they allied with jihadis.

Yes they are: it's uncontroversial and well evidenced that all the US paramilitaries in Syria are working together on the same agenda, the seizure of valuable Syrian land and resources and permanent partition of the country. The US had the YPG/SDF take the handoff of territory from ISIS in a collaborative fashion and YPG have facilitated ISIS retreat for redeployment elsewhere to accomplish their common goal in aggression against Syria. They're also jointly accomplishing jointly with ISIS/AQ/MB the demographic reordering of the region by sectarian/ethnic expulsions and terror. ISIS is a US paramilitary. It's absurd/irrational to say
"YPG is collaborating with the US but not ISIS"; the US is ISIS; sdf/ypg is one US paramilitary among several engaged in a single coordinated mass crime under single leadership.
The YPG literally created airbases for ISIS' airforce (USAF) to bomb SAA and give the contras cover for atrocities and plunder.

contras? i'm losing my shit here, where be contras in syria?

a handy term for all the US paras, ISIS AQ MB FSA SDF etc avoids the false islamophobic propagandistic implications of "jihadists" or "salafists" and covers all the US' fighters regardless of brand and or purported ideology

Comment on yitzhar are kachist lubavicher messianists (hardalim) by marty == December 20, 2017, 2:50 PM "yitzhar are kachist lubavicher messianists (hardalim)" if this was a mathematical formula it would obviously be false. each term taken by itself would participate in 'messianism' to a small degree since it is according to Maimonides a tenet of faith. but the emphasis would only be totally germane to lubavich which is the whole of their doctrine.

Transformation on the Southern Ukrainian Steppe: Letters & Papers of Johann Cornies: 1812-1835 = much better than the average propa from UkeTube (on riverside mennonites; bible vectored, female 'suppressing', multi-lingual settlers / colonists)

keep an eye out for this name when you're browsing catalogs, indexes ... shelves ... Jolande Withuis sociologe / feminist w commie background ... a note on a 3 hour long interview i found:

right after that the switch to the regular 'politprogrom' 'met het oog op morgen' commences ('with the eye on tomorrow' = hype of the day and an attempt to tie them to outlooks and precedent - 'histories') amounts to an ice bathdunk into political correctness with all the phoney politeness implied (as disguise for the bombing campaigns in the name of feminists, homos and freedom, iow, the atlanticist program).

Jolande's account of the stalin reception years (krutchev revelation that literally shattered identity [shielding] yielding to a return of warhorrors; her own father included) brought me to some new insights that strongly parallel what is happening in a seemingly very different register today.

i never paid too close attention to Peter Myers pages --- mailstar.net, the occasional bulletin still arrives and usually sits unopened, my gmail box is 2/3rds full and that's mostly due to the social media notifications which cannot easily be thrown away or filtered for replies with which they get mixed ... severely hurting the value of G+ --- but did get this impression: stalin had an army of eichmanns in reverse (jews who were culling the crowd of it's czar loyalists / traditional authority 'getrouwen') and when he saw what enormous excesses this caused he turned the table and gave them a whatfor from their own medicine.

perhaps the hitler psyop, meant to father israel from getgo (Greg Hallet, eagle buddy ... one i haven't developed a set of reservations and immunities to as i have to eagle 2 DDD .. as yet ... true heir of britrael says so) in the first place, prompted him to institute a little parallel and make sure the share of jewadmixtees going 'back' to the land of undead jewlies (where the eternal credit--inexpendable billfold--scheme known as the bible compilers in rome drew inspiration and blood from .. i almost said originated but that's not true unless it's permissible to call america a sprout of anglo-dutch imperialism, iow, duh jews that ran along the water the other way)

Ralph Ellis has much to support all this: jesus had family ties that stretches from egypt to persia, was heir of what was then the wealthiest / healthiest area in syria, suffered an adventurous birth and immediate peril / became radical revolt leader, made a bid for the throne of rome, aided by crossdressing eunuch intrigants (dutch does emancipate that adverb into a noun by the way), see 'asterix en de intrigant' a tale of a roman spy in their camp, and incalitrannies which brings me to present day [modernest] mudearnological parallels: the wish to get a slice of duh femmie priv pie ... get privvie to weaponization tricks .. become the secret ruler of patri-arkey, hail the heaven hes

it's nothing but the wish to live under the same entitlement ruleset as jews ... the gam[e]bitcoinage that can't crash without rising the stronger for it, making up lost time every time ..

lefties now, bolshies then and the tragedy is that all this was used to hate hitler and stalin .. but for the wrong reasons, for the means and not the end and those means, .. boy, have they ever metastatized, let me tell you about one of the ways that seem as marginal as they all do .. after all, what percentage of people handle 'gewasbeschermers' (growthprotectors, as they call pesticides nowadays)? innit comparable to the minute proportion that stuff dildos into their orifices and hope that their juices wash the toxic emissions, excretions, exudations, ruptures, 'uitwasemingen' away? yesterday i met lucy (bonga cuts you off and insists on registration after a while): ... see earlier dec25

In his book Praktischer Idealismus (Practical Idealism), written in 1925, he describes the future of Jews in Europe and of European racial composition with the following words: [45]

The man of the future will be of mixed race. Today's races and classes will gradually disappear owing to the vanishing of space, time, and prejudice. The Eurasian-Negroid race of the future, similar in its appearance to the Ancient Egyptians, will replace the diversity of peoples with a diversity of individuals. [...]

So white Blumenthal and Norton are doing a podcast to deny the extraordinary illegal weapons US used in the genocidal war on Korea -- which they demote to "quasi-genocidal" -- they're reflating racist imagery and recirculating it partly in the guise of expressing their distaste and partly to ground in Zizekian "examples" their wholly dogmatic evidence-free assertion that North Koreans are "psychotic" "So by July 1953 North Korea was fully destroyed, its leadership was underground in tunnels that they had dug, and it's there that they stay, along with their weapons systems, there are advanced tunnel networks and bunker systems built in to the mountains of North Korea, and that is the legacy of this war along with this psyche of a nation that is indelibly scarred." This sounds just like the American scholars talking about the indelibly scarred psyche of the Japanese nation back in the day. The DPRK leadership does NOT live underground. This is complete crap movie fantasy.

What is Race? - 999 views - stimulator --- Jan 9, 2018
A look at the historical development of race, both as an enduring system of codified power relations and a central pillar for the creation and maintenance of state power.

i should have known better, .. i end up praising and sharing and posting it before seeing all of it and sure enough, you HAD to spoil it at the end of the 6th, last full, minute:

"For anarchists who seek a new world built on the destruction of the state and capitalism, ..."

search out Ulrich von Beckerath and substitute what he says about gold with an ethical turf-unit based on biomass (Soilstability / water-retention / nutritive value, trace mineral 'mileage' and service due/feasibility, see 'Rocks for Crops' from guelph) and make your stand (statelet) with that kind of very very forcefully stated pacifism ... before i croak and can't reiterate it fresh enough to matter anymore ... not for a looooooong time anywayz ...

ps: i shared it with this:

truly a gem, let me add a liddull fresh nuance: achieving higher arkey via agism, sexism and racism ... the art of ranking augmented thanking

Fuck!!!!!!!!! and then your last line is the worst:

"treason to whiteness is loyalty to humanity."

short retort: be true to all colours, betray one, betray all.

long version: first of, primary whiteness is snow and sunned on cloud ... there's a treason of whiteness yes (sugar, pharmapowders, etc) but more importantly (thirdly): it's mixraces vectoring the spread of invasive desert memes and entitlement schemes which fuck up any and all colour ... sometimes the result of some nomadism or other getting driven over and/or falling off the edge of luxury laps, having lost even last restraints ... without the guidance to either make the transition smooth and keeping it grounded or reform /return to earn a turn at the churn ... loosening the strained and restrained (rock) with a musical circular motion app['like'ation] for damn near free

... yeah, ... ah gots the ingredients for youtopia heah, carefully kept in the back in the back of my mind since tarzan, pietje bell, dik trom and [mostly much] later tom poes of course, what of it?

part of a reply to Zggrt443: compare conventional notions that stake out and prop up duh jesus and Hitler IDs with those of maverick Ralph Ellis and (far)outlyer Greg Hallett respectively. for both you can find easy convo listens all over youtube. Ellis wrote books on stuphz from egypt to persia to the UK since the 70s (he's a total moron on soil'meccanicks' [his latest foray] but i'm gonna leave that on different 'beleafable' leaves, for now).

You'll soon admit [nomi- and numonotional] differences are vast, right? I'll attempt a nutshell Ellis:

Jesus, ordinary run of the mill reactionary rebel, got gamed, bested and turned inside out by his main biographer (Paul, one and the same person as Josephus the famous histogrammer as well as [another Joseph,] the man who bought jesus off the cross, effectively saved him and used him as a kind of hostage held for ransom [pacifying his immediate family in Edessa, real big back then] in a Roman equivalent of Guantanamo, in Chester UK back then, an expatriot, 5th columnist, a primary and prototype antiphant).

And all this subtly but significantly seasoned with the efforts and thoughts of those not so much trying to suppress and quell uprisings as making pacifism count enough to prevent them in the first place, in other words, the same inbetween / median material from my hand trying to repopulate the void and ravaged wastes between standard polarized lef/rite fare.

Not really... Not once you realize that the USA of the modern world is a construction of White efforts...

Why should they have to sacrifice claim to a Nation that is only great because of their efforts?

Tell you what... Whites will leave the USA if we can take all of the wealth and assets our people contributed... You'd be left with a fucking barren ass country not unlike many in the Third world and of course it would stay that way. On the bright side non-whites would lose their interest in immigrating to it REAL fast

i've dropped hint after hint about making a consistent* pacifism the crowdpleasing hit it deserves to and will be since 2000 on the indynewswire threads and posts. No Crimethinker has ran with it or even questioned it very much. Instead we get debacles like Hamburg and i get .. less and less .. not even complaints about my 'obscurity' tackling tactics any longer. Not that i intend to resign my Self-appointment.

this is a wonderfully informative and clearsighted interview, thanks rowan. the bottom line: israel threatens a reverse holocaust on the shia alliance (syria-hezbollah-iran), while the same alliance threatens a reverse samson option on israel (150,000 assorted missiles, rockets, whatnots). not to mention russia's message to yankee shabbos that 2 can play that game (in response to their downing a russian jet the other day using manpads).. see jew shut his giant mouth for once, splutter giant gobs of frustration.

every attack in history by jews on the gentiles was unprovoked and on entirely false pretext of revenge for some imaginary wrong, a judaic projection of their endemic evil. few good points made by morris108 and magnier: â€¢ there may have been more jets hit, half a dozen israeli missiles caught in midair, â€¢ assad telling the jews that he is now ready for war, his forces well armed and battle hardened, â€¢ russian payback for the americans fucking around with manpads gifted to pro-nusra mercenaries that put down a russian jet, â€¢ hezbollah fully ready to swamp israel with simultaneous launch of over 100,000 missiles, â€¢ likelihood of israel risking a free-for-all escalation, small to nil, all that "israel, the mad dog" talk was just the usual hot air, they will redraw the red line as often as the victim faces up to the bully. should be a lesson to the rest of us: never back down a scintilla when attacked, threatened or browbeaten by a jew, double down instead. "am i a Denier? of course, i am and you are a diabolical liar, gentile baby sacrificer, organ thief, genocider, etc, etc."

???? = that which and/or what jesus' heirs are and represent is obscured by you christian lot hoisting him on a fairy stick .. which drives the world straight to hell one zionist bomb after another.

probably a necessary reminder of what russia is now, and what it isnâ€™t any more

I have seen a popular joke on the Internet about Obama and his generals in the Pentagon debating on the best timing to attack Russia. They couldnâ€™t come to any agreement, so they decided to ask their allies. The French said: â€œWe do not know, but certainly not in the winter. This will end badly.â€ The Germans responded: â€œWe do not know, either, but definitely not in a summer. We have already tried.â€ Someone in Obamaâ€™s war room had a brilliant idea to ask China, on the basis that China is developing and always has new ideas. The Chinese answered: â€œThe best time for this is right now. Russia is building the Power of Siberia pipeline, the North Stream Pipeline, Vostochny Cosmodrome Spaceport, the MegaProject bridge to Crimea; also Russian is upgrading the Trans-Siberian railroad with a new railway bridge across Lena River and the Amur-Yakutsk Mainline. Crapshoot: The Gamble With Our Wastes, a 2003 production of the National Film Board of Canada. This documentary, directed and edited by Jeff. McKay, questions the widespread sewerage of modern cities and explores the environmental and public health impacts of ...

You Don't Know Shit = 23m
Every day, America must find a place to park 5 billion gallons of human waste, and we're increasingly unable to find the space. We wake up in the morning, brush our teeth, and flush the toilet, thinking that the waste water disappears into the center of the Earth. If only that were the case.

some idyids at cornucopia institute claim it's 'new' mid 17 and

"Filmed in Italy, India, Sweden, the United States and Canada, this bold documentary questions our fundamental attitudes to waste."

Every morning between 8 AM and 9 AM, the waste output of Manhattan's West Side swells from 70 million to 150 million gallons per day. This is known as "the big flush." The sewage will eventually end up on a NYC Department of Environmental Protection Sewage boat, which will take the sludge to a dewatering plant on Ward's Island, where the sludge will become "biosolids" -- reused to create golf courses, cemeteries, and fertilizer for the human food chain [we care organics].

then they llink to source (sponsors) where you can show 5bucks worth of gratitude to trigger them into getting you on record as a good guy (who knows, ... it might work like a charm to ward of channel nixing like subbing to some black people seems to do as advertized).
https://www.nfb.ca/film/crapshoot_the_gamble_with_our_wastes/download/

Biosolids have become a financial asset worth hundreds of billions of dollars, but it's still possible that we'll go back to dumping our waste in the ocean. In this new documentary, VICE traces the trail of waste from butt to big-money biosolid and beyond.

Sigmund Fraud: A Jewish Conspiracy Against Society Even Today - 16K views - Brian Ruhe -- Jul 23, 2015
Brian Ruhe describes how Sigmund Freud was a strongly self identifying Jew who was part of a larger Jewish conspiracy to undermine white, Christian nations with his weapon of psychoanalysis. Freud created the pseudoscience of psychoanalysis with the intention to attack the gentile world and combat antisemitism in order to have a world where Jews can better thrive and dominate others.

Brian reads from Prof. Kevin MacDonald's book. This is a FAIR USE of Chapter 4 of "THE CULTURE OF CRITIQUE - An Evolutionary Analysis of Jewish Involvement in Twentieth-Century Intellectual and Political Movements.

not suprising really, .. you see the premium of white admix all over the world, to the point where faking it is a huge cosmetic industry .. and 'Babylonian Hebrew' is partly right when he asserts (that [the]) increasingly desperate and Bolshoviet magnitude measures are symptoms of a demise (the headcount trend remains assimilation ... not mentioning that it's the aeon old strategy aimed at strengthening the core and fueled by demografixed entitlementarianizzumz). I mean, that demise has happened over and over but always gets .. well, .. so far, got resussed into 'undead' prepack life status via that o so monetizable set of holy books (billfolds with the bills sown in, to be taken 'on faith'), propped on both arab and christian sides. Absurdities do sell theatrical tickets propped on either side better also, in this perfectly parallel case by freakazoid circus on one and casino politics on the other side

t-bone vs monkey - shaun attwood

i'll help you make this go viral ... my dad as a young and budding independent butcher - or not long before that, i never got a date, but he worked the shop from age 13 to early marriage - was blocked going to market with some ware halfway his village and a bigger one by competitors who knew his reputation for selling faster, cheaper and more. He pugilized his way out of that one. It's pretty much the only fight story that passed censors to the point of being repeated, iow, passed down to me. My mars in pisces i always found fighting unimaginative and ugly. Mom stopped him from stomping me in the shed once and overall did a Herculan job sheltering me .. even to her very end, and even though she always critiqued my life choices and i hers.

i came to see myself as a prince of peace righting the bent and made a mockery of 'ways to manhood' which fights not and instead squeezes, punches and/or spins a whole bunch or rock to life sustaining and life sounding earth (should i call it 'earlyearth' instead of rockdust? The latter word sticks to the glacial pace re public awareness - since launch mid eighties, perhaps my fault also - that won't stop climate disasters), while also nicely rounding others to roll them on the 'perpetrollmill' (see my G+ collection as ppppp).

the left knows very well i am their king, and inspiration but i let them steal my stuff and run it into the ground with their distortionate assenine ways cause i post for free what they turn around and fuck up for dear ... until such time as i am acknowledged and empowered as their commander and saviour enough for them to become receptive to vital adjustments .. prob is, these are unimaginable, yet sooo simple by hindsight, almost minor seeming to the point of 'a child can, if not think of, easily follow', that a premonition of magnificence makes them go for glory like little birds riding eagles.

maybe the right will beat them to it though .. if they ever manage to drop cruel jokery (of prison cultsure) for duh joys of a forceful pacifism, true healing, freedom and fragrance .. in fields, .. not fancy stores.

to the right i constitute and carry a warning about as well as a 'core action' to that HUUUUUGE contentionbone: assimilation

big difference in gene mixing as subtle and familiar border busting on the one hand and taking a huge bundle of 'm to do hopskip jumpcut roulette numbers on them.

it's making a satanic mockery of the vitally necessary mineral mix refresh, an act as essential as rain and shine in the right proportions are a crown on that sort of work.

1 long comment in a dry spell

August 30, 2001

Jim Bell wrote an infamous essay called 'Assassination Politics' <http://jya.com/ap.htm> (still there?), cleverly combining a rather violent form of anarchism with ideas about digital cash and internet anonymity. He has now been sentenced to ten years in jail for stalking federal agents. It seems very iffy that he did anything other than investigate what he honestly felt was wrongdoing. Even if he stepped over the line, it is clear that he is being sentenced for having the temerity to write such an article. The Powers That Be have always had this terrible fear that one day some prole will wake up and come up with an idea that will upset the whole apple cart. It's a shame they didn't get Marx sentenced to ten years before he got up to no good. The best defence to this kind of repression of speech is for everyone to read Jim Bell's work (and, of course, ensure that this fundamental attack on the right to free speech is overturned in court).

November 15, 2008 -- Commentology

I've been asked by somebody to remove a comment. Aside from the fact that I have no idea how to do that, I have reasons not to tinker with the comments. For one thing, the comments are already out there in the internet ether. Removing a comment won't change the stored memory of the web. ----- The comments aren't my work, and I don't take any responsibility for them. If I started to edit them, I would arguably assume a sort of authorship, or at least be understood to stand by the comments that remained. ----- I find it amazing how many bloggers review and remove comments they don't like. These deleted comments are invariably described as 'offensive', although I suspect most of them are critics of the blogger. I don't think these bloggers really understand the point of comments or the nature of the freedom of the internet. Censorship is so old-fashioned. Modern readers are capable of skipping the iffy bits. I also note that the community of commentators tends to be self-policing. Idiots generally feel unwelcome, and head to places where their contributions will be appreciated. ----- If I had to spend all that time editing the comments, I wouldn't allow comments. --- I try not to change my own postings unless absolutely necessary, and with a note that I have made the change and why. There is an ethics to blogging, and commenting. If you aren't ready to stand up for what you write, save us all the trouble of having to read it. ----- This is a cautionary tale. When you write something, it is out there for all to see, forever. ----- To be helpful: anyone who is in trouble about a posted comment on this blog can tell the authorities/ police/ thought-controllers/fussbudgets/ censors/ busybodies/sticks-in-the-mud that they seriously repent of the comment, and have contacted the blogger to have it removed, but the blogging principles of the blogger make that request impossible to fulfil.

presstv has 167k subbers ... the number of times 'good deed' and 'bad deed' each occur in the quran ... it's all relative i suppose ... erdogan vs kurds : netanyahu vs palestinians ... neither cryptosavantry nor blamegame or scapegoat fame leads to true and grounded expressions of ethical manhood and championship, which are entirely different: they make way for water into rock .. made receptive for water ... caring for vitality and abundance of biomass, .. is the quran or any holy book for that matter, a manuel for filling garderobes of the natural femininities from the ground up, a how to for rocksqueezies, for a rock on rock spin or two, for how to guide run-off so rain doesn't run away or run rampant???? Yet THOSE are the matters of honour!!!!

i'm gonna make this point even before watching and unilaterally betting a hundred bucks against hearing any, even a smidgen of it, reflected in your vid: america, more specifically american soils, thru the incredibly accomplished, for desertmeme vectored whities especially, unimaginable diversity guaranteeing and maintaining practice of a type of permaculture avant la lettre, were able to produce mutual health and vitality bestowing lifeforms until occupied and 'taken advantage of' (disrespected, disrupted, crippled, choked, poisoned and its communities, stretching far beyond and afloat waaaay above its treecanopies), iow subjected to the thanatopiates a cruel, hostile and satanic primate with dominant cause weaponized tecnerd gene admix is 'capable' of. For a long time though, stretching into today in rapidly shrinking to mere spots regions, THIS was and remains the horribly abused cause of raw beauty, an innocence under siege cause born 'under' siege, more accurately put, on top of biocide.

All cultural expressions under these conditions are motivated to distract from said facts and the 'gay bigot' flick is no different. i was honestly thinking you were gonna talk about it in the abstract, recognizing neither title nor star in the thumb but i'm not above stooping to the personify / anthromorphicize 'up' myopic levels you're at in order to scoop and 'drag' you from that hell by the rotting roothairs of your souls.

and so i'll put it in terms of duh horney: the sticky stuff (eggs / walled gardens, the femigamut) gets transported, projected, seduced by the slippy (and robust weather feeding it). No substance can top the meeting of rock in it's finest (aggregate) .. dust through deft forms of loving squeezes and spins .. etcetera .. i'm not gonna repeat all that yet again here ... fresh dust ... and fresh rain .. in a puddle spontaneous reduction / oxygen bubblet production begun no later than the appearance of the sun ... breaths of relief ... but yall are not about that, catering to amputees of connectivity.

production :: reproduction proportionalities :: :: group :: couple differentials tell me which fork/branch of duh burgeoning causes run ins with runaway effects?

I mean, in the sense of a dutch saying: hardlopers zijn doodlopers (it denotes hurry leading to exhaustion .. or more freely: explosives do not 'flour' .. or more accurately, poison the flower) ... ever wonder why 'natural' trannies come from areas downwind from bombing campaigns etcetera?

Like from one of the areas in Canada where toxlaced sludge was, routinely, not cleaned up but mixed with, diluted in, then relabeled as, compost, which did more harm than good, bulked up with that sort of maffiyose ballast and i might as well tack on the hardest question that necessesarly follows logically: which culture memes lead [to] this: a 'marry out, cherry pick your host and make their badge of entry and proof of loyalty the betrayal of their own, making them help you tox the rest of 'm down, take a second cut from those who nerd up most and best, meaning, who weaponize easiest and voila .. greater izrael.

The Alt Right Tonight: The JQ Debate - 1,773 views -- Luke Ford --- Apr 17 -- lukeford.net/blog/?p=121597
Nathan Cofnas writes: The biblical commentator Rashi observes that in order for a falsehood to be successful, it has to contain at least some element of truth. According to one falsehoodâ€”the mother of all conspiracy theoriesâ€”Jews have gained control over gentile civilization, and use their power to promote chaos and degeneracy in order to advance their own ethnic interests. This theory is a central component of the worldview of the alt-right. Andrew Anglin, who runs the most popular alt-right/neo-Nazi website, explains:

"The core concept of the movement, upon which all else is based, is that Whites are undergoing an extermination, via mass immigration into White countries which was enabled by a corrosive liberal ideology of White self-hatred, and that the Jews are at the center of this agenda."

very annoyed by the aggro and agitation .. and even more by the fact that it perfectly illustrates how precise wording, the only possible antidote was absent; hence, compensatory bitching non-stop for all of the second hour

the land of principles .. is it populated? is it diverse ... selfsufficient? is it occupied? .. do we need to recruit a liberation force from those who feel threatened but not yet affected do we need to arouse the compassion and intervention appetite from those who do not feel threatened but actually, acutely are, ask them for the sacrifice of ripping away blinders, dropping part of their principles to help others regain similar or other parts of the principle package they dropped?

work from home and as close by as possible or take stock, turf severity and aim for the brains of the monster, virulence central?

is 'whites as a whole' too general? Even a downright diversity killer. Do we assume a duty to the larger collectives runs into so many delays and mix ups the stability of demographix is endangered? can duty not be confined to times before participation in 'demogra'mix' is at hand, likely and/or inevitable?

FALLON'S DAILY TOAST: Overturning the Culture of Violence by Penny Hess -- 3 views -Fallon's Daily Toast
--- May 5, 2018

A few paragraphs from Overturning the Culture of Violence by Penny Hess. Foreword by Chairman Omali Yeshitela of African People's Socialist Party. Find the book online at burning spear marketplace.

i found it in my heart to find fault w myself and try again .. but at some point i must begin to admit you hardened yours

AND YET, NO QUESTION THE WRITER TURNS ON A DIME IN AN ATTEMPT TO KEEP YET EAT CAKE, immediately contradicting himself thusly:

30:11 = the African people's Socialist Party asserts its complete unity with the right of the indigenous people to regain their stolen land and resources and to define their struggle for self-determination and sovereignty as they see fit the party has demonstrated its solidarity with the liberation of native native peoples throughout the years and in no way wants to intervene in the internal struggles struggles of that movement however we made the decision to use certain books by Churchill just as we would any other source simply because some of them contain pertinent information which contribute to the overall understandings of this book

now, WE BLEKKEYS WILL BICKER AND BATTLE WITH WHYTEASE OVER THE RED CONTINENT, thus displaying our full EQUALITY# w whities

= read: matching depth of depravity, inability to throw a healing crisis in a valiant attempt to regain decency, the state and standing of being unaf- instead of INfected by abrahamicizzums which tempt, ease and tease till you slip into an occupier role (mind the sellby date past which mediatic wankeries [very real and 'merely' mental pollutions] and jolly cajoles turn ugly, coercive and stampedish, uniting black and white in keeping the red races in a state of suppression and undeath)

you want "unity with the right of the indigenous people"? Any and all indigenous people??? Then i suggest you do this: take your leader's dick out of your mouth and have a taste of mine, help me return white and black to the continents that were either too much or too little for them and never just right, the ones they lost and/or betrayed, heritage recovery will include a red version and they too and everyone's forests, will rise tall again.

for Tim w Corbett - Dulles bros: nJd5UNA-qlw

i wrote this letter today: your mention of Robert Graves doeth spur me to state: worship got 'dispoled' (umgepolt) to 'op de korrel nemen' (targetting) underlined by sacrifice which in turn devolved into and simply moved to the black market for higher profits

once i began to read more (and more) about the jews i often thought back to RG's defense of their [pioneering a switch from human to animal blood to .. various .. evermore 'dominec'] sacrifice (especially when in the mood to defend them a la DD who claims the genius of taiwan lies in it's [asian version of] multiculturalism).

But DD has aired plenny of tales where sacrifice plays a huge role right into modern times and not so much shedding as breaking blood (his spanish flue hatched by the satanic US dept of war - forbidden by the victorious japs as he tells it, but if so, alas, in name only - for example). It's clear by now that we can include corrupting bloodbonds and the like. Transgressing bloodbarriers etcetera ... it all begins with well meaning humanitarian 'aid' (medicine to add injury to insult and not to pay for hardwood yadayada .. disgusted that people get this less and less)

The incredibly nerdy crypto hype and hypering that got the britraelis to begin try ruling the waves, freezin 'm to chop them into conservables, marketable stackables .. got this great big boost via John Dee and if indeed the shakespeare manuscripts were brought to turtle isle as a worthy price for it (refusal inadmissible) it was merely a tiny but essential catalyst for massive moves in it's wake ... (of 'equal' 'take nor leave it' calibur).

This harks back to a crucial observation i made during my time of really getting into Andrew Lehman (after a 10 year more superficial acquaintance).

Borderline autistic weaponizable nerdiness is what the code-possessed, and machinizers of alphabet / calendar / gardenlore are shooting for .. and indeed down. thanatopia from the 'civns' that sport reproductive 'success' so wild it's normal spreading strategies fray and fail, their principles erode and get overtaken by exigence, expedience, emergencies exemption, exception and 'states' thereof .. propped by all the powers of proppery the proprietarians can libburate its [in their bias eyes projectionally] false owners cause it's really them not after but even before all.

All bycause of cornerstone neglect and 'verwerping' [discardation] ... wether i hammer on it (with shamelessly dictatorial insistence bycause it's really a minor aspect of a whole but just as essential as the rest are to make that whole .. makable - that worshipped word, which won't bear full verb impact and load until said aspect found funded, fungible and feted in festive finery) for 30 years non -stop or not.

The Cornerstone Discipline = The Root of Legitimacy

Call it art, piousness, wormshop, bare hands rockrubbery to keep soil blackening, puddle cloud theaters open, skies clearing and air scented (i hammer on it with shamelessly dictatorial insistence because although it's really a minor aspect of a whole, 't aint just any but every known whole we're talking .. not just liddlest, yet fastest - largest factor - alive but MOST COMMON buildingblocks here ... just as essential as the rest are to make that whole BUT decidedly closer to duh 'from scratch' pole than all others).

The version i sent yesterday was posted to the corbette report on UcY vid and removed, prolly cause they can't bear to learn about rocks in any other than familiar projectile space terms; a tragic side effect of literacy: the irreversibility illusion which they try prove with ever grotesquer poisons and extinctions.

I have made this compilation of tweets from Red Kahina twitter.com/RedKahina to try and make her extremely well-justified claims and evidence that Rania Khalek, Max Blumenthal and Ben Norton are assets of the US or Israeli governments more publically available and easily citable. Please use this document as much as possible and spread it around.

Kevin MacDonald's Reply to Nathan Cofnas #2: INTRODUCTORY MATERIAL and More -- 1.1K views -- Simon Harris -- Mar 23, 2018 something you and the likes of KMD, Patrick Little, Mike Enoch, Weev, Ryan Faulk, JFG, etc need to understand: the essence of 'jewry' is generalized and they need not be adressed at all to remedy these mechanisms, being, first and foremost, the dominance and 'debalancing' of fast, anonymous, anything goes, down to and even including lowest common ethics denominators 'open' market ones (which actually worship, convey and conduct rite of all ways for and by undead code addled individuals - those suffering the indivillusion = literacy overheating and spewing thanatoxia), which in the absense of truely open (turfed, consensed, etc) state / city / regional monies behave atrociously with impunity, unchecked by the clearing houses of old. jews prefer wholesale .. hellsale .. any bulk sale .. they'll dope up and/or bomb down an entire genus and/or region on the off chance something weaponizable will come out of the austification wave and 'collamage'. Volcanos are notoriously sloppy, are they jewish? There goes another jewish volcano? Arrest them, put them on the chain gang? that's not to say we delegate the fuck out of essentials; you don't wanna off shore more of what makes life intimate and worthwile do you? If a scavenger sends saboteurs into the production process so their business grows, it's time to call them parasites instead of sanitary workers.

The Hebrew Israelites are living in America NOT Africa. They originated out of Jerusalem. We are NOT Africans. Africans are the seed of Noah's son Ham. Why gun grabber George Webb hates NRA lawsuit in New York 184 views ... descr. quotes RollingStone article:

The reason, according to the NRA filing, is not its deep entanglement with alleged Russian agents like Maria Butina. Instead, the gun group has been suing New York Gov. Andrew Cuomo and the state's financial regulators since May, claiming the NRA has been subject to a state-led 'blacklisting campaign' that has inflicted 'tens of millions of dollars in damages'.

please ask yourself: why is peaceful use of metal (beyond and well apart the 'defensive' violence prevention kind .. em- 'vs' deployment?) not allowed to justify, complete or if need be compete with offensive kinds (which are countless, running riot far far beyond weaponry)? Hell, if the nra would have any sense they'd campaign on priding themselves with protecting exactly and just and yes, even exclusively them sorts of stone rolling feats (they'd quickly become able to afford to if they'd only start ...) i'll talk to them when they're ready ... but not even the 'operatie steenbreek' (breakstone, they try break [down/up] the paved over garden 'growth models') people know how to find me (even though my very first webpages [1996] were at dds - 'de digitale stad', also the hague, where they're based but they have tens of dozens of municipalities pluggin their stuffs nationwide).

masqotte of the multitudes, golem, jesus and cernunnos rolled into a hell of a happy huntin grounddefender .. fed the micro mesh proceeds of grounding action as grounding core action correction, that's me ; the NRA are a few cycles short of even a single complete ethicalspiral bout of control but it's not the long arm of Putin as madman Douglas Dietrich asserts.

the jews, world champion monetizers of absolutely any- and everything except ethics were themselves monetized by the most out there extreme elements amongst them ... or if you prefer, taken to market by the white side of nazism .. but there was a semite side to it and they decided that spending the money on bombs was better than on transport for all jews, thus they forsook the poor ones cheapening their lives to zero and spent the money instead on exacting a toll of lives [at a rate of about 1:100] as a final and terminal parasitic act for the victims but it wasn't in fact a farewell ingratitude, since the mechanism simply migrated to the victors ... and you thought spite wasn't a science and industry as big as anger, hatred and horniness just cause it's slower, more insipid and sneakier?? think again.

Is climate change irreversible?

439 views --CGTN -- Aug 26, 2018

A recent article published by the US National Academy of Sciences warns that world efforts to curb climate change may be too little, too late. Though the findings are not conclusive, they again emphasize the vital importance of nations working together to do whatever is possible, as quickly as possible. The alternative is to risk disaster for humankind on a scale previously unimaginable. So, is the recent global extreme weather an exception to the current trend, or an ominous sign of worse things to come?

Sweat not deception behind China's economic rise

1K views - CGTN -- Sep 15, 2018

Chinese labor productivity grows at 9 percent annually, the highest in the world. The country has maintained a strong labor force and high rates of working women. This year, China broke into the world's top-20 most innovative economies for the first time. When Deng Xiaoping (1904-1997) started China's reform and opening up 40 years ago, he not only shook up a stagnant economy, but also set the imagination of Chinese people free.

A Wild Striker Appears - Eric's impromptu appearance on The Ralph Retort - 1.7K views - Riastrad - Oct 25, 2018

around the one hour nine minute mark they touch on the black hole i began living in from '96 forwards, having found a way to colour txt (with a program i still use, Netscape Composer) which i combined with 'treedefender' memes and practice like saving paper, so i crunched the format to narrow margins, eliminate whiteness / voidline / empty line ... and went inconsistently crazy assigning speakers in convos i took of 'threadage' between use-net and blogs (mostly from indymedia sites), mixing left w right and adding commentary (items too, a primitive mirror page for the main newswire even, in 2001) .. killer colour.

Pfui, quite the overdone intro, i better hurry telling you Eric mentions the ['non' -existent] 'positively politicized game culture'.

Guess i got the colouring right for that and plenny of duh vital memes ... but none of the artists, sharp readers, nor more direct contactees, ever got around to managing a glimpse of what i did [[[dee sciii[iiibe]]], let alone any gamerd 'cultoids' and '-ites', almost all of which exasperated me, if i even looked thataway (barely to none; i wasn't fooled about the potential though ... thence lies just another treasure i failed to read roadie 'sighance' to).

physically closest i got thus far to code rotters (modern ones, not the LETS type guys), mere minutes though, was me going to collect a whiff of duh noomap crowd who have more than a whole floor in an anti-squat in a former hospital / resthme right by the biggest traffic heart attack roundabout in the heart of EUlowlands, one of THE most lightpollution producing cunttrees (plenny cunts, fewer and fewer trees, as it's also heart[less]land for those who, as Douglas Dietrich puts it "worship the jews").

ps: in fact, only now, 17 years later i am doing a proper indent version in order to facilitate selection for a collected work i should like to place a period behind, in as extravagantly ceremonious fashion as possible and thence write with ink make of rock and water (the former sourced from wrong infrastructure), in grey only, perfect for single cell 'readers' if you can catch a green gift spinning rite before you.

low, factor them IN ... or out? I betcha the latter ... a mistake of colossal magnitude that makes, and comparable to how, 'relites' and 'leftites' ['estromilitants?'] clamor for more food aid for instance, cleverly juxtaposing luxury with starvation pics [just another manifestation of the most damaging, since hydraheaded, scourge of all: virtue signaling].

'Refugees welcomers' deserve a one way ticket to the charge they will not otherwise care for much at all, .. and which cared for or not, easily ends aeons and aeons old heritage [quickly at present, end times, flux rates [raging the last half a millenium already], 99.9999 of which deserves reconstituting more than a fate comparable to that of .. saaaay ... red races? And what's next?

It's not a question of 'ruddie reds' went, so which .. oh, 'witty whitle', your turn to exit' for me [but that sure seems to be the next catechism chapter in our virtuous victim schizologics at playbook].

i can see a use in movement of peoples too though. WHITIE and former 'charge', BLACKIE, now 'free' [but not smart enough 'to go' either] could [be counselled, lobbied, etc, to] go home but clean up after themselves first for a speedy recovery of 'REDDIE' huh?

the same way warstoppers deserve help to instruct and practice permie peace where it matters and is never too late, on/with their side of the front, on/with their own soldiers .. to [finally] begin with .. keeping the 'defense' budget name but not the practice thus far.

but hey, the vast hasbaratrace PC majority are mum, hush, repressedly transferential, baffled, tabooed and clammed up about the diff. breeding strategies involved ... they love lemming movies but play them backwards and sing: 'we'll scale the castle wall, we'll gets to woik, we'll beat even the most exotic fucking speeds and maybe even good old Malthus awaiting us on the finish line.

consider youtube.com/watch?v=Xgcc3BpoT9c this interesting interview on some russian channel between 2 jews, one of whom is the ex-chief of israel intel ("nativ"), where they explore these strategic angles. once past the opening lines by the brain-dead npc (non-player-character, love that gamer phrase) stoltenberg, the exchanges become probing and intelligent. but what is fascinating to me is how the israelis suddenly present themselves as dyed-in-wool russian patriots, born on the fourth of july in birobidjan, consider kadme's use of "WE" (as in WE, the russians, not israelis).

WE have river-based missiles! Which Americans don't.

talking about kalibr missiles, better than the tomahawks, can be fired from tiny lake-and-river-based ships. or how he openly denounces the asinine kievian maidan color revolution but lays it at the america's door, like jews got nothing to do with it, even though he probably personally directed the rooftop snipers casually laying fire on both sides to incite violence spiraling out of control - bolshevik lite. always good to know who the house is betting on, since they write the book.

In Israel, we are not allowed to criticize the Bureaucrats or the Judges - the politicians yes, the Judges and Bureaucrats no. Why? Because politicians come and go. The Bureaucrats and Judges are installed for life. Among the Judges and Bureaucrats is where the half-Jewish, half-Nazi agents are installed. ----- 149 Comments

These are diasporic elites, trying to find an anti-left ideology that won't condemn them to compulsory Zionism, ie "the negation of the Diaspora," and "send them home to Israel." Defending Western supposed civilization against the Oriental supposed savages may be just about the only role left for them.

21st Oct 2015 from TwitLonger ... some Theweleit:

Let's review the mode of production of our writers' [The Freikorps novelists] language once again. It too cannot be grasped simply by revealing its "unconscious" contents. It is not primarily characterized by its specific use of a typical symbolism, nor indeed by any kind of expression; we are not even dealing here with projection.

Making clear what the language cannot do is revealing in itself. It cannot describe, or narrate, or represent, or argue. It is alien to any linguistic posture that respects the integrity of its object or takes it seriously. The language seems just as incapable of forming "object relations" as the men who employ it.
(The language neither lies nor tells the truth; those are irrelevant categories.)

must say I've seen no evidence to indicate this is accurate. Not to say that's not what's happening, but there's an absence of evidence of it. Facts in evidence tend to indicate the opposite is true. I've been studying the festivities closely since 2013 as it applies to Syria, and it's allies in particular, and the Middle East in general the history since it began 100 years ago. It took quite some time to weed out sources of bullshit, and think I've pretty much got it, but I do get fooled once in a while. It's about viewing all sides objectively.

I didnt fake quote concussive bonk, i created a parody called "concussive imbeciile" and gave it an opinion that was a satire of bonk. Tarzie didnt use to pretend to be this dense or go for the "park slope marxist" cracks. Sad. A waste of intellect. The idea that anybody could believe concussive bonk actually might have said Rapone didnt know West Point was connected to the US military is something I admit I had not considered, and the fact Tarzie and Sassy both find this plausible - without naming anyone who was deceived -- is genuinely surprising and maybe illuminating. I'm genuinely not sure whether they really think this or are posturing to create overblown drama and more tiresome victimhood. Could those actually deceived kindly identify yourselves? (Tarzie also knows I don't have and never had a trust fund. But this only slightly increases the disengenuousness and reactionary character of his remarks, which also can be heard from those who declare Jack Ma an important Communist leader. Does CB have a trust fund? I couldn't care less. Though people who push this line about the innocence of professional trustifarian propagandists often do.) Reminds me when Conor K was spreading these false stories invented by the Nick Land proteges of my vast wealth, which Tarzie now repeats, I said Conor heard them when posting to Daily Stormer, + people "believed" it as readily as theyll believe Tarzies round of "Heiress" tales. Conr and lives on her trust fund , that is.

if women tried to hold out for real MANLINESS and managed to convey WHAT IT IS to lefty 'cuckbeta' and macho 'dicktoteur' alike ahead of time, we'd have major improvement in pacifist and forceful practice of microclimes and all other primary needs on the double or at least within days. Herbal teas instead of alcohol ... rockdust instead of the pharmaphiyose gambits and repertoires working on zombification since the late 19th century (Julius Hensel may have been the first in german courts vs blanket coverage 'vaccinateurs' gaining in diabolic strength upon 'strength' [=tox] since then). Perhaps i have to face the fact that the gap in electabilty between me and my ideas is big enough to let the whole world slip thru huh?

Sarte - Sun, 06 Jan 2019 <http://niqnaq.wordpress.com/?p=336591#comment-118088></guid><description>Hi Rowan, and happy new year!

I have another off-topic post :-)
<http://bostonreview.net/literature-culture-global-justice/arundhati-roy-avni-sejpal-challenging-â€œpost-â€?postcolonialism>
In this passage:

The freer global capital becomes, the harder national borders become. Colonialism needed to move large populations of peopleâ€”slaves and indentured laborâ€”to work in mines and on plantations. Now the new dispensation needs to keep people in place and move the moneyâ€”so the new formula is free capital, caged labor. How else are you going to drive down wages and increase profit margins? Profit is the only constant. And it has worked to a point. But now capitalism's wars for resources and strategic power (otherwise known as â€œjust warsâ€?) have destroyed whole countries and created huge populations of war refugees who are breaching borders. The specter of an endless flow of unwanted immigrants with the wrong skin color or the wrong religion is now being used to rally fascists and ethno-nationalists across the world. That candle is burning at both ends and down the middle, too. It cannot all be laid at the door of resource-plundering or strategic thinking. Eventually it develops a momentum and a logic of its own.

I was thinking, perhaps that is why, we have FB, twitter, and other social media, which make users highly addictive.

The NYT Laments Pindo Disengagement Even As There Is None - Moon of Alabama, Jul 12 2019
The NYT's 'analysis' and its supporting quotes demonstrate again that the day-to-day foreign policy discussion in Pindo media has little to do with the actual observable policy, the real presence of Pindo troops and bases, with real economic relations or political commitments. The people in the Middle East would mostly love the see a 'Post-Pindo Era.'
Unfortunately, there is no sign of that. The move of some 5% of Pindo forces in the Middle East from one

Middle Eastern country into another does not indicate a new geopolitical trend. Why is it presented as such?

now take the first 4 ws (double 'yous' = w) away and divine the meaning: "vooraar, vooraar, wie mijn OORD BEAARD, zal de dood niet zien tot in de eeuwigheid" = for earth, for earth, whosoever will 'be-earth' my locale, will see life immediately .. bycause to immitate the making of fertility, abundance, peak / climax climate and create earth (crush rock, compost them), will jumpstart .. squeezestart, rubstart, grindstart crushstart .. here is what i think is the main reason for the hasty removal of any reference to these emails:

Bringing down Assad would not only be a massive boon to Israel's security, it would also ease Israel's understandable fear of losing its NUCLEAR monopoly afaiac, this is the first official admission that israel is a nuclear power, by the acting state secretary of the usa, no less and it throws the doors wide open to every country on earth to push for nuclear armament on the principle of what's sauce for the duck is sauce for the gander.

there are only two ways to deal with it, either go after israel to eliminate the warheads and scrap the program of further development or let every other country pursue their own, unmolested, to ignore it otherwise would be criminally negligent to the home populace.

including iran.

Payne's book on Fascism is the most sober and comprehensive mainstream work on the subject. Liars claim Nazis were the violent ones, but more Nazis were murdered by leftists in 1932 than vice versa. According to historian Stanley Payne, industrialists in Germany 1931-33 did everything in their power to prevent Hitler's participation in the government. The NSDAP was funded fully by dues and donations from its activists.

Mueller Team Tied To Mifsud's Network
Elizabeth Vos, Disobedient Media, Jan 21 2019
At minimum, we can surmise that Mifsud was not a Russian agent, but was an asset of Western intelligence agencies. We are left with the impression that the Mifsud saga served as a ploy, whether he participated knowingly or not. It seems reasonable to conclude that the gambit was initially developed with participation of John Brennan and British intelligence. Mueller inherited and developed the Mifsud narrative thread into the collusion soap opera we know today. Ultimately, we are faced with the reality that British and Pindo interests worked together to fabricate a collusion scandal to subvert a Pindo Presidency, and in doing so, intentionally raised tensions between the West and a nuclear-armed power.

Britain is not the only Pindo vassal feeling the heat. In Poland, boxtops are also under pressure from the United States to bar Huawei from building its fifth-generation (5G) network.

ABSTRACT --- UNRAVELLING RACE --- By Tina D. Berg

The purpose of this paper is to explore the history of racial taxonomy and its enduring adverse effects on society.

Within the context of the current race debate, the question of whether race is a legitimate term rests on how we define it, and in turn, how we deploy it. Recent developments in the biomedical and genetic fields have only worked to complicate these matters. Superficially, it may seem that there are very real reasons to embrace the gene as an explanatory precept of race- but within the realm of biology, this conjecture has produced a fierce debate about both its scientific accuracy and social utility. It is clear that genotypes and ancestry do not necessarily correlate with phenotypes and visual traits (skin color, facial features, etc.). And, it is also clear that no one gene can account for the things that we define as being properties of race. As such, it seems that racial concepts, forged not from the natural sciences and biology but rather from the social concepts of law, politics and history, should be abandoned as a biological category altogether.

this is an absolutely brilliant exposure of the community security trust, a zionist lobby and pressure group

A reply to Britain's Community Security Trust
Chris Marsden, WWS, Feb 16 2019
The following is a reply by Socialist Equality Party (UK) national secretary Chris Marsden to Mark Gardner, Deputy Chief Executive & Communications Director at the pro-Zionist Community Security Trust. Gardner wrote to the World Socialist Web Site on Feb 9, replying to an article called 'Corbyn leadership bows before Blairite's anti-Semitism witch-hunt', posted on the site that day. His letter reads:

Your characterisation of Community Security Trust as "Zionist" is pathetic and typical of hard left attempts to smear mainstream Jewish communal organisations. What do you actually mean by Zionist? And in what way is it more accurate to describe CST as "Zionist", rather than as a Jewish British charity? Contrary to your article's explicit claim, CST's report does have a page explaining what it means by antisemitic incidents that show direct relation to the Labour Party. It includes examples. Your ideological contempt for the experience of British Jews is a damning example of how far your "anti Zionism" has taken you. Mark Gardner

Catlin Johnstone is a protocols hack; she churns out the protocols again and again in every hipstery voicy subidiom. Shameless sophistry like Zizek ("Some people are worried about Mexicans infiltrating the US and destroying our societies and express these worries publicly. That is harmless. You can't accuse such people of causing harm to anyone.")
To understand what she is doing read:
<http://alphonsevanworden.tumblr.com>
<https://medium.com/@caityjohnstone/the-alt-right-label-whats-real-what-s-fake-and-why-it-matters-eb23e19b8762> â€¦ ("conservative" like it means they wear LL Bean and chanel and you might prefer something smarter and flashier.) Her function is as the bridge between the open calls for extermination and her defenders who can be in deep left disguise. They can declare her half right.

"Caitlin's position that killing kids at the border is wrong but portraying them in the media as threats to our racial purity and prosperity is right is half right."

And on and on mise en abyme. this is right out of the protocols. Notice there is the constant shift to innuendo. Baiting with names, switching to loaded dogwhistling abstractions. The Enemy is explicit not defined as capital or the capitalist ruling class and always invariably includes devious Marxists and antiracists of all classes. Really this is so evidently protocols that it can't be assumed to have fooled any of its defenders. She is a shibboleth. Her defenders out themselves. And invariably if you have a look at any of them you don't have to scratch deep to reveal their roots in fascist circles and commitment to spreading fascist falsehoods and myths and memes and programs. "The Enemy. " Her stuff cribs a lot from Schmitt but Schmitt was only the reworking in a more dignified and pseudo-scholarly idiom of the Protocols in the first place. People's critical faculties are destroyed. They are easily manipulated by flattery -- she is huge on flattery of her reader, as well as of her collaborators -- and affirmations. It's a true confidence game. "I trust you. You understand me."

"This is How we Fought in Gaza," a collection of 111 testimonies from soldiers who participated in the 50-day operation in Gaza in the summer of 2014, points to evidence of Israeli war crimes, even though that term doesn't appear in any of Breaking the Silence's materials. Israel's assault on Gaza, according to the UN, killed 2,251 Palestinians, most of them civilians, 551 of them children. Hamas's attacks on Israel killed 73 people, including six civilians.

Israeli defense officials oppose US bill on Golan Heights with good reason - 142 views -- churchdog42 -- Mar 9, 2019
There is another Leviathan hiding under the Syrian soil of the Golan Heights and Genie Energy and Israel want it badly. But influential Israeli military officials are warning us lawmakers (whom Israel supposedly has no influence over) now is not the time to push through land-grab legislation in Golan. They have a point.

evil beyond belief and as perfectly out in the open as it paralyzes and buys critics off .. they can mouth whatever they want and the Clintons, Trumps and the icky yickey man heading the Dutch govt, positioned to jump into the EU, service the most zioschiz pabulum lip and they fact they don't act on it is becoming a more and more imperative type of deflation, saving lives from the frontlines and frustrating the profits they are the ad people for.

Equally out in the open is the reversion of all that perversion, not to a mere backside like nazio back to front Transfer Agreement medallions (funny how good that shit fits eh?) But wait, i have a tale about the nonflattened version of these spinmilltrickies ... the real thing, no token at all .. or at least a happy median / not a compromise like the 'polder model' of the insanest of all bible belts dictates but .. i mean a harmony between coin and the currency that goes by the many names: charge / life force, mercy, ambiance ('stemming' .. which doubles as vote in Dutch ..and triples as tuning) ... i went back to my 'birthground' (geboortegrond, .. gosh what a preggers word in lite of my 'rollies') to liberate, remembering my difficult youth ... i thought i'd have the greatest liddul hobby on the side while i 'mantelzorg pleegde' (cared for mom just enough to keep her out of the resthome, where i did go thinking i could help the ol' fogies fill their own map during their own slots with digitized memories in one fell swoop ... beautiful empty wall below 3 stories of glassroofed over space to line books up along ... etcetera), but it all came to nought ... the [raisin size] olive trees put there in big breast hi square crates got cut almost all the way back this year .. THAT level of fuck .. and not just in the bible belt... water becoming unswimmable, bird pops plummeting ...

So, I wanted to free up the thinking of the local caste of people, my father's side having taken centuries to migrate 50 miles .. but alas ... that degree of blood n soil gets puni... i mean rewarded with an assimilee marano for a wife ... who happened to be frontfighter the likes of which the world waits aeons for but alas, hijacked by the pharmapphiot who supplied fresh toxfume emitting but beautifully clear plastic to play with the saleable product of all out bloodshed every Friday 2 floors below where i was born.

i healed my thoughtprocesses by and by over the course of a few travel decades ... and data / time compression is a thing kids loved me and that is basically what urged to launch a probing try here and there. And mommies, don't worry ... i aint gonna bring 'm to The American Dream or bring it to them and couldn't any way .. can't ... nobody can ... it got sacrificed on the Altarts of CultYoReal MarkCysticizzum.

Sorry ... got distracted ... just image though ... that the solution is as out in the open as the bad stuff but people don't act on either alternative other than 'tokenically' (firmly within lettertraps lawful or not).

But what would someone with a mill which doesn't use rare earths or hi speeds, doesn't wanna pollute, nor wants an invention as clean as this to be put to uses any less clean than itself (patent revolution anyone?) ... you get the point ...

Quitting the Youtube (and Facebook) plantation
39 views - Russ Lindquist - Mar 9, 2019
Facebook and Youtube are massively corrupt plantations, complicit in much of what is worst about the current world, including the ongoing, worldwide fake news and terrorism by the United States and "Israel" aka the anti-Jewish, atheist-terrorist State of occupied Palestine. For that reason, I am leaving both plantations permanently. Ultimately both sites contributed a lot of good to the conversation in the world. But now, I hope only that they both go the way of Myspace. Of course, these plantations are not a speck more than a symptom. Yet, for now, formally quitting these symptoms is enough.

Pentagon escalating buildup on Russia's borders
Bill Van Auken, WSWS, Mar 9 2019

The Pentagon's top military commander in Europe

told the Senate Armed Services Committee Tuesday that more US troops and more warships must be deployed to the continent to counter what he described as Moscow's "malign influence" and Russian threats to "the United States' vital national interests." The testimony by Gen Curtis Scaparrotti, the head of EUCOM and NATO SACEUR,

Are there any 'real' Rothchilds left? I believe maybe 2-3 that are actually Jewish, the rest married out. Do you have a statistic?

No, the only attempts to draw present-day Rothschild family trees that I know of are those of the supposed convert to christianity, ;brother nathaniel

<https://niqnaq.wordpress.com/2012/08/05/the-legend-of-the-hebrew-talisman/>

I use the term rothschild quite loosely, but I believe that if they were dominant in the nineteenth century, there is no reason to believe them when they say they no longer are so. Marcon is ex Rothschild. The Economist weekly is generally supposed to be the mouthpiece of the english senior rothschild (Lord Jacob). Take a look at this, by the way:

to paraphrase StaÅ' article,

Facilis descensus Averno; Noctes atque dies patet atri ianua Ditis; Sed revocare gradum superasque evadere ad auras, Hos opus, hic labor est.

(descent into Hell (Avernus) is easy, day+night gapes the door of gloomy Dis open, but to recall your steps and escape into the upper airs, this is the mission, this is the labor) whether the world descends into hell or the hell rises, flood-like to engulf the world is a matter of perspective or preference, the hideous outcome being the same.

and like the proverbial boiled frogs, though cooking in hell, people still don't see the ruler (vexilla regis prodeunt inferni ... latin sounds good in hell, don't it, gives it that nightmarish dignity like when bela lugosi whips his cloak back to get a better grip on the victim's throat), pay no mind to the clever old charles baudelaire's "devil's finest trick is to have convinced you that he doesn't exist".

i wonder if the blind majority are not in fact the lucky ones.

<https://theuglytruth.wordpress.com/2019/03/01/the-kushner-peace-plan-a-partly-jewish-trojan-horse/>

But hey, as we like to say, pay no mind whatsoever to these tawdry and unimportant facts. As our esteemed commenter Lobro said recently, all that really matters is that Ivanka baked a dozen matzoh balls recently for Shabbat which proves that Trump is â€œowned by d'Jooz'.

kol nidre is the mission statement, the holy of holies, strip everything else less fundamental and all that remains is a lying construct, satan's lie-bot. the only time jew stands up in synagogue, in solemn acknowledgment of this greater power, his daily wheeling, dealing, swindling, cheating on temporary hold is when along with all the rest of his toxic swarm and all the cryptos, they swear unwavering allegiance to their true deity, to the kletzmer sounds of neil diamond, al jolson, barry manilow and babwa scheissand. why is that. in order to grab total possession of the free human spirit (free to choose at any instant, any issue), the reality must be perverted and subverted and what is reality but the truth, that-which-IS.

the Logos of Christ, the Natural Law, which stands alone, single, immutable, indestructible, eternal.

whereas lies are an endless multitude, swarming and crawling all over the truthseeker, tending to obscure and waylay his sight, convince him of that-which-IS-NOT in order to rope him into the devil's bondage. and in total opposition to the truth, lies squirm and slither every which way as the moment requires, shapeshifting stink of perishable corruption. thus, the JEW.

Let us agree on a term for the creation of a reactionary persona to criticize what your selling in order to sell it to hipsters. This was initially done comically by advertising (comic fogeys covering their ears as loud rock music blared from some advertised stereo in the 70s) @pater le bourgeois is an even older self promotion scheme: find some bourgeoisie to clutch her pearls in front of your panting and you have affirmed your avant garde radical credentials. Now this is the preferred method to sell fake left fascists shit because there is no way to positively praise it or positively make a case for its benevolence and efficacy or virtue. Nobody can defend the garbage Caitlin Johnstone puts out, so instead the method is to advertise her by having pearl clutching bourgeois gasp at her, and then instead of having to defend CJ's content -- impossible -- her champions give themselves the much easier tasks of mocking the pearl clutchers, which the gullible audience accepts as a sufficient tho oblique affirmation of the worth of CJ. Crabapple was good at this, as was Zizek: but AOC seemed like a master and her team included the highest paid mainstream propagandists in the world, but something is not quite right. There is a pervasive sense of tin ear to her version. Perhaps it finally "doesn't scale"; it needs the intimacy of a niche and its clarity of codes, perhaps, to work. Too many people in the audience she's targeting won't be sure some mainstream democrat is really the odiously bourgeois pearl clutcher one must @pater but might take that particular fogey seriously. Caitoz is a mobius strop of this technique: impossible to positively make a case for Gabbarb without outing herself as a white supremacist exterminationist fascist, so instead it's shift to look at the bourgeoisie clutching their pearls at her. Like Zizek her pitch is "Gabbard ...because by supporting Gabbard you can upset your parents." Join the Nazis and invade Syria to upset your parents. no it means he was in this obnoxious fascioid band recycling last-centurys-edge called Warkrime, to upset his liberal parents.

Spot the difference: So she's assimilating the Marxists who loathe her white supremacist strasserite pseudopopulism to Soros and Clinton, and like Zizek she does her pro wrestling with the most ridiculous antisemites (she is part of the Larouchie circle that validates them) while constantly slandering Marxists -- in the age old political antisemitic motifs -- and absolutely refusing to engage with any Marxist critics of her pseudoleft strasserism. <https://medium.com/@caityjohnstone/on-antisemitism-critical-thinking-and-conspiracy-theories-db37e7b24fee> It's like Blumenthal+Khalek's punch and judy show with Lister and Oz, while they conspire to silence their real critics and opponents including the Syrian public media and President Assad and members of the governing coalition of Syria themselves. Disavowal and reinscription: I am looking forward to Caitlin Johnstone's explanation for the fact that every seriously great virtuoso violinist is Jewish, without exception.

uhm, if you are being exterminated for non aryanness this is proof positive that you do not possess whiteness, whether or not your relatives might in other circumstances. what fucking nazis these alt right pseudoleft people are. "race realism" i guess they call this. The US killed a lot of white people in that war. They firestormed Dresden; they bombed the crap out of Italy, they treated Neapolitans like vermin; they left stay behinds to terrorize Europeans to prevent communism; more recently they held white pows in sewers and harvested their organs, killed them in horrific slow ways -- white people who are at present considered white in most circumstances. Yet the US propaganda apparatus did not hold this against the US ruling class and gov. The Nazis surely did not think they were exterminating white people. They were exterminating racial inferiors and defectives. Hitler was once -- no longer -- the name of political Satan in US propaganda because, duh, of WWII, where the US eventually joined the fight against Hitler and othered all the evils of capitalism to Hitler and defined its liberal self in opposition to Hitler. It was not the Holocaust that made Hitler the Satan in this discourse, but the British and US war on Nazi Germany. Hitler was made this Ultimate Evil before these powers even acknowledged there were extermination programs. The Larouchies now tho are trying to say "whats so wrong with extermination programs and Nazism anyway?" so they are taking aim at the fact that most people -- because of our shared morality -- recoil in horror from Nazism and consider it contrary to all justice and ethics, and see in it the truth of capitalism, proven across the globe

It is sympathetic to the immense struggle of all the soviet peoples in their fight against fascism. We reproduce it here, on our own YouTube channel to counter the historical revisionism that has arisen across the western world which portrays the United States along with Britain and France as the victors over fascism.

Rowan supertitles this 'zyclons':

Labour defends anti-Semitism response after documents leak — Ben Quinn, Guardian, Apr 7 2019
i call it 'Balfour 2.0':
But Labour's deputy leader, Tom Watson, said:

I hear the message the JLM and the Jewish community are sending our party. We have utterly failed to deal with anti-Semitism in our ranks. It's unacceptable and shameful. I reiterate my personal commitment as deputy leader to use all my powers to rid our party of this scourge. This is shocking and depressing reading. Labour members and the Jewish community will not understand how, many years on from the first concerns about anti-Semitism being raised, we have not got to grips with it.

The documents were reported to show that a trade union official was readmitted to the party after being accused of sharing material saying "Jewish Israelis" were behind 9/11. In another case, a Labour official ruled a council candidate accused of describing Jewish MPs as "Zionist infiltrators" met the threshold for suspension, but then ruled he should not be suspended as he was a candidate, the paper said. Jonathan Goldstein, chair of the Jewish Leadership Council, said:

It's simply impossible to ignore the degree to which racism has infected the party. These emails lay bare the extent of the corruption, and those who have covered it up must be held to account without delay and relieved of their duties.

That headline is very insightful. A canonical paper compares US judicial red tape to premodern torture. It serves the same purpose. Prosecutors arbitrarily pile on frivolous charges amounting to indefinite detention to coerce a confession and preempt unpredictable trials. The process shifts on world-standard human rights in various ways: by derogating ICCPR article 14g with coerced confessions, by derogating CAT article 1 with psychological torture, and by breaching the Nelson Mandela rules on reintegration. The US expresses direct contempt for each of those bedrock principles of civilization. The government has a policy of 'coercion' to negate Article 14g; it made legally void declarations interpreting Article 1 in bad faith to permit psychological torture; and it made more void reservations to the ICCPR to say, fuck rehabilitation, we're gonna punish the shit out of them. It's part of a longstanding US policy to discredit human rights by flouting them. It works at home but not in the outside world, where the US is increasingly a caveman who shits on the rug and not an interlocutor.

Interesting that T.S. Elliot, James Joyce and W.B. Yeats were all edited by the raving maniac, Ezra Pound, who the Americans put in a cage at the end of the war. Have you ever heard his broadcasts? Bonkers.

What's known about Elliot is famous and Yeats as far as I am aware was pretty neutral but I could be wrong. As far as J.J., hard to tell. But in 1971 I was in Dublin and went shopping for some of their famous [real] wool garments. I wound up by a Jewish tailor by the name of Bloom. Possibly he then was the head of ZOI {Zionist Occupied Ireland} and I believe the mayor of Dublin was Jewish at that time or maybe the period of time before that. Those Jews.....

niqnaq: I think Viktoria has been got at. She knows they are not the real S & Y, but she has been intimidated into pretending they are. I think this is analogous to the Yulia video appearance in the garden, which many said didn't look like the chubby round-faced young Yulia at all. That one also had a conspicuous tracheotomy scar. It's all theatre. This is what I think happened:

1. Sergei stole something from Porton Down.
2. Bashirov & Petrov were sent from Moscow to collect whatever it was Sergei had stolen.
3. Yulia was sent from Moscow to check out the safety of the scene before B & P made the pick-up from Skripal's house. Her job was to signal to B & P somehow whether the coast was clear or not.
4. Sergei's MI6 handler Pablo Miller caught S & Y and decided to use them as bait.
5. Somehow, B & P received Yulia's danger signal, turned round at the garage on the main road & went back to the railway station, without entering the housing estate containing the Skripal house.
6. In frustration at his ploy having failed, Pablo murdered them both with a lethal CW attack in the park, after buying them lunch and photographing them together in the restaurant. You can see his own reflection cleverly left in the photo. He's an artist who signs his work.

and what's that about enemies 'turned to dust' ?
you mean you all failed to make them turn to dust ? Again? ... still? .. nothing new there unlike the ton of 'Actimin' sitting by the side of the backroad to my fresh milk farm, hydrolevered off a truck.
ps: 9 months later she's hardly used any despite my urgin and encouragin and help offerin .. (happened upon her in the veg dept of the local super)

chaingang them to sewage treatment and teach them to nontox and perfect compost until it gets into their bloodlines .. literally ... long enough to sink into their genes and repurposes / reroots their nerdiness i'd say.

i jewicided the jewyness out of it's jewiniche in my bloodline, give or take a few escapees don't let this recipe slip away pall .. or you actually deserve nothing more than making 'phun' of bromsnor types like Bolton ... look it up, his 'tegenspeler' was Swiebertje (the tramp hobo who gets treated by the maid serving the mayor whom the forester / cop [Bromsnor] is jealous and suspicious of -- a long running show that was on tv on tv-day [saturday] the first tv years in Holland).

Never got it all connected to Commedia del Arte (*harlequin [joker] vs Pierrot, Cernunnos [prechristian cuacasus god who had students / guards apollo and mercury in her terminal Paris period before being turned all the way inside out as Baphomet and as good as unrecognizable for most], .. Welcome Reality ----- Rothschild Cartel behind the rise of Hitler also funding communism socialism and world war Interview with Doctor Anthony C Sutton on his research about the funding of Nazi party and of Soviet communists by a group of American and European financiers and industrialists.

Anthony Sutton, a research fellow at Stanford University's Hoover Institution from 1968 to 1973. During his time at the Hoover Institute he wrote the major study Western Technology and Soviet Economic Development (in three volumes), arguing that the West played a major role in developing the Soviet Union from its very beginnings up until the present time (1970). Sutton argued that the Soviet Union's technological and manufacturing base "which was then engaged in supplying the Viet Cong -

Lobro on the Nature of Good and Evil - April 02, 2016

Silvrback blog image --- Wot a wild and penetrating the corners post in comments. "Anyone searching for this Good God"" Looking back, I assumed this. God good. I suppose. At least not, not'. Wanting to know, as much about, the need for help. What I did do, was call. Be-calling, more and more.
Literally a bit, but inwardly and outworked, ever-questioning. Something wasn't right and connection with life, translating into yearning. Intellectual venturing was all over the place. The guiding notion, romantically held; The lone path was the right and only one. Groups of believing in a collective name, off limits. Had little religious baggage (otherwise). But God saw a responder.

To this post, first, something I need to get over. Sometimes asked if I'd mind being told something, in the teller not wanting to offend. When it never crosses my mind someone could upset or wind me up. That said, I'm the tiptoe-ing opposite, let's say, in commenting. Am I driving, who potty, and getting mad? Forget people stop reading, that's what.

On a new, trying to keep comments short and say it' (yes, repeat): Believe 'Jew-ish-Jew' is partly provoked (here) because the question is underrated/ not-represented 'out there'. Jesus-theology doesn't identify Judaism and association as 'the' issue on the negative. Somewhere here, read comments about the misunderstanding, the 'world is run by the devil'. The devil lies, this the case. Yet obviously, verses express the far reach of this/these, influence/influencers. Powers, more or less, behind all sickness and suffering. And the troubles and terrors this site exposes. As someone else commented, this claimed 'evil' can't be so fully comprehensive. Otherwise bad as, how far would â€" assuming compulsive â€" this raging have got? But for" And yet, as we concede, increasingly the problem.

On the bad/other O.T. and suffering-unexplained looking God? Evidence leads, this built on Augustine's overreaction and Plato-must-be 'God is'. Me banging-on; The root and why of Zionism and association. Got a tweet couple of days ago; 'Far better to believe in a loving God who can't stop genuine evil than believe in a powerful God who could stop it but chooses not to do so.' Which I replied, ' Yes. W.said.
And wld agree (?) â€" not 'better' but biblical, and can't because-we don't cooperate? How far? Promises distance.'
A post to pore over. Great stuff. Thanks.

I think it is a divide and conquer thing. I'm very PC, and I'm pro PC: but I'm really about the older version of PC, back when it was a genuine response to genuine racism, sexism, homophobia, etc. Now it just seems to be a tool, weaponised to divide people and stir up anger.

I'm into PC at its careful and limited yet right-on best. Yeah, sure am. Catch-myself at times, as bound to come across not-so. So many commentators on the not-Left front are so in the need to be free to rip and crit, they tip into... proclaiming, believe crap. Clear-as and my theology: No genuine racism, sexism or homophobia. BUT -- must be free to express in the right context. So, like you say, it's Punch and Judy to do us all down.

I never heard about Drill Music, had to look it up and just from reading about it I can already tell that, at least musically, I'd probably loathe it with a passion. But that's not to say the lyrics/poetry of this sort of wannabe music aren't good or even excellent, because they sometimes are. And of course, it goes without saying, Drill Music must not be banned! If people want to ban things, why not begin with the Monarchy, the City, all political parties (except for Harpal Brar's wonderful little outfit), MIS/6, GCHQ, the Metropolitan Police, Porton Down, etc. etc.? But this is not what I wanted write about.

The book AsÃ se domina el mundo (The Way the World is dominated) provides a unique perspective on the tricks used both throughout history and today by both East and West. I actually thought Ba'athos, a retired military officer specialising in geopolitics, was a Franquist nationalist. One of their prime reasons to learn a language other than English is to be able to read books that they, the English-speaking Zionist publishers, don't want you to see. A major regret of mine is not learning Italian as in Italy there are still independent publishers who are not afraid to tell it as it is. Knowing French and Spanish is almost as helpful although nowadays it seems that the French publishers appear to be imitating the English language (US and Great Britain) publishers.

liars, murderers, lies are vaseline for murder like the son of man says, 'the lusts of your father ye will do. He was a murderer from the beginning, and abode not in the truth, because there is no truth in him' and he had them down pat.

here is another example, can be followed by the QuQ graduates:

presstv.com/Detail/2019/06/22/599128/US-troops-Afghanistan-Kunar-Daesh-Taliban-operation

US troops 'saved' Daesh terrorists, leaders from Taliban siege in east Afghanistan

The US troops saved them from the siege by helicopters," the statement said, adding that the Taliban had been launching an anti-Daesh operation for one week in Kunar and had surrounded the terrorist outfit's important individuals

1: Taliban is enemy of Daesh

2: JEWSA is friend of Daesh and enemy of Taliban

3: in the immediate aftermath of 9/11, JEWSA blamed Osama bin Laden (the thermate smoke hadn't cleared yet), he took refuge with Taliban, providing pretext for invasion of Afghanistan 18 years ago

4: OBL told the truth when he denied involvement, he was an upright, honor-bound muslim warrior (jew who is neither upright nor honorable is solely responsible for the judenfrei death toll)

5: connect the dots + close the circle to john 8:44

the sons of satan weave and spin the global web of illusion and mendacity to deny access to our own senses that should clearly see the truth and to a large extent, especially in the benumbed west they have succeeded brilliantly, people more attentive to genetically modified topics of diversity, global swarming, worming, whatever (landed in toronto last night after 2 year absence and was met by gay pride inferno, all the banks+corporations in the act marketing their scams with gay spokeswhatevers, whereas in thailand, with its complete normalization of all shades of sexuality such outrage would never be allowed).

if denied access to truth, how difficult to sell the lies - it is all that remains, and the freedom of opinion goes by the boards, as far as satanic hive is concerned all lies are just as good so long as consumed hook, line and sinker, all equally effective in shutting down the free will and consciousness, which is the whole point of the cosmic war (w/o consciousness the world ceases to have a purpose and thus blinks out of existence).

passing thru the infinitesimal eye of the storm, a 'tijdsgevoert' [timejoint] is transformative and proponents of either side talk past each other; the sex gender discussion between Eric Striker and CV is a beautiful 2 hour illustration of just that ... of how discussions of/between new and old, female and male, peace and war, bonobo and chimp, abel and cain, day and nite etcetera, end up doing exactly that time and again. It'll prolly remain in my top 5 vids for this year.

Eric the conservative commie focuses on the incurably dangerous segment of a (specially due to propaganda strut&stut, inescapable toxins) increasingly populous, hence popular 'demotide' fragment.

The likes of him undermine their own vital and prudent uses of surveillance / restraint with distortionist effects of growth model profit motive ... blind to side effects, callous to collateral damage, normalizing those instead, etc, AND in fact guilty of causing it all in the first place thru their proud, brash and incautious indulgence in nonecotec / toxtec and instead becoming increasingly paranoid about that rising tide. That noo way around, CV is a gender ambiguous commie, adopts a humanitarian focus on rescuing the repressed (celebrating the lifting of and escape from repression at every premature opportunity finagleable, blind to dangerous incurables, etcetera).

blackie will 'obey' (be inspired / af-&infected by) me loooong before whitie begins to catch up

don't swallow ... rinse ... spit and repiet ... "it's a race issue" Noooooooo, it's a fringe element it's a Fringe Element issue .. it's taboo in the west like TheAlternativeHypothesis material (FE was his nick in the era he became one of my discoveries. Will i manage to present all of them and prolong [duh net]perks 'IT' [duh net] nearly managed to fully reverse even for me?) shame on the dutch gvt .. who give to Mali without strings attached and then the news years later is 'second thoughts about continuing to pour funds" .. into the vat of traceless corruption. They should buy white farmer's lands and 'donate' on condition of absolved permie courses And do the latter for coloured peoples on their own territory also, before sending them back to birthing grounds of better rooted ancestors ... those not vectored into the traitorous 'refugee' status by the bible addlers (turning those unwilling to fight into bible & zionoid bait), the way 'out' offerers who do the bidding of land grabbers zanele uwana is a dev'lin who doesn't understand the difference between "basic services" and undelegated, unalienated functionality and sources of pride, why doesn't she focus on getting a compost business off the ground in every ghetto and favela that will have her?

food haulers and shit shipshapers literally found all wealth ... rockdust at the ready .. instead of incitements and frenzy whip up rifs to whoop the rifraf up to violence bitchpitches fine to go back to fertility indulgences at a more pleasurable .. [reflexive / unreflected] stage of life but then you'd have to also get the cull battles back unless you just like creating conditions to complain about and blame others for ... so ... bring back duh warriors ... or go forth to the rock grinders ... or keep doin what you're doin.

that proud boys 'discussion' [read: demonization] audio file has no vitolo in it but i found it quite telling. The makers (them with the 'look how bravely we tackle a hopeless task' tone) confuse the contrast offered them via a McGinnes interview regards women of duh home vs those of careers. They claim to detect a contradiction (and clearly imply pathosplitz) but do so to try distract from their own .. project it away from themselves .. attempt to point away from their own low, they conflate, fuse and merge the contrast offered (which has much much to do with their 'no borders' / no illegals doctrine - alas, that doesn't mean they intend to dissolve cities, learning to thin/spread minerals in rocks and trees in forests).

There cannot be an alliance so long as Zionists are perceived to want an ethno-nationalist State for themselves, one that respects and protects the Jewish cultural heritage, but want a nebulous but homogeneous global culture for everyone else. This perceived hypocrisy will prevent the recognition of common interests and the possibility of mutual support.

As i demonstrated in my debate w striker and in the comments I added to the video, Jews are divided on this issue like everyone else, as Jews tend rightward we are for ethno state for Europeans as well, as they trend left ward they are for multi culturalism in Israel too

'ethnically diverse' - better put, phenotypically diverse. the confusion over the array of superficial cultural backgrounds different jewish groups come from, like ashkenazim, mizrahim, sephardim et al is down to diasporic issues. it isn't "ethnic" as all jews of these types ultimately share the same root bloodline and core culture. a close analogy i could put are modern turks. they claim paternal descendance from racial mongoloids from central asia, and carry their demonym of 'turk', but phenotypically are as variable as jews almost. you have a tiny minority of modern turks in turkey that carry asiatic features, whereas the majority are either mediterrean-looking or middle eastern. but they all claim blood-descendance and thereby nationhood/ethnos from the original turks. the jews on the mark collett debate panel were completely dishonest in claiming judaism is a religion like any other. it got to the point of absurdity where the jewish host repudiated mark for advocating for his own people, britons/whites, and out the other side of his mouth saying that he 'had to make sure my people are safe from anti-semites'.

sure, not in terms of not being associated with IT by outsiders NOR in terms of not profiting .. by all shades of jewery fanning out, each after their own crazes/'talents', all of which are more or less overtly out to destroy real shade btw, many even if they wish and try as they might, NOT to .. (tree culture and the statures that go with it, the tall wiry type humans included) .. cause desert memes to be in- and pervasive, same 'effect sorted by' (dutch 'lingqwork') other strain of semites ... have you read 'Saharasia'?

In fact, if anything, jews that do escape, as they do in great number in order to spread the feint/thrust : faith/trust venture capital / large family [chosenite entitlement] model that is the true effect of their religion, headiness ... another dutchism: 'het hoofd koel houden' = keep [your head] cool. Ever wonder how such as saying enters a cold climate culture? The 'fanners' get associated with fort/da foetsie rootsee zionism which they turn their back on MORE!!! if anything as forage lends strength of (plausibly denied .. have to earn dem stage brow knees) mutuality as complementary biases unfold ... yadayada

That excavation can free the retrieval of duh sweet spot that regularizes and cyclicizes (think of growing a thousand helping clockhands) .. The moves can simply sense a hunger to clear out and clean messes, undo knots that block such enterprise and setting out to satisfy it is legit, laudable and sorely missing (but my soon available 6Mb txtimony bullseyes it and understanding the final period will relieve you of slogging through all signs before it).

Emily Nathan January 16, 2015 ---- 0 comments

Uninformed visitors to Robert Lanza's home, a wooden building on a 10-acre private island in Clinton, Massachusetts, might assume he was an eccentric antiquarian, obsessed with his trove of prehistoric relics. And, in part, this is true. For the past 20 years Lanza, 58, has lived alone, surrounded by a collection of dinosaur fossils, but he made his name in a different field of science, through his efforts to unravel genetic mysteries that determine the future of organic life.

This seems like a good time to look back at Zwi Migdal, a Jewish global crime syndicate that operated from the 1860s to 1939

The JCACA writes of the Zwi Migdal criminality:
These activities went on undisturbed because they were frequented by government officials, judges, and reporters. City officials, politicians, and police officers were paid off. The pimps had powerful connections everywhere.

So, in summary, (((they))), and it is so often Chabad these days deep in the fuckery, going right up to President Jared, got caught red-handed in the usual ubiquitous â€˜anti-Semitism' scam (used, of course, to obtain money from the government for â€˜security' based on the phony stats of incidents of â€˜anti-Semitism'), and created an elaborate cover-up involving a fictional perp scapegoat based loosely on a relative, and the FBI, probably fearing career suicide (and possible real death), declined to look into the obvious evidence. One of the ironies is all of these layers of trickery seem to have inspired real violence, including the current Black-on-Orthodox attacks which are being hidden to avoid any discussion of slumlord behavior.

Dear Ed, you're waaaaaaaaaaaaaay off the salient 'hinge-crunch' nodes of the matter. you might get a laugh when you 'quip' mutants but there's a very grim truth in that; they are victims of disruptive fall out lodged anywhere from their very genes to the outlooks this kindles and which they desperately try to live with, make the most of and, hysterically of course, try to celebrate (not to mention horrify 'consies' with).
low, more likely than not, their condition implicates the 'conservatives' you pretend are the ones did NOT stray off the golden paths and lose their grounding. But my findings ... intuition coupled with faulty memory and poor management of research, though i have 7Mb of surfnotes forthcoming.
The shallow conscience, low ethics, young marrying wagger has too little common sense to avoid working with toxic materials ... and if he manages to prudently avoid contact, he cannot reverse flows and fully recycle. that chore is handed down a chain of delegations and though lubed and sugarcoated with a percentile of the load spiked with 'not quite there yet's', still serviceable specimen, batch-values lower and their dangers heighten simultaneously. the only point of initiating the exercise is to ABUSE IMPUNITY and remove immediate effectation but exploiting naïveté, greater unpreparedness, defenselessness and exposure snowballs and ricochets with gigantesqueries that mark slower cycle scales.
I think my argument is perfect for uniting left and right and after fitting them with a forth back and up/down axis or two more they'll ripen n rally to my cause i figure.

Victoria Brooks F*%king Law is an urgent call for everyone, not just academics and researchers, to find inventive ways to question the ethics of sexuality and to question ethics through sexuality. McManus and Hamilton's What is Postmodern Conservatism asks how we got from the so-called end of history to apocalyptic declarations of the end of western civilization. Both books are addressing Postmodernism only in different ways.

CV on prisons Sep 16:

One of the central questions of prison abolition as I see it is how do we negotiate the tensions between trauma-informed solutions and trauma-guided solutions. The former is necessary, the latter is death. If trauma did good things to our brains, it wouldn't be trauma! The shit is that healing is work, which means when harm is done to us we are put in a position of having to work to recover ourselves. But if we want wholeness, we need to do that work, and if we want to do that work, we need serious community support on both sides of trauma. The work of prison abolition is asking how we can lower the barriers to the work of healing on both sides of trauma, how we can recover a society that makes prisons unnecessary. If we fail to interrogate the relationship between white supremacy/patriarchy and the prison, we fail. I think understanding trauma, in part, as the labor required to heal is critical in having those trauma-informed practices we are always looking for. I cordially invite you to a debate on your understanding of human population genetics.
Sincerely, Seige-Vee Vitolo-Haddad

both aim at the other side's frazzles which makes their actions and consequences identical and more or less realized threats, not seductions or god forbid, invitations.

The excesses of left and right are equally abhorrent, neither side can possibly score on that tack, except for those on cowardly, facile, sensationalist & shockvalue diets.

Mistaking these excesses for goals, advance glimpses of what they deserve#, doesn't deserve defending, let alone focus, let it be the subject of satire, theatre and play at best/most, not hunting grounds for mediatic munitions ... silly lauren southern must learn to choose directors like me ... but the days of spelling out [and stellating up] what needs to go up and down between fronts, preferable well, but at the latest, just before the mere threat and intent declarations of impending and immanent clash threaten to come to an end and make place if not pace for the real thing.

indi veye dualizzumz and hourglass eyed hatecreeping the celebrated car pullers, inventors, all the tiers up from familyhead and teamleader (aanvoerder in dutch, odd how that means supplier he's the one that pays for the compressed air that becomes the animalistic hot air and the ads and the pride and the 'eigendunk' = conceit)?

On the one side of duuuuh sacred individualism we have coercion, escaping the pool and profiting from it means by no means helping others to do so other than immediate circles (a given that lefties are after weeding and stomping out by it's roots, even if they have to per- and transform, with matrix type massages and stretches of decency to get there) they indi'm that frees people are typically tied to inventions and i've gone into how group strategy champs on both left and right got to exploiting an awful wasteful and frankly thanatopian form of inducting them first (mixing incommensurables, trigger toxcrises, monitor survivors, bury the bad news), this 'helps' the 'antellerants' come about (though we're still wayy waaay being those creatures).

in short, the type of individualism that doesn't make group and groupform / groupmold voluntarization it's goal, that is to say, it's reversibility (analogous to recycling of materials, plain and simple) is at the stage of the jew, king of th world when it comes to juggling the ways that cuck, fool and stampede many a group and pool at once (back up -bank on in jewspeak- mutants and hybrids, and profit from unrest triggered cries for securitization .. do me a shiny antscaper full of them by tomorrow) ... but they're not so good at all that stuff John Zube somehow added to the trash SF he read to keep him from facing the absurdity of being a jailer of mostly abos in the hills by Sydney in Oz .. as a white son of an anarchist publisher on the run for duuuh Russhjinns.

Palestinian woman fatally shot at Israeli checkpoint

Tamara Nassar, Electronic Intifada, Sep 18 2019

netherlands, yesterday

Shortly before the hearing, Twitter suspended the account of the Palestine Justice Campaign, which supports Ziada's legal action. The social media company alleged an unspecified "breach of rules." Twitter did not respond to requests for clarification from the campaign. Many journalists, friends and supporters of Ziada attended the court hearing. The Israeli generals were not present, but were represented by lawyers. The Ziada house was attacked during Israel's 51-day assault on Gaza which killed 2,251 Palestinians, including 1,462 civilians, among them 551 children, according to an independent investigation commissioned by the UNHRC. More than 11,000 Palestinians were injured, the majority women and children. Ziada's lawyers, human rights and war crimes experts Liesbeth Zegveld and Lisa-Marie Komp, argue that the attack on the Ziada home was part of Israel's 'policy to bomb civilian residential buildings' in 'breach of international humanitarian law.' Gantz and Eshel were among the top leaders who 'designed the policy of bombing residential buildings' and are 'fully responsible for the decision to bomb the Ziada family residence,' they allege in the complaint.

tina berg - unravelling race diss 2012

Eliminativists are correct when they state that an element of essentialism is built into the concept of race, even if it is defined by a social or historical context. They argue that competent users of the term 'race' intend for it to refer to casual factors that are innately responsible for unifying and explaining an array of racial phenomena.

The phenomena are: a: there exist observable differences of a certain kind between different groupings of people; --b: these observable differences, and in particular the variations that occur in appearance, tend to correlate with the geographical origins of their ancestors; ---c: and, these differences are caused by the structures, substances, and processes that underlie the actual race phenomena. As such, if racial phenomena do not exist, the term race fails to refer to anything and is semantically vacuous.

The greatest proponent of this school of thought is K. Anthony Appiah, a philosopher that we briefly discussed earlier in our section on Du Bois. He states,

What most people in most cultures ordinarily believe about the significance of 'racial' difference is quite remote, I think, from what the biologists are agreed on. Every reputable biologist will agree that human genetic variability between the populations of Africa and Europe and Asia is not that much greater than that within those populations. (Appiah, The Uncompleted Argument: Du Bois and the Illusion of Race, Pg. 28)

In 'In My Father's House' Appiah supports this notion through a discussion of genetic locus and alleles. A section of a chromosom.....

Hey check this out. The case of Biden was investigated by Victor Shokin, then Prosecutor General appointed by then-Pres Poroshenko. Joe Biden demanded the dismissal of Shokin. Biden recounts in v=UXA--dj2-CY this video

I looked at them and said: "I'm leaving in six hours. If the prosecutor is not fired, you're not getting the money." Well, son-of-a-bitch.
(Laughter.) He got fired.

The testimony of the former Prosecutor General of Ukraine Viktor Shokin on the former Vice President Biden
<https://colonelcassad.livejournal.com/5307907.html>
.....
4. Now I lay out the details.

5. The Prosecutor General of Ukraine is appointed by the President of Ukraine with the consent of the Verkhovna Rada (i.e. Parliament). I was accordingly appointed during the presidency of Pres Poroshenko, by the votes of the deputies of the Ukrainian Parliament, which constituted a constitutional majority.

6. Circumstances of my dismissal were that Pres Poroshenko submitted the request for my resignation to Parliament. Poroshenko has asked me to resign due to pressure particularly from the US administration, in particular from Joe Biden, who was Vice-President of the US. Biden threatened to withhold $1b in subsidies to Ukraine until I was removed from office. After I submitted to the President's request and filed my voluntary resignation, Poroshenko commented on this in the media. He said that I had done a tremendous amount of work as Attorney General, and achieved what none of my predecessors had done, especially as regards my work for reforming the various organs of the Prosecutor's office, and the establishment of a specialized anti-corruption Prosecutor's office...

7. The official reason for my dismissal was that I had failed to win public confidence. Poroshenko and other government officials, including representatives of the presidential administration of the USA, never had any complaints about my work, however, and did not express any complaints to me regarding any of the charges that I have made or any related corruption (or, indeed, any other) crimes...

8. The truth is that I was forced to leave because I was launching a full-scale investigation into corruption in Burisma Holdings ("Burisma"), a company producing natural gas in Ukraine, and the son of Joe Biden, Hunter Biden, was a member of the Board of Directors. I guess Burisma, which has been associated with gas production, had the support of Joe Biden, because his son was on the Board of Directors.

9. Several times Pres Poroshenko asked me to take a look at the perpetrator and wrap up the case against Burisma, and consider folding investigative actions in respect of the company, but I refused to close this investigation. So I was forced to leave my post under direct and intense pressure from Joe Biden and the U.S. administration...

This is only part of the 12-page document, which contains transcripts of testimony of Shokin, so apparently many interesting stories lie ahead of us.

<https://zen.yandex.ru/media/malutaskuratov/zaiavlenie-pod-prisiagoi-byvshego-genprokurora-ukrainy-viktora-shokina-5d8dbdb8e6cb9b00b1dee7d6>

Actually, Lutsenko was appointed to hush up the matter, so he still claims that Biden is not guilty. If in the coming months a criminal case will be initiated against Lutsenko on the fact of abuse of authority and obstruction of justice, it will be an eloquent marker of the choices made by Zelensky and Kolomoisky. And as the unwinding of political war in Washington, it will be harder for the Kiev regime to sit on two chairs. It will have to make a choice. Shokin and his testimony in the case of "Burisma" is one of the most effective tools in the hands of Trump to put pressure on Biden. Therefore, the former Attorney General we will see often enough, if only he does not suffer a "sudden" heart attack.

By agreeing to set up a meeting between Trump's personal lawyer, Rudy Giuliani, and an Ukrainian presidential aide, he thought he could stop Trump cutting off ties with the new government of Vladimir Zelenskiy and keep Pindo military aid flowing. It was a calculated gambit, but it did not come off.

And it reveals the role of the mysterious Pentagon official Fritz Kraemer, a monocle-wearing German expatriate whose unshakable faith in military power, distrust of diplomacy, moralistic faith in American goodness, and warnings against "provocative weakness" made him the hidden geopolitical godfather of the neocon movement. Law & Justice: The Zionist Offensive Against Poland

Section 3 of Act 447, the provision for heirless property, is the part that reveals the law's intent. Under existing laws, heirless property becomes the property of the state. After WW2 there was a lot of property without owners (whether owned by Poles or Jews), and it has been sold ever since. This law has the potential to cause national havoc, as the vast majority of Poles own their own homes. Even in the relatively cosmopolitan capital of Warsaw, 79% of city-dwellers own their homes and apartments.

Under S447, any Polish-Jew or descendent of said Polish Jew can lay claim to property to property deemed heirless and sold after the war, thus all land that can be claimed to have been owned by Jews before 1939 will be transferred to the global Jewish diaspora. If this law is put into practice, approximately 30% of Warsaw homeowners will be forced to pay "rent" to random Jews claiming to be Holocaust survivors or their descendants in New York City and Tel Aviv.

i also think that when the designated monk hits the temple gong at 6 hr intervals (4 and 11, AM/PM), he belts out 108 quick ones (too fast for my counting ability).

I believe Trump's single biggest failure as a president is his handling of China and the way his ineffective and lack-luster foreign policy allowed for a communist dictatorship to rise and build a superpower within a block of unfree states that can even rival the United States and has by now even found ways to influence the politics of democratic nations.

because of 2 reasons: geopolitically, it benefits all 4 parties while asserting control over various kurd promise of getting out of chronically debilitating wars, as well as puts the military parasites on leash), and secondly, if you care nothing for fine-grained analysis, americans VS izians (rightie elitist war profiteers having overwhelmed and stolen from lefty peaceniks at a national not just secret service level, although there's nary any diff there)

In both the raggedy and damaged fringe of the larger group is recruited instrumentalized and weaponized by the smaller one, yes?
Another great but also very partial parallel is conservative jews who collude and collaborate with romans to capture and spin ['implode'] the memes of a rebel leader cause jesus is NOT just (and not 'just not', take note) like the hippie after the cia is done doin a number on them bycause the journey inward increased the range and reach upon coming back out and it's the latter CIA types try to shortcircuit, delay with labyrinthian trickery and prevent altogether .. but it's only that very last part Irvin, Atwill and Outtrim get right while treating the one before last as the proverbial bathed 'bably'.

First, Stephen Barclay had to answer an urgent question on customs declarations between Northern Ireland and the rest of Great Britain, after the prime minister had insisted there wouldn't be any. 'Um, er,' said the Brexit secretary. Well there would be some forms, he mumbled, and there would be extra expense and delay. But if everyone just worked a bit harder, reduced their prices by £55 and dispatched the goods across the border 30 minutes earlier, no one would notice the difference. Try not to think of it as border checks so much as an opportunity to get to know the people working at HMRC a little better.-- /Q the halloween spirit in this piece is consistent .. but here's a passage that should have begun with a capital w:

working himself up into a state of visible arousal at his own Divine Comedy, Rees-Mogg laughed:

They seek it here, they seek it there.

For a man who used to pride himself on his sincerity and probity, lying and S&M cosplay have become second nature. He must have a very accommodating arrangement with the priest at confession. Finally, we arrived at the tail end of the Queen's speech debate. Normally an occasion of high drama but now, thanks to the government's total dysfunctionality, a mere sideshow. John McDonnell used his speech to lament the lack of any economic impact assessments of the new Brexit deal, other than the independent ones that showed the country being 8% worse off. Sajid Javid was outraged. The deal was so self-evidently good that no impact assessments were required. Besides, he had had an email from a Nigerian prince saying the country would be £350b better off per week. All the government had to do was send details of the Treasury's bank account. Come the final vote, there was almost no one in the Commons.

Sure enough, later that day Johnson gave TV interviews in which he claimed that parliament had both backed his deal and blocked it, and demanded a general election under the Fixed-term Parliaments Act on Dec 12. --- /Q

I remember Linda Melvern quoting people who used the term "anglophone" for political elements in Rwanda and she implied they use this term out of a comic-savage irrational hatred of the English language. (In fact it was descriptive with US vs French influence salient). I couldn't believe anyone would let her get away with it (people like John Pilger praised that book, it was so cynical and ridiculous). But now I see similar gambits work everywhere. And it is the _strength of the paradigm_ into which the "reporting" is being slotted that signifies here. Now she's gone there as a vulture to live her fantasy of imperial adventurer among the cheapened people demoted to periphery where the payoffs for her dirty little errands for Murdoch and Omidyar and Mike Pompeo (her latest patron is indeed the DoS) go far.

Maybe its always been that way and took me a lifetime to see it, or maybe they just don't give a damn for whatever reason and no longer cast a modicum of discretion.

Even in the darkest days of Thatcher there was a sense that there was competency within her cabinet. Now one looks at the collection of horrors occupying the government's front bench in stunned amazement. Never have I seen such a bunch of nasty, corrupt, incompetent and useless people assembled as a UK cabinet, and one that appears to have a rather large lead in opinion polls. What the hell is wrong with British people? (That's a rhetorical question – obviously they are ignorant, ill-informed, brainwashed idiots but you can't say that in public).

Moon of Alabama, Oct 26 2019
The provenance of the ledger is highly dubious. It was allegedly found in a burned out office of Yanukovych's old party:

The papers, known in Ukraine as the black ledger, are a chicken-scratch of Cyrillic covering about 400 pages taken from books once kept in a third-floor room in the former Party of Regions headquarters on Lipskaya Street in Kiev. The accounting records surfaced this year when Rada member Sergei Leshchenko said he had received a partial copy of it from a source he did not identify, and published line items covering six months of outlays in 2012 totaling $66m.

i think that they stopped at 750cc strokers in the old days because they realized the only riders who would occasionally not kill themselves grind pucks as they powerband through corners for a living. a 250cc 2-stroke can give a decent fright to the unsuspecting when provoked. every time its throttle gets opened, a 1000cc would fry the nerves in the rider's body (and potentially any other human within a 50m radius)

some quotes to conclude from 4 years ago:
<http://vatican-evil-illuminated.blogspot.com/2015/04/double-unto-them-double-part-two.html>

As before, take the time to understand the import of what I present in this article. It shines a bright light on some ancient "symbolic date math" that can be traced back directly to the magicians of ancient Babylon.

We are currently in the 15th year of the 17th 360-year cycle and Christianity has been around for less than six 360-year cycles. Though its seeds were sown during the 11th cycle (Second Temple Period), it was later than claimed by religious leaders. Hence, this points back further to the transition between the 7th and 8th cycles (see page 1 of chapter 8 for the cycles chart). Again, notice the 7 and 8 number combination this purposefully encodes. There are three valid ways to view the timeline encoded by this symbolism. One is to look strictly at the math and count back 9×360 ($5775 - 3240 = 2535$) years from 5775 and it puts you into the beginning years of the 8th 360 year cycle. Another is to count back from the start of the 17th cycle in 5761, which then puts us at the end of the 7th cycle.

shield themselves from the "bad karma" they have created. This clearly exposes they have relied far more on magic and mystical techniques, deception, and other blatant evil, proving they have no faith in "Jesus" or religion except as the tools long used to dupe and manipulate the masses to gain the authority to forge and maintain empires and generate vast wealth.

Bel and the Dragon

1:1 When King Astyages was laid with his fathers, Cyrus the Persian received his kingdom.
1:2 And Daniel was a companion of the king, and was the most honored of his friends.
1:3 Now the Babylonians had an idol called Bel, and every day they spent on it twelve bushels of fine flour and forty sheep and fifty gallons of wine.
1:4 The king revered it and went every day to worship it. But Daniel worshiped his own God.

Michael F Brown, Electronic Intifada, Nov 6 2019

None of these MPs had even seen the film, as it had not been released at the time. Their "outrage" was down to the central role in the film played by Jackie Walker, a Black and Jewish anti-racist activist. Her opposition to Zionism, Israel's state-sanctioned ideology, plays a key role in the film, as does her likely expulsion by Labour later this month. But WitchHunt takes a far wider view than Walker's case alone. It puts the entire, years-long, manufactured "Labour anti-Semitism crisis" campaign into its correct global context. As the film's narrator argues in its conclusion, the fact that far-right European governments and parties today are growing ever closer to Israel shows a "convergence of fascist and neo-Nazi groups with hardline Zionists." As a worrying UK example of this, the film cites anti-Muslim fascist leader Tommy Robinson's recent trip to Israel and funding by anti-Palestinian groups. "This natural alliance may now be part of a more coordinated common cause" of the far-right and Zionism around the world, the film's narrator argues.

Labour candidate steps down after comparing Israel to 'abusive adult' -- Rowena Mason, Groon, Nov 7 2019

A Labour candidate has stood down after being put under investigation for a blogpost that compared Israel to "an abused child who becomes an abusive adult." Kate Ramsden, who had been standing for Gordon, in Aberdeenshire, withdrew for "personal reasons" after Labour asked her to re-interview and said she could face a disciplinary process. In the blogpost, reported by the Jewish Chronicle, she said:

To me, the Israeli state is like an abused child who becomes an abusive adult. â€ Like child abuse, it has to stop â€ As we intervene with child abusers, the international community needs to intervene with Israel.

Nord Stream 2: Will a new EU law kill Russia's gas pipeline? | DW News -- 13K views - Nov 8 - DW News - 769K subscribers

The Nord Stream 2 pipeline belongs to Russian energy monolith Gazprom. As does the gas it will transport. A new EU law bans a pipeline's owner from also supplying the gas. There's one exception to the ruling. If Nord Strom 2 had been completed early this year, the law wouldn't apply. It won't be finished until 2020 though. So is Nord Stream 2 over?

but they'll try again#. If they succeed, i'm selling my house and emigrating for real this time after my attempts starting from 1979 all failed to keep me and/or get me away prospecting more than 80% of the time, a decade, before collapsing and i 'did' 10 years in amsterdam before returning to delta birthing ground (former swamp land).

= the good news this week is that a lot of fractec gets dismantled for parts right now (someone on ianmasters.com - a cuckery watering hole) but that also means, ominously enough, some hold outs and contrarian die hards will get to be leaner and meaner .. and i don't see anyone measuring up to what they're up to (we'd need a fleet of Sea Shepherd types .. and the types of fundings that get poured into black holes like Bernie Sanders).

Key MH17 Witness Vladimir Tsemakh: Abduction, Ukrainian Special Services, And Conflict In Donbass

1.3K views - Nov 13 - South Front - 144K subscribers

On July 17, 2014, a Malaysian Boeing 777-200ER aircraft was conducting a scheduled passenger flight (MH17) from Amsterdam to Kuala Lumpur. During a transit flight over the territory of Ukraine, the Ukrainian air traffic control charted the plane directly over the conflict zone between government forces and units of the self-proclaimed Donetsk and Lugansk People's Republics.

At 13:20 UTC, the aircraft was shot down as a result of a fire damage from unidentified forces.

The Ukrainian side, with Western support, immediately blamed Russia for the incident. In turn, Malaysia, expresses deep concerns over the accusations against Russia and the course of the investigation.

On June 27, 2019, Ukrainian special services detained the ex-commander of one of the air defense units of the self-proclaimed Donetsk People's Republic Vladimir Tsemakh in Snejnoe, on the territory of the Donetsk People's Republic.
Ukraine's State Security Service claimed that he was involved in the MH17 incident. Later, his status was changed to the "witness". On September 7, 2019, Tsemakh was transferred to the Russian side as a part of the 35 for 35 exchange of the detained persons.

The Joker is a metaphor for returned US soldiers [That's where he got his skills from, marching, shooting, explosives, close-quarter combat, interrogation]. Batman, on the other hand, is what the US military aspires to be. As such, The Joker has a much better understanding of the world than Batman does. Using this understanding he is able to scare Batman into hurting himself. Which is why he wins politically (if not tactically) at the end of the movie. Which is how insurgencies often operate. "You've got nothing... ..nothing to do with all your strength."

As it faces mounting political protest and anger against social inequality, the 'ruling class' is moving to set up fascist police-states tasked with violently repressing social opposition in the working class. (emphasis mine) excuse my dopiness, but i am having trouble following the wsws diagram:

-- vox is fascist, also national socialist (also nationalist, also (presumably) socialist),
-- catalan campaign was strongly supported by middleeastmonitor.com/20171003-senior-israel-official-supports-catalonia-secession-from-spain/

<https://themolesite.wordpress.com/2017/10/08/catalonian-independence-what-you-are-not-being-told/>

-- it was created by the 'ruling class' (more could be said about wsws fiat denunciation of AfD's political aims but best to not muddy the waters now).

ergo, the 'ruling class' as denounced by wsws, is in diametric opposition to and by interests and behind-the-scenes (as always) activity of israel and soros.

note too, that israel and soros are often portrayed as belonging to antagonistic camps, but i am glad that we can count both israel and soros enlisted as brothers-in-arms in our fight for freedom from the oppression of the ruling class.

Meyrat is a moronican who can't see a 'space' argument in the Vine Delorian light the black prof painted it. Yawn. space is not a lefty destination unless you mean inner space .. so don't project the pécadillos of your evil desires both back- and forwards ... both to the people you shit on, try to discipline as obedient and servile springboard + leave behind to clear up the mess while you go make a brandnew one ...

'the' space / law / people for true conservatives (clean tribal natives) are not as mutable and expandable as they are for toxic males who are so fixated on arms if not space racing that they try to supress or take in stride* the tox that comes and goes with it without actually going away cause it's often cumulative ...

Space in the sense Vine Deloria explains it is like God ... valid, dependable and comforting inasmuch as it stays home. That universal 'devil may care' exchangeability and open endedness is decidedly a rightie whtie vice no matter how pretty and sticky a 'bullseye' you try to plant on your targets/victims.

i'll concede the heady and groundless kackademicrap leads nowhere neither which is why i usually double my comments with stuff related to á,zyths of clays and milk oceans but i'll pass this time knowing that those who need it most also resist it most.

College Debate Professor: Science Is a Projection of White Fantasies - By GQ Pan - November 4, 2019

Our argument will be that space is not real. It's not real. Science, technology, it's all fake. It's a projection of white fantasies that has worked to control our interpretation of how the world works, says the debate coach, whom the Weber student, Michael Moreno, claims to be Ryan Wash, a two-time national debate champion. "None of us have had the privilege of going to space to verify that there's these stars and these galaxies and these planets.

University investigating black debate instructor who argued space isn't real, created by whites ----- Lexi Lonas - Pennsylvania State University of Altoona November 5, 2019

Brad Pitt is making a movie about him

Another student countered with the possibility that "white people find a planet with life on it" and wondered "are they just gonna colonize it? Should we subject other people to that colonization?"

Wash responded that "the biggest" issue with this argument was "questions of practicality, like, how are we getting white people to space?"

When Moreno questioned Wash on his argument that deep space exploration wasn't about outer space, the instructor told the student that if Moreno questioned a woman like this it could be considered "linguistic assault:"

So you being like if they're women debaters and they're like "this is what space means" and you're like "no actually space means this way" "this is like a form of linguistic violence. I'm not going to go so far as to say the "R" word in there [implying "rape"], but it's a form of linguistic assault.

Near the end of the audio excerpts, Moreno disagrees with Wash on how to argue one of the debate topics and Wash starts swearing at him.

The audience likes that story and it solidifies the coup as irreversible narratively. The profound indoctrination and conditioning of the audience is evidenced in the way the lithium (significant object of imperial concern) becomes the maguffin and a whole narrative and world is evoked, a Hollywood movie with its laws of motion and archetypes. this Hollywoodization loads history with inevitability and narrative satisfactions for the audience. it supplies an assumed explanation from Hollywood worldviews that need not even be rehearsed. Storytelling is attenuated; cues are concise and few because the brainwashing is deep. Audiences are happy to see vague equivocating tweets from congress as if their only job was tweeting, because this is all a movie on screens and in movies the statements of newsreaders have the status of depiction of the events they relate. history now is a gleam on a screen.

Meet Hanna. She's 19. Her friends were #harassed by a group of African men. Concerned about her own safety, she is drawn to a #farright extremist group with a hostile attitude against #migrants. Hanna's mother is worried. What's the priority in terms of addressing this case?

19% Change the narrative
42% Engage with Hanna
12% Help Hanna's mother
27% Mobilise community

Eva: Excuse me? The priority in this case should be that society takes Hanna's problem seriously by acknowledging it, locking those men up and doing something about it, instead of proposing fake "solutions" and calling her a racist for worrying (rightfully so) about her safety.

took me 2 hours to retrieve this fucking name after hearing it on nite [repeat] radio ... the makers don't let on .. no links on the program page .. nothing ... yet they are all outraged over a national row involving a defamation court case won by the 'nazi' town official (albeit in the far north) against ultra pcYuck 'splitbunny' ... cause their kind of demonizing is a registered monopoly, sanctioned by the state, operated and protected as a tool thereof or of whomever gets to play fort/da with the set of laws in the arsenal .. i mean on the bookie's betting squanderable pile {(excellent show on this by Strike N Mike, episode 61 btw .. and in agonising dutch hasbarhype media 'evidence' over withheld welfare due to abuse suspicions come oooooon be generous again ... don't you want more mice in the hise???? we'll even run yar treadmills for yaHet Spectrum 1970 / steelspined composite animal encycl. for subbers ... no treadmills no babies ... run of the house, all it's arteries between points of pride and shame will do as well dough)}} , the functionaries for / around and of which, proof themselves against consequences of that very doxing which they get to threaten, intimidate, bait and provoke with, depending on what they have on sale at the time ... it don't hurt

Our precious 'snauwstorm' cringe whinge whinin gutmenschen feel they never have to suffer said 'doxsequenchies' [the transparency illusion] .. we're all cosy bonobos here and do it all out in the open ... no such thing as paternity, inheritance, ownership or paedophilia we're perfect commies if it's perfect capitalizzum you're looking for you'll have to somehow get across this here formidable river (reference to 'Demonic Males', a formidable book that lends substance to a crucial element in the genesis myth cycle ..).

anyway ... where was i (after breaking off for insertion after insertion within elaboration in between gracenote pile up)

'dey' want ... proof of their sanctity and adept 'polinouvraaaaazj' .. but they 'feel' they [ought to and deserve to] at least display the outer trappings of being those who (neither privilege praise nor hit or rob themselves..... and least of all) suffer foresaid doxery consequences (their weapon fallen in enemy hands, .. hands stupid enough to play their rotten game), which they nevertheless do massively .. unsuprisingly ..given their maximizing the Rene Girard shaming game (how unbecoming of the ... or is that prelude and invitation to a Bonobobo pile up?????) .. anyway.....
... the same doxing they are more and more obsessed with and possessive of .. the very same witstuntery they think is ritefully, exclusively theirs as prime tool to purge and save the world with..... is .. a form of truly flamboyant schizophrenia and cerebral pyromania, in one word, projection of those holohoodie warshape purse 'knipperdeknappurts' (hand op de knip = wallett tightener).

whoever believes anything is a great weapon except in the hands of their enemies is not up on sportspersonhood and not up for a fair fight you cannot love your tools n toys but/and demonize them when others use them ... wrong use is just another degree and layer of that hairsplittery ... wrong use of the proceeds is where it gets trickier ... storage 'errors' 'duurabilitation' sins. Their own sins need very strong torso to shoulder them and they lack such themselves due to those very sins .. so it only makes good sense to get rid of them .. but instead of learning something about compost they supposedly are so good at, close to and all that, they unsuccessfully bury and thus crown'm as the undead haunting spectres and spooky self generated fearfetishes they are anyway, here it is finally:

Finnish journalist Johanna Vehkoo fined for criminal defamation -- April 17, 2019 8:43 AM ET Berlin, April 17, 2019 -- Finnish authorities should drop criminal defamation charges against investigative journalist Johanna Vehkoo on appeal,
the Committee to Protect Journalists said today.
On April 12, a court in Oulou, in central Finland, found Vehkoo guilty of criminal defamation of Oulou City Councilor Junes Lokka. The suit relates to comments by Vehkoo in a private Facebook group, in which she referred to Lokka as "racist" and a "Nazi clown," according to local news reports, a statement by the Union of Journalists in Finland, a local media workers union, and Vehkoo, who spoke with CPJ.

2.59K subscribers - Interview on Radio Sweden with police chief Erik Åkerlund from Botkyrka, a municipality south of Stockholm.

Swedish police says there are no "no-go zones" in Sweden. Instead there are vulnerable areas where the police works a lot, or like Åkerlund says, "go-go zones".

Erik Åkerlund was therefore very surprised in 2014 when he read a column by Per Gudmundson in the newspaper Svenska Dagbladet with the headline "55 no-go zones in Sweden."

On Dec 6, Reddit announced that its platform had been used by "suspected" Russian actors to publish the scandalous NHS dossier that become a centerpiece of Corbyn's campaign against Johnson. As usual, the primary source for Reddit's claim was the Atlantic Council, which it said "provide us with important attribution." Reddit's Director of Policy, Jessica Ashooh, is the Atlantic Council's former Middle East Strategy Task Force Deputy Director, and an ex-official of the government of the UAE. She was hired by the social media giant in 2017, at around the same time that Senate Select Intelligence Committee co-chair Mark Warner was demanding more government control over Reddit on the grounds that it was a potential vehicle for Russian influence.

Reddit's lone source on this claim is the NATO/US/Burisma/arms industry-funded Atlantic Council.

The Peterson screed was published by The Epoch Times, a right-wing media outfit run by the fascist Chinese cult Falun Gong, which maintains that science and race-mixing are demonic and insists Donald Trump was sent by God to destroy the Communist Party of China.

Jew Coups and Civil War Fantasies: The Dangerous Propaganda of Rick Wiles and TruNews -- 684 views -- Dec 9 -- 58:22 -- The Antedote -- 3.52K subscribers
In this long form Antedote, we discuss and analyze the November 22nd edition of TruNews, in which host Rick Wiles breaks down what he calls a "Jew Coup" against President Trump which he warns will result in a mass murder of Christians if Trump were to be impeached and removed from office . We also discuss Wiles' vision/fantasy of a domestic civil war breaking out. We discuss why this rhetoric is dangerous, how Wiles uses just about every anti Jewish trope to perfectly fit the "anti Semitic" image pushed by organizations such as the ADL, and how Wiles appears to be helping to set the stage for false flag style attacks to be blamed on Conservative Christian Trump supporters based on his rhetoric. We close by talking about the very similar and in some cases lockstep narratives being promoted and pushed by ostensibly diametrically opposite media entities and how both right and left alike ultimately run cover for Trump and the people surrounding him at almost every level.

'Anti-Semitism' = Islamophilia - Xymphora, Dec 14 2019
Tweet thread by Luke Pagarani:

I did around 120 hours of canvassing in London, Bedford and Milton Keynes. I didn't expect this result, but here's how I can make sense of it from what I encountered on the doorstep. â€¦ The real charge against Corbyn is that he fundamentally believes that British/white lives are of equal value with the lives of others. â€¦ for a lot of people Corbyn's association with anti-semitism seems to represent his association with Islam, where Islam in turn comes to stand for the undifferentiated mass of humanity making a claim for equal eminence.

The mystery to be explained is why was 'anti-Semitism' such a useful charge for the forces trying to defeat Labour. I agree with the Khazars that most people are Khazar skeptics. My disagreement with them is that I believe the skepticism to be rational and correct. People are skeptical about Khazars for excellent reasons, this election itself being one of them! So if people are naturally and correctly and truly righteously anti-Semites, why did the Khazar scheme to defeat Corbyn succeed so well? The mystery is solved if you see 'anti-Semitism' as code for Islamophilia and more generally code for deference to minorities, and in particular to the kind of mass immigration policies which are ironically a big part of the Khazar project, as in all countries where they temporarily are forced to live, to weaken the majority population (standard Khazar procedure everywhere as they feel it allows them to slink up the middle). Muslims are, naturally, more likely to be skeptical of Khazars. To be clear, all the tiny number of incidents in Labour that were identified as 'anti-Semitism' were from Muslim members of the Labour Party, while the entire gentile upper reaches of the Conservative Party are real and robust 'anti-Semites' ie Jew-haters. So it is no big leap to see 'anti-Semitism' as code for too much love for Muslims, and thus an affront to the people who define themselves as the autochthonous population. This fits nicely into the big Johnson plan to turn long-standing Labour enclaves of the working class into Conservative territory, effectively creating a new political landscape based on right-wing populism, following the lead of Trump, and based on the same 'Camp of the Saints' type fears of being overrun by people who don't look like you.

The phony left-liberal apparatus in both Britain and Pindostan is making a big deal that Corbyn was defeated because he was too radically left-wing, but that is not true at all. Polling always shows that the 99% supports left-wing policies, especially those that are labeled 'too extreme' by the 'savvy and realistic' Demagogues. There were thus two connected points that sank Labour. First, by prevaricating over Brexit and proposing another referendum, Corbyn essentially insulted and disenfranchised non-London 'Leave' voters, allowing Johnson to portray the entire election as solely about Brexit, and more importantly about the rights of the British people to define what Britain is, while Corbyn unnecessarily prostrated himself to the relatively small number of London Remoaners who didn't like him anyway. Second, by going along with completely open borders, Corbyn played right into fears concerning mass immigration, the code word for which, with supreme irony, was 'anti-Semitism.' The tragedy is that completely open borders, the Khazar idea (entirely for their own supremacist plans), is completely inimical to true socialist policies, as it is used to reduce the cost of labor while simultaneously creating new environmental problems and new transitional expenses to be borne, of course, by increases in taxation to working class people (and the Pindo Demagogues are going down this same policy road of failure). Has Corbyn just stuck with his vague Brexit stance, and made no big deal about mass immigration, the Johnson/Khazar plan would have failed, and Corbyn would be PM. What a waste!

MoA doin RK talking points .. but i ain't as convinced as him it's as banal as all this:

They change their company when a different one pays them more for peddling a different product. Some salespersons who sold Fords as "the best cars ever" now sell Toyotas with a similar slogan. It seems that money was the reason that Blumenthal & Co changed their view on Syria. They simply started to peddle a different 'product' because it was more profitable for them. As they are "cynical salespersons," they deleted their public record of peddling Fords. Their public record now shows only that they peddle Toyotas. That is Orwellian. Daniel quotes O'Brien: "We've always been at war with Eastasia, Winston." Who by the way finances Blumenthal's Grayzone? Its website does not reveal that. Will money also be the reason when Blumenthal & Co will have their next change of mind?

and validates it. Then after admitting less than 20% of the actual death toll of Syrian soldiers, ignoring all the civilians, he gives the audience a picture of what this toll means:
"the government as been pouring bodies into this conflict." He blames the deaths he himself abetted and of course his father and his bosses caused with extreme malice aforethought and moral turpitude, on the Syrian gov the target of his sponsors' violent criminal assault which he personally performed crucial, indispensable hybrid warrior crimes as part of. Without being able to deny in so many words the slaughters carried out by US proxies and military and US air force of Syrian soldiers, Max admits some deaths but then attributes as cause "the government has been pouring bodies into this conflict." Max like Shitzek is all imagery and almost no straightforward claims and assertions of fact. He almost never ventures a fact or piece of actual information. He does no reporting, he scavenges from the web and assembles imperially safe pasturized and spun de-toxified substitutes for real reporting.

This should be absolutely no surprise to anyone. The eco-fascists who helped to orchestrate the coup against Pdte Evo, did so in the service of a Green New Deal for Bolivia: deregulation, financialization, natural capital, and all manner of accelerating exploitation, all there.

The official environmental program of Bolivia Dice No (Ortiz/Anez's party) is quite explicit in its aims: a fire-sale on Bolivian natural resources. Lower rents for imperialist/comprador capital, the returns vacuumed out of public investment to meet the needs of Bolivian workers. After all the left harping abt Amazon deforestation, 'neo-extractivism', etc, the mask finally comes off. Their real issue wasn't w/ the enviro costs of MAS's path of economic dev, but that MAS dared to check unbridled exploitation & redistribute returns on Bolivian resources --- Bolivia No Dice's full program here: <https://funsolon.files.wordpress.com/2019/07/programa-gobierno-alianza-bolivia-dice-no.pdf>

People don't want to face the fact that without the USSR and Communist China, revolutionary humanity is insuperably outgunned. All revolutions and social democracy for the workers depended on that firepower and industrial, organizational, diplomatic, resource and military might. The spectacle has made people psychotic. They claim that Chinese ruling class with a massive nuclear arsenal and a huge army and immense manpower tech and industry cannot even say no to the empire about DPRK sanctions but penniless indigenous peasants in Bolivia can overthrow them with a few rifles and a "willingness to be die and have their children tortured" suitable to their station in life. It's Jimminy Cricketism. disneyism. All you have to do is will it. wish really hard. Be pure of heart and wish. If you are good and you want it bad enough you can defeat the US empire with your bare fists and determination.

Petro Populist, The Uncancellable @RancidSassy

Well to be fair it's the MLMs doing this "well Evo should have did a dotp" thing, but it's a similar like directly inverse kind of metaphysics.

And DSA and Naomi Klein and her sponsors and collabo think thanks and Medea Benjamin. They're saying Evo should have consolidated the rev? Or that he shouldn't have gone for the 4th term.

Arundhati Roy is upper caste upper class and knows so well that white people love you, love you madly and irrationally, when you lie about and sneer contemptuously at the poor and communists and the unwashed masses this way. Arundhati Roy is a supremacist fascioid imperialist opportunist, appointing herself spokesperson for the propertyless masses she wages war on with the rest of her class in order to vilify them and acquit her imperial class in their name #Presuming ToSpeakForToSpeakAgainst _nothing_ will make white folks fall in love with a caste aristo of color so quickly and so mindlessly as this kind of discourse about courageous rebellious poor people. "sure she says rightly that communists are ridiculous backward laughable uppity depraved primitives always on a risible fool's errand that can only end in ghastly tyranny or failure but she does also say they shouldn't be tortured just because of that. where's your gratitude." The most pernicious are these kinds of liars. They're Satanic. "you're in pain I know. You're suffering. But believe me I know : communism is pointless. It can only fail or make things worse. Your only real hope is Bernie Sanders, or whomever he endorses, and faith in Greta."

Their contempt for humanity (in India in Bolivia in Syria in New York City) -- from these pundits, the potato-heads of all time -- is a ubiquitous tell.

Bernie Sanders .. When I voted against the war in Iraq in 2002, I feared it would lead to greater destabilization of the region. That fear unfortunately turned out to be true. The U.S. has lost approximately 4,500 brave troops, tens of thousands have been wounded, and we've spent trillions.

The Toads spend five times as much. Pindostan just passed a bipartisan military budget of $738b, 55 times what Iran spends. Still, relatively puny Iran has managed some significant achievements. Lebanon's Hizballah, supported by Iran, dealt Israel and by extension Pindostan a major strategic defeat when Israel invaded Lebanon in 2006. More recently, it was Iran's support, specifically under the guidance of General Soleimani, that rolled back Daesh across Syria and Iraq, stopping the group from taking Baghdad.

In the video recording of the 80-minute dinner at the Trump Hotel in Washington recorded by Giuliani associate's Lev Parnas and Igor Fruman, the men tell Trump something amazing: the chief Rabbi of the Ukraine, Chabad Lubavitch's Moshe Reuven Azman, has ascertained that according to Gematria, the Hebrew letters of Trump's name equal those of the Messiah. (They also add up to those of The Snake, but they don't tell Trump that.)

Medical treatment
The first episode of gallbladder inflammation is often treated with pain medications. Because the pain is often severe, prescription medications are needed. Your doctor may prescribe medications with codeine or hydrocodone. IV prescription anti-inflammatories may be prescribed, or stronger pain medications like morphine.

Here they state clearly that Hydrocodone and Morphine are used to treat this painful condition! Due to the DEA and the new sweeping Archontic legislation to end the use of these pain killer, for all of us who experience pain, the scared shitless quacks, aka "doctors" are to afraid to prescribe them for us. So, these spineless cowards are working directly for the forces of hell which intend that 100's of millions of us suffer, when there is no need too, because pain killers were created to end our pain and misery!

99:31 - it's it's tough to get this across the right way with the people who I was talking about Hitler and in the when I think he was in the 30s still not long after he's elected it was after the the boycotts all the Jewish companies were boycotting Germany and all his stuff and I think it was Roosevelt was a president right and he was like criticizing them it's like all your oppressing all these people and and I thought it was funny when people like Trump's literally Hitler I'm like well they were both kind of trolls it's a kind of you might be right Hitler was like talking about Roosevelt he's like didn't you just mass murder like all the natives don't fucking talk to me about burned him in the dirt in the Reichstag he was like didn't you just kill didn't you just finish a genocide like 20 years 100:09 ago these Final Solution comes from Sherman it's not I didn't know that but that's which he does not deserve the middle name to come sir you know they don't teach that they teach you know they don't teach that at all they sent the military out to just wipe them out it wasn't like we were just living cold no no it was really good Indians a dead Indian like that was the I mean they paid him they paid him to keep yeah we're all that way this is how funny when any uppity Californian gets sjw I do you 100:44 like they had the dolls act and the religious crimes act in the 1920s right they put the last Yanni Indian this is after World War one they put the last Johnny Indian because they had already murdered his entire family but the Mafia they put a person in a museum and the newspaper said Stone Age man found and they had him around with like glass with like a bow and arrow they've gotten out of some other museum it didn't work 101:13 he died as a fever

Good talk. Inflation is build into the system. A gold standard is not the answer. Salt used to trade ounce for ounce equal to gold. Inflation is caused by usury, every interest payment means less money in circulation. Whoever is allowed to lend at interest will end up owning the world, that's where we are today. Money is not wealth, assets are wealth, read Tragedy and Hope. Problem is debt monetization where banks issue money into existence by issuing loans, fiat currency, privately owned banks
If a state is allowed to take the benefit of usury for the public good, there is no need for taxation, it's that lucrative

so why are the prices so far there's so

34:48 so why are the prices so far there's so much a little guess I would think that somebody somebody there's no yeah yeah aren't the frackers out now because of the price that they go crazy opening up their Wells you can't help but 30s to low yeah 1890s to hi shad healthy range in there they can make money they're 65 yeah see crap drivings change right you've used for fracking well four times I make the two poured they don't the pump it's really you know for a while the Texas they produce it WS driving in we're self-sufficient really right now basically absolutely right meeting reducing as much as we our own yeah wasn't for West Texas we probably have 85 probably more yeah so how big is West Texas comparing like West Texas to Saudi Arabia okay what's it what's your difference probably sixty percent sixty what's the quality in West Texas slaves so what's the quality of Venezuela yeah I told me last weekend in Big Lake Texas which is a little bitty dot at the Permian Basin he pulled into a motel 6 it cost him four hundred fifty dollars per another well but the geopolitical confident and so said LNG changes the game if we export LNG we can weaken July here oven who's done which is lower expenses why they from an axial secured Oh baby no fantastic but he's over well how about Germany opening up a pipeline into Russia and we're supposed to be fighting Russia right all right so Germany's paying Russian like two billion dollars a month crazy and they're a member of NATO yes we're in the process of purchasing a nobody Ukraine right now that should help cut off Russia so how did you there they love you though I can tell you that much they love you right great a they're great fighters very fighters they love you and there they are they're great fighters they've been fighting for so long they don't know what to do with that fine Russia's had a bomb right under under their directions they're waiting for direction I could tell you that much they're ready there I think there's a definitely a girl it's a problem big probably guess there's something weird javelin missiles over there right they be anti-tank but yes yes not only today that's all I read about it today I want to have it announced it but they must have happened within the last couple days they're getting it but yeah let's take Russia ever goes in and gets its yeah I don't they would love to there they'd love to but they're scared of you right now they got what they wanted they want an access to the sea not really no they want Ukraine Ukraine is a vast I'll create and neither the resources in Ukraine are true my ears exactly and right now not only that but the Ukrainians are sort of thoughts or throw up in their throat because of supplying the pipeline because all the pipeline goes through Ukraine so number one in Europe yeah we could Ukraine yes yes they're overly much they don't have any money exactly they've been sitting Russia on the company's going to go risky because exactly the point they were supporting the Clintons for all these years and

40:04 hoping that that one obviously you want bye-bye yeah that was a big thing I guess geology very similar to West Texas you get a lot of the rise in West Texas or there's a potentials number one and the potential is incredibly I just kept great records you know yes everything underground we they have everything there they're just right now waiting for your support a little bit to make sure because obviously if they go on their own Russia whoa-whoa won't let him do it because they'll cut off a lot of their revenue however they last in the fight with Russia without us not very long but Russia also keep in mind talks a big game but they're not ready to he's not he they don't they don't they're not ready to play he talks a big game but he you know you you know what Syria it was a great great job how did you uh they're actually very much appreciate everything you're doing do they feel okay yeah I feel they're gonna be okay if you support them yeah with a regular sugar he's a good guy he's a he wants the right thing for I mean it has to support Germany supporter he's very much in support of that German Europe support of him here Nagato Germany's gonna be on our agenda supporting rationale for supporting Russia to be Liam to pay raft ninety percent under president is madness it does exactly work from you this is a lot of the exactly a lot of the European country they're backstabbing us basically and dealing with Russia and that's why you're having such yes I think if you take over the biggest problem there I think where we need to start is we gotta get rid of the Ambassador is she still left over from the Clinton administration yeah is basically walk around telling everybody he's gonna get [Music]

Traffic to Alt-Right Videos Down?

The paper is not perfect. Phillips and Munger try to reassure neo-liberal readers by telling them that traffic to alt-right videos on Youtube has been declining since mid-2017, but this leaves out important caveats. The timetable coincides with the beginning of Chinese-style censorship by Google/Youtube in August 2017, when they started putting videos espousing identitarian, pro-Hitler or anti-Zionist views in a limited state.

Two years later, the containment strategy clearly failed, and they have now engaged in outright deleting most of the major "alt-right" channels, and even many alt-right adjacent alt-light ones like those belonging to Gavin McInnes and InfoWars. Of the large "alt-right" media channels (over 10,000 subscribers) listed on the ADL's list, most like James Allsup, TRS Radio and Red Ice have been completely wiped off social media without warning, despite taking care to not violate any of the companies stated speech rules.

carried away with them while being carried away and/or chased off, following those who departed voluntarily, unable to resist a gamble with venture monies and providing an underground
'trailgoad' ever after up to this day, burned into them permanently ... so permanently in fact that those attempting to outrun it found themselves failing, those who tried via dilution only became whiter as they went north, blacker as they went south .. but it remains with them, in various phases of homeopathic potentiation.

Deltans enjoy the best of the best and get to enormous extremes of beauty and hardness easily, which for a very long long time echos thru their genes.

challenges without missing a beat unless you really really go down the degenbithole deep. Hence you make light of toxicity ... cause you can afford to and righties can afford stuff ... cause they handle tox so that it make merch shiny, lasting and all that fakery foxery fixery but those at the Project Jewish State

The anti-Zionist world-view of the ultra-Orthodox groups

Neturei Karta and Satmar Hasidism perceives Zionism and the establishment of the State of Israel as an anti-messianic act, conceived and born from sin. These groups vigorously deny the very legitimacy of the collective political return to the Holy Land and to Jewish sovereignty. For them, this is the handiwork of humans, violating the Jewish people's oath of political quietism.

In the words of the Midrash (as expounded by Rashi), the people were adjured not to return collectively to the Land of Israel by the exertion of physical force, nor to "rebel against the nations of the world," nor to "hasten the End." In short, they were required to wait for the heavenly, complete, miraculous, supernatural, and meta-historical redemption that is totally distinct from the realm of human endeavor. This waiting over two millennia manifests the very essence and singularity of the Jewish people, expressing their faith in divine providence, in the assurance of the prophets, and in messianic destiny.

In this understanding, the Jewish people have been removed from the causal laws that govern nature and history and are exclusively bound by another set of religious-ethical laws within a causal process of reward and punishment, exile and redemption: "Unless the Lord build the house, its builders labor in vain; unless the Lord watches over the city, the watchman keeps vigil in vain" (Psalms 127:1).

Accordingly, any Jewish political revival that is not messianic intrinsically represents a denial of divine providence and of the hope of redemption; it is a betrayal of the destiny and uniqueness of Israel. The attempt to hasten the End, to return by physical power to the sphere of political and certainly military history is a collective revolt against the kingdom of heaven, an aggressive aspiration to overstep human boundaries into the realm reserved for God—just like the deeds of the generation of the Tower of Babel (Genesis 11:1-9). This is an act of the devil, a demonic outburst of unclean forces that may not be corrected. It is ultimately doomed to failure, regardless of human deeds: "The Lord shall rebuke you—the Satan who has chosen Jerusalem" (paraphrasing Zechariah 3:2).

Thumbed down for her arrogant Supremacist stance. Yes agree we have a problem, and she identifies it as Nazis but it's Zionists. But to say she has the moral high ground because she is put on this planet to teach the Gentiles is a stretch too far.

'The Joos' gave us a two-tiered Talmudic fake morality; they also gave us central banks, communism, Zionism, Kabbalism, 'war by deception', 9/11, the war on terror, Jeffrey Epstein, Weinstein, pornography, Hollywood and anti-free speech laws, and that's just for starters. I used to subscribe to this woman but it only took me about two videos to see straight through her - preaches peace and love but always likes to 'remind' people how much better Jews are than the rest of us.

Malcolm Gladwell's 12 Rules for Life

Beth mentions the Big Short

After the crisis hit, and writers and journalists began to look back at what had happened in those critical years of 2006 and 2007, a conventional wisdom sprang up according to which only a tiny handful of people had had the insight to realize that subprime mortgages were kegs of dynamite ready to blow. But Redleaf believes that his insight was not nearly as unique as it's been portrayed in such books as Michael Lewis's The Big Short or Gregory Zuckerman's The Greatest Trade Ever, which chronicles John Paulson's massive bet against the housingmarket. By Redleaf's count, there were maybe fifty or so hedge funds that would likely have considered this kind of trade. At least twenty of them, maybe more, were heavily short subprime bonds. "If you look at the disinterested smart players," he says, "a lot got it." Indeed, the market took off. Credit default swaps "grew faster than even we predicted with more than $150B of structured product CDS outstanding at year end '05 vs. $2B at year end '04," Goldman Sachs reported in a presentation in early 2006. But it didn't take off because Wall Street firms wanted to be on the other side of the bets their smart hedge fund clients were taking. The reason it exploded had to do with one last little wrinkle Wall Street had dreamed up - the one that turned that keg of dynamite into the financial equivalent of a nuclear bomb: the synthetic CDO.

Enoch, Enoch, .. poor Enoch. He does not realize how he internalized and broadcast suppression of the red race on whose grounds he advocates for the white one. recoiling from drama i zoom out and catch a profound thought: the capitalist meme of a match and reciprocity is in fact a death drive .. much like 2 perfectly matched alphas will both die .. cause nature eliminates equality (in favor of diversity) and at the top of all pile, stack and fuck ups this is what happens (with the pool / heist / herd magnitude upping results). "all the devils are here" by bethany mcLean pinpoints all the characters in the 'security' groupthink field (to the tune of 1100 pages, even more detail than 'the big short') and concludes the 'innatidue' is the unbudgeable culprit and 'reason' everybody walks.
I feel the same way about admonishing white and black to return to home ground and let red reflower on theirs. Too much ancestral touch got lost in the game of commodifying migration.

"what, me? i was born here you fool. Wanna finance a massive move duh masses to permie earthships across eurasia and africa? You and your kindomain pal Putin? You haven't even read any Marcus Garvey yet" ... Well, no, but yeah.

well as Jeremy's call to Alan Dershowitz on C-Span.
We analyze these calls and discuss the points we raised as well as the reactions to the calls.

-The opening clip is from an interview conducted by Lee Stranahan with John Kiriakou in which they take a derisive tone towards 9/11 'truthers', particularly Kiriakou saying that people want him to blame space aliens for 9/11.

salvia one final time

February 26, 2020 - 10:34 am

I finished smoking this stuff, or anything else. I broke my bong. I won't need it any more. I have finished my examination of the jolly green giants, and here are my final conclusions. They are activated archetypes from the collective unconscious in Jung's sense, which means:

They are neither divine nor supernatural, but a product of subtle material forces.

They only seem to have 'minds' in the common or garden sense, because they do not actually understand words. But they do understand voice-tones, facial expression, body language, visuals, music and rhythm.

That is not to say they necessarily lack in 'wisdom.' After all, the most important of the archetypes in Jung's personal record are of the 'wise old man' type, but 'wisdom' cannot be expressed in words, so the 'wise old man' cannot impart his wisdom in words. That doesn't mean he isn't wise, nor that he isn't imparting his wisdom in some non-verbal way.

What is it that 'constellates the archetypes in the collective unconscious,' to use Jung's terms? He says variously that their source is material and that they are within us rather than without, and that they are hereditary. He was writing some decades before the discovery of DNA. His most famous essay on the activated archetypes talks exclusively of a warrior archetype specific to the German people. It is hard not to see this as racist, but he is saying that the more DNA they have on common the stronger the archetypal bonds created thereby.

The archetypal realm is the realm of the instincts, and monsters from the Id, like in the film "Forbidden Planet," are thrill-seekers. They are activated instinctual forces: what can they seek but instinctual goals? Rough sex, violence, torture & mutilation, atrocities of every sort: what should we expect when the instinctual archetypes are released through drugs or ritual invocation, but that they become devouring demons?

The Crowley OTO, like many 'occult' groups, knows how to release the archetypes in the candidates for initiation, so that the candidates become acquainted with their own deepest devils and gods, demonesses & goddesses, but the Crowleyn tendency is to treat these as real gods, not just as released interior forces. If so, they are gods of the pit, gods of pure passion, brutal, asocial and ruthless. They need to be made the objects of psychotherapy, not used to implement Crowley's fascist world-view.

No.234410935 ----- I was just listening to an old Strike & Mike (Ep. 73, ~11:25 in) where Mike brought up that fat turbo-kike, Talia Lavin who failed miserably while working for the SPLC, trying to get a ZOGbot war vet fired for having a tattoo that somewhat resembled an Iron Cross. After she was called out, she decided she'd "troll the fashies" by going into graphic detail about how disgusting, fat, stinky, and hairy she is. Mike's takeaway was that this was not some sort of cringe, self-deprecating humor but rather a sick flex; She rattles off a list of her most viscerally repulsive qualities while reminding the goyim cattle beneath that, despite her dysgenic physiognomy, the fate of their careers nevertheless rests in the bloated hands of this protoplasmic, semitic blob of genetic misfit, and there isn't anything they can do about it. Link to show:

The Sheltering Desert - Plot summary
In 1935 two German geologists, Henno Martin and Hermann Korn, leave Nazi Germany for South-West Africa (Namibia) to conduct field research. At the outbreak of the Second World War, many male Germans living in South-West Africa are interned in local camps. As pacifists the two German scientists refuse to be arrested and flee into the Namib Desert. They live for over two years in the vastness of the desert like ancient bushmen under indescribable circumstances, facing the challenge to survive and, at the same time, the threat to be detected. On the radio they follow the war events in Europe. Their adventure comes to an end when Hermann Korn starts suffering seriously from malnutrition.

Editor's Note: Two Hundred Years Together (Russian: Д"Д²ДµÑ?Ñ, Д, Д»ДµÑ, Д²Д¼ДµÑ?Ñ, Дµ, Dvesti let vmeste) is Aleksandr Solzhenitsyn's last historical essay, which fills up two volumes with a detailed study of jews in the Russian Empire, Soviet Union, and modern Russia - covering the two hundred year span from 1795 to 1995. The controversial book was criticized for its "anti-semitism" for daring to discuss the role played by jews in the horrors that unfolded in Russia.

https://drive.google.com/file/d/11FNFel27soj4Al5U1_u70wJgqsx0m0Uf/view?usp=sharing doesn't has "encryption" lmfao xD P.S. There's a difference between putting a password on a PDF and actually 'encrypting' it using a randomly generated passphrase and encryption method.
Read 'https://www.globalsign.com/en/blog/glossary-ofcryptographic-algorithms/' for more info. When you decide to encrypt a file like this, you'll need to include your own decrypter, commonly refered to as a 'stub', if you want for the file to be read-able. This can be quite effective when trying to hide malicious code from an AV, or when it comes to hiding your programs source code (besides obfuscation), but it will prevent everyone not.. Read more

Hi, I mainly wanted it password protected it to prevent Jew trolls from editing it- supposedly the program added encryption but I'm not a programmer and couldn't verify that. Anyway thanks for posting it to Google Drive. I compiled did this just to get it out there, and this will help.

Hermit: This is exciting! I've been waiting to get my hands on this for some time. I expect there won't be too many novel or shocking things given what is already public, but it will probably name names who should be brought to light and pushed as the Jews as the Jews have pushed Hitler.
How great it will be to have some new Jewish monsters to teach the public about!

JimB: Thanks! I had it separated into 2 parts: the chapters that were released for the public, and 'the censored chapters' (2,3,6,7,8,9,10,11,12,15). Two separate pdf files.
Now I have a seamless version, yay!

Joe: Here is a Barnes Review book review on Vol 2 of this DutchGreen: Just copied and posted it to Google Drive.

Thanks again for translating.

Alouicious Jackson: Just saw this- I can't speak for Renegade but personally I'm glad you did. This needs as much exposure as possible.

matthew: "Solzhenitsyn emphatically denies (in Chapters 9 and 14) that the Russian revolutions of 1905 and 1917 were the result of a "Jewish conspiracy" (just as he had earlier forcefully criticized the extreme nationalists who were and are obsessed with Freemasons and Jews"see, e.g., Russia in Collapse, Chapter 25, "The Maladies of Russian Nationalism")."
----- Meanwhile, readers need to be forewarned that any and all English versions [of 'Two Hundred Years Together'] available on the Internet, are illegal, pirated, and/or entirely unauthorized; often poorly and loosely translated.

Alouicious Jackson: The original English version left out all sections critical of Jews, and was definitely poorly translated. The independent English translations complied here are much more accurate. The Solzhenitsyn Center was obviously created or co-opted by Jews as a gatekeeping front. So of course they would condemn the English versions!

Rick Campbell: Not that Mr. Solzhenitsyn has lacked defenders. Such an eminent spokesman for the Jewish community as Elie Wiesel, chronicler of the Holocaust and now a professor of the humanities at Boston University, is one of his supporters, asserting that Mr. Solzhenitsyn is an "authentic hero."
<https://www.nytimes.com/1985/11/13/books/solzhenitsyn-and-anti-semitism-a-new-debate.html>

Alouicious Jackson: Mr. Solzhenitsyn was considered a hero by the Russian government as well until he published 200 years together. I doubt Elie Wiesel would be praising him if he knew this had been translated into English!

Clips of Gilles Deleuze discussing Spinoza from a 1980 seminar. He specifically discusses Spinoza's view on Substance, the Univocity of Being, Modes, Attributes, and Parallelism. The translation is mine. Sorry for any spelling or grammatical errors.

why the HELL do you translate time as/with being at the end of the first half ??????????

Being and Time is a 1927 book by the German philosopher Martin Heidegger, you follow the french mirrorrevel of german thinking
if you care to distinguish D&S 'time' from Heidegger's i suggest you adopt my solution, use stone instead ... thus 'Sein und Zeit' becomes 'Sein und Stein' .. that solves the sense of place [lost, abandoned, betrayed] conundrum and stockholmed syndrome the world weeps, moans, cries and bleeding well suffers under since judaism in-, af- and effected rome, com, soc and cap alike, happy zillionth zionazboligargggh day... time to start counting

I also cannot recall agreeing with Melanie Phillips about anything ever before. It makes me recollect. Genesis P-Orridge (of Throbbing Gristle and Psychic TV) is or was semi but not completely Trans. He is or was a would-be "non-binary person." He called Trans women "genetic terrorists" and "stormtroopers of the future." He is or was heavily involved in the bathrooms controversy. His book "Psychick Bible" ends: "Pee where thou wilt shall be the whole of the law!" But come to think of it, he was long preceded by Pat Califia, a Trans woman who became a Lesbian S&M practitioner, someone who wanted to torture women for fun & profit, and found a way to do so. It's a dark picture.

What an ignoramus I am in such matters! But I've never heard of any of the people, groups, projects, books etc. you just mentioned. I'm reading about some of it while I'm typing this. But then again, having had the bad luck to be born into a large catholic family and having spent a good part of my very early childhood in orphanages run by child beating nuns and having "served" as an altar boy for 2 or 3 years, I have seen, tasted and felt enough occultism to immunize me for a life time, which means, I've been all for reality and atheism ever since I was 11 or 12 years old! Though, I still do appreciate cultural references of occult subjects from Greek mythology to Shakespeare's witches to Goethe's Faust to Black Widow's "Come to the Sabbath" - it's all ok with me and some of it I do like a lot, especially mythology because it is fiction (often with a payload of wisdom).

i was told once by a professional slaughterer in cuba how the cattle (cows+pigs) are brought in and his job was to fire this massive steel projectile at the heads of cows or electrocute pigs, not to kill them outright but stun them badly enough that they no longer care.

then they are butchered at leisure.

it strikes me that the reported debates and the woke ferment ignited serves the exact same purpose in the angus-goy cattle (egad, that's me). just reading the headlines makes my brain shed nucleotides and neurons like a wet dog shaking off water \hat{A} all that is left is a smiley omelette between ears, soaked in empathy.

Wrapping everything up, Prozorov concludes his documentary by reviewing his main points, namely that MH17's downing was a meticulously preplanned plot by the Ukrainian and British security agencies to pin the blame for this false flag attack on the Donbas rebels, all with the intent of portraying them as "terrorists" and thus also make it politically impossible for Russia to militarily intervene in their support like was widely suspected to be in the planning stages during that summer.

Many of these chemicals are made by Big Pharma and they profit tremendously from transgenderism. Having individuals who take life long doses of artificial hormones to undergo sex changes is a boon for them. These endocrine disrupting chemicals, which mimic estrogen and block testosterone, were created for population control purposes. Extra questions linger about the opaque Event 201 in New York on Oct 18 2019: a rehearsal for a worldwide pandemic caused by a deadly virus, which happened to be coronavirus.

fat chance of any outrage, the elderly are quietly dispirited and despairing, the young don't give 2 shits and are in fact relieved even though the bonanza will accrue only to the Masters and their corporate and plantation managerial class.

This is an open invitation to mass suicide, which wouldn't surprise me in the least, since the elderly already lean that way, the society having discarded them like messy bags of incoherent incontinence, whereas once upon the time they were considered the apex of civilizational reach, repositories of wisdom, deep analysis and valuable advice.

But some insidious force, can't remember which (yeah right), some unyielding, remorseless process dismembered this time-worm, chopping out vestibules that linked the temporally ordered segments into a continuous lifetrain, exuberance of childhood segueing into flowering of youth into strength of adulthood, into stately dignity of old age, the segments derailed into mutual contempt and leisurely consumed by this hostile intellect as per the diabolical plan.

Goodbye humanity, goodbye civilization, hello misery, enslavement, fear, ignorance, headlong descent into madness.

The old men will dream the Planet of the Apes“if only they were so lucky.

Coronavirus: A call to (in)action

13K views -- Mar 22 -- Maximus Ironthumper -- 94.7K subscribers

sorry to see you suffering your cuck to the perps we label 'dangerous' what is not and not what is the stampeders [who worship their skills] try this again and again ... make out like bandits now and then (listen to 'Amazing Polly'), AIDS was a great 'hit' in Africa ..now it's 2.0 for feeble normie, it's a mediation coup, 3piece monty with stats speaking of landrovers ... i was utterly outraged when the dutch importer captioned a mudcovered one 'mother's finest' on full page ads in 80s dutch dailies ... right at the time i was trying to convey how i understand 'coin of the realm', .. freshly minted from norwegian granite to the tune of half a biljan tons a year just amsterdam, to feed asphalt plants. And people got real upset when it got used to 'cover' a dump of toxic slib, from a neighbouring country no less. It simply got lumped in and eyed with suspicion .. whereas it needs to go form pond seal [and feed] on all the light soils asap for coming water scarcities ... this whole hype fixation on death for the most vulneralbe is tangled up with who that fresh 'clay' is in fact not just the most passive and most vulnerable but also most beneficial cornerstone of lives cycling completion i am a bible skeptic and here's a good reason: the babylonian emperor's dream about a shape made of basest, cheapest material at the bottom [clay] and precious stuff at the top was transposed or abducted and slaughtered by the interpreter who made it into an era succesion parable (and that's cause jews are utterly and more than all of us, wounded when it comes to sense of place - proolly from having lost the best ever, the Nile Delta). But the dream/vision's meaning is as spacey as timely as nightly follows daily. Without repeating creation from step on you don't grow and get to see full unfoldment.

the virus has already been around the world multiple times and by multiple means and in various dilutions (i got hit by the precisely perfect homeopathic dose blown in the weather to receive and unusually severe but very brief sore throat). What we need to do spread is people (out of cities), trees (out of forests), mineral traces (out of rocks).

House of Trump, House of Putin: The Untold Story of

Donald Trump and the Russian Mafi - 657 views -- Mar 24,

2020 -- Ed Opperman - 13.3K subscribers

Wobbo - 2 days ago: There is absolutely no proof that Putin "owns" Trump, and the author didn't provide any evidence of that claim. None of Mueller's prosecutions

since have actually proven that particular claim.

Transactional relationships with Russian mafia don't necessarily lead to political alliances with the Kremlin any more than transactional relationships with the Italian mafia lead to political alliances with Sicily. I think the author's summary of the 20th century ("the USA saved the world in 1945 by promoting democracy and free markets and by being Europe's ally") is extremely superficial and inaccurate. In fact, the USA created Putin and the Russia

mafia state, and then helped Yeltsin steal the 1996

election. Putin is a protege of Yeltsin. If anything, the USA

"influenced" Russian politics by destroying the USSR and instituting massive corruption. Jeffery Sachs "shock therapy" takes as much blame as anyone for Russia's current state. Trump has many connections to organized crime, including Russian mafia (which is complicated in itself; the Jewish emigres in Brighton beach are distinct from

Georgian mafia, Chechen Islamic mafia, etc. all distinct from Russian mafia proper), but the overwhelming evidence points to GERMAN and European influence, not Russian. It wasn't Rosneft or Gazprom which bailed out Trump in the 1990's, it was Alfa-Bank and Deutsche Bank! Trump's family connections also go to Germany historically. Manafort's actions in Ukraine were not the "bidding of Putin" but actually pressuring Yakunovich to join the EU/NATO.

Manafort apparently spent more time in Ukraine AFTER his client was overthrown than before! As far as anyone can tell, geopolitically (ie in Syria, Ukraine, Libya, etc.) Trump has not been easing up on Russia, in fact he's intensified many things that Obama did. Felix Sater claims he helped located Stinger missiles the CIA gave to Afghanistan/Pakistan during the anti-USSR jihad (some things never change huh?).

Russia Files New Charges Against Browder, Accuses Him of Murder

2018-11-20 - On: November 20, 2018

In a press conference held yesterday by Russian government officials it was revealed that new criminal charges have been filed against UK financier and Hermitage Capital founder, Bill Browder. This is hardly the first time that Russia has gone after him. He's been convicted twice in absentia; once in 2013

The Rosalind Brodsky Project began in 1995 and is ongoing.

Brodsky is my alter ego, avatar and heteronymic identity.

This work uses historical material, both real and fictional.

Rosalind Brodsky, with whom I share Anglo/Eastern European/Jewish roots, was born in London in 1970 and survived until 2058. Her first delusional experience of time travel supposedly occurred during a session with the psychoanalyst Julia Kristeva in Paris, at the moment she noticed Kristeva's similarity to the face in the photograph of her Polish-Jewish grandmother who had been murdered in the Holocaust. By 1995 Brodsky is a delusional time traveller who believes herself to be working in London at the Institute of Militrionics and Advanced Time Interventionality (IMATI) in the 21st century. IMATI is a controversial government funded organisation which develops equipment and carries out time travel research projects whose results are for use primarily by the military and other government research organisations.

The project has taken many forms. Below are links to various ways of viewing it.

anti-lockdown propaganda, emanating from investors and employers by lobro /niqnaq.wordpress.com/2020/04/05/anti-lockdown-propaganda-emanating-from-investors-and-employers/#comment-132299
rowan, a bit of caution here because we are perched on the finest of occam's razor blades.

you know how in oldtime action flicks, 2 guys, faces contorted in rictus of death-struggle, teeth bared, the edge of a dagger poised between them are desperately pushing it away from own faces and toward the opponent's while hanging precariously of some structure.
except it is real-life now, not acting, covid is that blade, winner-take-all.

here is what your friend sees: in a desperate move due to mighty pushback by eurasian bears+dragons, the belt+road initiative aimed through the black heart of the ancient satanic imperium, threatening not just to undo millennia of careful planning, stitching seemingly disparate ends together like a symphonic piece building under baton of a skillful conductor, jew had to jump the gun with release of this carefully concocted virus, a masterpiece of bioengineering, not a blunt hammer by any means, in order to stop trump well before nov elections by which time it would have been way too late--potentially devastating, permanent draining of the swamp if both houses secured.
so spooked are they that the globalist dream of ocean-going intercontinantal piracy in consumer goods, food and finance was sacrificed, trashed, i guess in hope that it may be restored at some later pointâ€”or not, if they get rid of trump and call the fire+steel gotterdammerung on putin+xi, after which there is no need for further charadesâ€”when israel is mighty! as per whatshisname, the funny jewish apostate.

(yossi gurvitz, just recalled)

because covid is an excellent restraint means, total slavery ensured, populace so cravenly materialistic, so fearful, so addicted to disinfectants everywhere, underarm, crotches, mouth cavity, hair, kitchen, bedsheetsâ€”and most of all, BRAINS! that they will eagerly prostrate to slavery to avoid reinfection which will be a whip ready in jew's hand to scourge the reprobates into submission.

too bad they had to use it prematurely, for it is a thing of sublime beauty, creator of the Protocols returned from primordial abode in order to supervise its rosemary's baby midwifery. (choice of title very interesting):

'Rose'n is the flower of 'Mary' a potent symbol indicating her presence and the birth of 'Baby' which Baby? the movie is piece of satanic occultism, inversion of terms like reading the Black Mass at midnight in a goy cathedral, polanski's alchemical obsession from which he never deviated.

Baked Alaska is especially amazing - he wasn't even a wignat. He just went straight to ex-wignat.

It's a gaggle of disgraced losers who got PTSD from being BTFO'd by literally everyone they ever knew, and maybe this is their corny attempt at revenge? I never thought of that angle. That this is just the butthurt buttercreamer brigade desperate to soothe their jimmies and try to distance themselves from the nightmare that is themselves by externalizing it as "the movement" when really it's just them.

NON-FICTION: "BIOLOGICAL WARFARE - THE AFRICANIZED EUROPEAN & WHITE GENOCIDE" BY BTWIXT

...In the time it has taken me to write this essay, many white babies have been slaughtered in abortion clinics throughout The West. A great many of these white babies, if they haven't been suctioned out of the womb limb by limb, will have had their necks broken by the gloved surgical hands that await them in the outside world. Either way, the babies' tiny bodies are picked clean like a cooked chicken, this piece for that product and that piece for this product, before being put into containers and ticked off for the wheels of heavy transit, for the greasy tills of the pharmaceutical game.

Likewise, at the same time, many white men too, stripped of the right to prosper, no longer feeling themselves useful in a matriarchal-rainbow tyranny, have hanged themselves from the nearest weeping willow or driven their cars into brick walls or pressed their smooth foreheads up against the double barrels of a shotgun.

During that same time, two-hundred Third Worlders rocked up on this Spanish beach every single day. And two-hundred others have rocked up on that beach over there. Their compass points towards the country or region with the most generous gibs, gibs in the way of free housing, free allowances, free healthcare, free anything, themselves ridden with all manner of infectious diseases and maladies. In fact, hundreds of thousands of them have rocked up on all the beaches of Southern Europe in the period it took me to write this. Many more, though, have travelled a less circuitous route, arriving at customs in our airports with the convenience of a missing passport and a sob story about persecution.

There are several possibilities concerning the reaction of somebody when that somebody realises that they has been duped all of their lives. A type of reaction could be to tear one's hair out and go stark raving mad, thereby becoming of no use either to oneself or to anybody else. Another reaction could be to try to justify why you were duped in the first place and to learn from the mistake, perhaps in the process plotting to undermine the power structure behind that swindle. And then there are people who discover that they have been played for a fool all of their lives, and continue being fools because they are accustomed to it, kind of like a teacher who should have retired years ago. And even more unfortunately, and in the case of most people, their limited intellect, their limited critical thinking skills, means they will never, even if they live to be six-hundred years of age, come within a country mile of finding out that they have been taken for a ride or led down the garden path.

If I must take on the role of a fear-monger to get the point across, then fear-monger I shall be. They are coming. Believe you me, they are coming. They are coming to take what is yours. And what is yours could be your house. It could be your job. It could be your history and traditions. It could even be your very blood, your son or daughter, your grandson or your granddaughter. Whatever it be, it matters not: for they are coming to take all that you have whether it be tangible or intangible. And our traitorous politicians and global financiers will serve it all up to them on a silver platter. You see, as incredible as this may sound, they, a nefarious clique, want you gone. They want you dead. You will not have got the memo of course, but under such circumstances that is only to be expected..."

wov -- April 26: I have been reading Glen's stuff since ages. He's among the best handful of writers whose articles occasionally tiptoe from the realm of the analytical descriptive into the revolutionary prescriptive, which is a dangerous thing to do in times where deeply penetrating indoctrination, mind altering propaganda and the threat of violence are the only things that keep the system going. Compared to WSWS (the Reuters of the pseudo-left) this is manna.
niqnaq: He's not a Trotskyite, and nor am I, actually.

I try to draw the line against actually supporting their party. I think Trotsky was a Rothschild agent. Ever read George Knupffer's "Red Symphony"? It claims to have been "found on the body of one Dr Landowsky in a hut on the Petrograd front by a Spanish volunteer and published in Madrid in Spanish by the well-known anti-Mason and anti-Semite (ie fascist) Mauricio Carlavilla." Actually it is a complete fake, but it's brilliant.
wov: I think that the histories and the reputations of old Leon, Orwell and a number of other characters from that age are to this day well protected and guarded by those ("our" bourgeoisie) who have an interest in distorting the history of the Russian Revolution of 1917 and of the early years of the USSR. They have also been systematically downplaying and suppressing the extremely bloody facts of the failed "Allied War of Intervention" (1918-1925). We're not supposed to know it even happened. On the other hand, Trotsky's impressive 3-volume biography, written by a most talented, sympathetic and biased Isaac Deutscher, ended up being "world literature". Neither old Karl, nor Lenin or Stalin ever had such PR in the west (Deutscher wrote a Stalin biography that was, as one might expect, rather negative). And then there are of course the facts - that on his return to Russia in 1917, Trotsky was detained and interrogated by British Intelligence in Canada and that he never gave a satisfying account of the incident. And that a bit later, in Russia, when he was commissioned to negotiate an instant peace treaty with the German, Habsburg and Ottoman empires in Brest-Litovsk, he deliberately blew it and returned empty-handed. Consequently, the war went on, more people died and Russia lost even more territories, until Lenin had sent competent negotiators that were loyal to the revolution. There's a lot more but you have to dig it up for yourself as this stuff is not well organized and all over the internet. But there is one more thing I came across only recently. On the occasion of Jacques Chirac's death last September, I read that the ex-president was the owner of a castle. Being curious, I looked up "Château de Bity" and found that in the 1920s and 1930s the place was owned and lived in by a British Intelligence officer, who invited treacherous old Leon (by then on the run) to stay there. And so he did for almost two years from 1934-1935. Funny, hu?!

Anyway, I think none of this has much to do with those who today self-identify as "trots". In the almost 8 decades since old Leon snuffed it, the 4th Int has itself changed beyond recognition. There are precious few workers in any trots organisation. Most of the members are students and other middle-class do-gooders. The upper echelons are firmly occupied by well-off, well-educated, withered personages who don't have a revolutionary molecule in their system and, if they are genuine and not MI5, their personal political outlook is mostly no more than social-democratic. Still, they love to dazzle their members and audiences with complicated marxist rhetoric. Inside such organisations things can sometimes turn very ugly. This is Anna Chen's account of her years in the SWP (UK)

A Bad Case of the Trots
<https://madammiaow.blogspot.com/p/a-bad-case-of-trots.html>

Regarding WWS - they are of course a very impressive operation. The tons of well written original content they publish each day in 20+ languages, the professional presentation and hosting of their website - I'd say that the sheer scale of WWS rivals that of Reuters' online presence. So, one really has to ask what is behind all of this? Who finances it? I don't believe for a moment the 100s of thousands needed per year to run such an operation come from party members or small donations. But as I have hinted at in the beginning, the bourgeoisie doesn't mind written criticism (Trotsky, Orwell etc.) as long as it is not prescriptive and thus remains inconsequential. By financing WWS they can make sure that those they consider "vulnerable" to genuine left politics don't get exposed to the real thing over at CPGB-ML or at Workers World etc. Every minute you spend on WWS is one minute less on these sites - or something of that kind. Obviously I have not a shred of evidence for any of this. It's just a hunch - a hunch informed by decades of experience with just such forms of corruption.

P.S.:

A couple of years ago I posted here a link to Jeffrey St. Clair's article about the International Socialist Organisation ISO in Chicago, whose aim it is to get young people involved in something that is going nowhere by design.

"The dirty secret about the brain trust that oversees the Socialist Worker is that few of them are socialists and even fewer are working class people or even identify with them. And how could you, really, when you're the heiress to a cruise-liner fortune or you issue your editorial communiques from a mansion in one of the elite neighborhoods of upscale Evanston, Illinois."

P.P.S.

Regarding Landowsky, Red Symphony and all that - I read quite a lot about it some years ago and still have dozens of bookmarks to these sites. I think it's bollocks. The same goes for Evola, who seems to have acquired cult following in recent years.

niqnaq --- April 27, 2020 at 2:50 am

I know it's bollocks. I just said, George Knupffer wrote it. But it is also brilliant. Its theory of the universal tyranny of the bankers, in fact of the Rothschild clan, is perfectly credible to me. I think Isaac Deutscher is bollocks (and I have all three volumes in the cupboard, having painstakingly read them from start to end). I am also not interested in arguing with you. So goodbye. And please don't start commenting under some other name. I don't need your thoughts. I have quite enough thoughts of my own.

pindo-nazism in full effect -- May 4, 2020
- 7:17 am -- Please note, other sources have this statement from Trump:

"Personally, I think they made a horrible mistake, and they didn't want to admit it. We wanted to go in, but they didn't want us there. They made a mistake, they tried to cover it, like a fire. What they really treated the world badly on, they stopped people going into China, but they didn't stop people leaving China and going all over the world I think they were embarrassed by the problem, very embarrassed. They allowed this to go into our country, other countries. This should never have happened. This virus should not have spread all over the world"

A case could be made that China said, "hey, look, this is going to have a huge impact on China, we might as well let the rest of the world (get it)" - RB

It seems to me all of a sudden that Jews who have 'converted' (like Jacob Frank, who converted with all his followers to Catholicism) are the real fifth column. I mean that literally: they are the enemy within the gates. Would you agree? Or is it just lapsed Jews, who have no religion at all, just psychic bullshit and residual respect that they trade on? Brix for instance, I'm obsessed by her.

<http://niqnaq.wordpress.com/2020/05/03/well-give-you-war-in-the-internet/#comment-132737></guid><description>need to be careful with terminology here, rowan, if inconsistent or self-contradictory, they will riddle it with loopholes and more escape holes than King Rat. a jew is either a 100% jew, as in 'orc-serves-his-master-sauron' or he has self-consciously uncoupled himself from the Hell-train, like say roger dommergue or 108morris108 or mordechai vanunu did.

a 'secular jew' is their fine trick as in Baudelaire's "devil's finest trick is to have convinced you that he doesn't exist";.

Because, Judaism "does not recognize existence, let alone persistence of soul or afterlife or divine justice, karma" ... none of that stuff, unlike every other religion on earth, therefore to call it religion in itself abominates against religion, like calling pedophiles lovers of children.

Judaism is religion of materialism, atheism—in short, religion of Satan, which then legitimizes Satan as a bona fide God, a religion where the only requirement is blind obedience of the Master (recall the fate of Saul after his 99.99% (thus, failed) destruction of the Amalek), religion which does not allow for existence of free will and therefore individual responsibility.

Any Jew who claims to be "secular" in order to market himself as a "Good Jew", e.g., Noam Chomsky, is spouting skewed rhetoric out of his asshole.

believe it, this was clearly recognized even by ancient Greece and Rome, e.g., Tacitus and perceptive men ever since.

If you like, I can send you the pdf copy of book by Thomas Dalton which I was lucky enough to buy off Amazon before it shut the author down, called "Strangers Among Us";.

He talks and quotes these ancients at length, some truly excellent insights, especially the Germans like Schopenhauer (no wonder jew hates them with such passion, because more than any other group, Germans saw through them).

avram, i will cite just one line from

Schopenhauer's Parerga and Paralipomena (1851):

While all other religions endeavor to explain to the people by symbols and parables the metaphysical significance of life, the religion of the Jews is entirely immanent and furnishes nothing but a mere war-cry in the struggle with other nations. (125-126)

there is a lot more than that, by authors who studied the matter at greater length and depth and who otherwise appear to me as wholly credible in terms of integrity, industry and intellect, who asserted the same thing.

So even if i am as stupid, ignorant and illiterate as you believe, that's ok, there are others, much more capable (which is easy enough to accomplish) who state the same—so deal with them, even though i would likewise enjoy debating you in a proper forum; here i merely touched upon the subject.

note that though

antisemitic to use the semantic perversion invented by jews who use fake semitism as a convenient smokescreen, like me pretending geriatric infirmity for the sake of sympathy, even though i feel perfectly capable whether physically or mentally, i at all times maintain reasonably civil manners and composure, never use profanities or ad hominem to vent impotence of dealing with subject matter.
 i suppose anti-hypocritical; oranti-pharisaic; oranti-Chosen; oranti-exceptionalist; would be a much more accurate terminology but let's leave it for now—as long as you are clear on where i make my stand.

the coming war over ireland -- May 7, 2020 - 12:38 pm

In my opinion, the Johnson government will force the repartition of Ireland, which will lead to the renewal of the war of Irish independence, known in Britain as "IRA terrorism." Ireland will be entitled to defence by the EU against British reconquest, under the EU Charter; Britain will be entitled to defense by Nazi USA and thus prima facie by NATO, but at this point the EU countries will reject Pindostan's control and dissolve NATO. There will follow a war between the Five Eyes (the rump of NATO) and the rest of the world. Eastern Europe will be sandwiched between the EU and Russia, and I do not think the Five Eyes will be able to hold onto it for long - RB

The Gatekeeper Files: How One Conspiracy Brought Together a Consortium of Actors
On: January 10, 2020

Part One: The Gatekeeper Files: The Rise of the Alt-Right Part Two: How Trump Sold You on Fascism
Part Three: The Gatekeeper Files: Operation Pizzagate

Five days after the Comet Ping Pong story spread across social media like wildfire, Donald Trump was elected the 45th president of the United States. Former CIA operations runner and founder of the mercenary firm Blackwater, Erik Prince, celebrated Trump's victory over breakfast with far-right figure Charles C. Johnson, who would go on to become an unofficial advisor to Trump's transition team.

However, according to Defango, he later found out that the spear (we don't actually believe this was the "spear of destiny") Schoenberger gave him belonged to Michael Levine, a Hollywood music composer who appears to have been involved with Schoenberger and Cicada 3301, as well. Defango was asked to return it to Levine's home after which Schoenberger and Levine allegedly offered for him to become the voice of Cicada. It remains unclear what exactly Defango did for Schoenberger or Levine in terms of Cicada 3301, if anything. What is clear is that three months later the three of them, as well as a woman who uses the Twitter handle @NoxFemme (previously known as @WellTraveledFox and @Foxfire3113), decided to start a "reputation defense" firm.

next stops along the way:
seth rich .. clinton cash

<https://jimmysllama.com/2020/01/10/15414/2/>
Update: Since the publishing of this story, Schoenberger has reached out to clarify that Defango was never asked to be the voice of Cicada and that Michael Levine never owned the "spear of destiny." He also claims that he personally gave NoxFemme roughly $30K in "archeological artifacts to match her investment" in Shadowbox which Schoenberger says "was not even close to $50,000." Additionally, contrary to what "Trish the Dish" reported, NoxFemme has denied telling her the files she had in her possession might be the "Seth Rich" files.

you know how in oldtime action flicks, 2 guys, faces contorted in rictus of death-struggle, teeth bared, the edge of a dagger poised between them are desperately pushing it away from own faces and toward the opponent's while hanging precariously of some structure.

here is what your friend sees: in a desperate move due to mighty pushback by eurasian bears+dragons, the belt+road initiative aimed through the black heart of the ancient satanic imperium, threatening not just to undo millennia of careful planning, stitching seemingly disparate ends together like a symphonic piece building under baton of a skillful conductor, jew had to jump the gun with release of this carefully concocted virus, a masterpiece of bioengineering, not a blunt hammer by any means, in order to stop trump well before nov elections by which time it would have been way too late"potentially devastating, permanent draining of the swamp if both houses secured. so spooked are they that the globalist dream of ocean-going intercontinental piracy in consumer goods, food and finance was sacrificed, trashed, i guess in hope that it may be restored at some later point"or not, if they get rid of trump and call the fire+steel gotterdammerung on putin+xi, after which there is no need for further charades"when israel is mighty! as per whatshisname, the funny jewish apostate.

because covid is an excellent restraint means, total slavery ensured, populace so cravenly materialistic, so fearful, so addicted to disinfectants everywhere, underarm, crotches, mouth cavity, hair, kitchen, bedsheets"and most of all, BRAINS! that they will eagerly prostrate to slavery to avoid reinfection which will be a whip ready in jew's hand to scourge the reprobates into submission.

too bad they had to use it prematurely, for it is a thing of sublime beauty, creator of the Protocols returned from primordial abode in order to supervise its rosemary's baby midwifery.

'Rose'n is the flower of 'Mary' a potent symbol indicating her presence and the birth of 'Baby' which Baby? the movie is piece of satanic occultism, inversion of terms like reading the Black Mass at midnight in a goy cathedral, polanski's alchemical obsession from which he never deviated.

This video serves to differentiate between a neo nazi and a white nationalist in an effort to not lump all white groups together as CV has done time and time again.

Unsung Unheroes: CPD China, Perle, & Epstein/Wexner from Iraq Propaganda to Harassment of Victims --- 718 views --- Apr 21, 2020 --- The Antedote --- 4.5K subscribers
In this episode we continue our discussion about the Committee on the Present Danger China, and the war on terror and cold war era hawks that comprise its membership responsible for a large bulk of the current anti China propaganda. We then discuss Jeffrey Epstein and Leslie Wexner's roles in promoting Iraq war propaganda, particularly in framing Iraq as being in America's interests rather than Israel's. We wrap up by discussing Whitney Webb's recent interview with an early Epstein accuser, Maria Farmer, and Farmer's allegations that journalist Vicky Ward, who has been portrayed as exposing Epstein crimes, threatened Farmer while also giving information about her to Ghislaine Maxwell. We also discuss Farmer's similar allegation against author James Patterson, who wrote in his book about Epstein 'Filthy Rich' that Donald Trump kicked Epstein out of Mar A Lago.

jews are grandmasters of confusion and deceit, it is genetically hardwired as well as taught at the highest levels of expertise, just as surely as the goyim, especially the european whites, the knee-jerk christians are absolute retards on the subject, exemplars of mind boggling gullibility. the 2 groups are tailored to each other. when zebra herd is spooked, they initially run a confusing pattern whereby their stripes obscure the outlines of individuals and the chaser is unable to fix any target quickly enough to catch any. yet the herd never collides among themselves, the evasive stunt is pulled off smoothly—why? because they sense the magnetic field and by convention orient themselves northward as the common direction. i am talking about zebras, black stripes, white stripes, zionists, fascists, antisemites, termites.

Here's another thing. They used to pride themselves on convincing people using humour. Them ridiculing Trayboon, Mike Brown and every other BLM happening was funny and disarmed disapprobation around openly thinking about the truth of what we see with bleghs.

The jew tirades Mike with taking about Blackrock, Kushner and whatever else are way too serious and unfunny. Did they forgot their strategy to use humour?

People time in to get a laugh and feel happier, not perturbed.

That old TDS episode about them trolling NRO's comments section during the cuckservative debacle was probably my first foray into the whole JQ thing.
Them humorously reading out their posts about electric floors, roller coasters, being thrown over a fence, surviving 4 gassings, crawling out of incinerators, losing 6 grandparents etc were hilarious and have a great first impression for me regarding the topic.

The way Mike currently tirades about it sounds unhinged to new listeners.

N.B., EHRC is a deft, confusing permutation of ECHR, the human rights convention that the British satellite state wishes to discredit. This is effective propaganda for stupid people. By this means low-info populations can acquire reflexive animus against the very letters. Outrageous Zionist witch hunts kill two birds with one stone, because the sole existential threat to Zionism is the international human rights assemblage.

let me interpret the examiner's report for those unused to deeper mysteries of american ways: drug deal gone bad obviously, chauvin wanted his cut (both worked as bouncers in some mex joint). if somebody stole my fentanyl, they'd get neck compression too because a man cannot live by opioids alone. BLACK MATTER LIVES!

when my wife was dying of cancer, they gave her fentanyl which she refused, they told her that it had big street value, the only time i heard of it, otherwise i would have thought fentanyl is a heroic character from arthurian cycle. so then, 'I can't breathe' could be translated as 'wow, that fentanyl sure rocks' and chauvin could say that he was trying to shock his buddy's respiratory reflex back into action. a sordid tale from a sordid country, shared etymology with 'soros' a (sacred) vulture swooping in low attracted by reek of ripe decay.

Bari Weiss: The civil war inside The New York Times between the (mostly young) wokes the (mostly 40+) liberals is the same one raging inside other publications and companies across the country. The dynamic is always the same. 31.6K Jun 4 --- 12.2K people are talking about this Weiss ludicrously charged that those objecting to Cotton's article believe that the "right of people to feel emotionally and psychologically safe trumps what were previously considered core liberal values, like free speech." This is rich coming from someone who got her start as a campaigner to get Palestinian professors fired from her campus just because she didn't like them speaking accurately about Israel's history and abuses of Palestinians. Now this anti-Palestinian bigot and crusader against academic freedom and freedom of thought is preening as a defender of free speech, but primarily for far-right-wing speakers, including a senator who wants to unleash the might of the army on people protesting racialized police brutality. Weiss has used her perch at the NYT to write a puff piece about far-right demagogue Ben Shapiro without troubling to mention his history of anti-Palestinian and anti-Arab racism.

Pindo seeks to house missiles in the Pacific. Some vassals don't want them
David S Cloud, LA Times, Jun 10 2020

The governor of a Japanese territory where the Pentagon is thinking about basing missiles capable of threatening China has a message for the United States: Not on my island. Denny Tamaki, the governor of Okinawa, said in an email:

.....I firmly oppose the idea.....

(Tamaki was born in Okinawa to an Okinawan waitress and Pindo Marine Corps father who left Okinawa before Tamaki was born. Tamaki has never met his father. His mother remained single throughout his youth and destroyed most materials related to his father. Tamaki searched for his father, but was unsuccessful in locating him. Although Tamaki rarely discusses his background, he describes himself as embodying Okinawa's oppression & exploitation by Pindostan - RB).

From Occupation to 'Occupy': The Israelification of Pindo domestic security

Max Blumenthal, The Grayzone, Jun 10 2020
(Editor's note: The eruption of national protests against police brutality following the murder of George Floyd have shed new light on Israel's training of local police officers across the country. 100 members of the 800-strong Minneapolis police department were trained at a conference in Israel in 2012. That means at least one of every eight members the city's force has been influenced by the methods of an occupying apartheid entity. Max Blumenthal produced one of the first comprehensive surveys of Israeli training of Pindo local and federal law enforcement officials in the following article, published by Al Akhbar English in 2011.)

This is proof positive also that Arpege always lies, is pure agitprop: Red Kahina: I wish people would stop dancing on George Floyd's grave. The body is still hardly cold. His family will never be free from the horror of what happened to him . Why are these white people and cops just dancing and dancing everywhere celebrating their wokeness. pjm: UNBELIEVABLE she would single out 'white people', when it's so obvious that yes, there are way too many, but they are not the majority. She really is a sick, defeatist cunt. There is not anything anybody can do that will please her. Which is fine with me-- fucking dried-up prune-bitch.

Then this: Red Kahina: The protests are full of gentrifiers who were the front lines of eviction, mass displacement and walking pretexts for and often accessories to police violence . But now it's done. The windfalls are secured the neighborhoods conquered and cleansed and they don't want reminders
PjM: I don't know why she doesn't just drop dead at her own self-loathing. She doesn't know any of the above. Does she think they're using the smelly actual Negritude for 'props' for their 'gentrification'?

Israel doesn't want stories about Palestinians and the abuses of our rights to reach a worldwide audience. That's why it monitors what Palestinians say on Facebook.

Sada, an organization in the occupied West Bank city of Ramallah, has documented 550 cases of censorship against Palestinian who use social media websites so far this year.

dear marty, you may rejoyce in your insights but it's futile to attempt and hope for widespread sharing. here's why: your mind is an atavistic one, from a time its workings were free, easy and plenniful, a passtime hobby#, like the crosswords mags on the station stands in various formats, grades and caliburs put out monthly even now in Holland ('denksport').

However, many veils of pollutions and destitution of the conditions for those once obvious sublimatory insights obscured them. It's like T levels determining cultural inclinations. When they begin degrading in big jumps continuity between even a generation and it's next is lost .. ever since the now a century and a half old ascendancy of the industrially boosted pharmaffiya.

ice cube should thank jews for clarification of that mural because their screeching clearly identifies the guilty party. imagine that after decades of tireless propaganda, literally hundreds of movies moldering in the junk heap, stuffed forcibly down the throats of tens of millions of air passengers by way of educational entertainment, this most tenuous of links (is that a masonic pyramid in the back? i thought masons were goyim, albeit yes, subservient to rabbinical kabbalah) launches them into apoplexy of angst and insecurity, why aren't goyim thoroughly convinced that jews were always friends of the blacks, their compassionate defenders from the ruthless white predators. well, if convincing populace of some easily provable truth is beyond the competence of such shoah merchants (oops, "merchants"; another dog whistle, sorry) as spielberg and polanski, fire them and the script writers and give somebody else a shot, e.g., lobro, to tell the tale in a direct, honest manner;, which i promise i would and the boost to my restricted cashflow (i can't breathe) would be welcome too.

Terry Melanson
5.0 out of 5 stars Real Illuminati documents
Reviewed in the United States on November 21, 2005 Augustin Barruel's magnum opus first appeared in 1798. The original work, published in four volumes, comprised nearly 2000 pages. It has been translated into multiple languages and was an instant bestseller in English and French. The present reprint from Real-View-Books includes all four volumes of the original.

Barruel (1743-1820) was in the thick of the French Revolution as it came to pass--having to flee to England--and his account of the forces who directed those tumultuous events stems from firsthand experience. Assigning blame for the terror and anarchy, Barruel singled out the French Masonic Lodges, the philosophes, and the German Illuminati.

It is a unique study and invaluable for any serious investigator. If nothing else, the third and fourth sections are worth the price of the book: over 400 pages filled with lengthy extracts and exact quotations from the Illuminati conspirators themselves. Barruel consulted the Original Writings, published by the Bavarian Elector (c.
1786-88)--to warn the various governments of Europe about the impending revolution. After 200 hundred years this remains the most complete, and thorough account of the Illuminati in the English language. Unless you are well-versed in reading German and have access to a copy of the Original Writings--very expensive on the antiquarian market, very rare, and hard to find even in the world's greatest libraries--then you have but one choice: consult Barruel's Memoirs. It is as close to primary source material on the Illuminati as exists in the English language.

Memoirs Illustrating the History of Jacobinism (French: MÃ©moires pour servir Ã l'histoire du Jacobinisme) is a book by AbbÃ© Augustin Barruel, a French Jesuit priest. It was written and published in French in 1797-98, and translated into English in 1799.

In the book, Barruel claims that the French Revolution was the result of a deliberate conspiracy or plot to overthrow the throne, altar and aristocratic society in Europe. The plot was allegedly hatched by a coalition of philosophes, Freemasons. The conspirators created a system that was inherited by the Jacobins who operated it to its greatest potential. The Memoirs purports to expose the Revolution as the culmination of a long history of subversion. Barruel was not the first to make these charges but he was the first to present them in a fully developed historical context and his evidence was on a quite unprecedented scale.

The Zionist run concentration camps of 1948

21.5K subscribers - According to the holocaust memorial website, some of the worst atrocities in human history were committed there. Now isnt it ironic, that only a few short years after the alleged holocaust, post world war 2 Zionist Jews would imprison thousands of Palestinian civilians, including women and children, within 22 Zionist-run concentration and labour camps that existed from 1948 to 1955. Not only that, but many of them were systematically murdered and tortured. You would think something like this would never be allowed to happen by the UN, especially after world war 2, and you would be wrong.

Why a small town in Washington is printing its own currency during the pandemic --- In a bid to lessen the blow of COVID-19, the town of Tenino has started issuing its own wooden dollars that can only be spent at local businesses. Will it work? ----- Wayne Fournier was sitting in a town meeting when he had his big idea.

(00:37:16) Right. Was that. And just quickly that Trump was going to get in and and then he was going to usher in. Hold the door open and usher in this new GOP, this new nationalist group of young people that would take over the GOP. But instead of closing the door behind him is really the perfect metaphor. And yeah, I mean, beating on that door, looking the window of that door, trying to get in that door, crying for attention from those that have made it through the door is not going to get you anywhere.

We got several cartons of audio tapes in during the fall. One of the reels has part of a Taylor Grant commentary on WFLN Radio. Taylor was inducted into our Hall of Fame in 1993. Grant was a Vice-President of this organization for three years and a member of our board of directors for nearly a dozen years. While there was no date on the box or reel of tape, we suspect that the commentary dates from the late 1960's.

in the sixties there was in Toronto a Rathnelly Republic north of Dupont+davenport, a civilized forerunner but asserting political independence of Canada and no one bothered much with itâ€”i guess it died a natural death as the age ground it into oblivion and money-grubbing yuppies took the center stage. Also the Rochdale College, a breakaway from UoFT that for a while sold perfectly certified bachelor's degrees for maybe $25? because the main admin cut off their funding. It was the all-star place to buy pristine acid, "Sandoz pure" but various bike gangs infiltrated it, and started running it as business instead of hippie haven, violence started, clashes with cops and eventually the place was dismantled. my high school classmate's older brother was the property manager and always gave us good advice on our purchases. but i do suspect CHAZ and BLM more broadly to be invisibly connected to and manipulated by these forces fronted by Soros, despite many genuine participantsâ€”looking at the result as it ties in with COVID/lockdown/vaccination/contact tracing paradigm, it is almost blindingly obvious. Trump on the ropes, walking dead Biden ahead, the coast is clear for the final takeover.

Yasser Munif -- Yesterday, I wrote this post.
<http://angryarab.blogspot.com/2013/09/leftists-for-qatar-and-saudi-arabia.html>
A comrade had read this interview and saw that cited passage and was outraged and sent it to me, and I was also outraged to see the pro-Saudi/pro-Qatari armed militias in Syria being compared to Spanish revolutionaries. In my rush, I did not see that the interview was conducted by Yasser Munif. While I remain totally opposed to the sentiments of the interviewer in the interview in question, I would not have titled it "leftists for Qatar and Saudi Arabia" because it does not apply to Yasser Munif, of all people. His father, the famed novelist, `Abdul-Rahman Munif, was stripped of Saudi citizenship, and the family had to deal with ruthless Saudi punishment for the courage of the father. I also know that the family courageously refused all Saudi offers of reconciliation after the death of `Abdul-Rahman. Had

I known that the interviewer was Yasser, I would not have given it that title and I would have easily apologized to Yasser. Instead, Yasser chose to impulsively lash out on Facebook and wrote a silly response. -- Posted by As'ad AbuKhalil --

The Head of the Snake: Wexner, Maxwell's, Mossad & Mega Group Exposed - 107 views -- Jul 12 --- Joe W -- 2.3K subscribers -- via PVPURL /watch?v=dzDWA...

This is a condensed version of the three hour phone call between survivor Maria Farmer & investigative journalist Whitney Webb. I've included all of their discussion relating to Mossad, Mega Group, Les Wexner, and Israel. These are the key pieces of information that the mainstream media won't touch and is in fact complicit in keeping this decades long blackmail operation continuing. Jeffery Epstein was not the head of the snake, he was only mid management and was assigned by Israeli Intelligence to work for Ghislaine Maxwell in the 80's, who reported to billionaire Zionist Les Wexner. The operation continues without him.

If you aren't too familiar with the Jeff Epstein story and would like to understand more, the new (gatekeeping) Netflix docuseries 'Filthy Rich' is a decent start to catch you up with the information that the MSM is allowed to discuss. Unfortunately it's meant to control the narrative and gives voices to victim harassers like Alan Dershowitz, Vicki Ward, & James Patterson, along with making Wexner out to be a victim of Epstein which is both insulting and ridiculous. But it's a good way to get the basics of the story, and it's good that the story isn't fading from people's interests in light of all the distractions going on around us (COVID-19 & the American Intifada). Anyways, I hope those of you that understand the importance of exposing this international sex trafficking blackmail operation will help get Maria Farmer's story out by sharing or downloading & re-uploading this video to your social medias. She's been all over the mainstream media being the first victim to ever come forward to the FBI, however she says they cut out about 85% of what she has to say. Hopefully this will spark your interest to listen to the full unedited phone call between Farmer & Webb, because there's a lot I didn't include in this video. You can listen to it here:
Part 1: <https://youtu.be/MGtDj8drWvE>
Part 2: <https://youtu.be/kItJSpQeyCg>

mintpressnews.com/

Whitney Webb is working on writing a book that covers the intelligence aspects of the story. Keep an eye out for her book in late summer! She's amazing!

Please feel totally free to re-upload or share this video. I provided a download link because I want to encourage people to expose the criminal Zionist network. The more the REAL story gets out there, the more likely we can bring justice to the victims and put these gangsters away! Wexner, Maxwell, Barak, Netanyahu, Rothschild, Lauder, Bronfman, and Dershowitz are all villains who have been complicit in trafficking children around the world in order to blackmail the political elite to control them for Israel's agenda. They must be exposed!

what you say in the last few minutes applies to the type of money issue framing, once the basis of a 'close enough' || 'out of my way enough' balance, made untenable by the mechemsequences of impatience, ambition and other socialization involuntarizing izzums. Let us assume Assange had all the dirt in the world, got found out prepub and was offered a compromise, you can release this but not that. What would you choose?

â→Â» "White nationalists" are a boogeyman that doesn't exist, except for maybe Harold Covington. Why is that? Because even the most ardent white racialists are not willing to move or relocate to nearly-all-white areas and perform the hard work of proto-nation building and consolidation. They prefer more comfortable areas with preexisting healthy economies that are already multiracial. Since these areas will never become all white, and nearly all "white racialists" are unwilling to move, there is no white nationalism. White nationalism is a meme that doesn't exist in real life. He's mostly right here.

Wagner Says:

Land's argument runs as follows: Intelligence is the supreme deity, there is no God before Intelligence; the leftist jews at the levers of mytho-poesis are intelligent; therefore we should focus our energies on "the Cathedral". Well, in my book, leftists are by their very nature not intelligent, so it seems we need a new IQ test to judge whether an individual has excessive, biblically-induced pity neuroses or not before we stamp him OR HER as "smart". Verbal trickery was known two and a half millennia ago as "sophistry" and I think that is playing a massive hand in current political events. "Oily shysterism" it's sometimes called, or the general ability to distract from truth. I quoted Gadamer here once shamelessly saying Jews have this problem specifically. You think you can dabble in "â€R'evelation" that long without incurring negative irrational damages? This is white people's fault too, it's their constitution the Jews are treating as their New-Scripture. The difference is, there's a conspicuous amount of Jews putting spells on the white population, and if they went away,â€¡. I'm not sure there would be a Cathedral standing anymore

Dude, ethno-polities disappear without any Jews. Look at history. India used to be ruled by Whites. Indo-European Vedics. Even as late as the Buddha some of the nobles are described as bright-skinned and bright-eyed. The Buddha himself is, in the oldest Buddhist scripts (Pali). We had Whites in China (Tocharians)

Our groups have often gone loose with mating with browns & mongoloidsâ€”it doesn't need the Jews. They're just a symptom, the anti-racist Jew influence you are referring to, are a symptom of a recent (current) case. Not the cause.

You have e.g. the Kushan Empire disappear, The Maurya Empire, dozens of Aryan Italic tribes (conquered or assimilated with the Romans), so-called Celtic tribes (conquered & assimilated with the Romans). Hell, you know that the landmass of what became the Russian empire was ruled by Germanic tribes, that disappeared as well? Also, non-White polities have come and gone in their hundreds, thousands!

October 14th, 2017 at 6:42 pm -- Wagner Reply:
Yup, post-war white people suck. If all the leftwing jews pissed off to Israel we'd still suck, but we'd suck less. The nazis were idiots in one direction, now the shitlibs and jews are being idiots in the opposite direction. The jews â€” our rabbi-caste â€” are carrying out revenge on the white rabble for trying to screw up their prophecy that they're the chosen people meant to bring about One Love. They're not fit to be our rabbis, they still have residual spite for what happened only less than a century ago. They don't understand love, which is love-of-the-overman, their minds are clouded by hatred, which is love-of-the-last-man. Macrocosmically, the jews are our hysterical wife; we need to be the strong husband that puts her in her place. "Honey we're taking in this poor emaciated dog." "That's a fucking coyote! If it dies it dies, we have more important things to worry about you utter nut."

I don't really take him at his word with a lot of things though: on one hand he was a proto-hipster and sought to do the opposite for the opposite's sake; on the other he exaggerated the strength of the West's enemies in order to put it to death so as to more quickly kick off the next cycle.

Not to sound new-agey but this buzzing isn't heard ime but felt in the heart-chakra.
To paraphrase N from BGE, all we need to realize that we're not gods is to look down and realize we have torsos.
This alien buzzing is but one rung on the long ladder of the order of rank that will be surpassed.
Aliens on other planets have a Xeno-DMT they smoke that takes them to higher dimensions that we can't fathom the simulacrum of the simulacrum of the simulacrum of.

Eat all of them! I hate the taste too but once I'm peaking I always wish I'd eaten more. And for future reference buy some syrian rue or banisteriopsis caapi online and prep and eat that a half hour before the mushrooms â€” it DOUBLES their potency and enhances the trip qualitatively. Just adhere strictly to MAOI diet regulations. Both of these MAOIs taste awful but, again, worth it. You can grind and encapsulate the rue (speculated to be the soma of the Hindus) whereas you have to brew the caapi and drink the groace concoction.

Nihilism IS NOT NECESSARY
With all that's going on, I dragged this commentary from the backlog and into production. Essentially, I've seen a whole lot of people believing in this cringe, Gen-X idea that nihilism is some kind of a replacement for a personality, when it really isn't. Instead, it is a series of people gobbling blackpills until one day they wake up, and realize that they are clinically depressed and everything they've surrounded themselves with has made them that way.

did they take my first comment down or am i misremembering?

Sam Farnsworth: "Both things are surely present in the desire to create a golem: the desire to be closer to G^d and the desire to be G^d's equal ... " 10,5-10,10. There you have it. They condemned Christ for claiming to be the Son of the Almighty, or, as they put it "making himself equal to G*d."

Witchcraft enables hypocrisy and heresy. And you all cuck to the latter failing to point that out. Thank youtube for comments eh?
ps: what do the temple cornerstone, amrita, song of amergin, ovid's metamorphites and the way Julius Hensel explained the latter have in common? I've already answered it for you obviously.

nor do they manage to mention that a guilty conscience generates the desire for protection in the first place. Today on dutch radio a champion of urbanization called the feminization of cities, services displace products, a great booster and attractor .. so then why is the grandest glomocuckforce - of misfit displacee fall out from the production process - laying waste to their refuge, their Stockholm? Are they really only taking down excesses? is the decisive portion not the angry nihilist black blocker like the terrorist is for muslims, bankers are for jews, poisoners are for christians, etcetera? What about all the small business destruction we have evidence of? or is that all staged fake news by trumpistas?

btw, i changed my like to a dislike cause you censored my comment posted 2 weeks ago i'll try again: Re: 15th minute: yes, .. working clay/rock IS the answer and cure to, the 'core act' version, the 'inversive' version of all 'how do we ward off expulsion' type questions, dangers and challenges .. but in the same way the truth and essence somehow slips out of all cultures over time, no matter how vivid they try capture and imprint the meme cleanly and effectively, such as the vedics no longer understanding amrita as 'clay' (as in fresh rockdust), an understandable slip after giving in to the lure of duuh femmienization / personification, the jews are truly up shitcrack on this one as well.

"Who Profits from the Beirut Tragedy" (Escobar, below â€" RB). Attention to the details of the supposed conflagration leads away from â€"accident." Who gets to rebuild is a good test: if China rebuilds as part of the New Silk Road, a horror show for Khazars, as it would be a terminal to Europe for a communications-trade line from Iran through Iraq and Syria, reform will be working in Lebanon. If the IMF and the usual corrupt companies and banks are brought in, the same old corrupt group in Lebanon will have prevailed, and life will continue to deteriorate. Note the reference to Bibi's obscure tweet. If this is a reference to the virus, why does he specifically refer to Hezbollah? Escobar wonders if Bibi wasn't setting up a gloating tweet to celebrate the bombing of the port, but had to back off with the enormity of the destruction. Of course, it is the enormity of the destruction which would lead to the big profits for the corrupt, plus the complete economic destruction of the whole country. There is considerable discussion at Unz (copy of Escobar â€" RB) on the strange abandonment of the ship, and the theory that it was abandoned as part of a larger plan to get its contents into a warehouse in the port (see here).

from what i understand, the "test" is a joke, not FDA approved for the following reasons: it checks for a particular snippet of RNA and if matched, declares "test"; but not only has the virus never been fully sequenced, no one knows whether this RNA chunk is unique to covid or present in many unrelated environments, so what does this "test" tell you? nothing. of course, the Pharma likes it that way, all the false positives are good for business, pile on.

152 views -- Aug 16 -- Brendon O'Connell
8.58K subscribers ----- bitchute.com/video/JvgUn6...
UPDATE: Alex Jones is backpedaling away from the documentary and claiming Millie Weaver was not arrested for the documentary but a "family dispute". Jones, Sunday Show, 16 August 2020, 11 minutes in. Since when do you get a Grand Jury Indictment of a "family dispute"? Roger Stone rang him and was upset he was included in the documentary. Millie Weaver was stated by Alex Jones to be "bad mouthing" Trump in the infowars Tuesday 11th August.

Roger Stone is a "deep state" operator par excellence. He admitted in 2018 he played cards with arch neo-con Bill Kristol, first Sunday of every month. Jones is clearly backpedaling. Regardless, let it all reveal itself. I don't want to see Jones off air. I just want people to realize what and who he is and take what you need. Remember, Trump is the hero.

Infowars interviews Deep State social media manipulator Patrik Bergy of the documentary Shadow Gate. Infowars contractor Millie Weaver and her husband were arrested on Friday 14 August 2020. The doco Shadow Gate was -to be honest- fairly shallow, the interview between Patrick Berger and Alex Jones on Fridays Infowars was far more interesting. We go over it. He actually mentions Israel as a major player - something never said in the Shadow Gate documentary. The documenary itself was pulled off You Tube late Sunday afternoon for "hate speech".

Interesting points made in interview. You will learn...

*Roger Stone worked with one of the worst offenders of social media targeting. Also Paul Manafort.

*Alex Jones stated Millie Weaver was bad mouthing Donald Trump on Tuesday last week. Jones was not happy.

*Patrick Bergy and Millie Weaver and her husband kept away from Alex Jones on the issues. Patrick Bergy admits to Alex Jones he was not keen to approach him.

*No mention of the KING of private intelligence agencies - Stratfor. Alex Jones favorite people.

*Israel is Wikileaks via Wikistrat - glad I wasnt the only one who said it as did many of you. Patrick Bergy stated this in a March 2017 interview. I was deeply impressed and saddened I had not heard of him and his partner in crime before. They are on the money in many things.

*I show where I stated Israel released the DNC emails via Wikileaks, December 2016 from Iran.

*Cambridge Analytica is mentioned, but not Steve Bannon and Robert Mercer who used it to get trump elected.

*Patrick Bergy s a smar toperator and explains the "core truth"...The people in power will attack Trump and or defend Trump as it suits them and their agenda. He knows his stuff.

Lee and Schlain (1985) recount testimony that occurred at a Senate Subcommittee on Juvenile Delinquency in the spring of 1966. A southern Senator asked Arthur Kleps, found of the Neo-American Boo-Hoo Church: Would you mind telling me if you are really called Chief Boohoo?

im afraid so (Kleps replied). It is difficult for us to imagine what it is like to have been born in 1948, but it is very much like being born into an insane asylum.

It is now well documented that the events and popular movements that comprised the so-called counter-culture 'œinsanity' were deliberately contrived by American intelligence agencies working for the Tavistock Institute. In this context, I remind the reader of Tavistock objectives summarized at the beginning of this article:

"Dr. Fred Emery, senior "behavioral scientist" at Tavistock, outlined three phases of "social environmental turbulence" that are contrived and implemented against target populations by Tavistock's social engineers. These include:

a} superficiality, in which the threatened population adopts shallow sloganeering in place of ideals,
b} fragmentation and panic, in which 'œsocial cohesion' falls apart, c} passive maladaptation, in which victims take 'œfantasy trips of internal migration, introspection and obsession with self.' This last phase is referred to as disassociation and self-realization.

the roots are the congo river (R Wrangham: Demonic Male, bad title, the book goes much deeper) and the bloom is the monetization of suffering {chemtrails and fracking's real purpose), or rather the profitability of the savant exception to the effects of some coldly clever moves (not exempt at all but at least quite at ease and Stockholm with it) . i would rather follow vulcan's hot remixing leads and be a nonschizo globalizer, grounded with a grindchore. You won't catch me promoting GlomoskiZum while suppressing and shadowbanning rockspinners ...

What's this supposed to be code or AI gibberish?
What book?

guess i should have said 'this book' instead of 'the book' .. my bad

No man, I don't know what book your talking about something about Congo demons?

it's about completely different conditions on either side of that for monkeys uncrossable river source of the sociological rift between matriarchy and patriarchy ... unlike the placement in Saharasia (yeah, that's a good book title as well). TITLE: Demonic Males by Richard Wrangham ... you're just playing dumb for some stupid reason. (last line removed within half a minit)

How To Make A Documentary That Changes The World

Part 2 - Making A Documentary To Save The Constitution With Peter Duke at 3PM Eastern Today

helen buyniski may be a little bit nuts, but sheâ€™s a live wire, for sure -- Why do I say she may be a little bit nuts? Because of her web blog, 'Helen of desTroy' which on Aug 12 said:

Pandermonium, Engage!

If you can read this, congratulations! You caught my site on one of the few occasions it wasnâ€™t being knocked offline by busy little bitch beavers being buttered with bountiful bucks. For those who donâ€™t speak alliteration, thatâ€™s â€œIsrael is knocking my site offline on a daily basis, so clearly I am doing something right,â€ which in another dialect translates to â€œyour tax dollars are paying for this, sucker.â€ The gift never ends.

Even by RT.com standards, being knocked offline every day is surely proof you are doing something, but what? - RB Facebookâ€™s said to be working on an election-day â€œKILL SWITCHâ€ in the event of a Trump defeat. But what if itâ€™s the Dems who lose?

Kenosha: All Three Anarchist Rioters Shot Have Violent

Criminal Histories -- By TS on August 27, 2020 - (0)
A white guy shouting 'Shoot me, N*gga!'. -- He was shot.
And WTF is with all the pedophiles in the BLM and Antifa movements? Is it PLM?~TS ---- By Eric Striker | National File

A 17-year-old boy was charged with murder in the first degree after opening fire on three anarchist rioters in two separate incidents.

Rittenhouse traveled to Kenosha with his AR-15 in order to protect small business owners and citizens who were being victimized after being abandoned by their state government and police.

Footage obtained by anti-extremism watchdog AntifaWatch shows the first shooting. In the video, a masked man named Joseph D. Rosenbaum is shown chasing Rittenhouse and throwing what some have claimed may have been an improvised explosive, but this has not yet been confirmed. Rittenhouse then shot Rosenbaum in the head as he charged and tried to take his rifle, an injury the attacker later died of.

Earlier in the night, Rosenbaum, who is Jewish, was shown violently antagonizing the armed men, shouting 'Shoot me, Nigger!'

After Rosenbaum was shot, a mob of anarchists pursued Rittenhouse as he attempted to flee. The young man then fell to the ground as the 'antifa' members began attacking him. Rittenhouse opened fire against two of the attackers, one who was armed with a handgun.

One member of the gang, Anthony W. Huber, died after being shot in the chest. The armed assailant, Gaige Paul Grosskreutz, suffered a gruesome gunshot wound to the arm but survived.

The media has jumped into action to paint Rittenhouse as a white supremacist domestic terrorist and the anarchists who were shot as innocent "peaceful protesters." But the facts bring this narrative into question.

Joseph Don Rosenbaum
According to public records, Joseph "Jojo" Rosenbaum has a long history of violence.

Rosenbaum was convicted in Arizona in 2002 for committing an act of sexual misconduct with a child.

According to his entry in the sex offender registry, he was a level 3 offender, meaning he was at a high risk of reoffending and a general danger to his surroundings.

Arizona Department of Corrections records reveal that Rosenbaum spent 12 1/2 years in prison after being convicted of two counts of 3rd degree sexual misconduct against a minor and one count of interfering with a monitoring device. For sexual misconduct with a minor to reach the level of class 3 felony, the victim must be under the age of 15.

More telling is Rosenbaum's 42 separate disciplinary infractions while incarcerated, including numerous assaults, committing sex acts, manufacturing a weapon, and arson. He was then released in 2016.

According to records from the Wisconsin Circuit Court, Rosenbaum had pending charges for battery as domestic abuse filed just last month.

Anthony W. Huber
Anthony M. Huber, the second anarchist who died at the scene, is being promoted as a hero by for-profit "charity" business Go Fund Me. His girlfriend has raised almost $70,000 in his name.

Public records show that Huber was in fact a violent criminal with a history of abusing his loved ones.

In 2012, Huber pled guilty to false imprisonment with a dangerous weapon and strangulation as domestic abuse. He appears to have violated the terms of his probation in 2016 and was sentenced to two years in state prison, much of it settled with time served. Huber was arrested again in 2018 for battery.

The woman fundraising in his name, Hannah J Gittings, currently has a warrant out for her arrest for refusing a breathalyzer while driving drunk and driving with a revoked license.

Gaige Paul Grosskreutz, a pistol wielding anarchist who was shot in the arm while attacking the teenaged Rittenhouse, was charged with felony burglary and theft in 2013. He violated his probation just 4 months later. He has another arrest from 2017. It is unclear from public records if Grosskreutz was ever convicted of a felony. If so, his possession of a firearm is a serious offense that could net him 10 years in prison. According to a media puff piece, Grosskreutz was a professional activist with Milwaukee based "People's Revolution," a more extreme breakaway from the Black Lives Matter NGO. Virtually no mainstream media reporting on this incident has mentioned any of this information when reporting on Grosskreutz, Rosenbaum or Huber. The strong anti-social and violent streak exemplified by these individuals - who were active participants in a violent riot and clear instigators in the shootings - is common among the rank-and-file of "antifa." Journalists hired by elite media may side with them against a 17-year-old boy engaging in self-defense, but it remains to be seen if America will.

Episode 80: Eric Kaufmann, Whiteshift: Populism, Immigration, and the Future of White Majorities --- Chris Martin February 27, 2020 - Apple Podcasts | Android | RSS

Eric Kaufmann (@epkaufm) is my guest today. He's a professor of politics at Birkbeck College, University of London, and he was one of the first people to join Heterodox Academy. We'll be talking about his book Whiteshift: Populism, Immigration, and the Future of White Majorities. It's about how the cultural and ethnic transformation of English-speaking nations, especially the United States, that has threatened many citizens who have a white identity. He suggests a number of ways of dealing with this transformation including his preferred solution multivocalism, which he contrasts with multiculturalism.

conf QUOTE [Ruth Wisse]: In the summer of 1992 the New York Times devoted its entire op ed page to an article by Henry Lewis Gates entitled Black demagogues and pseudo scholars warning that while anti-Semitism in America was generally on the wane. This is 1992. It was on the rise among black Americans with blacks twice as likely as whites to hold anti-Semitic views. ---- /Q

... supposedly got completely reversed since then - RW is a most venomous sounding lady who comes on after Eric ... some kind of Haifa connected hag who gets interrupted briefly by pali rights activists and to counter it sings 'they shall be removed, like a log floating down the river' ... if that isn't blatant treehating jewishness in a nutshell kept afloat, i don't know what is.

the transcript is annoyingly turning commas into 'period, linebreak, capital for new sentence' and visa versa affairs, that's punishing the little old combattive lady too harshly i think

SHE GOES, AT ABOUT 1H23:

So by 1933 Hitler had taken over the government of Germany and other anti-Semitic parties were prominent and countries from France to Poland and Romania. But of course that was only half its success. A parallel form of anti-Semitism took hold in the socialist and communist camp that opposed religion nationalism and commerce and cast the Jews as the foul combination of all three. The Soviet Union condemned discrimination directed against Jews as individuals while outlawing Judaism, jJewish people hood and Zionism which is the right of Jews to their homeland. This ultimately proved the more threatening form of anti Jewish politics because whereas racial anti-Semitism explicitly excludes the Jews and leaves them no choice but to oppose it. The internationalist socialist form of anti-Semitism attracts many Jews under the banner of universalism secularism and repairing the world. So in 1929 Stalin welcomed the most Muslim Brotherhood's attacks on the Jews in Palestine as of the beginning of an Arab revolution and framed all the anti Zionist slogans against Jewish imperialism and colonialism that are used today. Hitler condemned Jews as both communists and capitalists Stalin condemned them as both nationalists and cosmopolitans. So you see here the amazing protean force of this simple political tool. ---- END QUOTE

she wouldn't mention Stalin was first to recognize izzieland out the kindness of her factfueled heart would she? Not over the undead body of her supremacy meme she wouldn't ... she reminds me of that fragile jew ruling sweden with her worldfamous 'get used to it' threat, but this one is a lot sharper and more dangerous.

at 1h34, after she finishes .. the protesters scand up again .. something like '..... cuckery to jewmemory mime, specially in palestine is a monstrous worldclass crime' (sorry if that's not a very faithful rendition ... i blame the audteccieurs who seem not to think i need any help for decades already) .. this comes soon after 'I'm so glad our protesters had to hear that' (moderator), after which the warning grace time turns into punishment ... so the little devil can come out with (1h40th). the syrians are killing each other, isn't that worse than jews killing palis? ... or some such rot paraphrased. She wouldn't acknowledge a palestinian olivetree if you plopped her on top of one ... if you can even any anymore

QUOTE: I don't think anyone's blaming people who are .. people who are just trying to live .. trying to make a living for themselves where Palestinians once tried to cultivate the land and now has nowadays land has turned into concrete which is constructed by Israeli government. i think not a lot of people really love their government. I have friends from Israel and take personally expressed interest in learning about what their government is doing and I think just to blame it entirely on the rest of the world. It's to say the least a very interesting statement. So my question would be how do you define how or how do you identify the anti-Semitism or you're just certainly not quite agreeing what a government is doing to a certain group of people who have lived on the same land even coexisted together for the longest time together and now one has just destroyed the other.

May I define anti-Semitism quite precisely as the organization of politics against the Jews. And that is my succinct definition of it. And you couldn't apply it and you can see and I what I tried to look at as is its functionality. And as for I don't know there was a sorry.

essential teachings of two historic figures, Helena Blavatsky, the founder of the Theosophical Society, who specialized in the teachings of the East (*particularly esoteric

Anthroposophy, who specialized in the teachings of the West (particularly esoteric Christianity). The two worked both together and apart to bring in the teachings of the das kapital. Judaism is not communism, it is capitalism, courtesy of the zionist oligarchs.

@Kurapika Giovanna thousands of years ago the bookkeeper caste got poisoned by an unfortunate mix used to make ink and it caused the deracination / autistification / globalization that gets ever worse iterations ever since ... my parents had to handle factory fresh plastic to lay between finely sliced breadmeats for instance. This caused judaism. it abstracts in itself valid laws. for instance turning rock into trees is, poetically speaking, squeezing time into space ... but once you split the dark of rock and/or nite from the colours of weather and/or day and go for analogs like good and bad, you lost that live lively and enlivening samudra manthan scene in exchange for the seat of a judge. tragic fail.

I want to help and be part of helping. I know again that its not a huge amount, but its my honest earnt savings through hard honest work and surely that should be enough to get bigger things rolling. I already can supply two large screen Apple computers and I am thinking if you have 20 - 30 thousand to get a decent studio up and running , we can produce far better presentations. As far as Roth Kushell goes, to be honest, I just don't want to work with him, I might be biased (but we all are IMHO). I don't like the look of him. He looks like a hippy freak and is not professional IMO . Image does matter when trying to reach "normies" & Roth comes cross as wicked out IMO.

Elbit arms company HQ stormed in a second bold direct action -- 486 views -- Aug 7 --- Real Media - 7.69K subscribers
A week after visiting Israeli arms company Elbit Systems, the new protest network Palestine Action carried out a second raid, storming their central London HQ and leaving a lot of painted messages for their staff and others in the shared building.

The action involved around half a dozen protesters, along with a passer-by who apparently saw it was Palestine-related and joined in! Several decorated the lobby while chanting and unfurling a huge "Shut Elbit Down" banner, while three ran up to the sixth floor and painted slogans outside Elbit's main office there.

The whole event lasted nearly ten minutes and then everyone left peacefully. It is not clear whether the security person called police, but it doesn't appear that they attended, and activists have not so far been questioned over the previous week's action.

The group believes that Elbit is worried that a court case would reveal complicity in war crimes, and it certainly seems there's something preventing the company from pursuing legal recourse. Real Media filmed an action last year at their Kent Intro Precision factory, where police watched activists paint-spraying doors and windows, but told them they would not be arrested.

Elbit make the majority of drones used by the Israeli military in Gaza, and an Amnesty report found that during the 2014 attack on Gaza, failure to protect civilians constituted war crimes.

The Palestine Action network have vowed to keep disrupting Elbit in escalating actions to drive them out of the UK.

Unfortunately replacing the Jewish People with a simple symbol in the form of one martyred murdered Jew leaves no room for the entity represented by the symbol. That's an old story and a familiar one. Christianity is a dialect of Judaism.

Connie Bevan: Welcome from The George Webb Transcripts.
All the paperclips that were brought over to the US from WWI and WWII, and all the wars and paperclips pursuant to that, were brought over to advance the 4th Reich (for want of a better name) for the establishment of a one-world government where we would all be slaves to the globalist empire. The paperclips co-opted the US and the CIA/OSS and other institutions like the UN/NATO, for precisely that objective, and they've been doing it ever since. People talk mostly about Hitler's Nazis when they speak of the paperclips, conveniently forgetting about the Ustashi (Muslims and Catholic Croats) in the Nazi puppet state of Croatia who wanted to make Croatia a pure Catholic state.
Remember Tito was from Croatia and after WWII he gave the Krajina, a Serbian Orthodox Christian State for centuries, to Croatia, then after WWII the Serbs, who were butchered in Jasenovac and 8 other camps and pits in Croatia, along with Jews and Roma, were forced to incorporate Croatia into Yugoslavia, even though they knew it would create problems for them down the road, which, of course, it did.

Then, under Clinton/Albright with the gang of their choice, the Albanian KLA in Kosovo (which had been brought into Kosovo over a 10-year period to change the demographics in Kosovo from majority Orthodox Christian Serb to majority Albanian), and after the Mujahedeen had swept through the Serb part of Croatia, the Krajina, and entered into Bosnia, slaughtering whole villages of Serbs, and the subsequent 78-day bombing of Serbia in 1999, the destruction of Yugoslavia and the Serbian people was almost complete. Then, of course, the US rushed to approve the Independence of Kosovo, one of two provinces of Serbia and the seat of Serbian Orthodox Christianity, which they did in 2008, to build Bondsteel on Serbian land and plunder the Trepca Mines there. This was a 10-year CIA plan to cause a civil war in Yugoslavia to dismember it, republic by republic, with the help of the KLA and the Mujahedeen, the Albanian KLA in Kosovo and the Mujahedeen in Bosnia. So, all the paperclips, from all the wars starting with WWI and WWII to now have been brought over to the US to advance the 4th Reich and their one-world government agenda. The US and MIC have become the 4th Reich having been co-opted by all the paperclips brought into the US. If you don't think they were preparing for the exit in both World Wars then you would be mistaken. They do nothing without preparing well in advance. Trotsky, Hitler, Stalin, Freud, and Ferdinand (probably all Jesuits), all lived within a few miles of each other in Vienna, and that's probably where they planned it all in the coffee shops there, including the creation of National Socialism and Communism which are more or less the same thing, the former being on a National level and the latter being on a global level.

indeed, just about all true. Just about (see below). need i ask just who are these mysterious 'liberals', what self-organizing principle binds them into such a coherent group and what if any dividing line separates them from slightly less mysterious imperialists. hint of confusion: 'Liberals hate leftists because they've been trained by the mass media' so where does the mass media land when the cookie crumbles, to presume to train the liberals - are they not liberals themselves? Caitlin is great but zeno's paradox seems to bar her from definitively arriving at the truth, halving the remaining distance forever, never quite getting there.

Yeah, I see what you mean: she doesn't want to say that the liberals are programmed directly by the BANKERS, who are using quantitative analysis to determine maximum profits; usuallly this means maximum turnover via maximum commercial activity, of all sorts, indiscriminately.

Jack O'Halloran: Family Legacy -- 458 views -- Sep 27 - Ed Opperman -- 15.1K subscribers ---- Jack Pagano has always felt he is different. Smart and physically talented, the normal pursuits of youth -- women and sports -- have always come a little too easy to him and left him unfulfilled. At age seventeen, Jack is eager to leave high school and begin his college career. But the schooling that lies ahead of him is of a far different variety than he could have ever imagined. Albert Anastasia, the notorious leader of Murder, Inc., appears and claims Pagano as his son. But before Jack can make heads or tails of his new-found father, Anastasia is gunned down at the Park Sheraton Hotel. Under the tutelage of his late father's associates, Meyer Lansky and Frank Costello, Jack enters a world where crime and politics, money and murder, and the American way of life are all but a hand's breadth apart and inextricably linked.

Jack O'Halloran: Family Legacy ---- Actor, Boxer, author ... At the same time, another father is grooming his son to further his plans: Joseph Kennedy, the patriarch of what will become American's ruling dynasty, has set his sights on the White House -- and with the help of some old friends in Chicago, his son, also Jack, will rise to power.

Subject: Dont listen to the antisemitism below
Twaine claims to be a student, yet everything they wrote is misinformation.
And their definition of Freemasonry as a "Jewish supremacist cult" proves this. Freemasons are secular and most Jewish people are not masons.
"most of what we've been fed about the 'evil Nazis' has been inverted and is total garbage." Complete nonsense. And as far as what Patton said on his death bed? "This is a hell of a way to die."

Reviewer: twaine - November 2, 2018
Subject: Highly accurate depiction of Freemasonic corruption -- As a student of Freemasonry it's the single best film exposing this 'communist', aka satanic, aka Jewish supremacist cult. Most Gentile Masons are totally unaware that "the craft" also refers to witch craft; this is not speculation and they're the juju behind every 'revolution' that I've studied.

For decent Masons, and I know more than one, to understand the other 'craft' they must understand their ritual number lingo, and a bit of Eastern philosophy; at least the human energetic piece which allows one to understand how magic and sorcery are powered. They actually put this in our face in "Monsters Inc."!
If you're aware of TinyURL and use the label DragonsPawPrereqs you can find the key to their kingdom and most of what we've been fed about the "evil Nazis" has been inverted and is total garbage.
As Patton said before he was killed in the hospital, "We fought the wrong enemy"; the true enemy was and still is "communism", aka Jewish supremacism.

Subject: Collaborationist propaganda
This movie has been procured in France during german occupation. It was wanted by the government of the betrayer Pétain who was obsessed by freemasonry. It was not successfull so in the same show was another movie with the comic star Fernandel. It's an interesting document about this historical period.

Reviewer: donsiye -- June 20, 2015

Subject: Seen better Propaganda films

If anyone thinks that the war was started in the way they portrayed is naïve. The Treaty of Versailles tried to destroy Germany, but it only helped to create Hitler and another world war. Everyone knows that wars are good for business, and especially the money lenders. The funniest part of the film was all the favors they asked of Avenel.

Reviewer: Leighdf -- May 26, 2015

Subject: Presents a Bizarro World version of Freemasonry
It's not what I'd call "stunningly accurate", but I'm sure it served the purposes of the Nazi propaganda ministry that commissioned it. I think some reviewers may miss the point... it's not INTENDED to be an accurate expose of Freemasonry. Nor is it a film "about occult Nazis". This is pro-Nazi propaganda which is purely anti-Masonic. As such it paints masons as secretive, conniving, and manipulative warmongers. It is no coincidence that Avenel's first conversation after initiation is with a Jew. The purpose of this film is to foment distrust of a group of people whose philosophy is at odds with that of the Nationalsozialistische Deutsche Arbeiterpartei.

Definitely worth watching to see the Nazis' mindset. While viewing, remember... this is a Nazi portrayal of their enemies.

The subtitles could have been done better, but they were serviceable. The English-speaking viewer should plan to rely on pause, rewind, and freeze-frame now and again. You'll be glad of it, as the captions do much more than simply translate. They also impart important historical information that would otherwise be lost on a modern viewer.

Reviewer: carer2 -- May 1, 2014

It should be pointed out that this film is French language with English sub-titles which I could not read very well as they do not stay on the screen long enough. Pity, because it looked interesting.

Reviewer: Amish 01 - favorite - December 5, 2012

Subject: Propaganda 101

The claim of the film about a 'judeo-masonic' is just disinfo straight from the Protocols where the Freemason's world revolution is then spun to be a Jewish conspiracy, whether the Freemasons or the Pope is correctly identified as part of the revolution it is said they are all 'jewish'. Texe Marrs and many others continue to do this today. The Freemasons are Knights Templar & Jesuit priest founded. That is who wrote the degrees and who the top level answers to, unknown to the lower levels.

During ww2 Germany and in the USSR also, Freemasonry was simply folded into the political dictatorships. All lodges not part of this were dissolved and members who would not go along arrested along with others. The Nazi Party was founded by the Teutonic Knights - German Templars - at their Thule Society, by a Freemason! Skull n Bones like other Greek letter college fraternities was founded by Freemasons. A better film about the occult Nazis would be: Nazis: The Occult Conspiracy

Reviewer: bmoviehost -- February 19, 2012

Subject: Who wrote this summary?

Whoever he is, he's dangerously ignorant. Skull and Bones has absolutely NO affiliation with Freemasonry. These conspiracy theory fools are always ignorant and always sensationalistic. If you think the Masons run the world, you should see them try to organize a picnic!

Tran Nguyen: The difference was is that Hitler lived his people. Germany's soldiers could have surrendered anytime but they didn't. They didn't because they were ready to die with Hitler and not for him. That's according to a documentary I saw once on some former SS soldiers. Wouldn't that be some shit if Hitler went to Argentina? I digress, sorry. Whereas Stalin didn't care about his people and ruled them through fear and told them if they take one step back when at war that the N.K.V.D. would shoot then. I know they say Hitler didn't care either. You have to decide but the winner always tells the story and all that is true for sure are the things that have hundreds of witnesses. Doesn't really matter though. GOD'S ways to me is the only right way. Man's way could never work because he always wants to tell man how to live, God doesn't, only man and religion does. Thanks for reply. I think I asked you before about your father's "Hollywood celebrity friends" and you have listed some of them., i.e., Man-Ray etc. Have you ever seen any connection to Gene Autry? I probably asked you about this before. It's just a strong suspicion I have, due to his close connection to Monte Hale, who seriously molested my younger sister's in around 1964 and the statements made on the internet by Janice Knowlton. about Autry being a pedophile ring kingpin. before her eventual suicide. I cannot escape wondering about this coincidence. Apparently at one time she had said your father was the Black Dahlia killer I use to see Monte Hale all the time as he was an everyday customer are out father restaurant next to Republic Studios (CBS). And the Hales were at the top of the Autry Museum.

I tend to think your father was part of a network of fiends.

I don't believe that he was part of any "pedophile ring" all indications are that he and Fred Sexton committed many of these horrific serial crimes perhaps some together? Most I believe GHH acted alone and by himself, others with Sexton. But, "an organized ring" don't see it.

His account of how title 7 lawsuits were being unfairly yet successfully launched by the diversity industry against every large employer in the US, explains what I've been witnessing over the last 10 years. It's clear HR departments across the country are under heavy pressure to not hire white men at all costs. Another reason I believe we're undergoing the south Africa model of societal subversion. That's astonishing. I don't think that swiss bank shakedown claimed half that number twenty years ago.
Quote Tweet - AP Europe - Germany has agreed to provide around $662 million to aid Holocaust survivors struggling under the burdens of the coronavirus pandemic. The payments will be going to approximately 240,000 survivors around the world. <http://apne.ws/TTG4Pmz>
These belated swindles don't benefit survivors of Nazi crimes. Post war reparations paid verified slave laborers, camp survivors about $10k a year , like military pensions. Most died young. lawyers and sponsoring institutions for the bulk of the later scams. The Swiss bank stuff was especially outrageous as it was supposed to be recovered lost property yet was not heritable, there wasn't any really

-- people with Swiss bank accounts basically didn't get gassed or enslaved, that want the demographic -- Bronfman hugely exaggerated the number of living Nazi victims (I think he said about 100k then, a huge exaggeration) but then couldn't find that many to actually distribute the booty to. Lawyers and sponsoring institutions got it. My friend whose mother was a verifiably tattooed and tortured slave in Nazi camps told her her mom said one of the lead lawyers was the son of a notorious camp collabo who then became a swindler influence peddler in the DP camps selling everything including visas to the desired countries.

Hormone experiments, steroid, XTC and cocaine

We explore Kissinger as a high level Communist and his involvement in the assassination of Jack Kennedy and his current presence in the White House.

We note Steve Bannon going after Kissinger in April 2020, 10 weeks later Kissinger is in the White House and two weeks later Bannon was indicted.
What gives?

We go into the King of the Cherry Marines - high level closet homosexuals and communists within the US armed forces - General Al Gray. We note that Robert David Steele ghost wrote books for General Al Gray and explore Steele's former high level positions within the Marine Corp and NATO psychological warfare operations. Perhaps this explains his willingness to poison important subjects like child sex trafficking with tales of children being kidnapped and taken to Mars as sex slaves?

Wilton

In 1921 Wilton put forward the following figures, which have been widely cited by neo-nazis. I quote from a widely circulated neo-nazi article "The Jewish Role in the Bolshevik Revolution and Russia's Early Soviet Regime":

The 62 members of the [Central] Committee were composed of five Russians and 41 Jews. The Extraordinary Commission [Cheka or Vecheka] of Moscow was composed of 36 members; two Russians, eight Latvians, and 23 Jews.
Wilton claims the government was 12 people, 9 of whom were jews. In reality the government was 15 people and included 4 jews.

There can be no escape from the death wish of capitalism without recognising that death wish, and then demanding and working for wholesale change. Externalities may sound like innocuous jargon, but they and the economic system that requires them are killing us, our children and the planet. The nightmare can end, but only if we wake up.

<https://doi.org/10.1016/j.jesp.2020.104031> As ordinary citizens increasingly moderate online forums, blogs, and their own social media feeds, a new type of censoring has emerged wherein people selectively remove opposing political viewpoints from online contexts. In three studies of behavior on putative online forums, supporters of a political cause (e.g., abortion or gun rights) preferentially censored comments that opposed their cause. The tendency to selectively censor cause-incongruent online content was amplified among people whose cause-related beliefs were deeply rooted in or "fused with" their identities. Moreover, six additional identity-related measures also amplified the selective censoring effect. Finally, selective censoring emerged even when opposing comments were inoffensive and courteous. We suggest that because online censorship enacted by moderators can skew online content consumed by millions of users, it can systematically disrupt democratic dialogue and subvert social harmony.

A question for experts on rigging US elections
Colonel Cassad, Nov 4 2020

lobro November 5: somebody explain this to me under assumption that trump is fully owned and controlled by jews .. why was this patently obvious travesty needed in any script written by even a semi-literate 3rd grader. all this time i heard on everyday basis how trump is the most zionist, jew-friendly president ever .. so who torpedoed his re-election, surely not jews, huh? who? or could it be .. could it â€ˆ mind reeling â€ˆ that he was NOT all that zionist, jew-friendly, kowtowing to their wishes.

niqnaq - November 5: there's plenty of dirty work at the crossroads. The influx of 138,339 Biden votes cited in some tweets were the result of a data error, according to a spokesperson for Decision Desk HQ, an election data and analysis service. "It was a simple error from a file created by the state that we ingested," the company said in a statement. "DDHQ does not correct/amend/adjust any state provided file. The state noticed the error and produced an updated count. This happens on election nights and we expect other vote tabulators in MI experienced this error and corrected in real-time as we did."

lobro November 5: ok, "simple error" as common as calling heads and getting tails on a coin toss. in all the polls, they establish the 95% margin of error falling symmetrically at both ends. but it just happens to favor biden, and then there are the count-by-night massive influxes also favoring biden in PA, WI, etc., to bring them in line with halacha demands, not to mention calling the AZ done with over 1/2 million votes to count .. time after time after time. when does the shekel fairness come into question? without "violating community ... guidelines" my takeaway: however bad trump may have been ("the most zionist, jew-friendly potus ever"), it was not enough, not nearly - they are in a tearing hurry.

not satisfied with mere entry in the guinness book, as the man said: "Zionism, in a tearing hurry for world supremacy, will be harsh on us".

michelle flournoy is Biden's endless war pentagon djinnie will she break the glass ceiling to next descent by satanism? quick, .. somebody brief her on my flour memes.

Medea Benjamin: Flournoy's career has been marked by the unethical spinning of revolving doors between the Pentagon, consulting firms helping businesses procure Pentagon contracts, and military-industrial think tanks like the Center for a New American Security (CNAS), which she co-founded in 2007

Flournoy also neglects to mention that Trump has already increased the number of US troops in East Asia by over 23k since 2016. So, just as she did in 2004, 2008 and 2016, Flournoy is simply repackaging neoconservative and Republican policies to sell to the Democrats, to ensure that a new Democratic president keeps the US wedded to war, militarism and endless profits for the military-industrial complex.

Slate: When journalists arrived at the site of the news conference, they were flabbergasted by the scene and many quickly speculated that someone in the Trump campaign made a serious mistake. After all, the parking lot of a landscaping business in the outskirts of the city in an industrial part of town was a drab backdrop for a news conference by a president who wanted to convince Americans he still had a chance of winning. And making matters even stranger, the landscaping business was between an adult bookstore and a cremation center. The location led to lots of mockery online, and many people were very happy with the scene that was ripe for mockery, and some saw as a poignant metaphor of the failure of the Trump campaign.

Vote Biden, for a Competent Imperialismâ„, ċi,?.
<https://t.co/kLK5DkjESi> -- Caitlin Johnstone - (@caitoz) October 19, 2020

It's odd, you know. US political leaders are so revered by the media and so normalized on our screens that it's easy to forget how many children they've killed. You see the doddering old man eating ice cream enough times and it becomes difficult to marry him in your mind with the butcher who played a crucial leading role in advancing the Iraq invasion which killed a million people and ushered in an unprecedented new age of military expansionism. But the important thing is that he won't be making rude tweets and bungling coup attempts in the Global South. He will be a Competent Grown-Up, like the daddy we always wanted. He will pilot the insatiable death machine with grace and decency, right into the homes of the world's most vulnerable.

Paul: Given all the Jewish media assets normalising this fraud, I'd say that Biden (or Harris) has promised Israel something big in return for Jewish (including the BLM fraud) support. I'll bet we have some false flag to bed in a Biden Presidency and shift Trump off the stage.

Paul answering Lobro: I think that may have been the case lobro. He gave them what they appeared to want, while not quite giving them what they really wanted. They hate him because in the end they don't own him. He can be as supportive of Israel and its bullsh*t as he likes, but they still aren't in charge of him, hence he had to go. Had they been unable to do this, or if it all comes apart and he was declared winner, then I suspect they would go straight to assassination, as that would be all they have left.

Why Trump Shouldn't Concede

Like the Potemkin villages quickly erected to hide the squalor in which Russian peasants lived during the reign of Catherine the Great, a façade of legitimacy is under construction by the Fourth Estate to cover up the widespread voting irregularities and outright fraud that gave us "President-Elect Biden."
David Catron

How a Biden-Harris Administration Would Unravel Middle East Peace --- Stormy weather might be on the Middle East's horizon. Following the U.S. presidential election, Iran offered a mafia-style protection deal to countries that have normalized relations with Israel: they must abandon Israel and align with Iran, or face the consequences. A Biden-Harris administration would likely undermine much of the progress towards Middle East peace that the Trump administration has made. Former Vice President Joe Biden and Sen. Kamala Harris (D-Calif.) have several policy positions that would jeopardize the progress towards Middle East peace brokered by the Trump administration.

Steve Postal

But It's Not Over Yet

Not only has Nancy Pelosi crowned Joe Biden "president-elect," but so has Fox News. (The other "news" outlets had been crowning him for weeks.) The other night several Fox News reporters started using that term. But of course the election is not over. Rather, it is in litigation. Time has stopped. That is how the law works. Or, in the tritest of Yogi Berra's memes, it ain't over till it's over. --- Dov Fischer

Bach - Cello Suite No. 6 in D major BWV 1012 - Malov | Netherlands Bach Society - 927K views -- Oct 30, 2018 --Netherlands Bach Society - 204K subscribers - Cello Suite no. 6 in D major, performed by Sergey Malov for All of Bach, is exceptional in all respects. In this last suite, which is also the longest, Bach makes the instrument ascend to heaven. He does so by using an extra fifth string - 'à cinq cordes', as Anna Magdalena Bach described it in the manuscript. The fifth string lies a fifth above the A string, which is usually the highest. You might even argue that Bach allows the cellist to transcend their own instrument.

Recorded for the project All of Bach on November 4th 2016 at the Gashouder of the Westergasfabriek, Amsterdam.

September 19, 2020 at 11:11 am --- lobro: Al, I hate Jews (not anti-semite by any means, in fact like proper semites) for what they do to Palestinians while crying and through cascades of tears demanding reparations from the world .. I know full well that this and worse is what they have in store for the rest of us as soon as "Israel is Mighty" (Yossi Gurvitz video). So yes, I hate them and no one can stop me or deny that vent to me. And yes, I know how repulsive Trump's pronouncements must be to you, especially with that reptilian turd of son-in-law looking over his shoulder .. but understand that he is momentarily completely powerless to do anything that would change the course of affairs without jeopardizing the conduct of the broad campaign (I also know that I am in a tiny minority who think they see a broad campaign, everyone else thinks us demented, delusional or worse, Judaic assets). But despite its improbability, this "broad campaign" concept is the only scenario that survives the test of logic however strained the assumptions are, it has NOT YET led to a blind alley like all the rest.

Consider this news just come out:

Trump 'Approved' Assange Pardon In Exchange For Source Of DNC Leaks: Court Testimony -- A new bombshell came out of the seventh day of WikiLeaks founder Julian Assange's extradition hearing in London: President Trump was "aware of and had approved of" a controversial plan that would offer Assange full pardon in exchange for revealing the source of the famous DNC leaks, according to his legal team on Friday.

Explain this through any other hypothesis ("Trump a Chabad-slave").

And this fully explains why the shamefully corrupt London court is doing everything possible to torment him to death or at least a catastrophic breakdown ("when the raft broke and the waters went over me") .. London being Rothschild shithouse after all, the master of all he surveys .. his gratitude to globe-devouring Cromwellians repaid. Until now, even this travesty was mostly blamed on Trump .. how the truth is at variance with appearances! Remember always: we live inside Lucifer's matrix, it ain't what you at first see and think.

al September 19, 2020 at 7:35 pm LOBRO Thank you sir for your support . If anything the Jew is good for , it's extracting money .The reasons are diverse , but the end is one . The ac/dc / transgender /hairless mannequin Jared Kushner is a good example. He took $100 million from MBS of Saudi Arabia ,and more millions from MBZ of the UAE. We know how close Israel, SA and the UAE are, like three asses in one underwear as we say in Palestine. The normalization announcement between Saudi Arabia And UAE with Israel did not surprise us. We knew they were doing it in secret for a long time, like a secretly fornicating couple who finally decided to get married to make their relationship legit. The next thing the Jews will do, I predict, is to ask SA for reparations because prophet Muhammad (pbuh) kicked them out of Medina where they tried to kill him and conspired with the enemies against the Muslims in the most difficult times. And ofcourse they will get the money . In a nut shell, a normalization between the Jews and Arabs is a one way street. The Arabs will invest their money in Israel while Israel invests NOTHING. Consider Jordan as an example of normalization. Since the inception of the 1994 peace treaty, the Jewish tourists would take the bus to Jordan and they bring their foods and drinks for a one day trip, sleep in the bus, shit all over the place and spend no money at all. This prompted the minister of tourism of Jordan to impose a fee on every tourist visiting Jordan because they did not benefit at all from the visitors. Of course the Jews objected to that and never paid a fee. The river cannot change its course, nor can the leopard remove its spots.

Harold, no one is disputing that Trump got 71 million votes, including the sleaziest of media, CNN, CNBC, MSNBC, BBC, CBC, ABC, NBC, you name it. Show me any candidate in history of American elections who got anywhere near that number. Only Biden, whose campaign speeches couldn't fill a phone booth got ð?"œð?"žð?"ið?" (miracles will never cease). Enough discussion .. pointless to continue.

And now, even at this site, it seems like the majority of commentators are acknowledging the INESCAPABLE conclusion that Biden-Talmud campaign cheated on astronomical scale, yet the shabbo world is perfectly willing or eager to accept it as LEGITIMATE CHEAT, because they hate Trump that much, sort of like Madeline Albright acknowledging that Iraq sanctions on importation of medical supplies killed 500,000 Iraqi children but

IT WAS WORTH IT as was then, so now.

"Unfortunately", many of the same who objected to murder of 500,000 Iraqi children object to murder of American electoral process, do not think it was worth it, no matter how much they may have disliked Saddam, Trump or Gaddafi .. they like the sound of Hillary's eerie cackling even less. Matter of personal taste, Harold, since morals are such an outdated notion .. downright embarrassing these days of Woke (rhymes with Yoke, no joke).

And Circ, I guess you know about Benford's law of leading digits in innumerable and crazily varied population domains (biological, astrophysical, accounting, geographical, political), right? See if you can explain to them what it means that Biden's ballots violated this law to such a degree that the odds of them being true are less than 1 in 52 million .. I am at the end of my patience tether after so many years of trying, why bother, in hope of thunderous acclaim? LOL. Bah humbug.

how strange that after 4 years in power during which he was subject of hostile tirades, avalanche of ridicule, contempt and loathing yet as soon as almost universally recognized as the election loser, sudden outpouring of hope in resurrection, "chin up, old bud it ain't over 'til it's over".

Why is that .. 2 things i suspect:

--traditional sympathy for the underdog,
--sudden realization that yes, Jew truly hated him, harbored absolutely epic, previously unheard of hate and the natural question why, especially when he so pathetically bent over backward to seemingly please them with ridiculously empty gestures (embassy move, raining angry missiles on deserted badlands and landfills, publicly admitting that what Jews grabbed in violent robbery 47 years ago is in their de-facto if not de jure possession), like peddling cheap beads to naive injuns but Jews ARE NOT naive injuns, hence hate so pristine, unalloyed with human sense,
- (make it three points) that the incoming assembly of ghouls, demons and ogres are the TRUE Jew's army and what drags behind in their train is WORLDWIDE collapse of recognizable humanity, about to be shackled in numerous ways (permanent covid-and-worse waves of weaponized diseases, ever more severe "social distancing" [previously termed "existential alienation"], hyper-strict lockdowns [saves on having to build and maintain jails], all future generations completely deprived of natural socializing, a form of blindness but worse, food-induced obedience training, sit on hindquarters, paws up in begging pose, education parody, minds atrophied to chunks of useless meat like foot callouses due to misuse and sloth).

Those still somnolently awake will realize that the endless whining about "Palestine, Palestine" was Jew's cunning cats paw, artificially slow cooked to distract from the real horror worldwide,

- (make it four) that what we are bearing witness to is an actual cosmic psychodrama involving supernatural entities and humanity is the football kicked back and forth across the mythical playing field.

Top Haaretz headline today: Wisconsin's Small Jewish Community Could Be Just Enough to Send Biden to the White House.

In ongoing adjustments to my navigational bearings, Jew sentiment is my trusted compass, if they want something, I want the opposite .. if they hate or fear something, that is what I strive towards.

It puzzles me to no end that most of the others completely disregard this simple dictum and are as likely to set sail parallel to Jew as not. Sure, I am as revolted by Trump's self-abasement before Jew and Israel in particular, almost comical like those monster-clowns in the movies that terrorize communities with chain saws. But in overacting I see a possible method in the madness, let me seek an analogy or two.

First, he usually thumps his chest like a gorilla, claiming diabolical credit .. AFTER some outrage perpetrated by either Jew or insurrectionist factions within his own administration or army, i.e., events and actions beyond his control, however he must at ALL times seem as if in full control even when floundering in helpless confusion .. the minute he admits weakness is like running away from a pack of wild dogs .. they will pounce in triumph and he is done. Case in point, assassination of Soleimani .. brief timeline: instantly upon the outrage, he claims sole credit while Netanyahu denies any involvement .. 2 days later, it turns out that ONLY Netanyahu and Pompeo had advance knowledge and kept it very tight precisely in order to prevent Trump from warning Russians (like the Rus precision strike on ISIS Politburo meeting whose location was divulged to Trump by Israelis, they never forgot or forgave that betrayal) who would then pass it on as usually to Iranians.

This should be an elementary rule to perceive.

Second, in order to play tough and keep neocons at bay, which is practically ALL of the media, academe, think tank networks and politicians with sale tags sticking out of them, he will talk wildly and then pull off some utterly empty noise or ineffectual gesture, such as rolling a bunch of missiles overboard off Syrian coast. This TOO, should be elementary to perceive.

But maybe it is like spotting strings that jerk puppets around the stage in a theater, maybe one ought to sit closer to the front row - I cannot speak for others, only wonder.

Gilbert, you know Pat personally - what news of him, can you phone his house and inquire? Thanks.

Don't look for this on mass media; Mixed Reactions as Trump Slams Pentagon Chiefs For Reluctance to Pull Out of 'Endless Wars'
<https://sputniknews.com/us/202009081080395003-mixed-reactions-as-trump-slams-pentagon-chiefs-for-reluctance-to-pull-out-of-endless-wars/>
Of course he will be blamed by one faction for violence and false flags caused by his Deep State enemies on one hand, and by the opposing faction for the wars he refused to start on the other hand, thereby jeopardizing Judeo-national security (sort of like inciting second holocaust by doubting the existence of the first) .. and to make it worse, the first faction will claim that when he opposes violence he is only playing a game directed by the Mighty-30 ruling families, so yes, opposing violence equals inciting violence.

I no longer bother asserting that Trump is a pacifist because as per above mechanism, that would be condemned by Popper as unfalsifiable - or Catch-22 in common parlance.

Such are the times we live in that every truth progressively slips from people's ability to grasp rationally, regressing back to amphibians breathing deceit through specially grown gills .. if it makes sense, discard it .. dangerous, Jews are not our problem, Palestinians are, just because we are not sure that covid is ordinary flu virus it doesn't mean that it won't kill tens of millions (much worse than Spanish flu which only killed between 25 and 39 million) and if you quote actual dead (0.9 million per WHO) you are a Denier.

Believe 100% of what you hear and none of what you see, in 1-2 generations people in possession of functioning eyes will be arrested as anti-social deviants (possession of dangerous weapons?).
Etc, et cetera, magna est mendacium et prevalebit.

I was also referring to the Noonday Demon in a nearby thread, which is a term for fear and loathing and depression unto aging process (mis-phrasing Kirkegaard), a crisis of identity that many face at some point.

September 8, 2020 at 3:50 am

<https://www.darkmoon.me/2020/the-noonday-demon-poem/#comment-1006800>
Noonday demon .. (revulsion at) old age 'either never heard before or didn't pay attention.

I think it targets women more than men, just as beauty rewards them more, so in a way, it would be a lament for the mask of beauty of flesh slipping away, like the expiry date nears on perishable groceries.

But that's the way of flesh, from the breaching moment, isn't it, it is only that at some point person starts paying attention to that date .. and that is good, it is meant to be, to start reflecting on what might be the true nature of being.

And maybe at some happy point, the realization dawns that it is entirely ephemeral and that it is one of the big lessons to learn, that chrysalis approaches as well as return to the root format .. that the matter is just a dream byproduct of the creative spirit, a Noonday Joke.

Easy for me to say at 2pm.

And B-hawk, I beg to differ, I think that it is right and proper to refer to Creator as He, He-of-the-Spirit, the Designer (not Designer-person).

Because of this built-in dichotomy, reflected in Christian (and many other, Sumerian, Hindu, Egyptian) scripts,

"conceptus de Spiritu Sancto, natus ex Maria Virgine", from drawing board to machine shop, male principle to female.

Just say no to political correctness .. after Christ, one man had more genuine regard and respect for women than anyone else and that man was Adolph Hitler, who never told a lie.

True that if everything is thrown onto a giant heap and thoroughly mashed, the world becomes IT, what kabalists mockingly refer to as Diversity, which is anything but .. but I beg to differ

Hm, one more thought to put burr under your saddle, LD .. anyone who doesn't commit suicide is driven by will to live .. i.e., the will to get old and enjoy visit of the demon for another noon.

Of course there is always the Faustian bargain of transhumanism .. how much do I pity them, the most tragic losers of all (including some in my own family) .. it may even underwrite the platform of JEWISH RITUAL MURDER AND BLOOD SACRIFICE, I urge everyone to lend an ear to this and ponder the deeper meanings, when the circle of futility closes on itself.

not the lobro i so admired anymore [spouting 'first and best' = transliteration of dutch expr. for 'run of the mill']:

"It was my hope that those afflicted might realize the fleeting nature of material entropy and resulting decomposition while affirming the eternal indestructibility of spirit which with due investment can be enriched and elevated above the mortal sphere."

sorry, but that vauntedly 'indestru.' spirit is but the other half of the half cycle mentioned, raising the mortal sphere enrichingly is the soil deepening is helped along but it's nowhere near time for lift off as our nomad of starry skies aeon has to wait for venus to spin out of her hot zone and take our by then vacated into the frigidity place that perhaps is the euphemizable source of so much cuckIDual crock but it nevr fooled me much.

Lobro, EXACTLY what is your conflict with people you consider to be Jews? Donald is a humble trucker of only a fraction of Jewish blood from his grandfather. But you hate him. Oh really? Donald applauds the fact that such renegades as you and he are even given a forum on Darkmoon. Thanks Toby and Monte Cristo. But please, Lobro, narrow your hatred to individuals who actually deserve it. Gracias. ----- lobro September 21, 2020 at 5:29 am Donald, I'd be glad for the FULL opportunity to explain what EXACTLY is my conflict with people I consider Jews. But this is not the time and place and I have on few occasions (rightly) been called to task for ambushing thread and diverting it from the intended and clearly stated track, even though it was by no means my intent, just a way my habitually off-tangent and meandering mind works. I cannot quickly and superficially answer your question and do it any sort of justice. But I would be more than glad to debate it with you in a dedicated space where everyone else is welcome to pitch in. It would of course be up to the site owners to approve such an exchange and create a steel cage for combat of information, ideas and opinions, nothing personal of course, I have nothing against you and in fact find your way of expressing yourself charming and by no means dumb. But just to get you thinking about the basics, Donald. A Jew at its simplest, most fundamental is a Chosen Being, blessed pre-natally by the mere residence in some Jewesses womb and as such not subject to laws applied to mere cattle such as you might on occasion transport to their 5-star hotel, i.e., slaughterhouse. By Yahweh, who self-promoted to Master of the Universe, Jew's morals (do not kill, steal, lie, adulterate, overcharge interest) apply strictly to his brother Jews and anything he does to the accursed Akum-goyim cannot be considered vice. This is the logical and internally happy matrix that defines Jew. Specifically, any Jew who undergoes bar-mitzvah, a strictly voluntary admission to the next level (automatic sayan/Mossad membership) is someone I systemically hate because he has volunteered in service of evil (worth a look, worth a read). Up to you whether you wish to pursue this topic, cuidate, Donald. BTW: look around here, compay, how many real names do you see? Ask yourself why, you may be an exception, even the site's eponymous owner and everyone else involved in running it is incognito, mask+lockdown. And the same reason why you have no fear is why they are fearful, the initial "J". "To learn who rules over you, simply find out who you are not allowed to criticize." -----

I think that may have been the case lobro. He gave them what they appeared to want, while not quite giving them what they really wanted. They hate him because in the end they don't own him. He can be as supportive of Israel and its bullsh*t as he likes, but they still aren't in charge of him, hence he had to go. Had they been unable to do this, or if it all comes apart and he was declared winner, then I suspect they would go straight to assassination, as that would be all they have left. I think that may have been the case lobro. "Today the six largest banks in America control assets equivalent to more than half the country's GDP and the four largest banks are on average about 80 percent larger today than they were before the bailout. The legislation introduced Wednesday would cap the size of the largest financial institutions so that a company's total exposure is no more than 3 percent of GDP, about $584 billion today. By applying a cap on the size of financial institutions, the bill would break up the six largest banks in the country: JP Morgan Chase,

Bank of America, Citigroup, Wells Fargo, Goldman Sachs and Morgan Stanley. The bill would also address large non-bank financial service companies such as Prudential, MetLife and AIG.

Associate Professor of Economics Fadhel Kaboub believes that economic policy can lift the living standards of millions of people across the world.

Kaboub recently aligned with Sen. Bernie Sanders on a new bill, The STOP Walmart Act, which reduces the ability of large employers to buy back stock unless they pay their employees $15, among other things.

"After seven years of service to this company without being paid a living wage, watching Walmart spend billions on share buybacks is another slap in the face. It's not that Walmart can't get to $15, it's that the corporation would rather reward shareholders like the billionaire Waltons. Walmart associates don't want Walmart charity - we work hard and deserve to be treated with respect, with a living wage and real raises for associates like me. I'm happy to see Senator Sanders and Representative Khanna have our back. It's time for more people in Washington to step up on behalf of working folks," said Kristi Branstetter, a Walmart worker and OUR Walmart member in Missouri.

Kaboub also recently was featured on the Political Vigilante Show with comedian Graham Elwood, where he discussed climate change and how to finance a Green New Deal.

February 26, 2017 Reverse-Engineering the Psycho-Physiology of Writing: The Left Brain Lyres ----- So a reader introduced me to this amazing research. Denise Schmandt-Besserat Professor archaeology has traced writing back to 8,000 BCE origins in tokens. Now at first the tokens represented concepts as amounts of a thing - wheat in particular or olive oil... Then the tokens were used for counting debt - and so the token was stored in a hollow ball as the "envelope" - but just in case the token was lost, etc., then an impression in the envelope was made that fit the token. So then eventually that impression became two-dimensional and then it was transferred from an indentation to being made with a stylus. Finally - a conceptual leap was made - the concept of an item - wheat - was transferred into a generic number. Suddenly you could then have a system of numbers - a circle as ten as a wedge as 1 - and so with six numbers you could count to 33 - instead of making 33 concept tokens. So this original system had absolutely no dependence on local spoken language since it dealt with visual concepts as a "one to one correspondence" but with the emergence of counting then "one" symbol meant the number "ten" and suddenly a sense of efficiency was achieved. We can see how this is very similar to the idea of creating money itself - like the central banks do - and then instantly create debt out of nothing, with private accumulated interest. Michael C. Hudson has a series of books on the ancient economics of this time - the Jubilee cancellation of debt included the debt of food, and personal debts owed to government - but not big business loans. haha. So then when the system of writing is transferred to being phonetic then a spoken word that sounds the same as a conceptual symbol can be transferred based on "circumstantial evidence." And the verb is also inferred. Now think about it - suddenly writing is tied to how a person pronounces a word - and this suddenly slows the whole system down. For example speed reading is based on conceptual analysis - it's not based on sounded out words. But most people read at the level of the sound of words. So a person will often insist a word is pronounced as "such and such" and so I just readily agree with them - knowing that another person would be just as insistent it is pronounced otherwise. Because that level of meaning is still at the lower level of assigning conceptual value to the actual sounds of the words. We have three levels of logic going on --1} we have abstract counting whereby

Noam Chomsky insists humans are special since we have "discrete" infinity based on syntax symbols. ==2} We then have a transfer of those discrete symbols to mean "more than one" object (so a symbol now means ten objects but no object in particular). So now a symbol is just abstract amount as a concept - freed from any particular thing. ===3} Third we have the sound associated with an object now being mimicked by the previous attempt to visualize the object as a symbol. So then similar sounds are assigned to the same visual object with the meaning then inferred based on circumstantial evidence. It just so happens I can relate to these "developments" well since I worked for 2 years with coworkers who spoke no English and yet one of them spoke Chinese and the others spoke Spanish - and so I had to be a go-between as I learned some Chinese words on my own. So then I began using hand-gestures and quickly we created a new common language among the three of use of hand-gestures. So you can see the reversal here how a particular sound associated with an object is transferred back to a visual symbol that is "impressed" into the hands - such that no sound is no longer need. And since the second person never knew the original sound and the first person doesn't know the sound of the second person - then suddenly you have just a pure visual system of communication. But that new visual sign has to be "freed" from the context of its sound meaning - as a ====4} level of meaning. This explains why the Egyptian script was instantaneously phonetic. It also explains why the Egyptians never borrowed Sumerian signs. Their repertory consisted of hieroglyphs representing items familiar in the Egyptian culture that evoked sounds in their own tongue. So the Egyptians realized what the Sumerians were up to and immediately began imitating visual symbols that had the same sounds as peoples' names - creating an instant phonetic language. But closer cultures with closer physical exchange of physical items then adopted the Sumerian sounds for those visual symbols. In other words the closer physical contact cultures just whole-scale imported the Sumerian phonetic language and began using it. many Near Eastern cultures who adapted it to their different linguistic families and in particular, Semitic (Akkadians and Eblaites); Indo-European (Mitanni, Hittites, and Persians); Caucasian (Hurrians and Urartians); and finally, Elamite and Kassite. It is likely that Linear A and B, the phonetic scripts of Crete and mainland Greece, c. 1400-1200 BC, were also influenced by the Near East. So then similar to Mandarin in China - the Sumerian symbols were known based on the original Sumerian language sound but then translated into the local language sound and slowly the local language sound took over the Sumerian meaning. So then the final phase was to take what previously had been syllable sounds of consonants and vowels and to break them down to 22 sounds on a smaller yet more flexible scale. A single sound of the voice with a letter of the alphabet. It reminds me of Rick Ross, the CIA-supplied huge cocaine dealer who was doing 1 million dollars a day in business - 100 kilos of cocaine - but he could not read at all. When he got busted (and the CIA drug dealers were paid by the government to bust Rick Ross).... then finally Rick Ross taught himself to read. He was in his 20s - I think 28 years old? So even though he had made a billion dollars selling CIA-supplied cocaine to the African-Americans in the U.S., creating a health crisis and a prison crisis, he still needed to learn his alphabet sounds - to memorize those letters. Which brings me to the point again that visual conceptual knowledge is a much faster frequency - the language of light information. For example how exactly does the pineal gland transduce electromagnetic signals into language in the brain? It is quite fascinating to be sure! Unless a person opens up their third eye they would never know that this is even just possible. Sure we use electronic signal technology all the time - but we don't realize that our own brains also work naturally from the free energy electrical signals of the Universe. haha. We don't realize that those signals can be transmitted from the future and can also change the past! And so that means there is a 5th dimension of space as "noncommutative phase-shift" - a much deeper origin of light signals from sound energy itself - phonon as logical inference of spacetime. So for example when you fall asleep and spacetime "disappears" and you dream - and then you wake up but you suddenly forget your dream - as Zhuang Zu - Chuang Tzu pointed out - how do you know you're not dreaming right now while you're awake? What if your dream is more real than being awake? Suddenly then waking reality with "sounds" as the meaning of "words" as visual symbols starts to being to get fuzzy. Try this - try to write down language in your dream - or even read written words! Language as written symbols is so left brain dominant that it is very difficult to write and read words while dreaming since dreaming is so right brain dominant.

THIS IS WHERE THE AUDED PART 4, PICKS UP [the last 3 minutes worth of Drew]:

So I get into this mystery in my "Alchemy of Rainbow-Heart Music" book - Dr. Leonard Schlain wrote his "The Alphabet and the Goddess" book arguing that cultures when more right-brain dominant were more holistic with a better understanding of their emotions and so more civilized and peaceful. I argued we can see this with the spread of anti-semitism in Europe - when European "tribes" or "nations" based on spoken language then "learned" German - under the Austrian empire for example - suddenly these newly left-brain dominant written-language based "nations" were very suspicious of semitic culture that had its own "secret" language that was able to "maintain" itself consistently for thousands of years. haha. ----- So now neuroscience has proven that left-brain dominant spoken language will readily "lie" about the perceived reality of right-brain culture. As I detailed in my book - the "Lyre" was the instrument used as a music tool to memorize - in waking theta-brain dominant "dream" trance long historical poems - that did not Lie! haha. ----- For example the Australian Aborigines are documented to maintain accurate "myths" that depict physical acts of geology from over ten thousand years ago!! From the late ice age!! They rely on "song-lines" to memorize these concepts. We now that a person has two brains such that if they have a stroke and can not speak they can still convey the same concepts and meaning by singing. I remember my minister giving a sermon about if people can have the same sophisticated concepts of meaning even if they don't know the words to represent those concepts! haha. It is kind of a brain twister. But yes of course they can - unless the concepts are such artificial constructs of civilization. so for example once Rick Ross taught himself to read he used his smarts to dig into research to discover the phrase: "consistent criminal spree." That phrase freed him from a life sentence! He realized the concept - he had been convicted based on three strikes as if he had committed three different crimes but in fact he had been running a consistent criminal spree. When he had been arrested he could not read at all why he had been arrested - but now he could free himself just because he could read. He wasn't any "smarter" - he was very smart before hand - but he just had a different kind of smarts. haha. He was "educated." And so my friend from Ghana who introduced me to her friend Keith Ellison (yes the same whom I helped get elected by doing data entry all night while in full lotus position) - she said to me she didn't trust English as a language. Why? English has the most words of any language and because of that it is the most easiest to lie with - we can say the irony of the Lyre as music used to memorize concepts is that the right brain does not lie!! The left brain lies. Or should I say - the Left Brain Lyres!

Ian Penman reviews 'The Age of Bowie' by Paul Morley, 'On Bowie' by Rob Sheffield, 'On Bowie' by Simon Critchley and 'Shock and Awe' by Simon Reynolds Â· LRB 5 January 2017
<http://www.lrb.co.uk/v39/n01/ian-penman/wham-bang-teatime> Station to Station, which Bowie released in January 1976, came complete with glancing references to the esoteric teachings of Kabbalah (Here we are: one magical movement, from Kether to Malkuth) and Crowley's obscure (but unobscurely sexual) poetry collection of 1898, White Stains. (Kether to Malkuth represents the A to Z, so to speak, of the Kabbalistic Tree of Life, which Bowie can be seen drawing in outtakes from a photoshoot included on the 1999 CD reissue of Station to Station.) The album was just under forty minutes long, with three songs per side and a subtle, striking, modernist sleeve - white space, black sound baffles and a red tickertape of words along the top. Red, white and black, a colour chart of his alleged diet at the time: cocaine and milk, raw red peppers and the printed word. In later years, Bowie hinted that Station to Station was some kind of codified ceremony drawn in sound (It's the nearest album to a magical treatise that I've written). It's true about his return to England, in an open-backed Mercedes emerging from Victoria railway station giving a slope-arm salute to his fans, which he later explained was intended ironically, even self-mockingly...

Ryan Dawson - 5 years ago: The US war in Vietnam wasn't about communism. They were losing 20 helicopters a week. You have to look at all the intervention in central America which was also justified by fighting communism was complete bullshit and so was Vietnam. In Cambodia Khmer Rouge fell right after the Vietnam War ended.

Lamprey Milt: US culture has had a positive influence, that all fell apart because of the Wars. Israel wouldn't exist without the US which would be great, there would be peace in the Middle East. There would not be a North Korea either. The Soviets were a US ally. There wouldn't have been a USSR or communist China either if the US had sided with Japan and Germany rather than the communist and Rothschilds.

Ashkenazi Jews as a NAME originate from the Babylonian name for Scythians! 7th Century BCE DNA analysis proof Dr. Eran Elhaik is now questioned

So he's saying that Iranian Jewish Rabbis most like CONVERTED the "God-fearing" people of the region of Khazars - to create the Ashkenazi Jews. (vid) Amazing.
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=S7zweg67v4>

<https://phys.org/news/2013-01-european-jewish-population.html>

Dr Elhaik writes, "The most parsimonious explanation for our findings is that Eastern European Jews are of Judeo-Khazarian ancestry forged over many centuries in the Caucasus. Jewish presence in the Caucasus and later Khazaria was recorded as early as the late centuries BCE and reinforced due to the increase in trade along the Silk Road, the decline of Judah (1st-7th centuries), and the rise of Christianity and Islam. Greco-Roman and Mesopotamian Jews gravitating toward Khazaria were also common in the early centuries and their migrations were intensified following the Khazars' conversion to Judaismâ€¦ The religious conversion of the Khazars encompassed most of the Empire's citizens and subordinate tribes and lasted for the next 400 years until the invasion of the Mongols. At the final collapse of their empire in the 13th century, many of the Judeo-Khazars fled to Eastern Europe and later migrated to Central Europe and admixed with the neighbouring populations."

You'll find solid proof of Israel's underground movements in two dynamic and criminally undersung documents: David Massey's 2002 anthology It's All Lies: The Fusion of Resistance and Creativity in Israel,

Leaflets, Underground Press and Posters and Liz

Massey's oversized, spiral-bound 100-page collection spans from pioneering early-70s groups like the Israeli Socialist Organization and the cleverly named Sephardic org The Black Panthers through to the many draft resistance, anti-cop, and anti-capitalist crews that established themselves throughout the 80s and 90s. It includes a CD's worth of Israeli punk bands from the early-90s Left Bank scene, including Dir Yassin and the Astroglides. Meanwhile, Nord's 75-minute feature picks up the chronicling from the late-90s onward, including performances and interviews with punk bands ranging from the more well-known Useless ID to the more militant Nikmat Olalim, the all-female Va'adat Kishut, and even the rightist Retribution. Along with the great live footage, Jericho's Echo features insightful interviews with scene figures who recount everything from getting psychiatric deferments from Israel's mandatory army service to simply getting by in the country's cities and towns. Both the book and the film show evidence of an important yet little-known politico-cultural temperament in Israel, one of the most highly criticized and misunderstood countries in the world.

April 23, 2020: On a recent podcast Molly Klein and Michael Petrucelli and I were discussing House of Cards. And I noted the opening sequence in which Washington DC is viewed without people. A world defined without us. Continuity is now nearly entirely made up of screen images and information that no matter the disconnectedness of the ideas is viewed as a representation of reality. Only reality has shrivelled in importance. Its lack of conventional continuity passes without comment. The new continuity is a new digital magic thinking. But it is one of absolute disenchantment. The aesthetics of the screen reality is as dead as the emotional inner life of the subject. It is also the mirror, or prism, really, through which the desires of the ruling class can be viewed.

thenewinquiry -- anarcblr

"The mystifying ideological claim that looting is violent and non-political is one that has been carefully produced by the ruling class because it is precisely the violent maintenance of property which is both the basis and end of their power. Looting is extremely dangerous to the rich (and most white people) because it reveals, with an immediacy that has to be moralized away, that the idea of private property is just that: an idea, a tenuous and contingent structure of consent, backed up by the lethal force of the state. When rioters take territory and loot, they are revealing precisely how, in a space without cops, property relations can be destroyed and things can be had for free.

'Cops exist so people can't loot, i.e. have nice things for free, so idk why it's so confusing that people loot when they protest against cops'. Only if you believe that having nice things for free is amoral, if you believe, in short, that the current (white-supremacist, settler-colonialist) regime of property is just, can you believe that looting is amoral in itself.

Modern American police forces evolved out of fugitive slave patrols, working to literally keep property from escaping its owners.

The history of the police in America is the history of black people being violently prevented from threatening white people's property rights. When, in the midst of an anti-police protest movement, people loot, they aren't acting non-politically, they aren't distracting from the issue of police violence and domination, nor are they fanning the flames of an always-already racist media discourse. Instead, they are getting straight to the heart of the problem of the police, property, and white supremacy."

This is Indigenous Land -- If you're going to acknowledge the land, you need to actively defend it. If you're defending the land, you also need to acknowledge it.

Settlers: when your feet hit the pavement, earth or dirt know you're crossing old Indigenous footpaths, village sites, ossuaries, sacred places, hunting grounds, medicinal gathering places, and burial grounds. Know that the place your house sits or car rests or workplace is, is a site of Indigenous knowledge and history. Know that every pipeline, every industrial project, every state infrastructure project disrupts these sites and erases that history. Every time the colonial courts lay an injunction against Indigenous people it is an attack, and a continuation of colonization and imperialism. Every time colonial courts force Indigenous people to use that same colonial system it's a continuation of colonization. Know that the installation of band councils by the state was a violent and resisted act. Know that every time the crown or corporations consults and signs contracts with band councils it is a continuation of colonization and erasure of Indigenous ways - and every time you as an individual say that consultation is enough, you are the problem too.

14. DOES WHITNEY WEBB KNOW SKULL & BONES JOHN

KERRY & FRED SMITH? --- 4,117 views -- Dec 17 -- Brendon O'Connell II
3.77K subscribers

1. I stay in Khansar, Iran, with friends of the foreign minister Zarif. Zarif is a long time friend of John Kerry. They are deep in with Swiss banking who keep Iran alive with plane loads of Euro's. These Swiss banks channel drug money into ISIS - to break up the M.E for the benefit of Israel and the Belt & Road Plan.

2. Millionaire publisher of Iranian US based "Mint Press News" - Odeh Muhawesh - trained under the original students of Ayatollah Khomeini. There are strong links to Iranian foreign minister Zarif who is a regular attendee at Chatham House, Royal Institute of International Affairs (pure Rothschild) with John Kerry.

3. Mint Press News will not expose Russian close ties with Israel - especially Russian GRU/SVU long term penetration of Israel.

4. Whitney Webb turns up to save the day on Israel and espionage. She hangs with white nationalist types, loons and half wits. Ignores Brendon O'Connell who was courted by high level US intelligence operative Fred Smith, Skull & Bones - best friend of John Kerry and George W. Bush. O'Connell has an incredible story, fully documented. A true, NON RACIST, political dissident who was named by the Israeli state and the entire Australian parliament with the biggest espionage case in history...dissident journalist Whitney Webb is uninterested.

5. Whitney Webb is promoted by intelligence asset Joe Rogan and Alex Jones via a HUGE 25 million view pod cast.
24. DID ROGER STONE NAME "MICROSOFT ISRAEL" AS THE CULPRIT BEHIND DOMINION VOTE RIGGING? (3.25 in)
<https://www.brighteon.com/835ea451-2a...>

6. Whitney Webb appears on white nationalist you tube channel Adam Green (Know More News), who's girlfriend is in images hanging with friends of Joe Rogan. Adam Green is heavily promoted by Alex Jones, his sworn enemy. The same network that promotes Whitney Webb.

7. Adam Green goes to Rome with his yoga instructor girlfriend. At the same time Steve Bannon is in Rome, allegedly meeting with Russian GRU asset Alexander Dugin.

8. Adam Green goes to Israel - despite being the sworn enemy of said state. While 19 year old Jewish females are grabbed roughly at Ben Gurion airport and accused of belonging to BDS, then deported, Adam Green and Mormon Jake Morphoneus (researcher for W.Bush and Ron Paul campaigns) roam around town happily taking in the sights.

9. Skull & Bones Fred Smith - long term friend of John Kerry and high level US intelligence asset - sends his nephew Joseph Davies to be friends with Brendon O'Connell. Keep him online. Introduce him to Adam Green, Greg McCarron, Jeremy Rothe Kushell, and a host of w.n personalities. Despite screaming repeatedly to STOP pushing w.n people onto him....they all keep doing it.

10. Despite all of that group knowing who Fred Smith is and Joseph Davies, NONE of them have let out a squeak about their association with him.

11. Jeremy Roth Kushel, rushes to Whitney Webb's side to comfort her as I suggest she is no "independent journalist". I produce strong evidence that she is clearly part of a large planted intelligence network with former NATO/MARINE psyche warfare officer Robert David Steele at the head.

12. Mr Steele works with George Webb. No one knows if he is related to Whitney Webb. Steele praises George Webb and works closely with him. Jason Goodman exposes the truth behind Robert Steele and his friend Roger Stone. Stone is close friends with MARINE General Jim Jones, owner of "Dynology", a privatized Army Intelligence data analytics company.

13. 911 researcher Danial Hopsicker exposes Whitney Webb and Mint Press News as a clear intelligence operation. George Webb convinced Hopsicker to take down the two part expose (Paint It Mint) and does a video with Hopsicker. That video disappears offline. In the video, Webb explains to Hopsicker that Whitney Webb's book publisher is also Hopsicker's publisher. Hopsicker is a hard core anti-Trump self admitted leftist. Part II of "Paint It Mint" is completely removed even from archive sources. Hopsicker refuses to make a formal retraction of allegations against Whitney Webb and Mint Press News. It's all just "disappeared".

No one makes the connection between Steele, Stone, Webb & General Jim Jones and "Dynology". No one then makes the connection between that group and Whitney Webb, Mint Press News AND...Senator John Kerry and Iranian foreign minister Zarif and Fred Smith, Yale Skull & Bones and Joseph Davies.

-Striker is autistic as fuck and he gets more facts wrong than just about anybody else i've ever seen. It's quite impressive how dumb he can be. People calling him a "strasserite" or a "marxist" are pretty dumb because he's just a nazi who larps as a nazbol. That being said I appreciate his journalistic work and his tweets can be pretty entertaining.

mongler replies: Yeah, I'm honest to God surprised Striker's grasp of history is weak for a man who professes to be a pro-White populist. On a very recent episode of Strike & Mike, he unironically claimed Robert Kennedy was killed because he was opposed to Israel. Does he not get Sirhan Sirhan's motivations? Did he confuse JFK with RFK? This is far from the only time he's played fast and loose with facts, and it seems to be a consistent problem with TRS. When it comes to information, it's always important to do your own research than just blindly trust what they're saying especially since even prepped shows like FTN feel off the cuff. I know

Mike likes to dismiss corrections as accusations of lying, but after awhile, continuing to plug along as they have reflects poorly on the quality of show especially since they're less entertainment-oriented as they used to be.

Perhaps I'm in the minority, but I like Miles as a co-host on Third Rail especially when he does impressions. Borzoi and DK are great hosts, but I am supremely annoyed by Nike who's becoming a regular fixture on the show. Just something about his voice grates on my nerves and his comments / contributions are always dogshit.

'Ash Gasseem' seems to make sense ...

It's a lot easier to figure out what's really going on once you identify the intelligence agents salting the racist polemics. Text here:

12:10 ::: with practice and a keen eye for detail you'll soon be learning more from the disinfo than the authentic intel mostly because there's a lot more noise than signal but you must avoid falling into the traps what i call the rabbit holes the biggest of which is racism in any form the most powerful forces promoting ethnic cleansing are spook driven manufactured to assist the war for profit scenarios with their divide and conquer propaganda something always easily identified here's my advice avoid any variation on the rabbit holes resembling communists are running the world jews are running the world satanists are running the world the aliens are running the world or the cia created the hippies

when attempting history one must go back beyond the obvious [actual] birthright derived kneejerkey, then past the imagined varieties, .. but do not stop there. Next your challenge and task is to get past varied states of anthropocentrism that cloud the clear and the hardest descent isn't even really in sight yet at that stage, no matter how closely related. Take a guess before continuing.

Anthropomorphicization ain't 'over' until you climb down past the Viconian ladder [1725 'New Science'] into more selfless and from the hominid perspective precorporate but overall more accurately tagged 'microcorporate' stages of being, .. a mere afterglow of which we seem to collectively threaten each other to become by the way# .. with notable exceptions, collections of which i made, many of which i consider syrian girl and myself to be part. One does not reach the planes of purified thought, moral, ethic and a truly grounding baseline before getting there nor will you grow a worthwhile history, ripe for consumption, until then/there. Bon voyage.

Halsey's bottom line jetstripfloats [sorry] enforcing value destruction to be snapped up on the cheap and to crank production up for come to mind btw, ... and are akin to / fully in line with the mininukes deals Biden is involved with pushing on the Belted Roadies .. to fuel fracking [George Webb the metadata guy]. Perhaps it's in response to that we have seen a sustained Wuhanwood false flag exercise gone live larp, long enough to 'inmeme' all of the west and beyond effectively. Mostly cause it gave sinozio brethren in spirit [covert and/or kneejerk converts] wet dream powers over the parts of their world [about which] they like to pretend [and faux monnaier] they can [finally punish and 'get back' to] degrade into minions

2. Repetición de ciclos. Cada civilización avanza en una serie de etapas, que de manera general, serán las mismas para el resto. El avance se llama "corsi" y el retroceso "ricorsi".

El avance o "corsi" se produce en las siguientes etapas:

1. Divina. Regida por una teocracia.
2. Heroica. Regida por la fuerza de los más capaces.
3. Humana. Regida por la filosofía y la razón.

Una vez llegados a este punto, se produce el retroceso o "ricorsi", volviéndose a la barbarización.

Can we think on white kinship in the discourse of recovery and redemption in antifascism today? At times I feel deterred by the repressive whitelash my comrades have received at trying to raise this issue in anything but the most theoretical and abstracted terms, but we will try. Their (our- an idea I will avoid in that avoidance-as-protecting our fragile souls sort of way) repression is perhaps as good an illustration as any. To raise the issue of white kinship. To be immediately called a nazi! How does this make sense? Can you see kinship at work? He says: White kinship makes the white antifascist unable to assess investment in and desire for the white nation-- the white world! They respond: Then you yourself are the Nazi! The trope of "reverse racism" is easy to spot, but can you see kinship at work? Kinship. Being within the "sanctified universe of obligation- that circle of people with reciprocal obligations to protect each other whose bonds arouse from their relation to... a sacred source of authority" (Wynter). What makes one welcome into this circle of people? Kinship. It is why the Iron Marcher, the AWD terrorist, and the CVE grifter are all temporary tropes met with the offer of reciprocity: "We are here for you when you are prepared to leave." For the outsider who does not wish to join the circle of white kinship, or who cannot..... there is no parallel offer. You have /nowhere to go/. You are not the fascist nor the Nazi. You do not wish to be bound by this kinship. You exist outside the boundaries of the sanctified universe of obligation, out there with the Nazi and the fascist, with /nowhere to go/. The Nazi and the fascist, in fact, are far more redeemable than you because in kinship they can always be brought back into reciprocity. "Trade us information," the white antifascist says, "for reentry into the world of reciprocal obligation." There is no parallel offer for you.

33m mark marks the end of the schlowmow twirl skwurl .. and it reminds me of shakespeare calling the type of lovemaking that delays delivery .. arrests development .. etc, usurious. But what referent is up to is upping profit from attrition, upping the 'use up' of death machinery which i will not dignify with descriptions like 'raising metabolic rates' without pointing to the proper end of the spectrum where THAT is plus, .. where the "liddul bitty" things live [not generally off of monitors one smashes to that size btw]. sinozoids are good at leveling battle fields and sparking set offs. Things down there are waaaay more "scalably democratizable" and distributable than giving the grainery a spin.

How much longer will the US still be able to print dollars and not sink? --- RUSSTRAT Institute, Stalker Zone, Dec 28 2020

On the Internet, under the news about the approval in Congress of a new package of financial assistance to the American economy suffering from the consequences of the coronavirus epidemic and Trump's intention to veto it, I came across an ironic comment. To paraphrase: now the experts will come again and for a second time begin to talk about the imminent collapse of the US dollar, scheduled almost for tomorrow last part:

To preserve the already contracted payments to current pensioners, the funds are forced to start gradually eating up the fixed capital. This will last for about 7-8 years. Moreover, the termination of the acceptance of new contracts will take place around 2024-2025. The Congressional Budget Office has released a report on the results of an analysis of the prospects for public debt, taking into account all these points. According to it, it turns out that America does not have "another quarter of a century." The milestone for the beginning of a dollar default is approximately 2028-2029. Although outwardly, I must admit, everything will look beautiful. At least, judging by the continuous growth of the stock market capitalisation.
